WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1858.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The State Temperance Convention was held at Exeter, Oct. 20, 1858, in the First Baptist Church, where were assembled clergymen of the Baptist, Congregational, and other churches. The corresponding Secretary of the State Temperance Committee read the following Report.

Mr. President, Brethren and Sisters:—

It is my duty, as Secretary of the State Temperance Committee, to give a brief account of what we have done, or tried to do in promoting temperance during the past year.

It is a pleasant task to do this, not to the skeleton of a State Temperance Society, but to a living body, whose members are the ministers of one church, fraternally worshipping in the annual convention of another body of ministers and christians, who in their joint capacity are now considering the important question, Am I my brother's keeper? Is it any of my business whether men live sober or die drunkards—whether they partake of the cup of the Lord or the cup of devils?

A State Convention held at Manchester last December, thought it was our business, and accordingly drew up a Plan of Action, and chose a Committee of 12 to carry it out. This committee was afterward enlarged to 18.

The State Committee held its principal Meeting, which was quite a full one, at Concord, Jan. 6, 1858, and drew up a temperance circular, which was printed and circulated in the State, to known temperance men in each County. Several copies of it are here for distribution, and ministers and other persons who wish to understand our mode of action, are desired to take a copy each.

The State Committee understand themselves to be a body organized chiefly for the purpose of keeping up a correspondence and concert of action between the working friends of temperance in all parts of the State.

And we said in our Circular, that

The State Committee are happy to know that there are County Societies, or organizations for temperance in two Counties—Sullivan and Merrimac. And they hope and recommend that similar societies be organized in all the other Counties and Districts,—each County or smaller division bearing its own expenses, having its own officers, and pursuing its object, the promotion of temperance, in its own way.

We afterwards learned that there was also a County Washingtonian Society in Cheshire County, which has held its 15th Annual Meeting, is living, and not likely to die soon.

A Rockingham County Temperance Society was formed at Raymond, Feb. 22, 1858—and this Society will meet next February, at South Newmarket, on Washington's Birth Day, which is to be the time of Annual Meeting.

This County Society at its formation, divided Rockingham County into 4 districts, in each of which something has been done for the cause, in the way of lectures, &c.

In our plan of action, we read

The County or District Chairman and the Members of the State Committee are requested to visit conferences, conventions or associations of the different religious societies in their respective Counties, and endeavor to enlist all christians and good citizens, in the work of doing what we can to stem and turn back the tide of intemperance.

In pursuance of this request,—members of our committee visited the Rockingham Conference of Congregational Churches at Raymond, the Rockingham Association of Universalists at Kingston, and the General Association of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers in New Hampshire at Hampton,—we had a favorable hearing in all,—and in the latter were gratified by the passage of some resolutions to this purport, viz. That it is the duty of Christian Men, and Women, and Ministers, and Churches, to take care of the cause of temperance, and if possible, to dry up some of the sources of intemperance, whence flow poverty, degradation, misery, and ruin.

On a similar errand we come here to-day, not to address you as a foreign body, but as members of the body of Christ, and of one another, entreating you to remember the poor drunkard in his worst of bonds, as if you were bound with him—to remember his wife, worse than a widow—his children, worse than fatherless.

As to lectures and lecturers: the State Committee have no funds to employ them;—but Mr. Sinclair, an eminent Scotch lecturer, has lectured in all the towns in Portsmouth District, from Newington to Hamptonfalls—also in Chester, Manchester, Keene, and some other places.

We have also commissioned Mr. John F. Gerald, as State Temperance Lecturer, who is willing to go, and does go, to our towns and places, small or large, and pledge men, and get up societies,—asking only that he shall have free houses and his board free—trusting to collections at each meeting for his further compensation. He has labored in Sullivan County, whence he comes well recommended—and he is now laboring in this vicinity. He may be addressed by letter, at Epping. We deem him a useful, safe man, who may do much good, and hope he will be so employed that he can do it.

The Rockingham County Committee last spring requested the ministers within their limits, to preach fast day sermons on temperance. We believe they generally did so. In Portsmouth we know they did, without exception.

As to funds, I said we had none for lecturers—but the Convention at Manchester did raise $10 by a collection on the spot, to print and circulate their circular which lies before you. The actual cost of this was $7, leaving $3 in my hands, which I have since spent at least twice over, in circulars, extra papers, and postages for a somewhat laborious correspondence.

Thus briefly appears what we have tried to do. Now you may say, What have you done? what has anybody done? what has been done?

To this I answer in a word—if we depended on what men do or have done, flesh and my heart would fail when we see men in high places and low, conspiring to ruin themselves and their families, when we hear the crash of glass and the cry of murder in our streets at midnight, when we see the women and children flee in the darkness, and when we stand and look on the dead body of a man killed by a drunken wrestle with his friend, and on the sadder sight of a woman who but yesterday was full of life and hope, but who to-day lies a blessing corpse, shot down by a man who, but for the bottle in his bosom, would sooner have killed himself than her.

I say, did we trust in man alone, our heart would fail—but God is the strength of our heart and our portion forever!—He has done something for us during the past year—and though the evils I have sketched are no fiction nor fancy, but only a few facts out of many—yet temperance has gained in New Hampshire during the last year.

Convictions for breaches of the law have been had in every county, and fines have been paid in all. The law does less good than many of its friends hoped for. It does less good than many of its enemies feared. Yet still they are afraid of it, and many of them ashamed of their drinking and selling—though some seem lost to shame. It is a great point gained to have a bad business outlawed and made a crime, even though sentence be not speedily executed.

Mr. Sinclair's efforts in Portsmouth led to the formation of a Mutual Improvement Temperance Society, of 150 or so, of men and women, young and old, mostly Scotch and English, who are doing good. His visit also led to the foundation of Bands of Hope in many societies and Sunday schools. The religious reformation of the past year has given us moral strength, and we hope will give us yet more.

We do not forget however, that intemperance is a habit—and that temperance is a habit also; and habits are not the work of one year merely. Look back forty years, my elder brethren, as I would if I had time. Our American people then were just about as sober as our Irish emigrants are now! That's what we were! What are we now? How greatly improved!—Who has made the change? I answer,—Under God, who rules, men who have toiled and talked for temperance.

Some one will say, John Hawkins made it, the Washingtonian, who talked temperance, was a good pious Methodist, and died poor. Yes, true, peace and blessing on his memory. But who waked up John Hawkins? Jacob Knapp, the revivalist, preached a rousing sermon, and stirred up the dormant manhood in John Hawkins—and you know the rest.

But Beecher and Edwards and Hewitt and Stowe and others, began long before that—of them I cannot speak now and here, any farther than to say, while temperance is not all of Christian life, it is yet a very important part of it—and Christians should take care of it. These men did it—and we can do it, you can do it.

And though obstacles, great and formidable, lie before us, as the Red Sea lay before Israel—yet when at the word of God we go forward, the sea will divide and we shall pass over dry shod.

Bacon says beautifully, "He that robs in darkness breaks God's lock."

ARREST OF ASTROLOGERS AND FORTUNE TELLERS.—By order of Mayor Tismon, a dozen Astrologers and Fortune Tellers have recently been arrested in New York. The Tribune contains an account of the visits of the officers to the various houses occupied by the accused. Some had richly furnished apartments, while other were in the lowest sections of the city. One woman, Madame Brewster, was very candid after her arrest, and admitted that her professions were all humbug. "The fools," she said, "were not all dead." She had found that out, and no matter how humbugs were exposed, the fools would continue as numerous as ever. The ticket swindlers and all other operators had their turn, and she thought the fortune tellers might as well come in for a share of such patronage. She was also a spiritualist, and spiritualism she said was all humbug; she had done many wonderful things, but it was all electricity, and not by any aid from spirits.

CATHOLIC CHURCH BURNT.—On Monday afternoon, at about 2 1-2 o'clock, fire was discovered in the steeple of the large white Catholic Church on Cabot street, Roxbury, Mass. The church was a building capable of seating one thousand persons, was built of wood, had a large vestry beneath, capable of holding four or five hundred, and in front was a steeple and spire, rising to the height of 160 feet. The church was known as St. Francis de Sales, and was under the pastoral care of Fathers O'Beirne and Delahanty. It had been built about twelve years, originally belonged to the Free Will Baptists, but was sold by them to the Catholics six years since. The church and organ were totally destroyed, the loss being about $12,000, and the insurance was but about $9000 in the Mechanics' Mutual, and the Roxbury Fire offices. The only thing saved was a children's library of about 250 volumes. Several other buildings were burnt.

☞ Bishop O'Conner, of Pittsburg, has been doing a very sensible thing in his ecclesiastical jurisdiction. He has not only issued a series of regulations to be observed at funerals, but is personally looking to their enforcement, whereby the unnecessary expense and delays at Catholic funerals are done away with. He no case do these regulations permit more carriages than are required for the immediate relatives. All others attending the funeral must go on foot from the house to the church, and are considered dismissed when the obsequies are performed.

☞ The Moslem pilgrimages to Mecca and Medina are a prodigious physical as well as moral nuisance. Of the two hundred thousand devotees of the present year, says the Paris correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, one third have perished by maladies, not epidemic, but simply incident to their observances and modes of living during their sojourn in the holy cities. The appearance of such of the survivors as returned by Egypt, is described in letters from Alexandria as wretched in the extreme.

INSTRUCTIONS BY A KENTUCKY JUDGE.—In the Franklin Circuit Court, Ky., Wash. Evelyn has been convicted of killing Dan. McCurdy, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. In noticing the case, the Frankfort Yeoman remarks:

"Judge Nattail instructed the jury that if they believed the prisoner was sufficiently drunk at the time the offence was committed as not to know what he was doing, they were to find him not guilty. The substance of the instruction was about this: If it appeared that a man intended to commit crime before he got drunk, and committed it in a state of intoxication, his drunkenness was no excuse or palliation of the offence; but if, without having determined to perpetrate a crime, he became to drunk to know what he was about, and in this case committed murder, he could not be held guilty."

☞ The New York Herald predicts a crushing defeat of the Democracy of New York, in November. It says that a union of the two wings of the Democracy on the basis of Mr. Buchanan's administration is a delusion and a snare—that the office holders, seeing that the administration cannot be continued beyond 1860, are in league with Douglas; and that the work which was not done in Pennsylvania will be done in New York in our November election, or their is no truth in the overshadowing facts, developments and signs of the times.

☞ Hume, the mesmeriser, figures as one of the lions in the Russian salons.—He wears a fantastic dress and a Scotch cap and feather, which he never takes off in any saloon—there is magic in it. The famous match between him and a rich countess is not to take place, the lady's father refusing to give her to any man without a pedigree.

TEMPERANCE.—At the recent Conference of the Sullivan County Churches, encouraging reports were made respecting the progress of temperance.—The remark, at the close of the account of the meeting, was made "that the great want now is, men in official positions as Solicitors, jurors, witnesses, selectmen, that will as readily aid in detecting criminals under this law, the law for the suppression of intemperance, as under any other."

SWEET FERN.—It is stated in the Maine Farmer that a premium was awarded, at the State Fair, for calf skin, tanned by the use of sweet fern. If it is true that this hitherto useless shrub which abounds so in our pastures, can thus be applied to a beneficial purpose, a tremendous saving will be made by the operation. The skins were tanned in one week, and had the appearance of the best French calf-skin.

☞ One George Watson, hailing from this State, has been taken up in a dance house in New Bedford, for stealing a horse in Providence. The Providence Tribune calls him "a New Hampshire operator in live stock, about 25 years old and a graduate of one State Prison, with fair prospects of admission to another."

☞ In New London, N. H., Miss Davis, a teacher in one of the schools there, committed suicide, a few weeks ago, by drowning herself in Pleasant Pond. She left her boarding house after all had retired at night, and committed the awful deed. She was greatly beloved by that community. Insanity, brought on by religious excitement, is said to be the cause.

☞ At Reading, Pa., on Friday, the judges of the election, finding on count of the votes that Glancy Jones was defeated, resolved to throw one ward of Reading out of the count, and thereby give the certificate to him. But the people gathered about the door, and the excitement growing intense, the judges thought it prudent to make a true return, and gave Major Schwartz the certificate.

☞ The flash saloons and gambling hells of Broadway were literally deserted, says the New York Express, for the time being, the swell mob having all gone to the scene of the prize fight. The boxers, the bruisers, the fancy men, &c., were on the wing. $150,000 in the shape of bets were staked on the event.

☞ A short time since, two brothers, residing in South Carolina, a short distance from each other, were afflicted with a cancer, which appeared in both brothers at the same time and in the same eye of each. A few days since, one of the brothers fell dead on the floor of his room, and on the following Monday, the other died in the same manner.

☞ Another murder was committed in Cincinnati on Thursday. The victim was Mr. John L. Mortimer, an esteemed citizen, a native of Baltimore. The murderer was an old Penitentiary convict named Augustus Ward. A quarrel occurred in a grog-shop and Ward stabbed Mr. Mostimer.

☞ The three "nationalities" of Cincinnati are defined by ward lines. At the late election the four contiguous German wards gave 1919 republican majority, the four American wards 1087 republican, and the four Irish wards 1320 democratic.

☞ The new Baptist church at Woonsocket is going up. The Patriot says the height looks too great for the length, and that the spire will increase this apparent defect. It adds—"The house will be modern in style, convenient, comfortable, and capable of holding sound doctrine."

SALERATUS SPRINGS.—A correspondent of the Charlottesville Jeffersonian, writing from the United States camp at Sweet Water, Utah, says:—

This part of our journey is very fatal to cattle, from the alkaline springs and lakes along the road, the water of which is poisonous to animals. We passed, in a march of some twenty miles, to-day, some forty head of cattle lying dead, killed by drinking this water. Quite a lake, called Saleratus Lake, lies on the west of our road.—I went out to see it; the water contains a very large per cent. of salt, and along the shores presents a solid bed of saleratus.

☞ Two of the students of the Sophomore class in Yale College have been expelled for "hazing" Freshmen.

☞ The trial of Mrs. Lydia Studley, for poisoning her husband, in Valley Falls, was commenced before the Supreme Court, Providence, Monday.

John N. Bear, elected to Congress in the 4th district in Pennsylvania, is the "buckeye blacksmith," who became so famous as a stump speaker throughout the log cabin campaign during 1840.

N. P. Willis "hates the build of a trotting sulkey, with a driver looking as if his spine was screwed into the axletree—a man with wheels put to him."

The costume of the Spanish ladies has not changed for two hundred years. They actually wear the same style of dress as their great-grandmothers did.

☞ It is estimated that $150,000 changed hands in Cincinnati, on the result of the late election.

THE TEMPEST.

The sky is changed!—and such a change! O Night,
And Storm and Darkness, ye are wondrous strong,
Yet lovely in your strength, as is the light
Of a dark eye in woman! Far along,
From peak to peak, the rattling crags among Leaps the live Thunder! Not from one cloud,
But every mountain now hath found a tongue,
And Jars answers, through her misty shroud,
Back to the joyous Alps, who call to her aloud!
And this is in the night:—most glorious Night!
Thou wert not sent for slumber! let me be
A sharer in thy fierce and fair delight,—
A portion of the Tempest and of thee!
How the lit lake shines, a phosphoric sea,
And the big rain comes dancing to the Earth!
And now again 'tis black,—and now, the glee
Of the loud Hills shakes with mountain-mirth,
As if they did rejoice o'er a young Earthquake's birth.

Bad Cough, Raising Blood, Night Sweats Cured.

Mr. Artemus Rudder, of Niles, Michigan, writes:

For four months I have been troubled with a very bad cough. I got so bad lately that I have at times raised large quantities of blood, and some pus. This frightened me, for I thought I had the Consumption. Night after night I was bathed in sweat; so that I was, when I came under your treatment, little better than a "withered bud." I commenced the use of the Ready Relief, Renovating Resolvent, and Regulators, which I got from Dr. J. Lawrence, of this place. Rubbed my chest and throat with Ready Relief, took the Resolvent three times per day internally, and from one to three Regulators every night. The first night I took the Relief and Resolvent, I slept in peace. In two weeks I was completely restored, have now a good appetite, and am growing quite fat.

Very truly, ARTEMUS RUDDER.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, in the well known Juniper flavor, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of weather and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NOAH ORDEN IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Berry & Co., Faneuil Hall; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 30 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Deland & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.

IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Black and Finger Worms Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE DESTROYER is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the ne plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the complexion in a healthy state, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years; consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending a company or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H THACHER, in Dover by Chas. C. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ The Supreme Judicial Court held a short session in this city on Tuesday morning, and adjourned in season to take the train for Dover.

Nelson N. Downing took his departure on the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, for the States Prison, on the same morning.

☞ Ship-building, though very dull, is not entirely extinct on the Piscataqua. A ship, near completion, is on the stocks at the yard of George Raynes. She is a nearly full ship, of about a thousand tons, and is for sale. The ship now building for Messrs. Hastings of Boston, at Peirce's Island, under the superintendence of Mr. Peirce, is nearly ready for caulking. We understand that Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield are about to raise the frame of another ship; to be for sale. Messrs. Marcy & Pettigrew having made purchase of timber in Virginia, have recently sent twenty-two men to that section of the country to be employed in "getting out" the same.

Downing's Trial, Complete.—We have printed and for sale at the Chronicle Counting Room, an extra, issued last Friday, containing all the testimony in the case. Also another extra, just issued, containing a report of the Pleas, Charge, Verdict, and all particulars up to Tuesday morning.—Price of the two, 4 cents.

Church-yard Literature.—Rev. Charles Spear, of Boston, will, by request, deliver his Lyceum Lecture on Church Yard Literature, in Rechabite Hall, on Thursday evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Admittance 5 cents.

☞ An Address by Mrs. Charles Spear, will be delivered at the Temple on Friday evening, Oct. 29, at half past seven. Subject, The Prisoner and the Slave, including sketches of the life and Poems of Juan Placido, The Cuban Slave and Martyr to Liberty. Admission 10 cents.

The Mercantile Library Association. We learn that the Association propose, instead of a course of lectures the coming season, to organize a Moot House of Representatives, modeled, as far as may be practicable, after the National House of Representatives. The first session will be held at the Court House on Thursday evening, Nov. 11th, to be continued each Thursday evening during the winter.—Tickets for the course, and also evening tickets, are prepared, and will be for sale at the usual places in a few days.

At these sessions questions of public and local interest, bills, reports of committees, &c., will be introduced and discussed, and members will be subject to strict legislative rules.

It is intended to make these exercises both profitable to the members of the Association and interesting to those who may attend as spectators. And it is hoped that, in the absence of any course of public lectures the coming winter, and the very nominal price of the tickets for the course and for each evening—the public will take sufficient interest in the very beneficial object had in view to attend the sessions.

In a country where deliberative assemblies and primary and town meetings lie at the foundation of government, where every citizen almost is liable to be called upon to perform some function in the body politic, there can be no better preparation than exercise in public speaking, forensic arguments and discussion, drawing bills and reports of committees, &c.

So far as the Association is concerned, we can see no reason why the members may not derive greater benefit from this plan than from any number of so-called lyceum lectures.

"Foolish Women."—Messrs. Editors: Your correspondent "Viudex," in yesterday's paper, seems to fear woman's influence in our judicial courts. Is the influence of such females as were present at the last trial injurious on any occasion? By such influences will the criminal be reformed, rather than by solitary life in prison. Innocent or guilty, the presence of female sympathy is for good, and must affect the obdurate heart. If the society of females is subversive of justice, then it is improper that they should mingle in the social gathering, the fireside and public services. I have such a high idea of female sympathy and influence, that I look to it for the reformation of the inebriate, the wayward, and finally the criminal, the elevation of the race, and the abolishing of prisons.—Let the criminal realize that he is not an outcast, but that the human heart throbs for his redemption, and female tears even are falling to wash away his guilt, and he he is nearer the mercy seat than prison discipline can take him. Bertram.

☞ Those who are pleased with a beautiful and graceful exhibition should not fail to visit that given by Mr. Lamprey's Juveniles, at Congress Hall, this evening.

☞ The usual lecture at the Court street Chapel will be omitted this evening.

☞ Mr. Pearson commences a new term of his singing school this afternoon.

☞ We have received Harper's Magazine for November, from the new Periodical Depot of John H. Locke, Franklin House,—where can be found all the best magazines, newspapers, &c. So he says.

Portsmouth Correspondence of the Traveller.

Portsmouth, Oct. 23.

The Traveller has had a full and fair report of the "murder trial" here this week—of N. N. Downing, for the shooting of Mrs. Daniel H. Spinney. But your reporter, though he has stated the facts elicited, and much testimony not facts, cannot know the explanation of the result of this trial so well as we, who have both the parties concerned for citizens and neighbors.

Your readers have the testimony, the pleas, the judge's charge, the verdict, and the sentence—which is the lightest in the discretion of the Judge, and the minimum term a prisoner can serve in our State Prison for any crime. Our citizens are satisfied, generally — and almost universally glad that Downing is treated so leniently. His reputation and good looks, too, sold well for him—when contrasted with those of the opposite parties. One thing is certain—but for "Nels Downing's" getting half drunk that Sunday afternoon, he would not spend his next year in prison. Let all young men take warning.

At a fashionable and brilliant wedding in this city last week, of John J. Pickering, Esq., to a daughter of Peter Jenness, Esq., an uncle of the lovely bride, John S. Jenness, Esq., a 'heavy' bachelor of your city, presented her a check for $10,000! The bridegroom is the popular Cashier of one of our city's favorite Banks, the staunch old "Rockingham," while the lady is daughter of the President of the new "Bank of New Hampshire." May the notes of the new firm be always quoted at "pa," and their issue never be dishonored.

It is reported that a prize fight is to come off in this city, in January next, between two of our sporting characters. The terms are said to be arranged, and the forfeit money deposited. God forbid it should be true. Yours truly, Scribo.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

New York, Oct. 26.—Steamship Persia, from Liverpool, Saturday, Oct. 16, has arrived.

In the Cotton Market a slight decline on all grades except middling.

Breadstuffs and provisions dull.

The race for the Czarwitch handicap at Newmarket, for which the American horse Prioress was the first favorite, was won by Rocket, by a head only, Prioress and the Beaver running a dead heat for the second place. Twenty-five horses ran.

The officers and crew of the steamer Austria had published a letter claiming that they did all that it was possible for them to do under the circumstances, and that he captain did the same.

The Clergy of New England.—The following compliment to the New England pulpit is from the pen of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher:

We wish to say one word upon the subject of New England ministers. We do not believe another body of men, of equal numbers, can be found, of greater learning and more varied information. They are not recluses or bookworms. They are attentive to public affairs, and diligent readers of all that transpires. We will venture to say that we can select from New England hundreds of clergymen who are better informed in the history of public affairs, and more minutely accurate, than an equal number from the prominent politicians of the land. These ministers are studious, laborious, faithful and influential.

Now, no fact is susceptible of clearer illustration than this, that this large and powerful body of men have been singularly prudent and careful, in never going out of their spheres to preach politics, in any improper sense of that phrase. It is the genius of Protestantism to bring religion to bear on civil affairs. It has been done since the founding of New England. It has been the glory and strength of her communities. But, to an extraordinary and unparalleled degree, if we consider the freedom of our pulpits, the influence and learning of our ministers, have they never interfered from the pulpit with specific political parties or legislation.

Excitement at New Albany, Indiana. Louisville, Oct. 25.—Horace Bell, who released his father and brother from Bradenburg Jail last July, committed on the charge of running off negroes, was taken on Saturday from the Fair Grounds at New Albany, Ind., without a warrant, and brought into Kentucky by Louisville officers. The New Albanians became tremendously excited. The fire bells were rung, and a large meeting was held on Saturday evening. A hundred people have chartered the ferry boat Empire, and talk of going to Bradensburg to-day to rescue Bell. An express has been sent from Louisville to Brandesburg to place the citzens on their guard against the hostile expedition. Gov. Willard, of Indiana, has promised a requisition on the Governor of Kentucky for the men who captured Bell. A meeting has been called here to denounce the proceedings of the officers in capturing Bell.

BATHING.

There is nothing more conducive to health than frequent bathing. Some people, like the Turkish Bathers, make it a part of their religion, and their Heaven is an elysium, abounding in delicious baths redolent with perfumes. If our ladies would imitate them in this a little more thoroughly we should have more beautiful, and far more healthy women.

A bath every day in which is poured a few drops of that elegant cosmetic, PERSIAN BALM, would give more rosy cheeks than all the rouge in the world. This beautiful preparation removes from the body all unpleasant odor, and imparts health and fragrance. Try it for the Bath.

MACGREGOR'S
VENTILATING
PARLOR, OFFICE AND HALL
STOVES
—AND—
HOT-AIR FURNACES

Have been in use for Twelve Years, and with the recent Improvements for Economy, Purity of Air and ease of management,

HAVE NO EQUAL.

They can be so regulated as to give any degree of heat required; and, unlike other anthracite coal-burners, ventilate the apartments quite as thoroughly as a wood fire or open Franklin, producing at once a current of air, moist, pure and agreeable, and as NONE OF THE AIR WHICH COMES IN CONTACT WITH THE FIRE-POT IS USED FOR RESPIRATION, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of by those using stoves and furnaces is entirely obviated.

The Fire may be continued from One to Three Days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them for Offices and Stores, as well as the Parlor. The Inventor CHALLENGES THE WORLD to produce an article by which so much pure warm air can be generated from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 lbs. of anthracite coal to warm an ordinary parlor for twenty-four hours without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all consumed and no clinkers made, consequently sifting coal is dispensed with. When this Stove is properly managed, the fire continues through the entire season without once going out. The SIXTEEN SIZES are calculated for, and will suit the capacity of

THE SMALLEST ROOMS,
—OR—
THE LARGEST HOUSES, STORES, HALLS OR CHURCHES,

while one size of the Furnace will warm 200,000 cubic feet of space Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save thirty per cent. in fuel expense.

So great is the popularity of these Stoves that very many imitations of them have been put into the market, and by dint of puffing have been forced upon the public, but none of them have stood the test of time. In fact,

The McGregor Stove
IS
THE ONLY PERFECTLY AIR-TIGHT COAL STOVE MADE.

THE ONLY ONE THAT WILL GIVE UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION
AS A COAL BURNER.

Purchasers who wish to get a Stove that will be DURABLE, and will do all it is recommended to do, will do well to buy a

MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and comfort, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor; that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, Composed of Pure Vegetable Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may still bloom upon your flowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shrivelled, hard and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Peanist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time it was turning in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,'' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 18 Nassau st., Apr 13, '55.
Prof. J. Wood:—Dear Sir,—About a month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking it would do that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hair to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most valuable article I ever saw. A few drops of your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I have no doubt that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and uneasiness. Yours, respectfully, and in confidence you expire freely. J. G. KNAP.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.
PROF. WOOD:—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many preparations to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications followed my hair freely. It began to fill up from one to small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still hesitate to make known their wants, their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last three years in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number have resorted upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from his residence, as he does not make experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they are sure of getting the genuine, as there only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honest manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all the numbers being on sale the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten bears a prize. Whole tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and no two alike numbers can be drawn on any of them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and resultful drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New Orleans Picayune Day Book. E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many years to produce an article which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Sheet-Iron roofs, and succeeded in his aim about the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the most severe test, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which he claims it to be unusually salient. THIS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every degree of inclination, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have vanished from sight, but we do not hesitate to emphatically and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of study devoted to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantages for pathological research—added not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although Medical Inhalation is a valuable adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, I have decided to open a private suite of the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefit of my skill and mode of treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary or who were able to visit my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, can be sent with each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient is cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he never has in one case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Reexamination made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twenty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1858.

DEATH OF THE OLDEST PERSONS IN MAINE. The Bangor Courier announces the death, at East Corinth, Me., of Mrs. Marcia Edgeley, on the 2d day of October, at the age of 107 years. She was born in Brentwood, N. H., in 1751. She was married in 1776. She was soon left a widow with an only child, a daughter. She subsequently removed to China, Maine, and afterwards to Corinth, where she resided until her death. She was a woman of great energy and fortitude, amiability and christian devotedness. For the last few years she suffered much from the diseases incident to excessive age, but she endured all with uncomplaining resignation. Her appetite retained all its vigor, and craved the most nutritious and substantial diet, yet she was exceedingly emaciated, reduced to almost a skeleton form. Her vision, which had become dimmed, and which for nearly a score of years required the aid of glasses, was restored a few years since, and until within a few months past she could easily read the large print of her Bible without glasses. She retained to a remarkable degree the possession of her mental powers until she had crossed the boundary line of her century. After this her memory gradually failed, the history of her mature life fading first from her mind year by year, until at last she seemed to live chiefly among the reminiscences of early childhood and youth—yet there were many days when memory, with sudden resurrection, would start again into life, and bring up many incidents that crowded the long path of her existence.

The next oldest person in Maine was Rev. John Sawyer, commonly called "Father Sawyer." He died on Thursday, the 14th inst., aged 103 years and four days. He was born in Hebron, Conn., Oct. 9, 1755. He served in the war of the revolution, and was present at the capture of Burgoyne. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1785. He was settled as a Congregational clergyman in Orford, N. H., in 1787, where he remained until 1795.—He then removed to Bangor, where he spent the remainder of his long life. He was one of the founders of the Bangor Theological Seminary. The late Joseph Sawyer, Esq., of Piermont, N. H., was one of his sons.

BREAKING INTO THE STATE PRISON.—Jane Wade, a girl of about 20 years of age, was sentenced to four years' imprisonment in the Connecticut State Prison, by the Court in New London county, for stealing a horse. Her time of imprisonment expired last October, when she was employed by a family in Wethersfield to do housework. In March last, the family finding that she was accustomed to stealing, turned her away. Frequently, since then, they missed articles about the house, and found evidence that some person had been about the premises. They finally discovered Miss Wade in the house, and she acknowledged that she had been there frequently and slept in the ash hole at night. But her strangest feat was in breaking into the State Prison!

One night last week she scaled the stone wall that enclosed the prison by climbing a tree. The wall is about 20 feet high.—From the yard she crawled into the kitchen, which is separated from the male prisoners, and is not guarded at night, through an outlet for the ashes, which connects with the yard. She slept in this ash hole for six nights, and when found had six empty mush or pudding pans by her side, which she had taken from the kitchen when full. On Sunday night last she snored so loud in her ash-hole bed as to attract the attention of the matron, and after a search she was found and dragged out. The opinion of an eminent lawyer has been given that Miss Wade may be indicted and convicted of burglary—she having broken into the State Prison in the night season, and stolen six pans full of meat pudding. There is not a parallel case on record.

☞ The establishment of Dr. Hankinson in New York has been broken up by the police as a swindling establishment, and the doctor sent to jail. He published the obscene New York Journal, in which he advertised his nostrums, and was in the receipt of forty letters per day from dupes over all the country. In addition to medicines for all diseases, the doctor professed to sell a secret for transmuting all metals; also how by the use of pepper to dry up the human body; how to make $1 appear like, and be satisfactorily received as $2, and so any sum may be made to appear double; how to make a charm against juries and judges, and how to foretell all things to come.

☞ The North Carolina papers announce the acquittal, at Raleigh, last week, of Martha Morgan, a handsome young widow aged twenty-two years, charged with the murder of Alexander Allen, a constable in Johnson county. A writer in the Petersburg Express says that Martha Morgan, the prisoner, was indigent, but proverbially honest. Through her own exertions and the kindness of a few neighbors, she supported her little family. Some months since, Allen the policeman, forcibly entered her abode and levied upon the effects of her scanty household, for the purpose of selling the same. She remonstrated and begged him to desist. Regardless of her entreaties, he persisted in taking possession of her furniture, and added insult to injury, by heaping upon her a volley of abuse. Being without a protector, and feeling deeply aggrieved, in a moment of frenzy, she seized a shot gun and shot her persecutor down. The Jury having come into Court, rendered a verdict of "Not Guilty." The result was received by an immense concourse of visitors by one universal outburst of applause.

INCENDIARISM IN PORTLAND.—About 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, fire was discovered in the house of Capt. Samuel P. Gerty, in Portland, but the prompt action of the department saved it from destruction. While the engines were at work at this fire, a dwelling house in process of erection on North street, owned by Mr. James A. Richardson, was set on fire and totally consumed. About 5 o'clock on the same morning, a very large work shop in Colley's ship yard was burned down. All the above fires were the work of incendiaries.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Chiniquy, the celebrated Canadian priest, has become converted to Protestantism. On Sunday, the 22d ult., he declared in a public meeting in the Court House at Kankakee, that he seperates himself from the Romish Church to follow the religion of the Bible.

FOUL GAS.—A sad accident occurred at the Bowman Oil Works, Pine Island, Roxbury, at about nine o'clock, Tuesday morning, by which three lives were lost. The names of the men were Peter Lyons, Nath'l Butler, and Dennis Butler. Lyons went down into a still to clean it, but he went down too soon, not waiting long enough to let the iron cool and the gas escape.—He fell down suffocated.—The Butlers died in consequence of their efforts to save him.

ESPIONAGE OF AMERICAN SCHOOL GIRLS IN PARIS.—The following extract from a recent letter from a young American girl in Paris furnishes an amusing instance of the application of the French Emperor's system:

I want to tell you a queer incident that befell me the other day. As my friend—— and I were walking away from the Tuilleries, about six o'clock, and talking about Napoleon First, I saw a soldier near us, who happened to overhear the word Napoleon. Whereupon he pricked up his ears picked up his gun, and followed us from there all the way across the bridge, where we, being a little frightened, took a carriage home. He watched us for some time and seeing there was nothing wrong went back. I suppose he took us for conspirators. You know this Napoleon has spies at every corner, and if they hear the name Napoleon they immediately suspect something is wrong, and try to find you out. He is a horrid man, as you know, and the greatest coward living. All these beautiful things that he is doing to keep his people amused show as much as anything that he is afraid.

☞ The rope which surrounded the ring or enclosure in which Morrissey and Heenan fought, has been bought by a distinguished gentleman of Buffalo, and in a short time, will be cut up, set in gold, silver or brass, and sold to all who desire a memento of the battle. Gentlemen and ladies in the habit of wearing charms and chatelaines will please take notice.

PENNYCHIANA.—In Sweden, a man seen four times drunk is deprived of a vote at elections. In some of our large cities this rule is reversed; a drunken man is made to vote four times.

The St. Louis Republican thinks that Mr. Lincoln's election would cause dismay in more than one-half the States of the Union. Probably it would cause dismay in all the States of the Union—in fact wherever Locofocos are to be found.—Louisville Journal.

FAILURE OF DANIEL E. SOMES.—We learn that Daniel E. Somes, member of Congress elect from the 1st District, suspended business last week—reported liabilities $100,000. The City Bank of Biddeford, and one or two other banks out of the State with which he did business, secured themselves by attachment of property; other large creditors have since taken mortgages.—Portland Argus.

The Advertiser states that arrangements have been made, whereby Mr. Jones goes on with his business.

Accounts of recent date from Greece announce the death of Prince Mavrocordato, a patriot Greek, whose name has been familiar through the adventures of Lord Byron, as related by himself, Dr. Kennedy, Moore, Trelawney and others. He was once minister to England, but latterly has resided at Athens, where he acted as a senator and member of the council of state, from his own choice. In person he was short and stout, with an animated and intelligent countenance and most winning manners. He married the daughter of Prince Argyropholo, dragoman to the Porte. With Mavrocordato dies another link which connects us with the age of Byron and Shelley, when Greece and Greek literature, tours, history and poetry were the height of fashion.

A KICK THAT KILLED BOTH.—While a horse was standing on Old street, near Sycamore, yesterday evening, a dog passed underneath him and received a kick, which completely smashed his skull, killing him instantly. The owner of the horse soon after left the city, but had not proceeded far before the horse fell and expired. Upon examination, his left hind foot, with which he had kicked the dog, was found to contain a piece of bone several inches in length, apparently part of the dog's jaw bone, buried into the very quick or tenderest part of the hoof. He died of tetanus.—Petersburg Express.

WHAT RIGHT HAVE BLACK MOTHERS TO LOVE THEIR CHILDREN?—Some years ago the Rev. John G. Fee of Kentucky bought from his father (an elder in the O. S. Presbyterian Church) an old slave woman who had nursed him in his infancy. He at once freed her, and she found a home in the village of Felicity, Ohio. About a year ago, having been long from her children, the old woman returned over to her old home in Kentucky to see them. The meeting of this old woman with her children, after the years of absence in Ohio, was very affecting, but their master immediately ordered her off the premises and forbade her to see them again. This poor, comfortless black Rachel made a feeble effort, since she could not see her children, to have them come to her in a land of freedom; but she was arrested, dragged to a Kentucky jail, and will probably spend the remnant of her days in a Kentucky penitentiary. So much for the crime of a mother's love.—Cincinnati Gazette.

FLUID ACCIDENT.—On the 19th inst., Daniel Felch, a trader of Mason Village, N. H., for experiment, applied a lighted match to the hole of a barrel from which he had taken a faucet, after drawing off the burning fluid. The vapor which remained, ignited, causing an explosion equal to that of a cannon, bursting the barrel. One of his legs was badly injured by the broken fragments of the barrel, although fortunately only deep flesh wounds were produced.

GENUINE ELOQUENCE.—There is no people in the world with whom eloquence is so universal a gift as the Irish. When Leich Rachin was travelling in Ireland he passed a man who was a painful spectacle of pallor, squalor, and raggedness. His heart smote him and he turned back. "If you are in want," said Rachin with some degree of peevishness, why don't you beg!" "Sure it is begging I am, yer honor."—You didn't say a word"—"Ov course not, yer honor; but see how the skin is speakin through the holes of me trousers! and the bones creepin out through me skin!—Look at me sunken cheeks and the famine, that's starin in me eyes! Man alive! isn't it beggin' I am with a hundred tongues?"

Unwritten poetry! It is stamped upon the broad blue sky; it twinkles in every star. It mingles in the ocean's surge, and glitters in the dew drop that gems the lily's bell. It glows in the gorgeous colors of the decline of day, and rests in the blackened crest of the gathering stormcloud. It is on the mountain's height and in the cataract's roar—in the towering oak, and in the tiny flower, where we can see the hand of God, there beauty finds her dwelling place.

☞ Mr. Punch says that it does not appear to him wonderful that under the terrific pressure and strain of compliment, to which is has been subjected in America, the unfortunate cable, being of English make and unused to hyperbole, gave way, and sent down shares from £215 to £250.

☞ John D. Ashmore has been elected to Congress to succeed Speaker Orr, who declined a re-election. The rest of the South Carolina delegation remains unchanged.

POLITICIANS are not the men to suggest improvement; office holders are not the men to propose action which possibly may throw them in the shade or bring other men prominently before the people; men who are fattening upon the spoils of office are not the ones to ask for a reform which possibly may draw the teats from their own mouths; men who have cajoled, cheated and trifled with the people are not the ones to appeal to those insulted masses to rectify the wrongs which they have so largely contributed to bring about.—Bath Times.

☞ The Democratic mayor of Washington refused to allow the Republicans to fire a salute over the Pennsylvania election, and they were obliged to go out of the city limits to burn their powder.

☞ The New York News, a Democratic paper of the "Hard wing," says that the Tammany Committee of that city, to the number of 110, receive, in the aggregate, from $750,000 to $1,000,000 per annum in official salaries and emoluments.

Bites of Insects.

We cannot do our readers a greater service than to call their attention to a most simple remedy for their painful annoyances. To some the bites of fleas, mosquitoes, &c., are really poisonous, causing extensive swelling and inflammation. The remedy is simply to apply one drop of the PERSIAN BALM to the part, rubbing it gently; it soothes the smarting and burning sensation like magic.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURES, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THIS Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the one plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 5,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years; consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet table. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

CHURCH-YARD LITERATURE.—Rev. Charles Spear, of Boston, will, by request, deliver his Lyceum Lecture on Church Yard Literature, in Rechabite Hall, on Thursday evening, at 7 1-2 o'clock. Admittance 5 cents.

☞ An Address by Mrs. Charles Spear, will be delivered at the Temple on Friday evening, Oct. 29, at half past seven. Subject, The Prisoner and the Slave, including sketches of the life and Poems of Juan Placido, The Cuban Slave and Martyr to Liberty. Admission 10 cents.

☞ The Exhibition of the Temple Sunday School, is to be repeated this evening. See advertisement.

☞ In the S. J. Court on Monday, in the case State vs. Edmund C. Bean, tried at a former term and found guilty of an assault upon J. K. Wentworth in Newington, which case was subsequently transferred to the law term on a motion to arrest judgment, and in which the court ordered judgment on the verdict, the respondent was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution.

POEM ON BEAUTY.—The Cambridge, Mass. Chronicle, notices Mr. Laighton's Poem on Beauty, lately delivered in that city, in the following terms.

IRVING COURSE OF LECTURES.—There was a full attendance at the City Hall, Thursday evening, on the occasion of the commencement of the new course of lectures. Mr. W. M. Cubery, the President of the Irving Association, made a few opening remarks, showing the aim of the Irving Association, in the furtherance of which he invited the co operation of the young men of this city.

Mr. Albert Laighton, of Portsmouth, N. H., was then introduced, and delivered his poem on "Beauty." We think it a production of extraordinary merit. Its brilliant poetic images conveyed in so felicitous expression, seemed like rare jewels in a setting of pearl. It contained none of the commonplace witticisms such as are usually offered and too generally approved in occasional poems; but its quiet, natural strokes of humor produced a most pleasing effect. It is seldom in these days that a true poet, like Mr. Laighton, will come out from his retirement to delight us with the inspirations of genuine poetry; and we think, that in this instance, he may feel that he has been appreciated, and has left pleasant memories with those who heard him.

CONGRESS.—This august body will assemble in about a month, discuss and pass sundry deficiency bills, Naval, Military, Diplomatic, Miscellaneous Appropriation bills; discuss and quarrel, in one party at least, over the Lecompton, English, and Douglas issues; look ahead to the Presidential Election of 1860; consider the empty treasury and the destructive tariff; talk about a new bankrupt bill; propose to raise the postage and abolish the fishing bounties; flood the country with documents, nine-tenths of which will never be read, and make a number of Buncombe speeches.

☞ Charles Foster of Brower and John Miller of Holden, two persons well known by the police, were arrested last week, charged with robbing the mail between Bangor and Cherryfield—once in August last, and again week before last. Both parties are in jail.

☞ A letter from Geauga county, Ohio, states that an epidemic dysentery has raged among young children in that section, ravaging every home and proving generally fatal. In the town of Chester, it is stated, but few infants have been spared by the pestilence.

☞ The total vote of California for Supreme Judge, as ascertained up to the last advices, was 35,523 for Baldwin, Administration Democrat, and 31,398 for Curry, Republican and Independent Democrat.

☞ Hon. George W. Morrison requests the Concord Patriot to announce that he is not a candidate for nomination in the 2d district. He does not wish to run against time.

☞ The store of George T. Wheeler in Peterboro, N. H., was broken open on Sunday night, and robbed of jewelry and silver ware to the amount of $450.

INCENDIARY.—A large barn connected with the hotel at Westminster Centre, Mass., belonging to F. W. Allen, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, says the Worcester Spy. Henry E. Fairbanks, the stable keeper, lost seven horses, carriages, harnesses, hay and grain, account books and everything connected with his stable. His loss is estimated at $3500, on which there is no insurance.

☞ A barn and cow belonging to Jedithan Farrar, Esq., of Gilmanton, were burned the night of the 20th inst.

FROM SANTA FE.—St. Louis, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from Fort Independence says that the Santa Fe mail with dates of the 4th inst., arrived on the 23d. The report of the second battle with the Navajo Indians has been confirmed. Mr. Yost, their agent, formally suspended all relations with them, and he states their wealth consists in 250,000 sheep and 60,000 horses, which if destroyed, will drive them to desperation, and that a second Florida war may be expected.

Francis P. Blair and Senator Douglas. Frank P. Blair, Jr., publishes a letter in reply to Isaac H. Sturgeon declining to answer certain interrogatives of the latter, in reference to a conversation between him and Senator Douglas, in Washington, last winter, on the ground of his holding private conversations sacred. He says, however, that the letter written by him to B. Gratz Brown, was in strict accordance with the wishes of Judge Douglas himself, and that he deemed that the object of the interview was to mitigate through him, the hostility of the radical Democracy and press of St. Louis. He also states that he has had no agency whatever in giving currency to the contents of that letter, and that the character of the invitation and message of Judge Douglas, received through Mr. Colfax, of Indiana, was not such as to prepare him for hearing of Mr. Douglas' calling for three cheers over his defeat in the District.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Mr. McAllister, a farmer of Hempstead, L. I., was robbed and murdered by highwaymen on the Jamaica road last night.

The Grand Jury's indictments found against public officers comprise five against Chas. Devlin, ex-Street Commissioner, for conspiracy and obtaining goods under false pretences; four against Chas. Turner, ex-Deputy Street Commissioner, conspiracy and misdemeanor; two against James Fury, ex-Street Commissioner, like offences; two against John Fitzpatrick, Contractor; two against John B. Smith, late of the Comptroller's office. Also against F. T. Vidal, and Peter H. Dryer, City Surveyors; Enoch Dean, late President of the Bowery Bank, and John McLean, ex-Councilman.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—There was a horrid massacre in West Thirtieth street last night, in which two persons were murdered, and five wounded, supposed mortally. The victims are the family of Francis Goulding, Esq., lumber merchant, consisting of himself and wife, two sons, two daughters, and a servant girl. The two sons, aged respectively nine and twelve years, are already dead, the wife is dying, and the others cannot live. The murderer was the eldest son of Mr. Goulding, who has committed suicide. His motive, it is supposed, was revenge, he having been detected some weeks ago in the act of robbing his father to a large amount.

SECOND DISPATCH.—Young Goulding returned home about 11 o'clock, laboring under delirium.

ANOTHER DONATION BY GEORGE PEABODY. Baltimore, Oct. 26.—George Peabody of London, has added $200,000 to the Peabody Institute fund, for the erection of the edifice now going up in this city. This, with his previous gift to the Institute, makes more than half a million dollars.

THE EXCITEMENT AT NEW ALBANY.—Louisville, Oct. 26.—An expedition left New Albany last night for Brandensburg and Elizabethtown, for the rescue of Horace Bell. They were heavily armed for the purpose, and it is reported that Kentuckians here and elsewhere are concentrating with the intention of meeting them.

NORFOLK, Oct. 25.—The schooner A. J. Ward, from Sandy Point, Va., was knocked down on Sunday off Chincoteague. All on board were lost.

SCHOONERS FOUNDERED AND CREWS LOST.—There is scarcely room to doubt but that the schooners Albion and Roman, with their entire crews, were lost upon Lake Erie in the gale on the 7th. The Albion sailed from Cleveland on the morning of the 7th, with a cargo of wheat for Oswego, and a crew of seven men all told.

There were eight persons on board the Roman.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26.—The deaths in this city by yellow fever were 49; and for the week ending on Saturday 285.

FAILURE OF BANKERS AND THREATENED VIOLENCE BY A MOB.—Peoria, Ill., Oct 26.—Great excitement exists here on account of the failure of Messrs. Curtis & Co., bankers of this city. The people threaten to mob the banking house and private residences of the members of the firm. The military have been notified to be in readiness for any attack that may be made.

☞ Cincinnati has 1656 public lamps which cost the city $33,251 annually, or $20 50 each; and light the streets for a distance of 352,138 feet or sixty-six and sixty-nine one hundredths of a mile. Davenport, Iowa, has 200 public lamps at an annual expense of $7200 or $36 each.

A MISTAKE.—In the first place we have some 15,000 Deputy Postmasters, all appointed by the Postmaster General, or by nomination of the President, to be confirmed by the Senate.—Nashua Telegraph.

The mistake is in the figures above given. There are are about 29,000 Postmasters in the United States.—Concord Patriot.

The Patriot is no doubt correct in this statement. Postmasters, however, should be chosen by the people of their towns. And there should be no franking.

MACGREGOR'S
VENTILATING
PARLOR, OFFICE AND HALL
STOVES
—AND—
HOT-AIR FURNACES

Have been in use for Twelve Years, and with the recent Improvements for Economy, Purity of Air and ease of management,

HAVE NO EQUAL.

They can be so regulated as to give any degree of heat required; and, unlike other anthracite coal-burners, ventilate the apartments quite as thoroughly as a wood fire or open Franklin, producing at once a current of air, moist, pure and agreeable, and as NONE OF THE AIR WHICH COMES IN CONTACT WITH THE FIRE-POT IS USED FOR RESPIRATION, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of by those using stoves and furnaces is entirely obviated.

The Fire may be continued from One to Three Days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them for Offices and Stores, as well as the Parlor. The Inventor CHALLENGES THE WORLD to produce an article by which so much pure warm air can be generated from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 lbs. of anthracite coal to warm an ordinary parlor for twenty-four hours without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all consumed and no clinkers made, consequently sifting coal is dispensed with. When this Stove is properly managed, the fire continues through the entire season without once going out. The SIXTEEN SIZES are calculated for, and will suit the capacity of

THE SMALLEST ROOMS,
—OR—
THE LARGEST HOUSES, STORES,
HALLS OR CHURCHES,

while one size of the Furnace will warm 200,000 cubic feet of space Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save thirty per cent. in fuel expense.

So great is the popularity of these Stoves that very many imitations of them have been put into the market, and by dint of puffing have been forced upon the public, but none of them have stood the test of time. In fact,

The McGregor Stove
IS
THE ONLY PERFECTLY AIR-TIGHT COAL STOVE MADE.

THE ONLY ONE THAT WILL GIVE UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION
AS A COAL BURNER.

Purchasers who wish to get a Stove that will b DURABLE, and will do all it is recommended to do, will do well to buy a

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE

RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be ever so pearly, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Mrs. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following testimonials. The writer of the first is the celebrated Peanist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligation I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your "Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyllelydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of Mrs. Wood's Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to my surprise, it did so, and within a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and nourishing the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers have ceased to grow any longer, and those which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has entirely removed my old dandruff and complaint attending, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KELSY.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative, and in a very short time it stopped the falling, and I now have a fine application fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds 1 a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, and retails for $1 75; the large holds at least 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, anxiously bewailing their lives in consequence of the inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true prescription of the disease be sent in a letter addressed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most invaluable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred persons who had been pronounced incurably treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Persons can address DR. DIX, Boston, by letter and directed as above.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some obscure and fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers required. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Picayune, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Imperious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use. This he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its superior value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles for half the much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—By connection for the past five years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—added not a little by a perfect system of Medical Jurisdiction—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhaling the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not use the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjunct in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the past has been, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. As the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and well sustained, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all who may confide myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use: also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s6 6m

PEEP INTO A TURKISH HAREM.

BY MRS. SARAH B. JOHNSON.

The following interesting account of Miss Barclay's visit to a Turkish Harem will be read with interest. Miss Barclay resided four years in Jerusalem. The accompanying article is from advance sheets of a new work, by that lady, entitled "Hadji in Syria."

It was with no little pleasure that I accepted an invitation from the family of the Bash Carib, whose office is next in rank to that of the Pacha, to spend a day with them. They had proved themselves true friends: but, apart from this, I had long been anxious to obtain an insight into harem life.

On entering the house I was greeted with the usual cry of welcome, "Ahlan Wassahlan," in which every occupant of the harem united. Even the slaves ran to the door clapping their hands, and making the noisiest demonstrations of delight. Five minutes after I had taken my seat, fingans of coffee and pipes were handed, in which I attempted to join them, but the effort proved a signal failure. The delicate workmanship of the tiny cups containing the coffee by no means exempts one from a burnt tongue, nor makes palatable the unsweetened beverage, for the charm of Turkish coffee (with some,) consists in its being boiling hot, and the absence of sugar. The marghiloh, so tempting to the eye, with its crystal urn and amber mouth-piece, was soon laid aside with a disgust which I fear was hardly understood by my Turkish friends, who so highly appreciate these luxuries that most of their time is devoted to their enjoyment.

There is but one Turkish lady on my list of acquaintances who can boast of her ability to read and write. Her presence afforded some variety of the trivial subjects generally discussed; for she not only possesses the rare accomplishments of reading and writing, but has improved them; and her conversation showed that she was conversant with Koran and other text-books of Mohammedan faith. In addition to this, a pilgrimage to Mecca, and a hand ever ready to relieve the wants of the poor, have secured for her a wide spread fame.

About noon, dinner was announced; not, however, before each one had washed her hands and face, and observed the usual forms of prayer. A large, round waiter was placed on a stool richly inlaid with pearl and upon it little dishes in endless variety were temptingly displayed. Among them, confections prepared from rose leaves and apricots, transparent jellies and soups composed of a variety of nuts. Cucumbers scooped out and filled with rice and minced meat, a favorite dish; and another, which is almost as popular, a bowl of minute cylinders of dough, dried in the sun, and then mixed in a sauce of butter and sugar. Cushions laid on the floor were substituted for chairs, but alas, for knives and forks! In their stead my only resort was a wooden spoon. The favorite wife, and the queen of the harem, frequently handed me morsels of food with her own henna-tipped fingers, intended as a mark of great honor.

Having done full justice to our elegant little dinner, the luxurious divan was resumed, and a warm discussion entered upon as to the manner of spending the afternoon. The bath was proposed by some, but a dissenting voice was heard from the corner, where the chief lady gracefully reclined, in favor of music and dancing.—A messenger was accordingly despatched for tamborines and dancing women—for in the East dancing is considered far beneath any but the poorer class, who make it a trade, and charge a certain sum for their services on festive occasions. Their dancing consists in a few undulating movements of the body, not ungraceful, and accompanied by castanets and the tamborine.

My European dress caused them as much amusement as their curious apparel afforded me, and they were not satisfied until we had exchanged costumes. A mirror was brought into requisition, in which they wonderingly surveyed the change wrought by the sport. A large number had assembled to see the lady from the "new world," and they were very curious to know something about the manners and customs of my country. Great was their surprise on hearing of the liberty enjoyed by their Western sisters, which, strange to say, although I used all the terms of enthusiasm my knowledge of Arabic could command, they did not seem at all to covet. They could not conceive of a woman possessing a soul. On asking one of them what would become of her after death, she replied, "I shall be put under ground—nothing more." "And your husband," said I, "will he doomed to the same fate?" "Oh, no," she sadly replied, "he will be taken above, and there enjoy all the delights of paradise."

Among them were some lovely Georgians, profusely adorned with sparkling jewels and the purest of Orient pearls.—There were few besides these with any pretensions to beauty. Nearly all, however, had the soft gazelle eye, so often apostrophized by the poet.

I left them, feeling more grateful than ever for the light I enjoy, and the hope of a blissful immortality, and ardently desiring to share with them my own glorious civil and religious privileges, which would at once release them from the leading cause of their degradation—the tyranny exercised over them by their husbands, who can put them away for any reason, every reason, and no assignable reason.

While memory performs her functions, I shall never forget the impression made on my mind when witnessing the anguish of a poor girl, as she went along weeping to the house of a brutal old one-eyed monster, who had bought her for his pandemonian harem. Nor is it the father and husband alone that thus tyrannize over the degraded women of the East. The authority of the brother, in the event of the death of the father, even though the mother is still living, is quite as absolute. He can beat them without mercy and with impunity, and though he may be younger than his seven sisters, it is he alone that sells them to their heartless husbands, or in other words to the master who will give most for them.

One day we had a visit from several of the harems of the nobility, numbering twenty ladies and half as many slaves, and, although away from home, they sent their slaves to the well for water, performed their ablutions, and each one immediately on the cry of muezzim, devoutly prayed.—Of course their veils and sheets were laid aside, and I was not a little amused at the great commotion made by the sudden entrance into the court of a Turk, while they were eating with uncovered faces.—The slaves set up a loud scream, and terror-struck, ran in every direction for their mistress's veils. As for the mistresses themselves, it was actually distressing to hear their piercing cries—and such was their effect on the unfortunate intruder, that he made a precipitate retreat, amid shouts of "Roohoo! roohoo!"—away! away!

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full account of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him unequalled, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents
R. H. EDDY.

LETTER FROM VERITAS.

KENSINGTON, Oct. 27.

Messrs. Editors:—The pathetic language of the inspired penman, "We all do fade as a leaf," has been echoed by every passing breeze, so that we may say it has been the lesson of the week, and of the season. Well would it be for us, and for our race, if our work were as well done, and perfectly finished, according to our sphere and capacities, as the leaves that strew our pathway; and if in dying, our mental and moral light should shine with brighter and more beauteous rays.

The lesson of society, if we were to judge from the papers, would make us subscribe to the doctrine of total depravity and exclaim with Dr. Young,

"Man is to man his surest, surest ill."

I hall resolve to eschew papers, for a twelve month and read "Resignation," a work written by some good lady who was a native of your goodly town, I believe. At any rate, all her characters were perfect and all died young.

If I had leisure I would set about writing the history of the Origin of Benevolent Societies of America. I should think Mrs. Knight would undertake it. I think she would find that they all, or nearly all had their origin in the mind of woman.—It would be an excellent remedy for misanthropic feelings. Women originated the charities of Boston, reared them through their infancy, and when grown to a respectable size, men owned them, and assumed their management. Their histories would be interesting and encouraging, as well as instructive. I knew the lady who gathered a dozen little neglected children into her house, cleansed and fed them, interested others in their behalf, until the 'Children's Home' grew out of it. She was poor, as this world counts wealth, but rich in faith and sympathy with the erring and the suffering, and has gone to be forever with the Lord.

When Boston became a city, a sister of the above mentioned lady, begged permission of the authorities to visit and hold meetings with the inmates of the Jail and House of Correction, on the Sabbath and in the week. For more than twenty years did this widow, who earned her bread by her needle, in "winter's cold and summer's heat," visit, counsel, pray with, and read to them, without pay or hope of reward, except the thanks and blessings of the outcast, listening patiently to their tales of suffering sin and wrong; and if any would turn from their way of life, she helped them to a shelter and friends.—Now the city authorities pay a chaplain, but I doubt whether he is as self sacrificing; he cannot be more so. In the sultry airs of August and September, her friends would urge her to visit them, but six days was all that she would be absent from her voluntary labors for the good of the poor children of sin and sorrow, as she called them. I have often thought that clergymen might take a lesson from her, and blushed for them when I have seen them absent themselves every one or two Sabbaths all the year from their people, and then take a vacation besides. A man in health who does so, is not worthy to preach the Gospel of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and had better seek some other calling. What if some of his parish go away? the majority do not, usually; and those whose business, want of means, or family cares, prevent them, they are more entitled to a pastor's care than those of more leisure and greater means.

Where is Huntington's wife? Who pays for the "twenty cigars per day?" How is it with his brother Tuckerman? Does he fare as well? Cannot something be done to prevent the rising generation from running out in tobacco juice? Why not form a society to help all lads who do not use tobacco to situations, and to enter into business? If that cannot be done, open your houses once a week to them, and show them that they are more respected than those who use the vile stuff. If the Pope would set his wits to work to stop it in his Church, instead of meddling with "Immaculate Conception," it would be better for him and his people.

Yours, VERITAS.

NEW YORK.—There remain now but two Congressional districts in New York in which there is not either a union of the opposition forces or a sure prospect of it before the day of election. These are the 5th and 7th districts.

☞ The Duke of Malakoff, whose marriage is announced in the French papers, is in his 67th year. His Spanish bride is in her 33d year.

THE GOULDING TRAGEDY.—Joanna Murphy, one of the servant girls who was wounded by Francis A. Goulding, died in the New York Hospital on the 27th.

It now appears from the New York papers that Francis A. Goulding, the murderer, was about nineteen years of age, and a dissipated young man. It seems that his habits displeased his father. He was out late nights, and wanted too much money. His father refused to allow him a night key, but would get up and let him in when he came home nights, and rebuke him for his unseasonable hours. It is also stated that Frank, on the day of the murder, took a bank book from his father's drawer, which the old gentleman pronounced no better than stealing.

The graceless son came in at 10 o'clock P. M., with his brain fired, and with an axe or hatchet went through the house to kill all the inmates; and finally shot himself.

Of such young men it may be said in the terrible language of the wise man in Proverbs—"He that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him."

ACCIDENT.—Soon after noon on Tuesday Rev. T. B. Thayer and his wife were riding in a light wagon with his ordinarily steady horse in Central st., Lowell, he met a job wagon, which in a very censurable manner neglected to turn out and did not leave him room to pass. The job wagon broke one of Mr. Thayer's shafts, and his horse taking fright ran violently against the curb stone, throwing out Mr. and Mrs. Thayer, the latter breaking her collar bone, and her husband fracturing one leg above the knee, loosening several teeth and probably breaking the jaw.

☞ The Baptist State Convention of Massachusetts met at Worcester October 27. Reports were read from the fourteen different Associations of the Commonwealth. Each of these bodies is composed of churches, from 19 to 33 in number.—The entire number of churches in the State is about 260, having not far from 35,000 members. The number reported as having been baptized during the year is 4196.—Many who were hopefully converted during the last winter, have not yet been baptized. The letters were full of cheering indications of prosperity in the Baptist churches of Massachusetts.

☞ At the New Hampshire Convention of Baptists, held last week in Exeter, the Delegate from the N. H. Free Will Baptist Yearly Meeting stated that that body and the Baptists in the State were about of the same size as to numbers, and so much alike, etc., that it was believed they were twin sisters.

Resolutions passed in favor of temperance, the prohibitory liquor law, and in favor of freedom instead of Slavery.

☞ Crinoline and hoops have flattened down in Paris. The new style of dress is long draped and floating, like a Muse's costume—or like the attire in which Milton robed the "pensive Nun, devout and pure." Now is it possible a Muse's dress can contain eighteen yards, and equal in cost the extravagant gown in which the Lorette of the hour hides her sullied body? That cannot be. It is no leveller like your crinoline, which hid within its cage beauty and deformity, fullness of form and scrawny bodies, so completely the expertest judge could not tell which was which. And none but women of grace can wear well the new dress.

YOUNG MEN MISSING.—Last Saturday afternoon, Geo. Galbraith, Michael Queeney, and three or four other young men, between the ages of 18 and 22 years, went down Boston harbor in the yacht "Pet," with the intention of fishing and gunning, and were to return on Sunday night. As nothing has yet been heard of them, it is feared that they perished during the gale of Saturday night and Sunday.

☞ In the Boston Municipal Court, on Tuesday afternoon, Gaetano Lacchisi, convicted of manslaughter, in causing the death of Dennis Sullivan by stabbing him with a knife in a dance hall on North street, was sentenced to ten years' hard labor in State Prison, two days therof to be in solitary confinement.

REV. MR. PARKER.—The statement has been extensively circulated in the newspapers that Rev. Theodore Parker was dangerously ill, and that his disorder was of a consumptive nature. The Traveller understands that the illness of Mr. Parker is of a different character, and has assumed a favorable turn, so that he has been able, within a few days, to walk out. His friends are now encouraged to belive that he will soon be able, with restored health to pursue his public duties.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

Senator Hammond has united with other fireeaters in sustaining Douglas. Buchanan thus stands between two fires. The real ground of the present hostility of the administration is that a reconciliation was arranged between Douglas and Buchanan after the adjournment of Congress through the intervention of Senator Gwin and others, which Buchanan alleges was violated by the bad faith ot Douglas.

The correspondent of the New York Times says:

There is a perfect panic among the anti-Douglasites in the administration The President holds out, but stands alone—The entire Cabinet is either favorable to Douglas or neutral.

☞ The La Porte (Ind.) Union says that Schuyler Colfax has received a letter from Senator Douglas, which contains the following remarkable sentence:

"I see that the republican papers of Illinois and Missouri, and indeed of the entire northwest still continue to abuse me. Why is this? Did we not expressly agree that this persecution should cease? This is not fair. I have passed the Rubicon and burned my boats."

A NOVEL SUIT.—At the Supreme Judicial Court at Machias, Me., the following novel case came up for trial:

No. 256—Hiram P. Osgood vs. Joseph Crandon. This action was brought to recover $16 subscribed by defendant towards paying for plaintiff's services as preacher of the gospel. In the testimony it appeared that the money was not to be paid if the plaintiff "preached politics," which the defendant thought he did, and consequently withheld payment. The jury failed to agree, after being out five hours.

☞ A sturgeon weighing one hundred pounds was caught while floundering about in a shallow place above the Genessee Falls, Rochester, a few days since. An eager Irishman, after a long struggle, bore the huge monster off in his arms.

☞ Mayor Swann of Baltimore, issues a circular or proclamation, announcing a reorganization of the police force of that city. The regulations embraced in this proclamation, if adhered to invariably, will certainly work great reform in the police force of that city.

☞ Russia is slowly but gradually awakening to intellectual life. In the course of last year sixteen new journals were started, and 1425 original and 201 translated works were published; in addition, 1,613,000 foreign books—330,000 more than in the preceding year—were imported.

ORDINATION AT JAFFREY.—Mr. John S. Bachelder, a gradute of Andover Theological Sem., was ordained and installed pastor of the Congregational Church in Jaffrey, on Wednesday, the 20th inst.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received from Chas. C. Harvey's Music Store, "Grape Vine Polka," by P. S. Gilmore; also, "Eglantine and Holly" of "Wild-wood Flowers," by A. Croisez.

☞ Postmaster General Brown has matured a plan which will be recommended to Congress for establishing an arrangement by which money orders upon the basis of the British system may be transmitted from place to place through the Post Office.

☞ A correspondent of the London Times says a friend of his who stood twice for a seat in Parliament, spent more than £12,000 or $60,000 to carry on the campaign.

☞ For the luxury of tobacco, the English pay dearly indeed, the duty being 80 cents per pound on unmanufactured tobacco, and two dollars per pound on cigars.

☞ The Indianapolis Citizen mentions a now fashioned appeal to charity. Three children were born at a birth there recently. Some women friends went round exhibiting a daguerreotype of them, soliciting donations for the mother.

☞ Miss Nancy McHugh who was severely burned by carelessness with burning fluid in Bangor a few evenings since, died Sunday morning from injuries then received.

☞ In New York, on Monday night, a drunken man laid down upon a lime-kiln and fell asleep. In the morning he was found dead, probably from suffocation.

☞ One Protestant and two Catholic clergymen have fallen at their posts in New Orleans since the epidemic commenced.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—Providence, Oct. 27.—The trial of Lydia Studley for the murder of her husband, was closed this evening by a verdict of guilty.

THANKSGIVING.—Gov. Buckingham, of Connecticut, has appointed the 25th day of November as a day of public thanksgiving in that State.

Thanksgiving in Massachusetts, Nov. 25.

☞ Our Great Falls correspondent informs us that a young woman named Helen Rust—remarkable for personal beauty and licentious habits—was found drowned in the canal on Tuesday morning, under suspicious circumstances. An inquest was being held.

☞ The State of Maine says that Judge Clifford started for Boston, Monday afternoon, and that after attending to his official duties in that city he will proceed to Washington; that he intimated he would not be able to consider the exceptions of the counsel for Capt. Holmes—should any be filed—until the latter part of February or early in March.

METHODIST BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.—Prof. Vail states, in the Zion's Herald, that the Junior Class in the Methodist Seminary in Concord numbers 40. He says, "three of them are from our colleges, one is a graduate, seventeen are from our conference seminaries, and the balance from other schools and academies." He thinks it is the largest theological class in the country, but the Junior Class both at Andover and Princeton are larger. He states that the finances of the institution are running behind, and that the Professors are in arrears for their salaries upwards of $500 each.—Cong. Jour.

AN ERROR CORRECTED.—Jerrold was seriously disappointed with a certain book written by one of his friends. The friend heard that Jerrold had expressed his disappointment.

Friend (to Jerrold)—"I hear you said——was the worst book I ever wrote."

Jerrold—"No, I didn't. I said it was the worst book anybody ever wrote."

CHEESE NOT "LIVELY"—[A Discourse upon the State of the Market.]—"Ben, how's produce?"

"Quiet, very quiet."

"Anything doing in cheese?"

"Not a mite."

Quick Cures of Bilious Colic.

This distressing complaint demands prompt attention. It will readily yield to the R.R.R. treatment. Whenever you find Bile rising from the stomach, or a sour taste after belching, take three or four of R. R. REGULATORS, likewise one-half a teaspoonful of READY RELIEF, every 20 minutes; rub the bowels, back and spine well with the Ready Relief; also lay a flannel wet with Relief across the Bowels. IN FIFTEEN MINUTES you will be free from the distressing pains; the violent spasms will be arrested, and vomiting entirely stopped.

IN THREE HOURS a pleasant operation of the bowels will take place, and your whole system will become regulated and healthy. Persons who indulge in too much green fruit, or cabbage, or unripe vegetables, and indigestible meats, should take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATORS after eating, and they will prevent violent attacks of Colic.—Keep the stomach clean and pure from acid, the Bowels and Liver regular, and no sickness will trouble you—R.R. Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption, relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Blotches and Sores from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE DESTROYER is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from the former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the ne plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents perspiring through out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending to a ball or party without using it? for Sale Everywhere.

LOCAL.

☞ Mr. Lamprey's Exhibition at Congress Hall, on Wednesday evening, was a complete success, and all parties seemed well satisfied—the parents with the progress, and the teacher with the throng of spectators called forth to witness the graceful evolutions of his pupils. While all did well, the execution of Fisher's Hornpipe and the Highland Fling, by Misses Wendell and Adams, elicited special approbation. It will be seen by reference to Mr. L.'s advertisement that he is to begin a new school on Monday evening next.

☞ A few days since, a schooner, laden with brick, coming down the river, ran into the stone wall built up near Church Point. A little farther on she drifted against Central Wharf, her stern swung round, and her jib-boom threw a pile of lumber, a number of thousand feet, over on her, breaking off the head of her bowsprit, carrying away jib-boom, flying-jib, &c. She then brought up against the ship Kate Hunter, and, for fear a bumpkin of that ship through her mainsail should not prove a sufficient fast, dropped an anchor.

☞ A Running Race between two horses harnessed to common wagons, best three in five, half mile heats, came off at the Plains, near this city, on Wednesday afternoon. The owners of the teams drove—one belonging in this city, and the other in Stratham. The old roan from Stratham was nowhere—and Portsmouth (with the Whalley horse) won the purse in three straight heats. Time not kept—but roan so far behind in third heat, that the driver jumped (or fell) out, and laid in the road, complaining of a sprained leg!

A Greased Pig was afterwards let loose, and after struggling for some time to get away from a host of pursuers who probably rate themselves higher in the scale of being, he was captured, and eaten (or drank) up.

Whether the Striped Pig was exhibited or not, we can't say; but some of the attendants on the sport, say he was.

☞ An Address by Mrs. Charles Spear, will be delivered at the Temple on Friday evening, Oct. 29, at half past seven. Subject, The Prisoner and the Slave, including sketches of the life and Poems of Juan Placido, The Cuban Slave and Martyr to Liberty. Admission 10 cents.

For the Chronicle.

HORRIBLE MURDERS.—Messrs. Editors: The newspapers came to us yesterday filled with the details of a most horrible wholesale murder committed in New York. Of course the murderer was insane—that is, he was of intemperate and dissolute habits, for which he had been often reproved by his father, and under the influence of bad rum and desperate feelings of revenge, excited by the reproofs he had received, he sought to murder the entire household of his family, father, mother, brothers, sisters and servants, and was too successful in his atrocious design.

From recent results witnessed in this vicinity, I am led to think it an unfortunate circumstance that the murderer closed this awful tragedy by putting an end to his own life, as the courts in New York, if like those in New Hampshire, have thereby been deprived of a rare opportunity to exercise their clemency towards an unfortunate insane man; and fine ladies, such as we have seen an exhibition of in our court-house recently, possessing sensibilities so excessively tender as to be incapable of a single feeling of pity for the assassin's victims, a capital occasion to exercise their double-refined sympathies in lionizing a murderer and reforming his moral character! JUSTICE.

A JUDICIOUS DRUG CLERK.—Sunday evening about 8 o'clock, a young man named Blanchard, 18 years of age, called at the drug store corner of Broadway, and 32d street and asked for a dose of corrosive sublimate. The clerk refused to give him the poison unless he would first tell what use he intended to make of it. Blanchard finding himself thwarted in his purpose, finally confessed that he was out of money and employment; that his family in the city had deserted him, and finally that he had resolved to sacrifice his own life.—The desperate youth was taken to the station house by officer Wheeler, of the 21st precinct, where he stated that he had relatives in Massachusetts, and expressed a strong desire to go to them. Capt. Speight accordingly sent him East by the New Haven cars.—N. Y. Jour Com.

Almost any one can point out errors and abuses on ship-board which ought to be reformed, and yet how few practical suggestions are made in relation to the most feasible way of meeting the difficulties complained of. It is much easier to see faults than to correct them—to see the mote in other's eyes than to discover the beam in our own.—Bath Times.

MACGREGOR'S

VENTILATING

PARLOR, OFFICE AND HALL

STOVES

—AND—

HOT-AIR FURNACES

Have been in use for Twelve Years, and with the recent Improvements for Economy, Purity of Air and ease of management,

HAVE NO EQUAL.

They can be so regulated as to give any degree of heat required; and, unlike other anthracite coal-burners, ventilate the apartments quite as thoroughly as a wood fire or open Franklin, producing at once a current of air, moist, pure and agreeable, and as NONE OF THE AIR WHICH COMES IN CONTACT WITH THE FIRE-POT IS USED FOR RESPIRATION, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of by those using stoves and furnaces is entirely obviated.

The Fire may be continued from One to Three Days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them for Offices and Stores, as well as the Parlor. The Inventor CHALLENGES THE WORLD to produce an article by which so much pure warm air can be generated from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 lbs. of anthracite coal to warm an ordinary parlor for twenty-four hours without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all consumed and no clinkers made, consequently sifting coal is dispensed with. When this Stove is properly managed, the fire continues through the entire season without once going out. The SIXTEEN SIZES are calculated for, and will suit the capacity of

THE SMALLEST ROOMS,

—OR—

THE LARGEST HOUSES, STORES,

HALLS OR CHURCHES,

while one size of the Furnace will warm 200,000 cubic feet of space Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save thirty per cent. in fuel expense.

So great is the popularity of these Stoves that very many imitations of them have been put into the market, and by dint of puffing have been forced upon the public, but none of them have stood the test of time. In fact,

The McGregor Stove

IS

THE ONLY PERFECTLY AIR-TIGHT COAL STOVE MADE.

THE ONLY ONE THAT WILL GIVE

UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION

AS A COAL BURNER.

Purchasers who wish to get a Stove that will b DURABLE, and will do all it is recommended to do, will do well to buy a

YOU HAD BETTER TRY MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent under Providence of restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Restored locks or crowns may be shown as brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or its hair be varied otherwise than God willed it, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original colour; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dirch a'r Gwyliedydd:"

Welsh Newspaper Off., 12 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who conscientiously put on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown black and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KIDD.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray. I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious and wonderful ravages of Chronic Diseases, who suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or other low fare, to all who order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and medicines and directions adapted to each case have been sent from his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, from any part of the country, or any part of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured into the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of the temple of Hygeian Science.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, being been gotten up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything is conducted with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. Prizes vary from $50 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the Lottery with the amount each number is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, and Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. E. P. RUSSELL'S Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Subscriber, for this Roofing, labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Leaky roofs, so frequently attendant upon Felt roofing, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical utility, durability and cheapness. Roofs in these respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every deep inclination, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within a few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and medicine are brought in contact and are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of other treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it my necessary duty that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private patients, and professional men, who have seen therapeutic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,

No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents.
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, enables him to accommodate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of foreign and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their case, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

THE NEW TESTAMENT.

The new translation of the New Testament, by Rev. Mr. Sawyer, has just issued from the press of Jewett & Co., Boston, in a well executed duodecimo volume. The new arrangement of chapters and verses is much in favor of reading so as to make sense;—but it will require some little time to find the passage you seek, until you get used to the book.

It is a new, independent translation, from approved and improved Greek Versions and readings.

Without trenching in the least on the publisher's copy right, or any other rights, we make the following liberal extracts from the translator's preface, embracing his apology or rather his reasons, for a new translation, and a brief account of former versions, with relative and successive improvements. He says:

This is not a work of compromise, or conjectural interpretations of the sacred Scriptures, neither is it a paraphrase, but a strict literal rendering. It neither adds nor takes away; but aims to express the original with the utmost precision. It adopts, however, except in the prayers, a thoroughly modern style, and makes freely whatever changes are necessary for this purpose.

Besides being a contribution to Biblical science, it is designed to be a still more important contribution to practical religion, for which the Bible in its original languages and in all its translations is chiefly valuable. The translation depends mainly on its superior adaptation to this end, under the blessing of God, for its success and usefulness. It it shall be found on trial to be a superior instrument of piety and virtue, it will doubtless meet with favor and do good. The ascendency of practical religion is not so general and complete, that any additional help for its promotion can be deemed unnecessary.

New translations of the Scriptures are introduced with apologies and received with caution and distrust. In many cases men have received them as dangerous innovations, and attempted to exterminate them with fire and sword. This was the case with the translations of Wickliffe and Tindal. But truth and the kind providence of God were too mighty for their enemies, and these translations lived to see their persecutors in the dust, and to laugh them to scorn. Wicklife's translation was published in 1380, in a dark age.—"Many good men anticipated from it the greatest calamities, and resisted it with the most intemperate zeal, and every species of denunciation was used against it. It was made from the Vulgate, and not from the Greek and Hebrew, and was imperfect; but it was a great improvement on what existed before, and it proved a great blessing.

Tindal was cotemporary with Luther, and undertook to give a new translation of the Bible to England, as Luther did to Germany. He completed his New Testament against the greatest opposition, and published it in 1526, and was engaged on the Old Testament, when he was arrested, imprisoned a year, and then brought to the stake and strangled and burnt, at the age of fifty-nine, A. D. 1536. He was the morning star of the Reformation in England, and became by his translation of the New Testament and a part of the Old, and by the interest he excited in the subject of improved translations in England, one of the greatest benefactors of his race. He was a man of great kindness, gentleness, simplicity of character, and benevolence, and his life is without a stain. Coverdale translated the whole Bible, and published it in 1535, while Tindal was in prison waiting for his crown of martyrdom. Several other translations followed, and that of King James last of all, in 1611.

King James's translation was made by forty-seven translators, divided into six companies, and labored on their work three years. The Douay Bible was first translated and published ih 1609, almost simultaneously with the Bible of King James. It has the disadvantage of having been made from the Latin Vulgate, and not directly from the original Greek and Hebrew, but is a valuable version, and, like the Bible of King James, is one of the great monuments of the times which produced it, as well as of the church which adhered to it. It is good but not perfect; and it is hoped that its friends will not be unwilling to accept an improvement.

From the publication of Wicklife's Bible in 1380, to that of Tindal's New Testament in 1526, was one hundred and forty-six years. From the publication of Tindal's New Testament in 1526, to that of King James's Bible in 1611, was eighty-five years. There was considerable progress made in knowledge, and the English language was considerably changed, in the interval of one hundred and forty-six years between the publication of Wicklifle's Bible and Tindal's New Testament. There was also considerable progress in knowledge and some changes were made in the English language, in the interval of eighty-five years between the publication of Tindal's New Testament and King James's Bible.

The period that has elapsed between the publication of King James's Bible in 1611 and the present time (1858) is two hundred and forty-seven years, sixteen years more than the entire period from the publication of Wicklifle's Bible in 1380 to that of King James's in 1611. Besids, this has been a period of unparalleled activity in the investigation of Biblical subjects, and the prosecution of Biblical studies. Two hundred and forty-seven years, reckoning thirty-three years to a generation, are seven generations and a half; and these seven generations and a half have been engaged in Biblical studies with unprecedented diligence and success, making great improvemedts in the text, detecting numerous interpolations and errors, making great improvements in the rendering, and detecting numerous errors in it; but the almost exclusive Bible of common life, of the family, the school, the church, and of private and devotional reading and study, with English Protestants, is still the Bible of King James, with its errors uncorrected, its interpolations unremoved, and its defects unsupplied.

Several new translations have been made since King James's time, but none of them have as yet been received with any considerable favor. King James's Bible, though extravagantly eulogized, was an excellent version for the times that produced it; yet it made much less improvement on the Bishop's Bible, the Geneva Bible, and Tindal's, Coverdale's and others, than Tindal's and Coverdale's did on Wickliffe's. Tindal, in the face of constant persecution, and cut off from any of the advantages and facilities which in more auspicious times he might have enjoyed, did more for the English Bible than all King James's translators. So did Luther for the Bible in Germany.

CRIME IN WORCESTER COUNTY.—The report of the Grand Jury of Worcester County, Mass., has been published in the local papers, from which it appears that they considered 227 complaints, and found 165 indictments. The jury say that in nine cases out of ten the direct cause of the crime was "intoxicating liquors." They appeal to the people of the county in the most urgent manner to abate the evil, saying that "it strikes at the foundation of all our hopes and aspirations, and will, if suffered to go unchecked, destroy all hopes and expectations, as we look upon our sons and daughters, who are soon to come upon the stage of action."

In Essex County Court, at Lawrence, Moody Dow of Lynn, common seller. Verdict guilty.

Thomas Skelly, common seller. Skelly hailed from Boston, and peddled his liquors from a wagon in Lynn. Guilty.

Patrick M. Cue, of Lawrence, common seller. Guilty.

Henry Connelly of Georgetown, common seller. Guilty.

Mary Aylward of Newburyport, convicted of one sale of intoxicating liquor.

George Lee of Salem, common seller.—Guilty.

John McClern of Marblehead, common seller. Guilty.

☞ At the Court of Common Pleas, at the Lawrence, Mass., Mitchell Avery, John Murray, Leonard Brown, Thomas Peach, Wm. C. Senter, Moody Dow, Patrick Cunningham, and a dozen others were found guilty as common sellers.

Franklin Bean of Newburyport, two counts for selling liquor—complaint dismissed.

Mary Aylward of Newburyport, indicted for being a common seller, and two counts for single sales—verdict guilty on one sale.

☞ On Wednesday last, a barn belonging to Mr. Mark F. Goodwin, in South Berwick, was entirely consumed by fire, together with 60 tons of hay, a four-wheeled carriage, lot of corn, farming utensils, &c.

☞ As Mrs. George W. Wendell Jr., of Great Falls, was coming down stairs with her infant of some eight months, the child sprang from her arms, and struck on its head at the foot of the stairs, causing instant death.

☞ The poorest church-living in London is that of Woburn church, Tavistock place, St. Pancreds. It has decreased so as to amount to only between £5 and £6.

VETERANS TARGET SHOOTING.

The Amoskeag Veterans, on the 26th Oct., under Col. T. T. Abbot, their commander, went to Goffstown on a Target firing excursion.

They numbered eighty-eight guns, and including honorary members, there were over one hundred men in the company.

The outer ring of the target was four feet in diameter, and the inside ring was thirteen inches. The distance on the first round was twelve rods, on the second fifteen rods, and on the third twenty rods. The arms were plain percussion muskets. Two hundred balls hit the board, one hundred and and sixty-five struck inside the outer ring, and twenty-four inside the smaller ring.

There were four prizes offered—the first a gold medal, worth $35; the second a silver cup worth $10; the third a silver medal worth $5, and the fourth a leather medal, worth twenty-five cents. The first prize was taken by E. G. W. Bartlett; the second by Capt. R. D. Moores of the second company; the third by Quartermaster-Sergeant J. A. Haines, and the last (leather) by Hon. John M. Parker, Senator from the District. The commander distributed the prizes, with graceful speeches to each of the victors.

☞ Judge Carter, late of the U. S. Supreme Court, said, some time ago, in giving a charge to a jury:—

The law is not medical or a metaphysical science. Its search is after those practical rules which may be administered without inhumanity, for the security of civil society by protecting it from crime. And therefore it inquires not into the peculiar constitution of mind of the accused, or what weaknesses, or even disorders he was afflicted with; but solely whether he was capable of having, and did have a criminal intent. If he had, it punishes him; if not, it holds him dispunishable. And it supplies a test by which the jury is to ascertain whether the accused be so far insane as to be irresponsible. That test is, the capacity to distinguish between right and wrong, as to the particular act with which the accused is charged. If he understands the nature of his act, if he knows his act is criminal, and that it he does it, he will do wrong and deserve punishment, then in the judgment of the law, he has a criminal intent, and is not so far insane as to be exempt from responsibility. On the other hand, if he is under such delusion as not to understand the nature of his act, or if he has not sufficient memory and reason and judgment to know that he is doing wrong, or not sufficient conscience to discern that his act is criminal and deserving punishment then he is not responsible."

OUT DOOR CULTURE.—It is in the country, and as it seems to me, there only, that the minds of children may be kept in a state of healthy activity, without a too frequent recurrence to books; and it is there best, if not exclusively, that a wide and copious acquaintance with the kingdoms of nature may be made by the means of ocular and conversational instruction, such as shall convey a fund of various information, apart from task work and lesson-learning. A full half, or more, of all that ought to be learned in early life, may be learned out of doors by country-bred children; and how incalculable is the advantage of such a method in respect both of the mind and of the body.

This is what might be done. But it is not done generally.

IGNORANCE.—There was a time when ignorance could scarcely be called a vice. In the dark ages, ignorance was a matter of necessity with the bulk of mankind; and we ought rather to pity the mistaken notions and the rude ferocity of manners to which that ignorance gave rise, as inevitable consequences of a cause over which our ancestors had no control, than to ridicule the former, or declaim against the latter. But in the present enlightened state of our country, the meanest among us has no excuse for being ignorant. To the poorest and humblest, means of information and improvement are now accessible which in the earlier and darker ages did not exist, even for wealthy and noble.

Wilkins—"Really this is not to be borne. Who are you sir? and who was your father?"

Homebred—"Who was my father? My father was the first inventor of the threshing machines. I am the first of his make and can be set in operation at a very little expense and at the shortest notice. So look out."

☞ Mr. Ira Merwin of New Haven is so fortunate as to have been able to pick ripe strawberries from his garden within a few days. He says they are sweeter than the Pennsylvania election news.

PULPIT ANECDOTE.—A minister, preached on the subject of misrepresentation and slander, "When professors of religion so far degrade themselves and their profession as to attempt to injure others by lying and misrepresentation, they should remember that when the devil was disputing with the archangel about the body of Moses, the Lord would not permit the archangel to bring a railing accusation against the devil; and until they can prove that the individual they wish to injure is worse than the devil, and that they themselves are better than the archangel, the Bible requires them to hold their tongues and mind their own business."

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from unsoured Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berries, and ranks as the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find it invaluable as a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces 'Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale by the quarts at seventy cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHERS IS IMPORTED.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the no plus ultra of cosmetics. It not only kills pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 8,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland, which secretes the sebe, which secretes disease, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet table, and never knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

LOCAL.

☞ We take it, Messrs. Allen & Paine's column will be seen, if it is on the outside; and that they don't care, so that a good share of trade is inside their fine store.

Or-fish-al.—A package left on the desk of the junior editor, bearing the above inscription, was found to contain a couple of dozen of silvery smelts—which, on eating, proved to be what we at first suspected—Good-rich fish, from an ocean-roaming Gardener.

☞ "Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly" is to be discontinued; and a new magazine, "The Great Republic," to be issued by the same publishers, Messrs. Oaksmith & Co., New York. To commence Dec. 1st. $3 per year.

☞ The deaths by yellow fever in New Orleans, Oct. 29, were 25.

☞ On Tuesday, November 2d, Illinois, Michigan, New York, New Jersey, and Massachusetts will hold their elections. The Wisconsin election will take place Thursday, November 4th, that of Maryland, Wednesday, November 3d, and that of Louisiana, Monday, November 1. These elections will decide the political character of the next House of Representatives.

☞ R. B. Forbes of Boston, who established the superiority of iron over wood in ship-building, in the case of a steamer bearing his own name, built thirteen years since and still as serviceable as she ever was—has just launched a new iron brig of 266 tons, intended for the general freighting business.

☞ There were ten deaths from violence in New York city last week.

☞ On Monday, Nov. 15th the people of Buffalo vote whether or not they will pay $50,000 a year for fifteen years, for an international bridge across the river to Canada from that city. The city is to have all the tolls, except for railroad trains.

Disgraceful Conduct of the U. S. Consul at Tahiti.—The San Francisco Bulletin says it has received repeated accounts of the disgraceful conduct of Henry Owner, U. S. Consul at Tahiti. He is drunk a large portion of the time, and has repeatedly been picked up in the streets intoxicated, even in his consular uniform, and carried home. Lately, in one of his drunken spees, he fell from a bridge into a gutter, and striking his face upon a stone, was picked up not only dripping with filth, but with a broken nose. On another occasion some sailors found him in a tarapatch and carried him to the calabooze as a 'drunk.' He however was not confined, as the French officer recognized in him the Consul of the United States!

Capt. Knowles, of the ship Wild Wave, lost in South Seas, went to Owner for the purpose of having the usual protest in such cases noted and extended—a proceeding necessary to obtain the insurance. Owner kept the log-book six days, refusing to give it up, but after further annoying Capt. Knowles, returned it, demanding the modest price of $199 70 for the papers which he had made out, whereas the legal price for such documents ought not to have exceeded $10.

☞ California law says neither negro, mulatto, nor Indian shall be accepted as evidence against a white man, either in a civil or criminal suit. But lately a local judge has overruled the harsh statute so far as to admit the proscribed classes in all cases, where they are the injured parties; and since colored evidence is freely accepted in the criminal courts, showing a revolution in sentiment.

The Prices of Flour.—The Cincinnati Gazette of the 6th inst., says:—"The late decline of flour in England takes dealers by surprise. The truth is, to allow an ordinary shipping margin to Great Britain, the article is not worth over $3.25 per barrel, now in the market." Still, at the latest advices, flour was selling at Cincinnati for $4,30 to 6,20 per barrel. The price must soon recede.

Strakosch's Opera Troupe.—Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Strakosch's opera troupe have created a perfect furore here. Forty five hundred dollars' worth of tickets were sold this morning, to hear Madam Colson in La Traviata.

☞ Farm Profits.—During one week recently, there were shipped from St. Albans, Vt., 202,000 pounds of cheese, worth $15,150, and 175,197 pounds of butter worth $29,771, bringing in to the farmers of that locality the pleasant sum of $44,921. Not poor farming this.

The Doubtful District in Ohio.—It is at last settled that W. S. Kenyon, Republican, is elected member of Congress in the Fourth District of Ohio by sixteen Republicans to five Democrats.

The New Albany Excitement.—Louisville, Oct. 29.—The New Albany expedition returned from Bradensburg yesterday, having been pacified by assurances from the citizens of that place that Horace Bell would be released on bail.

From Oregon.—A letter from Lieut. Tyler of the U. S. Oregon Army, dated at Cœur de Alue Mission, Washington Territory, Sept. 15, is fifteen days later than any other account from there. The Spokan and Peluse Indians had been defeated, after two days fighting. The Spokan Chief had been killed by the U. S. forces, and 900 horses had been taken from the Peluse tribe, All the plunder which the Indians took from Col. Steptoe's command had been recovered. Col. Steptoe's pistol was found upon an Indian who was shot down in the saddle. The army did not lose a man. The Indians were begging for peace, and complying with all the demands of the U. S. officers. Lieut. Tyler considers the war in that quarter as ended. His letter was expressed to Fort Taylor on the Snake river, near Walla Walla, by Indian runners, and was directed to his father, who resides in Hartford, being probably the only letter that came through by the last California steamer, from the seat of the Oregon war.

SAILORS' RIGHTS.

Our attention has been directed to an article in the Portland Transcript under the head of "Sailors' Rights," We quote such portions mainly as have reference to no particular case.

"That the master has rights on board his ship, which he must enforce and maintain is very true. His authority is supreme, and his word should command implicit obedience. We are no advocates of insubordination or disrespect on the part of the sailor. He has his relative place on ship-board, and should 'know his place.' But while in that place, quietly performing his duties, he has a claim upon the humane treatment and considerate regard of his officers. Common decency, as well as common law, requires that he should be treated as a man, with the feelings and impulses, the motives and ambitions of our common nature. Instead of this, there is no indignity too great to be heaped upon the unfortunate beings whose lot is the life of a sailor before the mast. Many of them foreigners, many of them reduced by their own habits to a low point in the scale of intelligence and virtue, they are regarded as fit only to serve their lordly master in the most abject and menial spirit. They are knocked down or triced up, they are whipped or beaten, handcuffed or otherwise treated as felons, at the fiercest whim of offended dignity or outburst of passion.

"It is true that for such abuse, the sailor has some legal remedies. But it is only once in a thousand times, that he finds it practicable to enforce his claim and obtain any redress. 'On the side of the oppressor is power.' Indeed it is very much to be doubted whether there is more power, absolute and tyrannical, in the hands of the negro drivers of the southern plantations. A friend of ours, engaged in a southern port in shipping sailors, says, with both systems under his eye, that the sailor's hardships, indignities and abuse, are far greater than those of the slave. * * * Let the petty tyrants that tread the deck, tremble in their shoes, when they remember sailors have rights which their brothers upon the land will see to it, are respected. There are too many of these who deserve to have been hung long ago. We design to cast no odium upon that large number of most excellent sea-captains who understand what is due to the sailor, and treat him as a man and a brother. On the other hand it is mainly to them and their influence that we must look to correct the evil in question. By their example and their direct efforts they can do more than any other class of persons to secure to the sailor his 'equal rights,'"

☞ At Taunton, on Thursday, the Supreme Court overruled the exceptions in the case of Mrs. Gardner, convicted of the murder of her husband. She was convicted of murder in the second degree, which, by the new law, is punished by imprisonment for life. She will be sentenced to the House of Correction, as women are not sent to State Prison in Massachusetts.—This is right. She will be made to work, and do the State some service.

Mr. Lydia Studley of Valley Falls, R. I., convicted of the murder of her husband, has been sentenced to imprisonment in the State Prison, at hard labor, for life. As the sentence was pronounced she was much moved, and said: "I am not guilty!"

MACGREGOR'S
VENTILATING
PARLOR, OFFICE AND HALL
STOVES
—AND—
HOT-AIR FURNACES

Have been in use for Twelve Years, and with the recent Improvements for Economy, Purity of Air and ease of management,

HAVE NO EQUAL.

They can be so regulated as to give any degree of heat required; and, unlike other anthracite coal-burners, ventilate the apartments quite as thoroughly as a wood fire or open Franklin, producing at once a current of air, moist, pure and agreeable, and as NONE OF THE AIR WHICH COMES IN CONTACT WITH THE FIRE-POT IS USED FOR RESPIRATION, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of by those using stoves and furnaces is entirely obviated.

The Fire may be continued from One to Three Days without replenishing.

These Stoves are beautiful in design, and finished in the most perfect manner. They are equally appropriate, and have given universal satisfaction to all who have adopted them for Offices and Stores, as well as the Parlor. The Inventor CHALLENGES THE WORLD to produce an article by which so much pure warm air can be generated from so small an amount of fuel, requiring but about 15 lbs. of anthracite coal to warm an ordinary parlor for twenty-four hours without replenishing, and then leaving fire enough to rekindle without the use of charcoal. The coal is all consumed and no clinkers made, consequently sifting coal is dispensed with. When this Stove is properly managed, the fire continues through the entire season without once going out. The SIXTEEN SIZES are calculated for, and will suit the capacity of

THE SMALLEST ROOMS,
—OR—
THE LARGEST HOUSES, STORES,
HALLS OR CHURCHES,

while one size of the Furnace will warm 200,000 cubic feet of space Added to all these qualifications, the purchaser may reasonably expect to save thirty per'cent. in fuel expense.

So great is the popularity of these Stoves that very many imitations of them have been put into the market, and by dint of puffing have been forced upon the public, but none of them have stood the test of time. In fact,

The McGregor Stove
IS
THE ONLY PERFECTLY AIR-TIGHT COAL STOVE MADE.

THE ONLY ONE THAT WILL GIVE UNIVERSAL SATISFACTION
AS A COAL BURNER.

Purchasers who wish to get a Stove that will b DURABLE, and will do all it is recommended to do, will do well to buy a

A gambling house in Philadelphia broken into at twelve o'clock at night by the police, disclosed a party of individuals at an elegant supper, and enjoying their cigars and wine. The proprietors of the saloon were arrested, and two or three visitors were secured as witnesses.

A man in South Windsor, Conn., has been presented with five children within a year. Two were born on Oct. 22d, 1857, and three on Oct. 13th, 1858.

TRY IT ON.—The Knickerbocker tells an excellent story of Burchard, the revivalist; not of him exactly, but what happened at the close of his meetings.

He was in the habit of addressing his congregation in the following manner:

"I am going to pray, and I want all that desire to be prayed for to send up their names on a piece of paper."

On the occasion to which we refer, there was at once sent up to the desk quite a number of little slips of paper, with the names of those on whose behalf he was to "wrestle," as he said, "with the Almighty!"

A pause ensued, when the minister continued:

"Send them up! I can pray for five thousand just as easy as I can for a dozen! Send them up! If you haven't any paper, get up and name the friend you want prayed for."

At this stage of the proceedings a man whom we shall call Oziel Brigg, a stalwart man of six feet and a half in his stockings, with a strong common sense, a keen perception of the ludicrous, and withal, a notorious unbeliever, rose in the midst of the congregation, a mark for all, and amidst the winks of the "unconverted," said:

"Mr. Burchard, I want you to pray for Jim Thompson."

The minister, seeing at a glance that Oziel was a hard case, affected not to hear the request, whereupon it was repeated. A titter ran through the younger part of the audience.

"Who is Mr. Thompson, sir? inquired Mr. Burchard.

"It's Jim Thompson; he keeps tavern down in Thompsonville, and I keep a public house a little below him. He's an infernal scoundrel, and I want you to give him a lift."

"But," said Mr. Burchard, "have you faith in the efficacy of prayer? Do you believe in the power of petition?

"That's neither here nor there," responded Oziel, "I want you to try it on him."

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed as times, as good judgment may direct. For Information and other pieces, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in chronic. MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself presents to all our race. Rosier, although less precious than rubies, it will add more to the glowing cheek, than ever so bright and sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls. If the head is bald or its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, dry and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Poetess, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color, about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

E. C. THALBERG.

"Dirch a'r Gwyliedydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 15 Nassau st., Apr 12, '55.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually resumed their dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KIRBY.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD:—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At the time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds about at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place, healthy blood, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, imparting the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the Dyspepsia, prevent the food from rising and souring.

A dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

One dose taken at night, moves the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose, taken each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhoea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the watery parts.

We take pleasure in recommending this invaluable medicine as a cure for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious character, for it eradicates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious practice of those Quack Doctors, who have still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that he has been consulted by all the Diseases given or shewn to, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter addressed as below.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

Dr. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by Quacks have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inserted upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicine sent to any part of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be careful, regular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the risk of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, and have been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

Dr. L.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Imperious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of other roofs, such as Gravel roofs, Tin, Felt, Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical worth. Our Roofing is superior in all the leading respects we do not strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing is peculiarly applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within a few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858.

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—In connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—added not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—have at last arrived at a mode of cure, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the proper and curative properties of medicine are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation by itself, but the extension of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution of which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of numerous friends and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Full note, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,

No. 620 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

ALARIC;
OR
THE TYRANT'S VAULT.

A SICILIAN STORY OF EARLY TIMES.

CHAPTER I.

ALARIC.

Not far from the city of Syracuse, when it was the metropolis of all Sicily, an object of longing to ambitious conquerors, and one of the finest cities in the world; not far from this place, upon the shore of the sea, stood a man who had just landed from a vessel that was now sailing away towards the North. He was quite young—not over five-and-twenty—tall and well-proportioned; with a muscular system finely developed; and possessing a face not only striking in its manly beauty, but remarkable, in one so young, for its stern, resolute, and self-reliant expression. His dress was light and simple, and evidently of Greek manufacture; the lower limbs being clothed in close fitting goat skin, above which he wore a shirt of white linen, confined at the waist with a belt of white mail. Upon his head was a cap of woven stuff, the top drooping over his right ear; and his feet were shielded by a pair of sandals. His only weapon was a short, heavy sword, which hung, in a leathern scabbard, from his belt of mail. He stood for awhile, gazing about, as though undecided what course he should pursue; but finally he espied an old fisherman, not far off, who had just come down upon the beach, and towards him he made his way.

"A bright, pleasant morning, good sir," said the youth.

The old man cast his net from his shoulders and gazed up. He carefully scanned the features before him, and then replied:

"Aye, fair sir, it is a pleasant morning. We have many such on this coast."

"And yet it storms sometimes, I suppose," suggested the first speaker.

"He is a wise man who little heeds the storms he cannot quell," said the fisherman, with a nod of the head which seemed to give his words more meaning than the circumstances under which they were spoken would imply.

"You are right there," responded the other. "But tell me—where can I find Artabanus, the hermit?"

The fisherman took another careful look into his interlocutor's face, and then answered:

"He lives upon yonder mountain, which is called Catalano. Do you wish to see him?"

"Yes."

"Then follow the path that leads to yonder cot, until it brings you to a small stream.—Cross that, and then upon your right hand you will see a beaten track. He lives in a cave near the top of the mountain, and this track will lead you directly thither."

The young man thanked his informant, and was upon the point of turning away, when the latter resumed:

"I mean no offense. Your face looks familiar. It has the cast of a countenance I fancied I had seen before."

"You'll at least remember of having seen such an one this morning," said the young man; and as he thus spoke he turned away.

"Aye," muttered the old Sicilian, half to himself, but yet loud enough to reach other ears; "and I call on Neptune to witness that I have seen it before. Such faces are not multiplied—they are not plenty in Syracuse these times. Alas! more's the pity."

The youth hesitated for a moment, as tho' he would turn back, but he overcame the disposition, and kept on. When he had begun to ascend the mountain, he stopped and looked behind him, and saw that the fisherman was already upon the water.

"Can it be," he said to himself, "that my face is so little changed? I think I remember that old man, for he has spread his nets long upon these waters; but how should he remember me? I pray the Gods that there be not many in Syracuse that will yet be so observant."

With this the traveler kept on up the mountain until he had reached a broad table of rock, from whence he could see the bay, and the city beyond. The great metropolis was spread out before him, with its massive walls, its temples, and its palaces, and a tear started down his cheek as he gazed upon the scene.—He clasped his hands upon his bosom, and, started on again. He crossed the stream and took the path to which he had been directed; but he did not follow it to one who was a stranger to its windings. He pursued his way with an ease and assurance, and, at times, with an abstractness which could have been indulged in only by one who knew well the way he was going. Up the steep, rocky hight he climbed, and, when he finally stopped, it was before the entrance to a cave—a cave which nature had fashioned in the mountain's side, and sheltered from the sun's fervid heat, and the fury of the storm. At the mouth of the cavern sat an old man, over whose head some fourscore years had rolled. His hair and beard were white as the fleecy cloud that sailed above the mount, and floated in silken, wavy masses over his shoulders and breast. A mantle of gray cloth enveloped his frame, and his feet were shod with heavy sandals. He was engaged over an old manuscript, but as he heard the sound of approaching footsteps he closed the volume and raised his head.

"Good morning, my son," he said, with a look of simple welcome.

"Kind father, I greet thee," the youth returned, at the same time extending his hand.

"How!" cried the aged man, starting to his feet, as the accents fell upon his ear. He shaded his eyes with the palm of the left hand, and gazed eagerly into his visitor's face. "Do I see aright?" he added. "Is it Alaric—my old pupil?"

"Aye, good Artabanus, I am Alaric—come once more to see thee."

For some time the hermit gazed into the young man's face in silence, but finally he said:

"Sit down—sit down, my son. Thy presence has started a host of varied emotions to life within me, and I must recover my thoughts ere I can talk with thee in reason."

"Thank the gods, I find thee alive and in health," replied the youth, as he let go the old man's hand, and took a seat upon a wooden bench close by.

"Aye—I am well in body," returned Artabanus. "But," he added, thoughtfully, continuing to gaze earnestly into his companion's face as he spoke, "the body is but a small part of man, and the ills of the flesh are very joys when compared with some of the pains to which the soul may be subject. But tell me of thyself. Where hast thou been?"

"I have been in Greece," replied the youth. "When I fled from these shores, eight years ago, I sought refuge there, and there I have remained ever since. Oh! I wept this morning, as I gazed down upon the city of my birth. I had thought I had done weeping over those memories; but when I again gazed upon Syracuse they came crowding upon me with a power which I could not resist. I saw the very temple beneath the walls of which my father and my brother were slain; and I could see the roof beneath which my mother died. Artabanus, there were not many of the patrician families escaped that foul butchery."

"No, Alaric. Of all who were loyal to the true interests of the people, I have seen only yourself return. There were a few escaped, but not many. Were there any went with you to Greece?"

"No, father. I escaped alone. I saw my noble parent cut down—I saw my brother fall—and when I knew I had no relative left in the city, I fled. Fortune favored me. I found a small boat by the sea shore, and I put out alone upon the dark waters. I floated away to Melita, and from thence I gained a passage to Greece. The tyrant still reigns in Syracuse?"

"Alas! yes. And his deeds are evil, and the people suffer. We have had no peace in Sicily since good Helixus died. Thou wert but a mere child then."

"I was seven years old. I remember the good king well, for my father, you know, was one of his chief officers."

"Aye—you were older than I thought," said the hermit, musingly.

"And I remember there was some mystery connected with the good king's death," remarked Alaric. "Am I not right?"

"There was not much mystery," answered the old man. "He was weak and weary, and he left the throne that he might die in peace; and death soon came to him. But why hast thou returned to Syracuse?"

"Can you not guess?" returned the youth.

"I might guess many things, my son."

"And yet but one of them would be right. I have said that I left no relative behind me when I made my escape from this place; but I did leave one whom I loved—one about whom my affections were entwined with a life that could not die. You know of whom I speak."

"Aye—you speak of the mason's daughter, Ianthe."

"Yes, father. Is she alive?"

"She is."

"And well?"

"She is well."

"And," pursued the youth, in a more eager tone, "is she still free?"

"Why? Have you thought that she would remember you in love through the years that have passed?"

"O! do not tell me that she has ceased to love me. Yes, she has remained in years, but I loved her then, and my love has grown stronger in the separation which has followed. I know there is danger to me here, but I came with a will to meet it."

"But suppose your very life were in danger if you sought the maiden?"

"You may speak of danger, if you will, but do not seek to place the barrier of fear between me and my desire, for I know not the emotion.—Your Artabanus, taught me when I was a boy, and your wise lessons have not departed from my mind. You taught me that there were many things more to be feared than death, and I have come, prepared rather to die than live all alone in a distant land, with the sad memories of my unhappy country for my only heritage."

"And you would not turn from death, should it raise its threatening front between yourself and Ianthe?" The old man's gaze grew more earnest as he thus spoke, and a spark, within which seemed to gleam some newly awakened hope, burned in his eye.

"My father," answered Alaric, with a flushing cheek, "I did not intend to have offended; I think you doubted me, but I do not think so. Show me that Ianthe loves me, and not even Pyrrho himself, with the blood-stained crown of Sicily upon his brow, shall have power to startle me from my course, while life is mine."

Artabanus started to his feet and grasped the youth by the hand.

"Noble Alaric," he cried, with a joyful enthusiasm, "thou art worthy of the maiden's hand. She does love thee—she cherishes thy memory within her heart as the most precious thing of earth, and for long years she has lived upon the hope that thou wouldst return to her."

"O—the gods be praised!" ejaculated the young man.

"But," added the hermit in a changed voice, "there must be danger in thy path. Pyrrho holds his throne only through the fear and enslavement of the people, and he knows it. Your father was one of his bitterest enemies, and he was also one of the first whom the usurper found it necessary to put out of the way. You are not only the very image of your noble parent, but you must remember that you had arrived almost at the full stature of manhood when you fled from Syracuse. You were then seventeen, and from seventeen to five-and-twenty, especially in one so early developed as you were, there is not much change. You were a man then, and you are no more now. So you must expect that you will be known and recognized. But let us speak of that hereafter. First do you see Ianthe, and when you have found all right in that quarter, we will consider further."

"Shall I find her father?"

"Yes—and his house is just where it was eight years ago."

"I will go and seek her, then, and——"

"Hold, my son. You had better wait till nightfall ere you enter the city, and also exchange that Greek dress for a garment less likely to attract attention, for I assure you that too much care cannot be taken."

Alaric was impatient to see Ianthe, but he saw the force of the hermit's reasoning, and he was willing to wait. So he sat down by his old teacher's side again—eat as he had eat years before, when receiving instructions from the same lips—and listened to the story of the wrongs that had been done in Sicily during the last eight years. Hour after hour passed away, and Artabanus had still more to tell of the tyrant's cruelty.

"Merciful heavens!" cried the youth, fired almost to phrensy by the recital, "how have the people borne all this?"

"They have borne it under fear of their lives.—Pyrrho's soldiers are posted at every place where a murmur can arise."

"And how long shall it last?"

"Till some spirit with a heart big enough to love Sicily more than life, and a soul that fears not the tyrant, shall arise in Syracuse!" pronounced the old man solemnly.

Alaric started as he met the glance of his aged companion, for there was a meaning upon it of more than mortal import. He dared not trust himself to speak then, for the feelings that had sprung into life in his own soul were so wild and strange that they fairly startled him. He arose and walked out upon the mountain, and over and anon, as his eye rested upon the distant city, the tumult in his soul came to startle him again. He did not seek to analyze the emotion, for it was so bold and gigantic, so genie-like in its misty proportions, that he dared not handle it with reason.

After a while Artabanus came out and touched him upon the shoulder.

"Alaric," spoke the old man, "it is waxing late, and we may be on the move. Let us eat a crust of bread, and then we will descend the mountain together. I must go with you so far as the Dionysian gate, for there we must find a proper fitting garb for you. Glycon is my friend, and may be trusted to the verge of the grave."

The frugal supper was soon dispatched, and then the two descended the mountain together.—At the fisherman's cot they stopped, and found that Glycon had just returned from his day's labor. Artabanus took him apart, and talking aside, listened to him as much of Alaric's story as he deemed advisable, he asked for some garments that would answer for the young man to wear.

The fisherman led the way to his scanty wardrobe, and the necessary garments were soon selected. Alaric's leggins of goat-skin were replaced by long hose of blue cloth, and his white linen shirt was exchanged for a dark brown frock, beneath which he could easily conceal his short sword. A cap of the same material completed him to the southern shore of the bay, and there stopped.

"We had better not be seen together beyond this point," said the old man. "From here the way is plain, and you have had caution enough.—At the gate you will not be stopped, unless some of the guard should take the whim to question you. Be wise, now, and cautious, and let me see you to-morrow."

"I will not forget."

"Then may the gods guide and protect thee."

With this Artabanus turned back towards the mountain, and Alaric kept on. The shades of night were gathering over the city as the youth passed in at the broad gateway, and the guard had already lighted their torches. He had come a few steps when a rough voice commanded him to stop.

"Didn't you promise me a fish for my dinner, thou lying knave?" the voice continued.

"You have mistaken your man," said Alaric, hiding his face as much as possible without seeming desirous so to do.

"Good Bacchus, so I have. Thou'rt not Nestor?"

"No," returned our hero; and as he spoke he kept on.

"What's a strange face," said one of the soldiers. "And, I thought, a tall one," said another.

"How now?" asked a third. "Has a stranger passed?"

"Yes—a fisherman."

"Tis said that a Greek vessel was upon the coast this morning, and we should know whom she landed."

Alaric heard no more. He turned the first angle in the street that presented itself, and then hurried on. The way was familiar and he had no difficulty in selecting the various avenues he needed to follow, but he was not wholly easy.—He had reason to believe that he was followed. He took several winding passages for the purpose of avoiding pursuers, but he could not get rid of the echoing foot-fall that sounded upon the pavement behind him. It slackened when he slackened—it stopped when he stopped—and when he hurried on the echo hurried after him.

CHAPTER II.

IANTHE—AN ALARM.

Within a comfortably furnished apartment of an humble abode, near the western wall of the city, sat two individuals. The first was a man some fifty years of age, stout and muscular in frame, and wearing the garb of an artizan, with the dust of his calling still clinging to him. He possessed an open, kindly countenance, and if it lacked in comeliness, it certainly made up in honesty and truthness. Such was Bellerus, one of the most skillful artizans in Syracuse, and possessing a fair knowledge of architecture in its higher and more elaborate branches. A genial, comfortable disposition had endeared him to those of his own choice, and an antipathy to turmoil and strife, and an unwillingness to assume much responsibility, had kept him from rising to any eminence in his profession. There was many a heart, because for his retaining his humble position, tho' every desire of his social life seemed to be answered where he was.

The other person—the mason's companion—was a female. She had seen just twenty summers, and was beautiful as the poet's dream. In form she was light and graceful, her limbs full and round, and her whole frame full of life and vigor. Her features were of true Grecian mould, with large, dark eyes, over which drooped long lashes of silken texture, while a mass of wavy tresses clustered about her superbly rounded shoulders. Beyond the few honest friends who sometimes partook of the artizan's hospitality, she was not known. Bellerus had guarded her with a miser's care, and few there were in the broad metropolis who knew of the existence of beauty that dwelt within his walls. The humble craftsmen who shared her father's confidence loved her modestly, but they loved her with a worshipping love as the kneeling shepherd loved his goddess; and they were all pledged not to speak of her in their intercourse with the outside world.

"Don't call me foolish, father," said the maiden, imploringly.

"I do not call thee so, Ianthe," the mason returned "I only wish to help you over what may prove a most bitter disappointment. How can I hope that Alaric will ever return?"

"My love tells me so."

"Ah—but love is blind."

"Yet its feelings are the more to be relied upon, for they come from the internal promptings of the soul. But I feel sure that he will come back to me. Only last night the bright goddess Electra appeared to me in a dream, and told me that Alaric should return. At least I will hope yet a while longer; for it is sweet to hope."

Bellerus did not find it in his heart to do more towards dispelling the bright promise which the maiden cherished, and he turned the conversation upon another topic. Only a few words had been spoken, however, when a loud rap was heard without, and the host lighted a torch and went to the door. When he returned, he made a motion for Ianthe to withdraw.

"It is a stranger," he said, 'and it is not meet that thou shouldst be present."

But the maiden neither left the room nor moved. She had heard the tones of the visitor's voice, and her quick ear had caught a familiar sound.

Bellerus would have reminded her again, but the stranger was close behind him, and quickly entered the apartment. Ianthe saw not the humble father's garb—she only saw the well remembered form which she had carried within her the sacred repository of her affections for so long a time. They were changed a little—they had assumed more of manhood—but not changed to love.

"Sweet Electra, my dream is true!" she cried, as she started forward, and put forth her hands.

"ALARIC HAS COME!"

"So Heaven looks down with richest blessing!" the young man responded, as he folded the maiden to his bosom.

"May the gods preserve me!" exclaimed the old mason, gazing upon the youthful pair in wonder. "I hope this is no trick of Dianus to blind me. Alaric, is it thou?"

"In truth, good Bellerus, it is," returned our hero, extending his hand as he spoke. "Surely thou wouldst know me."

"Aye, and I do know thee now," the host responded, grasping the youth warmly, and gazing eagerly into his face. "Thy father, good Alaric, could not mistake that face. Thou art grown wondrously like thy noble father."

The trio were soon seated, and when they had regained somewhat of their composure, Alaric gave a brief account of his adventures during his absence from Sicily. Ianthe sat all the while with her head upon his bosom, and ever anon would lifting her eyes to catch the warm glances of his love.

At length the old craftsman went out, and the lovers were left alone. They told over the tales of affection they used to tell in other years, and for an hour the world was shut out from their thoughts.

"O!" murmured Ianthe, after Alaric had imprinted a warm kiss upon her brow in token of the renewal of his most solemn pledges, 'now that thou art near me, and my fount of love is full I begin to fear the dangers which may beset thee.'

'Let us not think of danger now, my beloved,' replied the youth. 'This should be a season of joy and happiness unalloyed.'

'Aye—but we should not forget that there is a future, and that we must be watchful of the joys to-day if we would have them with us henceforth.'

'Thou art right, Ianthe. And I will be watchful. I know there is danger in the way, but I fear it not.'

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1858.

AN INSIDE VIEW OF AFRICA.

The civilized world has so long seen only the dark exterior of Africa, that it can scarcely believe there is any light within it. The reports of returning missionaries and explorers give us glimpses of life in the interior of the continent, which show that African barbarism is not quite so black as it is painted.

The Rev. T. J. Bowen, late a Baptist missionary to Yoruba in Africa, has recently delivered a series of lectures, in New York, upon Africa and the Africans, which contain some interesting statements. The desert, he says, is not the vast sea of desolation we think it to be. The stories about men or caravans being overwhelmed by sand are very old and very false. Nearly every part of the desert is inhabited; there are two old republics in Sahara, with a literature, perhaps, as old as any other. The soil of most of the desert is lime, sand and clay. Artesian wells would probably find water almost anywhere, and some day the desert may be made to blossom as the rose. The long ranges of mountains which appear on the maps are found, when visited, to be only peaks.—At this rate our geographies will need a great deal of correction. The chapters on Africa are always headed with a cut representing men and camels prostrate beneath a sand storm.

It seems the Africans themselves know a great deal more about us than we know about them. There are several libraries and a number of learned men in the heart of Africa. They asked him if the days of our week were not named so and so, and when he said they were, they said they had found it so in their books. Their language has 15,000 words known to him; these are built upon about 120 verbal roots and 500 or 600 nouns. The Yoruba language has more abstract nouns than the English; this taught him that negroes know how to think. He could express himself with greater precision in the Yoruba language than in the English. There are all shades of color among the Africans. The white people are, of course, the most mischievous, and have conquered almost every part of Africa. Some of the black men have Roman noses and finely formed hands and feet. These are called the black-white men, and are considered the most learned of Africans. The lecturer had seen some of best types of men in Africa that he had seen anywhere. The heathen population there are wonderfully kind and hospitable. It is only the coast men who are lazy; in the interior the people are industrious enough. In Abbeokouta there is a market two miles long, where dresses are sold at $60 apiece. The lecturer knew an African intimately whose wealth he computed at more than $2,000,000. The people are very polite, especially in the cities. They kneel where we bow, and the lecturer had often seen men kneeling to women in the street! On the coast he saw women at work in the fields, but not in the interior. Most of the trade of the country is in the hands of women.

The Africans smelt iron with charcoal and ore, and without bellows; they also make a glass which the French have in vain endeavored to imitate. The people are heathens, and offer human sacrifices, but so did the Greeks and Romans. After he had preached to them they told him they would not sacrifice any more, and so far as he knew, they kept their word.

☞ The Parkerites (a spurious sort of Baptists) built a church, twenty years ago, in Coles county, Ill., and so decided it that if there was ever allowed within its walls a temperance lecture, a Bible Society meeting, a missionary meeting, or a Sunday school, the title was forfeited and fell back to the original owner. Ten years since its pulpit became vacant for want of hearers, and now the sheep and swine sleep there.

☞ The Hawaiian Advertiser says that on the 10th of August a schooner plying between the islands, with eight natives and three foreigners on board, upset. The natives picked up the foreigners, put them on the bottom of the vessel, and then started to swim to the nearest land—fifteen miles distant. They swam during the remainder of the night, through the following day and night, and on Thursday six out of the eight landed on Niihau, an old man and a stripling having proved unequal to the task.

☞ Rev. Henry Ward Beecher says, there are many troubles which cannot be cured by the Bible or hymn book, but which you can cure by a good perspiration and a breath of fresh air.

☞ The following passage from an article in the New York Tribune, addressed to the citizens of the Empire State on their duties at the election to-day, is remarkable for its terseness of expression and stirring, pungent eloquence of statement of the present aspect of the slavery issue:

On every side of us, all Christendom is becoming conscious and conscience-stricken on the subject of slaveholding. Great Britain, by a protracted effort and at a heavy cost, abolished it in her colonies twenty years ago. France followed in her track at the time of her last republican revolution. Brazil has prohibited the slave trade, and is visibly preparing to rid herself of slavery, so that when our present Minister Meade sought to commend our alliance to her Emperor on the ground of the United States and Brazil being the two great slaveholding powers of the New World, the Emperor's response was an emphatic silence—a silence honorable to him, shameful to our government, thus constituted the sole American power that avows and glories in its championship of human bondage. Even Spain denies all complicity in the slave-trade which her officers are bribed to wink at. Holland is now intent on eradicating the last vestiges of slave holding from Surinam. Russia is steadily, gloriously advancing to the freedom of her shackled millions. Only this boasted land of freedom is now busy in the manufacture of slave-whips and chains. We alone are facilitating and aiding in the extension of slavery, while all other nations are restricting or suppressing it. On all God's green earth, there is just one spot where labor was free forty years ago, but is now enslaved; and that is Texas, made slave territory by the immigration, the money, and the arms of our countrymen, backed by our federal government. How much longer shall we thus insult Heaven and proclaim the Declaration of Independence an audacious lie?

☞ A society, with the singular name of "The Babel Club," has existed in London for two years. It was established to facilitate friendly relations between persons of different states and national origin—to promote greater mutual knowledge of the language, literature, etc., of different countries—and thus, as far as its sphere of action extends, removes existing prejudice and hatred.

☞ A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, who has just returned from the Western Kansas gold mines, writes that there is no gold at Pike's Peak. The company he was with prospected five days and did not find a trace of gold. But in the region known as the Platte region, they found gold everywhere. He says the gold is abundant enough to pay for digging, but not over $10 per day can be made.

☞ The barque Mayflower, of New York, which capsized at sea on the 3d of August, was fallen in with Sept. 29th by Captain Farley of the ship William Singer, at New Orleans from London, who found many human bones scattered about the deck, and the bodies of a woman and child in the last stages of decomposition. At the time the vessel capsized, eight persons were saved and fifteen were reported lost.

☞ Advices by telegraph from New Orleans represent that on the 22d October the U. S. sloop-of-war Plymouth was off Vera Cruz, waiting for Mr. Forsyth, Minister at Mexico, who was hourly expected at that port; also that Captain Dahlgreen had visited Gen. Garza at Tampico, and obtained from him the promise of reparation for outrages on Americans.

Louisiana Crops.—A New Orleans correspondent of the St. Louis Republican writes that the sugar crop of Louisiana looks better and better as the season advances, and planters now say that all that is required to make it the best crop ever grown, is a good frost to stop its growing and make it sweet. Cotton is largely overrunning the estimates of the planters. The weather has been particularly favorable to the "picking process," and those who estimated their crops at seven hundred bales may safely count on one thousand.

☞ The "Alta California" says that at the recent Fair of the San Francisco Mechanics' Institute, "Messrs. Main & Winchester, the famous saddle and harness makers, turned out a gorgeously decorated car, drawn by four high-spirited steeds.—On it was the full sized model of a horse, elegantly caparisoned, while around the platform were numerous specimens of the skill and handiwork of our California artisans."

☞ A well known and respected citizen of Cincinnati, Mr. John T. Elliot, broker, has been arrested on a charge of conspiracy to blow up the house of his father in-law's family, with gunpowder. One of three men who are said to have been employed in the matter, turned State's evidence.

Tufts College.—We have received a catalogue for the year 1858-9. Number of students, 49; from New Hampshire 4.

A Good Padre.—The following item of Portland news is from the Advertiser:

The story goes that a certain son of the "Green Isle," of Portland, who has frequently figured in our courts in liquor cases, transported three barrels of the 'critter', to a town not far off. In crossing a bridge with two of the barrels, he was confronted by the priest and an assistant, belonging to the town he was entering, both armed with hatchets. The Rev. Father immediately commenced an attack on the barrels, and with "apostolic blows and knocks," stove in their heads and set the "critter" running. A melee of course ensued, during which his reverence floored 1 is antagonist, while his assistant was also knocked down by a companion of our city dealer. The church, however, came off victorious.—The evil spirit was "laid" and its owner too.

The same paper says that in the Municipal Court on Friday, the liquors and vessels seized on the 18th October, at the store of Owen B. Hill, on Green street, were declared forfeited to the city, no one appearing to claim them.

This clause of the law is working well there.

☞ Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, will publish, Nov. 13th, the Autocrat of the Breakfast Table, by Oliver Wendell Holmes. One volume, 12mo., 350 pages, in handsome style, with characteristic illustrations by Hoppin. Price, in cloth, $1.

The same firm will also publish on the same day, Poor and Proud; or the Fortunes of Katy Redburn. A new juvenile, by Oliver Optic. Price 62½ cents.

Also, "Karl Riegler," and "Walter Seyton," two beautiful books for young people. Fully illustrated. Price 50 cents each.

☞ A correspondent of the Nashville, Tenn., Christian Advocate, complaining of the want of reverence often shown to the house of God, gives the following example: "A short time since we attended service in a large city church, and as we entered the oping prayer was being made, while in the aisle, more than half way from the door to the pulpit, stood a member of the church, and an educated gentleman, smoking a cigar!"

☞ Edward Carr was found dead in a back yard in Portland, Saturday. A roommate says Carr was taken sick about 1 o'clock at night, and went to the window to vomit. His companion retired to bed, and next morning the body of Carr was found in the back yard. An inquest was being held.

☞ We publish on the outside of this paper, the first portion of a story—which closes with, 'To be continued in our next.' This line is correct for our Weekly, but not for the Daily—in which we shall publish no more of the said tale till next week—when, on Tuesday, we shall give the second instalment.

☞ The stallions Hiram Drew and Toronto Chief trotted Oct. 28, over the L. I. Eclipse Course, for $500—weight of wagon and driver 300 lbs.,—two miles and repeat. The first heat was won by Hiram Drew in 5:21; second by Toronto Chief in 5:21; the third was a dead heat, time 5:25, and the final heat of the race was won by Toronto Chief in 5:33.

☞ The wife of a well known citizen in Cincinnati, in relating a painful history of her domestic troubles to the Police Judge, stated that not a single word of conversation had passed between her and her husband for the past twenty years! They have lived in the same house together, and a part of the time dined at the same table.

☞ There is likely yet to be much fighting with the Indians in California, Oregon and Texas. Those of California and Texas are much less formidable than the Oregon Indians, of whom the U. S. soldiers have evidently been somewhat afraid. It is probable that the Minnie rifle will nearly exterminate the Indians before they will obtain it, and learn to use the arm.

☞ T. B. Aldrich has left his situation as assistant editor of the Home Journal, and is now one of the editors of the New York Saturday Press, a new weekly literary and miscellaneous paper of large size, ably conducted and handsomely printed. $2 per year.

The Comet.—A Salt Lake correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, in alluding to the comet as seen at that place, speaks of its being "as red as sealing wax." Here it displayed a brilliant whitish yellow.—How will the scientific explain these diverse phenomena?

☞ Mr. Jason Nutter, of Lancaster, N. H., has killed three bears within a short time. They have done considerable damage in the northern part of this State, the past season.

☞ Rev. T. B. Thayer, who was so severely injured by a fall from his carriage last week, in Lowell, lies in a very critical condition.

MY NORTH AND SOUTH.

BY T. B. ALDRICH.

I am very, very fond
Of a blonde.
Mistress Maud: and so come here:
And yet, and yet, and yet
I like a gay brunette,
Therese, dear!

O, what can a body do
With you two?
Sunny hair and rosy mouth!
Black hair and eyes of jet!
You blonde, and you brunette!
You North and South!

Now, I love you, eyes and curls,
Little girls!
Give me each a dainty hand;
New England's hand shall lie
On my heart, and yours nearby—
You understand?

—(N. Y. Saturday Press.

A young and blooming girl, with a sparkling eye and a ringing laugh, is the most fascinating thing in existence.—All the rest of the world in comparison sink into utter insignificance.—Ex.

That isn't so. She's very fascinating, it is true, but just change the condition of that same feminine. Let her, by due process of bridesmaids, &c., become a matron—the mother of a little fat, chubby-cheeked, blue-eyed, crowing youngster, numbering about eight months of terrestrial existence. Let her hold that boy in her arms, engaged in the very interesting occupation of getting his "brekfus," with one little soft, white dimpled hand on the alabaster neck of mamma, his eyes looking into her's, and he only "letting go" to laugh almost convulsively, as mamma chirrups to him, while his eyes fairly dance with glee. Then—well, that's enough.—N. Y. Atlas.

Religion.—Some men think that religion is a mere ecstatic experience, like a tune rarely played upon some faculty; living only while it is being performed, and then dying in silence. And, indeed, many men carry their religion as a church carries its bell—high up in a belfry, to ring out on sacred days, to strike for funerals, or to chime for weddings. All the rest of the time it hangs high above reach—voiceless, silent, dead. Religion is not the speciality of any one feeling, but the mood and harmony of the whole of them. It is the whole soul, marching heavenward to the music of joy and love, with well-ranked faculties, every one of them beating time and keeping tune.—H. W. Beecher.

Stranger in Town.—We have been gratified by a call from Frederick Ayer, Esq., the business man of the firm of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell. A short acquaintance with the gentleman convinces us that not the Doctor's skill in compounding his medicines is alone concerned in the immense consumption of them; but that it takes business talent of no ordinary measure to pass them around the world.—Mr. Ayer, manifestly, has these abilities, and the success of his house shows that he uses them.—"Memphis Whig," Tenn.

The Prize Fighters.—Morrissey says that his wife's connexions are opposed to his continuing in the "profession." He intends to open a grog shop and lead a respectable and moral life in future.

We do not hear of Heenan's reappointment to the Custom House office which he resigned, as the performance of its duties interfered with his training. He has not been flogged worse than Glancy Jones was, and he stands a good deal better chance on another trial. Mr. Buchanan ought to do something for him.—Providence Journal.

☞ To day elections take place in five States. They are important as deciding whether the Democratic party shall hold control in a single northern state or not. The Newburyport Herald says it does not now appear that it will escape a perfect wiping out. On Tuesday night the Opposition is likely to be in the ascendant over every inch of territory, north of the line of the slave States and this side of the Rocky mountains.

☞ The only Congressional district of Massachusetts doubtful for the Republicans, is said to be the 5th, represented by Mr. Burlingame, where the foreign vote is very large, and where Gov. Gardner is laboring for the democratic ticket. We shall probably give the result of the contest, to-morrow morning.

☞ Charles Porter, Esq., one of the wealthiest and oldest citizens of Haverhill, Mass., has left by will the sum of $500 each to Revs. Messrs. Hosford, Parker and Plummer, of that town, besides other liberal donations.

☞ Rev. F. E. Hicks was installed pastor of the Universalist Society in Dover on the 27th inst. Sermon by Rev. A. J. Patterson of this city. Rev. T. J. Greenwood and Rev. E. G. Brooks also officiated.

Arrival Extraordinary.—A new bark built at Green Bay, Wis., and hailing from Howard, Wis., arrived at New York, Saturday morning, from Green Bay, via Quebec, with a cargo of spars, timber, fish, &c. She is about 300 tons burthen.

☞ Mrs. Abigail Gardner, who was tried last May in Plymouth County, Mass., for the murder of her husband, and found guilty of murder in the second degree, has been sentenced to imprisonment in the Plymouth House of Correction during life.

☞ The Dover correspondent of the Boston Herald says, "The solicitor, 'Squire Hamlin, is making himself very conspicuous in the prosecution of rum-sellers."

For a merchant to neglect advertising and yet complain of a lack of custom, is no more wise than for a farmer to complain of meagerness of his crops while his manure heap is allowed to remain in the barn yard. What should we think of the farmer who "can't afford" to haul his manure on to his fields?—Bath Times.

The Meditated Treachery.—There are numerous and unmistakable indications appearing every day in the movements of politicians, that the entire Pierce faction of the North are about to abandon the Administration and go over in a body to the support of Douglas.—Dem. Standard.

Could a man release himself from all moral obligation to God, he would release his fellow-men from all moral obligation to himself.

A SPECIAL NOTICE.—Adams & Curtis have every convenience for dressing swine, trying lard, &c., and one of them has had several years experience as a butcher of cattle and swine. They take pigs from the sty, and deliver the pork handsomely dressed, without trouble to the owner, for a very moderate compensation. o32

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Fine Ready-Made Overcoats, of latest styles and most approved pattern may be found at the Extensive Clothing Establishment of J. W. Smith & Co., corner of Dock square and Elm street, Boston. Now is the time to purchase overcoats, and our friends will find an extensive assortment and great variety from which to make their selections. See advertisement in another column.

RHEUMATISM.—The pains of chronic rheumatism often prove tenants for life of the system they have once invaded. Medicines for the most part seem to be of no avail, yet so many aggravated and obstinate cases have yielded to the alterative powers of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, that it is confidently recommended in such cases.

Two Valuable Receipts.
For Cleaning Kid Gloves.—Draw the gloves on the hands, wash them thoroughly with the PERSIAN BALM and soft water, and rub them dry.
To Remove Grease Spots from Clothing.—Pour on the parts three or four drops of the PERSIAN BALM, and rub it thoroughly—wash it out with soft water—warm or cold.

Charles' London Cordial Gin.
The Original and Only London Gin Imported.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weakness of age, induced by its adoption, affords relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces 'Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale as quarts and pints, in bottles and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, druggers and country merchants. Beware of immitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Genuine is Imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; E. Tucker, 29 Merchants' Row; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.
IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.
Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.
The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the no plus ultra of all cosmetics. It not only clears the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Beneath this tube is attached to each pore and that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

A CARD TO THE LADIES
DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, and in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those suppsing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C A Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ Sandyman Barrell Marden, Esq., alias Sandy Marden, is yet on his taps.—The "old whip" yet cracks—and "cracking, holds" his own. By the new (Boston & Concord) arrangement of our Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, you can get just nowhere and back the same day. So, as Marden's Express must go, he has chartered a good horse and two-seated wagon, and the old Exeter Stage line is in operation again—and no waiting three or four hours at New Market Junction. Sandy is one of the veritable stage drivers of the olden time—and deems "all the world a stage," and himself not least among the "drivers." We dare say he will rejoice when the Boston folks kill that railroad, (as many croakers say they will,) and he has a good four-in-hand in charge again. Long may he rein!

From the Newburyport Herald.

We noticed the other day that one Downing, for shooting a Mrs. Spinney, who was one of the most respectable women in Portsmouth, had been sentenced in New Hampshire to one year's imprisonment. One of the Portsmouth papers says that petitions are in circulation to pardon him even from that punishment.* To people out of New Hampshire, these things seem a little singular. It may have been that preceding the murder, Spinney was sober and Downing drunk, and therefore Spinney should not have taken advantage of his weakness and vice—it may have been that Spinney was disagreeable and Downing usually a clever peaceable fellow—it may have been that there was no justification for Spinney's abuse of Downing, if so it was, but it looks most singular that when Downing had shot a respectable and unprotected woman in cold blood, before the eyes of her children, who were so shocked and frightened that a little son has become deaf, and a little girl was entirely prostrate with fear—that there should be such a leaning towards mercy that one year's banishment from society could atone for all that; and even one year's sentence is not endurable to the people. It is well that justice should at all times be tempered with mercy, and erring as all men are, they should not be too severe on the errors of others, but really we hope that no such morbid sympathy for criminals will be created, that there may be more regard for weak and wicked men than for the upright who are guilty of no offence. In the midst of so many murders it would hardly be best to offer a premium even for manslaughter.

—*An incorrect report, we think.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

☞ The Dover Gazette perpetrates the following jeu d' esprit upon the marriage of James Morrow, Esq. to Miss Jeannie S. Pierce of this city.

PIERCE'd by the dart that Cupid throws,
Fair Jeannie sought surease from sorrow,
And then the part of wisdom chose,
Of—"live to-day and trust to-MORROW."
The MORROW came, which never comes
To those who would the adage borrow;
Now Heaven bless their future home,
And crown their each ensuing MORROW.

SMOKE FOR WOUNDS.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman mentions the case of a horse, which was just ready to die of an old and festered wound. Fortunately, he adds, at this stage of the case, an old Pennsylvania teamster came to our relief and recommended smoking with old shoes. A smoke was made of old shoes, soles and all cut in pieces, in a hog trough, and placed under the swolen parts. In a few hours the swelling wholly subsided, and the sore commenced discharging matter—the horse was saved.

Some years after this I heared two persons talking about a horse which had been gorged in the abdomen. In this case every thing had been tried in vain. The poor creature must die. At my suggestion he was smoked, and when I next heard from him the old horse was well. So much for old wounds.

In the same year I cut my foot with an axe. The lady of the house, seizing the foot while it was yet bleeding freely, held it over a pan containing smoaking taglocks. In a few moments the bleeding stopped, and the smoke was removed, and a bandage applied to protect it from accidental blows. The wound never maturated, and consequently never pained me. I have seen this remedy tried in many similar cases, and always with the same results. Let the reader bear in mind that no liniment or salve, drawing or healing should be applied. You have merely to smoke the wound well, and nature will do the rest.

I suppose the smoke of burning wood would produce the same result, but it would not be so manageable. There is a principle in the smoke of wood, which, when applied to the flesh coagulates albumen, rendering it unsusceptible of putrefaction. The same principle stops bleeding by coagulating the blood. It promotes healing, and may be applied with decided benefit to almost all ulcers, wounds and cutaneous diseases. See Turner's Chemistry, by Liebig and Gregory, p.1242.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.—New York, Oct. 30.—We have Buenos Ayres dates of Sept. 8. The papers rejoice at the news of the Paraguay expedition, and hail Com. Shubrick's squadron as the agent to civilize all South America. Rumors were rife that the Indians on the borders, incited by Urquiza, were about to make another invasion.

From Paraguay the news is that Lopez has allied with Urquiza, and intends to persecute Buenos Ayres. It was announced that Lopez purposes to withdraw the Praraguay an steamers from the Buenos Ayrean trade and make Kosaria the terminus of the line.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—Season ticket passengers and other residents on the Saugus Branch Railroad, met at the Eastern Railroad depot in Boston, Saturday evening, to consider the new arrangement whereby several trains over the Saugus Branch are discontinued. A committe waited on the Superintendent and asked as a special favor that the 12 1-2 train on Tuesday, Nov. 2, might be run over the Branch to accommodate voters. The request was declined, except on condition that they would pay the regular price of an extra train. A committee of twelve was appointed to confer with the President and Directors of the Eastern Railroad. A Committee on resolutions was also appointed. These committees will report at an adjourned meeting, next Wednesday morning, on the arrival of the first train.—Boston Jour.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Schooner Madison was seized on Saturday by the U. S. Marshal, on suspicion of being intended for a slaver. She was on her way to Salem, and was overhauled opposite East Greenwich, Conn. She had no clearance papers, but her captain handed the officer a paper purporting to be a bill of sale of the schooner, from George D. Wise, of the Coast Survey to Joseph Gardner and Wm. Eddy. The Madison was brought to the city, and is moored under the guns of the Revenue Cutter.

The Times' Washington correspondent confirms the report that a new transit line across Nicaragua is about to be opened.—He says a new transit contract has been executed between Gen. Jerez, Nicaragua representative, and Messrs. Vandyckers & Wallace of Philadelphia, under the title of Central American Transit Company.

Bad temper is oftener the result of unhappy circumstances than of an unhappy organization; it frequently, however, has a physical cause, and a peevish child often needs dieting more than correcting. Never fear spoiling children by making them too happy. Happiness is the atmosphere in which all good affections grow—the wholesome warmth necessary to make the heart-blood circulate healthily and freely; unhappiness, the chilling pressure which produces here an inflamation, there an excrescence, and, worst of all, "the mind's green and yellow sickness—ill-temper."

An old negro, crossing a river from a dancing frolic, lost his oars and came near being swamped. In terror he went down on his knees and exclaimed—

"Oh! massa, Lor', if yez ever gwine to help ole Ira, now's do time!"

SHUTTING UP.—The storekeepers in this city have agreed to shut up at eight o'clock every evening except Saturday.—We have some idea of "shutting up" ourself. We have to be introduced, every time we go home now.—Nashua Telegraph.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself prepared for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom never so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be scattered and shrivelled, dried and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will cure and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; from being as close around my head as the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its delightful hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

"Dirch a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '53.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who confined that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but not to as well as my surprise, after a few weeks you performed what I considered an effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in search of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I have no doubt but that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant feeling, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KIDER.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up from out and turned back to its original color (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds one and 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public

These Gums remove all secreted or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving a healthy tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause, and effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured by a single dose; better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and give a good appetite, free from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls taken at night will relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

INVIGORATOR

One dose often repeated is sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of fevers after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the water.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive of Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow the mixture.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD Proprietor. 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. ea31 1y

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious invasion of the destroyer, who are still, from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or mail, to any of all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the long period of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and within three months past, of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, can be cured in all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of the temple, HEALTH.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are equally bad, having been got up by irresponsible pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their management. The interests of parties are so safe, that no business is more strictly conducted with the same in done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Heat and Moisture, attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and after a long and costly several trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will find the full contained in this advertisement, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing may be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.

THE Medical Department for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—added not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the treatment is the same in all cases, and medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in Pulmonary Consumption and other chronic and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment—the former being administered in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known for any further comment upon my part. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been fostered liberally, and liberally, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the Medical Profession will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I have recently invented Pulmonary Vapors, Medicated Inhalers, &c., which I have found to be the most superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opps. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE that the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted—and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1858.

NEW ROBINSON CRUSOE.

The Clipper ship Wild Wave, Capt. J. M. Knowles, left San Francisco Feb. 9, 1858, in ballast, for Valparaiso. Heavy easterly gales forced the ship to the westward of her proper track, and on the night of the 4th of March, an hour after midnight, the captain discovered breakers on the lee bow. The helm was put hard down, but the ship mis-stayed, and while wearing struck upon a sunken coral reef, and soon fell on her side and bilged. A heavy surf broke over the ship, and it became evident at once that she must be lost. Her topmasts were cut away, but all efforts to relieve her failed.

Daylight showed that the vessel had struck the reef surrounding Oesono, a very low lagoon island, a mile and a half or two miles in circumference, the reef extending in some places two miles from the shore. Soon after daylight the boats were got out and all hands landed. In the course of the day the captain succeeded in getting his nautical instruments and provisions ashore. During the ten days following, they were unable to get out to the wreck more than twice, in consequence of the surf. While upon the reef Captain Knowles made very careful observations, from which he ascertained that Oesono lies 16 miles east of the position ascribed to it on the latest English charts, by which he had navigated the ship. To this error of the chart the loss of the Wild Wave is attributed.

On the 14th of March he started in his lifeboat, with his mate and five men, for Pitcairn's Island, 75 miles to the southward, expecting to find relief there, not to be had at Oesono, which is out of the usual track of vessels in any trade.—When he left the ship had not broken up, and the captain got out his specie and carried it down with him. Pitcairn's Island is a pleasant and fertile island, only four miles in circumference, which was settled by the mutineers of the British naval brig Bounty. It has long been a favorite stopping place for whalers, and the captain went there in hopes of meeting some one of them who would carry himself and his men to the Sandwich Islands.

Arriving at the island in 48 hours, he found it uninhabited, the settlers having been removed to Norfolk Island. In landing the life boat was stove and ruined. Of course the unfortunate men were now without a boat of any description, and had no tools with which to construct one. There seemed nothing for them to do but possess themselves in patience until next February or March, when they might hope for succor by the whaling fleet bound up the Pacific. The island abounds in tropical fruits which, with goats and chickens left by the late settlers, promised abundant support meantime. So the captain fitted up a deserted tenement, and made himself as comfortable as possible. An old gunbarrel picked up on the island was mounted upon a rude stock, so that one man could fire it with a match while aimed by another. In this fashion the goats were brought down.

In walking about one day, they found old rusty tools, consisting of a few axes, planes and augers. With these the captain determined to build a boat to get away with, and the party proceeded at once to carry the plan into execution. Of course it was no small undertaking, for they had no saws, nor rigging, nor iron-work for fastenings.

They went into the woods with their axes, hewed a single plank out of each tree, until the whole was ready to put together. In the meantime they found a few nails, and burned a couple of houses to get more. With these and wooden pins they fastened the vessel, and in about three days had it ready to launch, a trim-looking though frail schooner, thirty feet in length. From a quantity of condemned ropes picked up on the island, they made oakum to caulk the seams, as well as rigging for the schooner. The sail of the life boat, and some old sail cloth, also picked up at Pitcairn's, furnished sails for the John Adams, as the new craft was christened. From a bucket of tar and several pounds of resin, found in a deserted tenement, the bottom seams were paid, and the rest were painted with some refuse white lead from the same source. The hold was eight feet deep and well decked over. It only remained to get a set of colors. These the captain soon provided, an old shirt furnishing the white stripes and stars, some trimming from the church pulpit the red, and the curtains before a bunk in a deserted house furnished the blue for the field.

After three weeks' effort the Adams was launched, provisioned with jerked goat's meat, chickens, fruit, a few cans of preserved meats, and an abundance of water. Three of the sailors, fearful of the craft, preferred to remain where they were. So Capt. Knowles, his mate and two men set sail from Pitcairn's on the 3d of July, for Tahiti, intending to call at Oesono Island, where he had left 32 men. The first night out they encountered a severe gale from the northwest, which lasted three days, forcing them so far to the eastward that they could not make Oesono.

They bore away accordingly for the Marquesas, 1300 miles from Pitcairn's, where they arrived safely on the 5th of August. Here they found the U. S. sloop-of-war Vandalia, Commander Sinclair, who immediately got under way for Tahiti to get wood and water, and proceeded thence to the rescue of the Wild Wave's crew, remaining on Oesono and Pitcairn's. To Tahiti Capt. K. and his companions also proceeded. The mate went with the Vandalia on her errand of mercy, and Captain Knowles was carried by the French frigate Eurydice to Honolulu, whence he started for San Francisco on a merchant schooner—arriving there on the 28th Sept., bringing his colors and his specie with him. He started for home Oct. 5, and carried the first news of his ship which has reached the east since last spring. His family, who live at Cape Cod, had long since given up all hope of ever hearing from him, as he learned from his friends at San Francisco. He is evidently an intelligent and honorable gentleman, and his misfortunes command the sympathies of all merchants and shippers.

☞ The resolutions of the Miami Conference of the Church of United Brethren, declaring the wearing of crinoline incompatible with a true Christian's profession, seem to be rigidly enforced by the authorities of that denomination. At a campmeeting recently held near West Baltimore, Ohio, Bishop Russell forbade any one with hoops on to partake of the Sacrament, affirming that they would not be welcome at the table of the Lord!

A Maine Man Killed by the Indians. Information has been received at Portland, Oregon, of the death of Harlan P. Everett, formerly of Bangor, Me., who had been killed by the Indians. Mr. Everett left the Dalles for Thompson's river with the train of David McLaughlin. He was slow about getting started with the train in the morning, and one morning failed to reach the train at all, and was never seen afterward. Subsequent to this the train was attacked by Indians, and three men (Californians) were killed. After the fight a treaty was made with the Indians, who subsequently boasted of having killed Everett, describing his accoutrements, horses, &c., so minutely that there could be no doubting the fact. So much for being lazy about getting up in the morning.

A Strange Fish.—An amateur fisherman, in Salem, while fishing for smelts from one of the wharves, drew up, to his consternation, a fine specimen of the Mus Norvegicus, probably the only one ever taken with a hook and line in these waters. It has a long and slender tail, and, unlike most fishes, no gills, but well defined ears, four perfectly formed feet, and is entirely covered, with the exception of the tail, with a thick coat of fine hair.—It is very voracious in its habits.

Durability of Timber when kept from the Air.—In building a stone drain last week near the Messrs. Bowker's store on Derby st., Salem, the workmen came across some pieces of timber about four or five feet below the surface, which had been there more than sixty years, being part of an old wharf. They were as sound as they were when first laid.

☞ Joseph Byron and wife, who assaulted a school mistress and disturbed her school, at Jamaica Plain, have been fined $5 and costs for the assault; and as they are likely to get before the grand jury for the disturbance,—the case is continued for two weeks, with the prospect that Byron and his wife will settle with the injured teacher, and buy themselves off.

☞ Two German brothers in Calhoun county, Ill., married two German sisters. The elder brother fell sick, and the younger ran away with the sick man's wife. The convalescent brother then followed with the other wife, and now wants to swap back, but his own wife, who has tried both, says neither of the brothers is worth having.

A Large Sheep.—Mr. J. S. Tarbell of Aroostook, Me., recently killed a sheep three years old, which weighed when dressed 101 lbs. The three fleeces taken from this sheep weighed 18 3-4 lbs., or 6 1-4 lbs. each.

Modern Fiction.—In the very able address of the Rev. A P. Peabody, D. D., before the Alumni of Brown University, the novels of the day are thus summoned to judgment.

In no walks of literature do we so feel the lack and need of the moral element of which I have spoken as in that of prose fiction. Novels swarm thick as the frogs in Egypt, in our houses, in our bed chambers, and upon our beds; and I doubt not we should find them in dingier covers, in our ovens and kneading-troughs. Could they, like those same frogs, be "gathered together upon heaps," their savor would be hardly less offensive than that which arose in the nostrils of Pharaoh's subjects. Of them all, how few transcend the conversational ethics of the author's age and people! Indeed, the highest praise awarded them is for the faithful portraits of men and things as they were and are: and, the more deformed and abnormal the originals, the larger is the limner's meed of panegyric. If Scott makes the roystering Cœur de Lion, or the stolid and profane Peveril, perfectly life like; if Dickens, with a diamond or two, and a few grains of pure gold, empties on his page the very sewers and cess-pools of London society, and our nausea bears witness that the outpouring is equally genuine and unstinted; if Thackeray puts into print just such affectations and snobberry, as, in actual life, we shun as we would vipers' blood—we regard the triumph of genius as complete, and pronounce its fame immortal.

☞ At Lynn, on Wednesday last, the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Israel and Ruthy Buffum was celebrated by a surprise party. Mrs. Buffum is living in the same house in which she was born, and the tables were spread in the same room in which the wedding feast was prepared in 1808.

"The Institution."—The Concord Statesman says a rather literary young gentleman, wearing a study gown, came to that city, and told the hackman at the railway station that he wanted to go to "the Institution," whereupon John conveyed him to the State Prison.

Anti-Tobacco Tracts.—Mr. Geo. Trask, Fitchburg, Mass., is publishing a series of tracts against the use of tobacco. Somebody has sent us a package, for which we are much obliged, though we do not use weed in any of its forms, except as a poison to destroy vermin on plants, etc.

☞ The returns from Iowa indicate that the following resolution of the republican State convention was put into execution:

Resolved, That our potatoes shall all be dug at least one week before election day, and that we pledge ourselves, each to the other, to devote the whole of that week to digging the graves of our political opponents—by stirring up and bringing out every republican voter in our respective localities.

☞ The Albany Statesman says Morrisey and his gang did not travel over the Central railroad "on their muscle," but on free passes signed "E. Corning, president." Not to be stinted in his liberality, many of the roughs received checks for $20 each from the same generous individual. Mr. Corning is a candidate for congress, and recognizes the power that moves elections.

☞ Georgia has over 1200 miles of railroad built and paid for, and yielding to the stockholders more than on an average 7 per cent yearly dividends. Within the next year 200 miles of additional road, completed and equipped, will be in operation.

A Touch Story.—The Palmer Journal says that Deacon Daniel Mixter of Three who is suffering from a cancer in his bowels, has been forty-six days without any nourishment. A little cold water taken into his stomach is immediately thrown off.

☞ A correspondent of the Morning Star gives the following account of the sudden death of Mr. A. G. Penniman, in Willand, N. H., Sept. 18th:

He was sawing wood with one of those powerful circular saws; some of the strong holdings gave way, it flew from its bed, struck him transversely across the breast, and cut through to the vital organs. He clapped his hand upon his breast and exclaimed to the man at work with him, "see here!" walked partly around the frame of the saw, and fell dead.

☞ The last California mail brought the news that the Supreme Court of that State unanimously concur in giving Col. Fremont possession of the Josephine vein on his Mariposa estate.

☞ The Yarmouth Register reports the arrival last week of a fleet of some fifty sail of fishermen at Wellfleet with from ten to twenty-five barrels of mackerel each.

☞ The U. S. Storeship Release, Lieut. W. A. Parker, sailed from New York on the 31st ult., for Buenos Ayres and Paraguay.

In Milwaukie, all the Democratic nominees for city offices are Irishmen. The Irish govern that city entirely.

Thanksgiving in Maine, Nov. 25th.—We give Gov. Morrill's Proclamation, of which the Bath Times says:

It is no mere plagiarism from Dr. Chapin this time; and we congratulate his Excellency upon having got off as neat, as original and as direct a proclamation as has been printed since the days of Gov. Lincoln."

The continual bounties and manifold mercies of a superintending and all-wise Providence, call for expressions of unfeigned gratitude and devout praise. The infinite Father, eternal source of all good, hath crowned the year with abundance; let every heart glow with grateful love. A God of love, the fountain of all mercies, hath averted the causes of public distress; let all unite in songs of adoration.

All nature proclaims the goodness and bounty of God, maker of heaven and earth; how fit that His intelligent offspring should acknowledge him, in Thanksgiving and Praise, as the Author of all needful blessings; and their dependence on His Forbearance and loving kindness.

Especially doth it become us as a people, to join in public celebration of the Divine Goodness for the innumerable blessings vouchsafed at every period of our national existence; for succor in the struggle of our national independence; for guidance in laying the foundation of free institutions; for fostering care in their infancy; for preservation among perils external and internal; and for that paternal favor which has attended our country's progress from weakness and dependence to prosperity and power; and to render thanks, moreover, to the great Ruler of the earth, for the precious boon of civil and religious liberty, for the multiplied agencies of social and political amelioration, and the means of spiritual improvement.

☞ We mentioned a few days ago, the suicide at Great Falls, of a woman named Ellen Rust. The Boston Herald correspondent says, from the investigation of Coroner Pray of Dover:

It appeared that she had stopped at the "Ben Franklin House," Great Falls, the night before, with a man from Dover, and at 12 or 1 o'clock in the night she invited him to walk with her down to the canal. When they got there he asked her what she came down there for, when she told him, "to drown herself." "Go it," said he, I'll hold your hat." And, saying so, he sat down, and she walked on a distance of several hundred feet, when he soon heard a splash in the water. Supposing she had thrown something in to frighten him, he took no notice of it, until at last he looked about for her, but she could not be found. He then became alarmed, procured help, and found her body floating with her head under the water. She belonged in Great Falls, and was married to a man who separated from her sometime since, and has gone West.

In Newmarket, recently, a young girl was forced into the woods by two or three scoundrels, who there abused her in such a manner that she has since died.—The scoundrels have cleared for parts unknown.

A New Definition.—Joe Downs was a dull boy at school, always behindhand with his lessons, and always at the narrative end of his class. Every Saturday we were obliged to commit a large number of words from the dictionary, spell them and give the definitions. At the end of the recitation any scholar could ask the class a word and its meaning, the questioner to answer if none of the rest could, and go above all who missed. Joe's turn to "pop the question" came, and he put the word Aceph. It was spelled, but the meaning could not be given. Around the class it went, from head to foot, till it came down to Joe, who triumphantly spelled and defined it—"A-c-e-p-h, a louse without a head!" The roar of laughter did not disconcert him in the least; but when the smoke cleared away, he appealed to the dictionary, and pointed to the word and definition — "A-ceph-a-lous, without a head." Joe's name was changed, and he was called from that day onward "Seph," or a "louse without a head."

☞ The Boston Pilot has a long and elaborate editorial on the withdrawal of the Rev. J. I. T. Coolidge from the Unitarian Church. It says:

"We think that Mr. Coolidge will ultimately be a Catholic. We know that he will, if he perseveres in the course which he has commenced."

☞ The Morning Star is the able and useful newspaper organ of the Freewill Baptists.—In the paper of the 3d of November, are reports of their late Anniversaries, in which great prominence is given to Sunday Schools and Temperance and Anti-Slavery efforts.

Condition of Rev. Mr. Thayer.—We learn from Lowell that there has been no reaction in the case of Rev. Mr. Thayer; on the contrary he is slowly failing. Last night was his worst. The operation of amputation has not been performed on account of his extreme prostration.

☞ The Grand Jury of New York refused to find any bills of indictment against Frank Leslie, for the pictures of swill-milk Aldermen, which several complaints alleged to be libelous.

☞ Mrs. Jordan, at Rome, N. Y., has been sentenced to imprisonment for life, for poisoning her husband.

American ship Pepperell, Dixey, from New York for Bordeaux, reports having passed the steamer Austria while on fire, and saw a ship alongside.

The London Morning Chronicle says the Galway line of steamers will certainly get a government mail subsidy at least equal to that paid the Cunardere.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

RHEUMATISM.—The pains of chronic rheumatism often prove tenants for life of the system they have once invaded. Medicines for the most part seem to be of no avail, yet so many aggravated and obstinate cases have yielded to the alterative powers of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, that it is confidently recommended in such cases.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and Only London Gin Imported.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GALLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever met with."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of the raw and damp air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Other is Imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pocker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; R. IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer,

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THIS Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the one plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimple also all other eruptions, cures in one day, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that secretes the oil of the skin, it becomes obstructed, and prevents them pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years; consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the features of the toilet ladies. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

LOCAL.

☞ We always thought old Portsmouth the best place in the world (for us) to live in; and events constantly transpiring, confirm us in this regard. Look, for instance, and see how self-supporting she is—how entirely she can rely upon her own resources. When her citizens foolishly and suicidally took hold and helped to build the Eastern Railroad from Newburyport—which the Boston folks would certainly have done all too soon for our city's prosperity; and neglected to bring the Boston & Maine Road hither from Exeter—which we then needed so much, and have never yet ceased to need; our interior trade, and consequently much other business soon went to the winds—or rather to Boston. Since that, things have gone on and on,—or rather off and off—till you can get nowhere now—but to Boston. And as if it is not enough that we have toll-bridges on every side, to keep the people from visiting us—no, to enable them to do it; what railroad communnication we have got, is fixed so as to accommodate anybody but Portsmouth people. It is a greater journey to Great Falls than to New York—and on the Dover post road, the Piscataqua Bridge has "fallen through" and floated down stream, and the Steam Ferry slumped. Railroad communication will not take you to Manchester, Concord, Exeter, or even New Market or Greenland, and back the same day.

However, the Kennebunk, Exeter, and Kittery Stage lines are yet in operation; and by the aid of the trio of knights of the whip, the drivers thereof—old Portsmouth will manage to get along a spell yet, we guess.

☞ It is certainly worth while to get married—that is, this is our opinion—if you can get a "lady suited to your mind;" and we have the authority of a mighty man of old, that he who marrieth doeth well; (though we believe he never tried it—and he has followed that statement with another which somewhat qualifies it, but which would be decidedly out of place here.) But when, in addition to a good wife, a man gets such a serenade as the Cornet Band gave one of their members who got married on Monday night—why, it makes the "assurance doubly sure."—As the new couple are near neighbors of ours, we had the full benefit of the music—but before exchanging our night-robes for parade dress, to make a speech in acknowledgement of the compliment, we ascertained that we were not the chap they intended to salute—so we "lay low" and said nothing, and soon went to sleep to the sweet tones of the Band, after wishing the happy pair a long life and much prosperity, and that their slumbers may never be disturbed by sounds less agreeable than that serenade.

☞ Messrs. Dearing & Yeaton, the well-known excellent Riggers, have removed their Loft from Pray's Wharf to Nos. 1 & 9 Pier Wharf—where they have spacious and eligible rooms newly fitted up. So their card on the outside of this paper is incorrect.

MEMENTOES.—Messrs. Editors:—Ere this the head of the maltreated, unfortunate, persecuted Downing, in conformity to the unrelenting rules of a State Prison, has been shorn of its manly tresses.

Through the medium of your just columns, will you permit and forward a request that the locks may be sent to some accessible point, from whence they may be obtained for distribution among a select coterie of his female devotees. Those touching relics, it is true, cannot assume the form of "card receivers" and "tooth picks," like the wood of the good old ship Constitution, or of "canes," as are branches of trees that wave over the grave of the immortal Washington—but through the aid of a cunningly-devised workmanship, they can be preserved in charming little lockets of virgin gold, and suspended from the alabaster necks of our modern Mrs. Fryes—fitting resting places of so sacred mementoes—mementoes of judicial clemency, a discriminating jury, and the sympathy of "Heaven's last, best gift to man."

STALACTITE.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large a sortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

☞ A society has been started in London, for the purpose of providing play grounds for poor children in populous places.

THE ELECTIONS.

Elections for State officers and Representatives to Congress took place in Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, and Illinois. By telegraph from Boston we learn that the Republicans have gained a great victory in Massachusetts—re-electing Gov. Banks by an increased majority, and also electing all their candidates for Congress. The following are our dispatches:—

Massachusetts has elected her entire Republican Congressional delegation, eleven in number. In the two Boston districts, Rice, republican, has over a thousand plurality over Waldron, Democrat, and Burlingame 383 majority over Col. Heard, Democrat.

The result of the election indicates, so far, the success of the Republicans.—In Boston the result for Governor foots up Banks 6348, Beach 6357, Lawrence 1916.

Returns from seventy cities and towns give a plurality of 9000 for Banks.

In the 6th District John B. Alley, Republican, leads largely—the vote stands, Alley 3028; Otis P. Lord, independent, 2013; Loring, Democrat, 932.

Gen. Butler, Democrat, is elected a member of the State Senate and General Cushing of the House.

The victory is being celebrated with fireworks, music, speeches and hurras.

Mr. Banks has an increased majority over last year, and the legislature is overwhelmingly Republican.

From New York city, Horace F. Clark, anti-Lecompton Democrat, re-elected. Mr. Reynolds, Republican, in Albany district is ahead.

FIRE AT THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.—The large barns and sheds formerly connected with the Fabyan House, at Mount Washington, were entirely destroyed by fire on the night of the 18th ult. The barns were filled with hay—about 200 tons. The hotel was burned about two years since.—These buildings mark the spot (as tradition has it,) upon which an Indian was seen with a flaming torch in his hand, and heard loudly proclaiming, "No white man shall ever take deep root here."

THE BENICIA BOY ARRESTED.—William Hastings, alias "Dublin Tricks," on Saturday preferred, before Justice Brenan a complaint for assault and battery against John C. Heenan, alias the "Benicia Boy." The complaint was based on the assault alleged to have been committed by the Benicia Boy on Hastings, at Lafayette.—Heenan gave bail in $300, to answer the charge.—N. Y. Times.

A SEVERE BLOW AT MANCHESTER.—We learn just as we go to press that the rails on the New Hampshire Central Railroad were torn up yesterday, from the Trestle Work above North Weare to the Junction of the Contoocook Road. It is said that this work was commenced at 12 o'clock on Saturday night, and continued through the Sabbath, from fear of an injunction from the Court. This is done to cut off all communication between Manchester and Henniker, Hillsboro', Antrim, and other places in that vicinity.—Manchester American.

DESTRUCTION. — About half-past nine o'clock Saturday evening a fight occurred in a low groggery in Chelsea, kept by Patrick Toomey. City Marshal Rugg and Deputy Marshal Rice proceeded to the place, and having arrested Jerry Regan and Michael Sullivan, they spilled the contents of a ten gallon keg and five jugs, comprising about fifteen gallons of various intoxicating liquors.

The Tribune's correspondent says that Mr. Ward, President of the Cincinnati Presidential Convention, has been tendered the Chinese Mission. Mr. Mason has finally agreed to retire from the French Mission in the spring cotemporaneously with Mr. Dallas.

BAY STATE RANGE.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having

Two Large Ovens
AND
Six Boiling Places.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS
and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of
will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked four cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, they be never so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, knots and dry or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1855.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a most valuable invention, quite unfailing and as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drech a'r Gwyllelydet."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '55.
PROF. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Some time ago or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect to her entire satisfaction, the gray hair is brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CAMBRIA CONRAD.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as beit g the most efficacious article I ever saw. Three years ago your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KNAP.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair firmly. It began to fill up over our and wanted back to the original color (black). At this time it is fully restored to its original color, healthy, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to my friends. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 1½ pint, and retails for 75 cents; the small, retails for 22; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $2.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove the old morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile. Invigorating the stomach, giving tone to the rest well, purifying the blood, giving health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Billious Attacks are cured, and what is better prevented, by occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose generally is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the head from rising and soaring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently. A dose at morning cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of mercury after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness and restores healthy color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before exposure to the cause, gives vigor to the system and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Autumn Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few doses will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We the undersigned recommend this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, and all Fevers of a Billious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

We will now cease from giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in our neighbouring towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still have the confidence to place their lives in their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most reliable recovery prescribed.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last years of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number have been cured by his medicines.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious pretenders at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The medicines can be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE PILLS are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are practised by unprincipled persons, a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine, as he is the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston

E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing tailored many years to perfect a roofing that would combine the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, which he demonstrates by his and Roofs of Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the curious attention of architects and others, in the belief that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects it is the most strongly asert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every variety of pitch, steep or flat, and can be put on over Shingles or I n at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures, and the public, justly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after years of trial, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—By connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities in the Hospitals of Continental research—added not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are diffused and applied to the diseased parts of the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; for it is only intended as a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that all who would have Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the curious attention of architects and others, in the belief that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects it is the most strongly asert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every variety of pitch, steep or flat, and can be put on over Shingles or I n at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures, and the public, justly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after years of trial, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below, given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him also, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uninstakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1858.

LETTER FROM AUSTRALIA.

MELBOURNE, August 10.

Dear Chronicle:—In a previous communication I stated the probability of this letter coming from the mines, and intimated that it might be a genuine "grumbler." But as I have not started for the mines yet, I can't tell much about them,so your readers must be content to wait awhile for the promised "growl."

"Hard times" is the cry here, as it was at home three months ago,—and may be yet for aught I know to the contrary.—Large numbers of people are unemployed, and more are coming daily, to swell the list. Hundreds now in this place have no means of gaining a livelihood, nor can they get away from here. There is some talk of large government works being commenced, to give work to the unemployed, but whether it will be done or not, I am unable to say.

The mails here are very irregular;—the last steamer being twenty days behind her time, and another one is now five days over due. This mail is anxiously looked for, in consequence of reports brought here from Vancouver's Island, by the ship Kit Carson, of gold in vast quantities being found there. Should this news be confirmed by mail, there will be a rush from Australia of many of those who can get away, and for those who can't leave, a chance for something to do. The gold mines of this colony, according to the papers, produce about as much now as at any previous time, though no new diggings have been discovered of late.

The "Hotel" where I at present reside resembles a hers very much except in point of strength and finish. Inside are two tiers of cells, one over the other, like a prison.—My cell is on the ground floor, (the only floor there is in the building,) and it is well ventilated by a hole directly under my bed, and nearly on a level with the back-yard. The first night I occupied the room I was awakened by two execrable cats who rushed in through my ventilator, scampered around the room, over the bed and under the bed, and away again,—out through the hole. During their race, Ice heroically kept his head under the bedclothes, and anathemized the whole feline tribe. After they had gone, (some time after,)I reconnoitred the premises, and was about to stuff my boots and carpet-bag into the hole, when the thought occurred to me that some rascal, having not fear for the law nor respect for the press, in his heart, might walk away with them, leaving me in a most fearful quandary. I had it stopped up next day, however, and have had no more nocturnal visitors since.

Our meals are very simple—fresh beef and bread, with coffee for breakfast and tea for supper. Sunday the dinner is varied. On that day it consists of roast beef and plum-pudding with brandy sauce—but as I am a tee-totaller I don't indulge in the latter. The beds are so narrow that the occupants are obliged to lie still upon one side, for if they turn one way they fall out upon the floor, and if they turn the other way the clothes fall off. Then they are peopled by a horde of wild beasts,compared with which even cats are not fierce at all. For these accommodations we pay the modest sum of £1 10s. sterling per week. But 'tis a free and easy place, for all that. Every one as soon as through his meal, turns round with his back to the table, and proceeds to light his pipe, totally regardless of his neighbors. One of the gentlemen plays 'God save the Queen,' on a wheeze-box before and after he eats—and while eating, each man tries to outlie all the rest. However, it is a highly respectable hotel, so I don't care for a little difference in the customs 'twixt gentlemen here and in New England.

In-door amusements here embrace whist, chess, grumbling, smoking, and sleeping; checkers and backgammon are ignored, and euchre and bluff were unknown. Football, horse-racing, and running away from the police, are the principal out-door recreations,—then there are two or three theatres, and "American Hippodrome," and the police courts.

Great efforts have been making to build a railroad from Geelong to Peg-Leg Gully and Kangaroo Flat, but the contractors have been driving business a la Portsmouth Custom House last fall; so it is very uncertain when it will be finished. The railroads, as well as the common roads of the country are McAdamized, and breaking stones for them gives employment to convicts and Irishmen in large numbers. The former class I consider quite respectable, when compared with the latter, who make all the trouble they can wherever they go.

In enumerating in-door amusements I left out a principal and favorite one—talking politics. The body of the people complain of their laws, or, rather, those by which they are governed, and many of them do not scruple to cite the American Revolution and Government (though they have but little knowledge of the former and nearly none of the latter,) as examples for their rulers. The colonial papers, too, although they cordially abuse each other, after the manner of the press, all unite on one question—that of "blowing up" the government and its measures. Old Johnny, however, seems to take but little notice of either press or people, so the war of words hasn't amounted to much as yet.

The government of the United States is not the only subject in regard to them with which even well-educated Britons are unacquainted—for nothing definite of the geography of the Western continent is known. American customs are as little understood, the English having an idea that all our citizens carry revolvers and bowies, which they use without the least compunction of conscience on the slightest provocation.

As it was wet this forenoon all hands remained at home, and, as I was questioned by some of the inquisitive ones on American affairs,I commenced a game of "brag," requiring some effort of the imagination and a vigorous stretch of the conscience.—At first I commenced a eulogy on New England—her good order, temperance, piety, and freedom from crime—but 'twas no go—they wouldn't believe a word of it. I then proceeded to relate most marvelous tales of "moving accident by field and flood" in the Western States,—where I never was in my life. Tales of "free-fights" to which I had been a spectator, in which hundreds of lives were lost—men cut entirely to nothing, and with their heads shot to pieces in five or six places, were much relished, beside proving their ideas of the Americans to have been correct. I managed to keep my audience very attentive for two hours, and wound up with a wonderful narration of a race between the Mississippi steam-boat Lightning, on which I was a passenger, and her rival the Alligator, from New Orleans to St. Louis, a distance of over 4000 and odd miles! terminating by the Lightning, when 30 miles ahead of the Alligator and 10 from her destination, blowing up and killing 320 people, and drifting ashore on the point of land known as "Horse-Shoe Bend!"

But I have written enough, the weather is too warm for me here, so I shall soon start for the hilly regions to the northward, to find a climate more congenial to ICE.

DEATH OF THE WIFE OF CAPT. HOLMES. The Bath Times says: A gentleman from Damiariscotta has informed us that the wife of Capt. Holmes, now in Auburn jail,died at her father's house in Newcastle, on Saturday morning last.

So he has murdered his wife indirectly, as well as the sailor directly. It is a great pity that there is not a commuting power in the president, so that this Capt. Holmes could be set to work getting out limestone, under a good smart boss.

☞ The Barnstable Patriot says that three large hogs, valued at about $120, were killed by Hon. Z. D. Bassett, of Hyannis, on Saturday last; and that in a few hours after they were slaughtered they all seemed to be tainted. They were apparently in perfect health at the time they were killed, but the owner was obliged to bury them. Hogs seem to be degenerating.

☞ At Lowell, Ms., a day or two since, Alonzo Goodwin was found guilty of incendiarism, in burning the barns of Dr. Hildreth and others in Dracut a short time since.

☞ Utah correspondence states that the several efforts made since 1855 to introduce the culture of cotton in that Territory, have not proved satisfactory, and may be regarded as failures.

☞ In the Worcester district, Massachusetts, Hon. Eli Thayer is re-elected by a majority of at least 5000. In 1856 his majority was 1300. His vote is far ahead of his ticket.

☞ On the night of the 12th ult. twelve births were reported in the family of Heber C. Kimball, at Salt Lake City, Utah Territory.

In St. Louis last week, the inmates of a boarding house, twenty-three in number, were attacked with nausea and vomiting after eating a dinner of soup and vegetables. Physicians were summoned, who discovered the soup to be strongly mixed with acetious acid. A boarder who had been turned out of the house is supposed to have committed this atrocious attempt on life.

MAKING MONEY.—SPENDING.

Few men have more christian good sense than Rev. James Freeman Clarke; and rarely has he better expressed it, than in a late lecture before the Samaritan Society in Salem, Mass., of which we find a report in the Gazette of that city.

His address was on the Christian Law of Money, considering his subject under two heads—the Christian Law for Making, and for Spending Money. He considered that there was no harm in money, in itself, which was but a useful contrivance of man, without which we should be without civilization. Neither had he any fault to find with making money in itself, which end might be pursued with right and proper motives. But upon this particular branch of the subject, he clearly illustrated the necessity of making money in a legitimate, Christian way, considering that no man has the moral right to gain money by unproductive industry, or by resorting to trick, in any way or manner. The man who made money by manufacturing or dealing in spirituous liquors, for instance, was perfectly justifiable in so doing, so far as the products of his industry promoted the purposes of manufacturing, or the comfort and need of man; but so far as his calling spread ruin and misery, just so far his pursuit was unproductive, and consequently unjustifiable. The man who knows that the market price of coffee—as an instance of common trickery, as unjustifiable in the sight of God as downright falsehood, or nearly so—is eleven cents per pound, and wishes to procure it half a cent cheaper than that rate, sends an agent to the seller offering ten cents. He is of course promptly refused, when another agent is sent offering nine and a half. The merchant having coffee to sell now begins to fear that the price of the article is falling, and when the man who desires to purchase comes along and offers ten and a half, the bargain is readily closed. Another point urged by the speaker, in discussing this part of his subject, was that no man shall spend all his time in making money; which was discussed clearly and convincingly.

In discussing the Christian Law for Spending Money, the grand fundamental idea the speaker endeavored to convey was necessity of adhering to the doctrine of stewardship, holding that no man had the moral right to relieve himself of the responsibility of spending and bestowing it. Suppose, said Mr. C, a man of ample means fills his house with the most costly and beautiful furniture, and decorations at great price. If he does this to patronize and promote the arts, or to encourage the beautiful and refine the taste, which elevate the character, he had no fault to find. But how few, continued the speaker, are governed by such justifiable motives in their extravagant outlays. He related as an instance of the practical application of the doctrine of stewartship, the case of John Wesley, who, when he was first settled with a salary of 30 pounds, spent 28 of it, and gave way the remaining two.—When his salary became increased to 70 pounds, he still used but 28, and gave away the balance. Knowing the ample means of Wesley, in after years, the tax-gatherer reminded him that he had not rendered an account of his silver plate; whereupon he at once enumerated two spoons as the full amount of his silver ware, saying he could not think of making outlays for costly plate while so many of his countrymen were starving for the want of bread. Let a man admit that he is a steward, and bestow his money and make his expenditures accordingly, and a remarkable change takes place in the character and happiness of that man.

How many of us have responded to the supplication of the street beggar, and when he has left our door, have been troubled from fear that the charity has been ill bestowed: and how many, on the other hand, have refused such applications on the ground of presumed imposition, and have experienced sore misgivings by a presumption that the pitiful tale may have been true. What shall we do in such a dilemma? There is but one course, and that is, to take the initiative, and search out the cases of suffering and distress.—The speaker enlarged upon the great truth conveyed in the words of the epitaph,—"what I gave, I have; what I used, I had; what I kept, I lost,"—rendered doubly striking by the financial reverses which have taken place within a year. He also spoke of that dreadful disease peculiar to very rich men—the fear of poverty, the fear of coming to want,—as the result of a failure to acknowledge and feel the doctrine of stewardship.

POTATOES.—Thirty-eight thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven bushels of potatoes were received at Boston from British North America last week.

☞ In Massachusetts, on Tuesday, the vote for Governor in all but 15 towns, was in round numbers 65,000 for Banks, 36,000 for Beach, and 11,000 for Lawrence. That is, there are about 7-12ths Republicans, and 5-12ths of all others.—Mr. Beach was the original candidate of the rum power in Boston, for governor, and his vote being about 1-3 of the whole, may be set down as the utmost extent of that power in Massachusetts at the present time. It must not be supposed for a moment, however, that all the 36,000 voters who went for him are drinkers, or venders, or friends of rum. By no means; for besides all the zealous advocates of the illegal traffic, the army of 36,000 includes all who could be induced to go with them by the names Democratic, National, and Union. The 11,000 votes for Lawrence, must be set down to such Americanism as is not much opposed to slavery.

Mr. Heard, in Boston, was the pro-slavery candidate for Congress. Of his case the Boston Courier of Nov. 2, said:—

We earnestly call upon our friends to vote for Mr. Heard. No man can confidently predict the result of the election; but we have an abiding confidence that it will turn to the honor and wellare of Massachusetts and the country by the election of Mr. Heard. We regard it as the most important election now pending, as likely to turn the tide of feeling in New England in a better direction and to help in bringing back a better state of feeling everywhere. We believe Mr. Heard will be elected.

The Courier of Nov. 3, says:

The general result of the election in the State, of course, has disappointed no one. Republicanism is a disease which has spread too widely and has eaten too deeply into the vitals of the people to admit of a very speedy cure.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 2, Midnight.—New Jersey is reported to have gone opposition throughout, and probably the whole Congressional opposition delegation is elected.

Newark, Nov. 2.—Pennington, anti-Lecompton Democrat, is elected to Congress in the Fifth District. The Opposition Sheriff, and six Opposition Assemblymen, are also elected.

The Newark Journal of the week before election, said:—

But, you ask: Is there danger of losing our Southern customers? We say, emphatically, Yes! Let the people of Newark but listen to the voice of abolitionism, as at present brought before them, (in a disguised form) and send to Congress Mr. Pennington, a man who is fully committed to the interests and designs of the Black Republican party—a man who is a follower and companion of Seward and Greeley, Hale and Burlingame, and who would vote with the Hales and Wilsons and Giddingses, to restrict the constitutional rights of the South, and the first step in the downward progress of Newark as a manufacturing community has been taken.

The Jersey City Telegraph said, about the same time:—

On the 2d of November the Democracy of the Fifth District will place their seal—their "broad seal"—of disapprobation upon the nomination of ex-Everything Pennington.

Pennington will sustain a most inglorious defeat, and will be compelled to bow as gracefully as he can, to honest Jacob R. Wortendyke, the next representative of the District in Congress.

ELECTIONS.—New York, Nov. 3.—The Tribune estimates from the returns from about half the State, that Morgan will have 10,000 majority.

It is positively stated from reliable sources, that telegraphic dispatches from Washington were received yesterday by Commandants at the Navy Yard and Governor's Island, allowing them to march men to the city to vote for Sickles.

It is reported that Haskins, Anti-Lecompton Democrat, is defeated in the ninth district.

Returns from a few additional scattering towns in Illinois are received, but they furnish no indications of the result.

MICHIGAN ELECTION.—Detroit, Nov. 2. This city gives the Democratic State ticket 300 to 400 majority. Returns from the State are meagre, but the Republicans have undoubtely carried every Congressional District.

☞ Scattering returns from Wisconsin, give no adequate information of any result.

☞ We have received a set of the Congressional Globe, 4 vols. for 1858, from Hon. Daniel Clark, of the U. S. Senate.—Also valuable documents from other of our delegation.

YELLOW FEVER.—New Orleans, Oct. 2. The deaths from yellow fever yesterday were 27. The Howard Association declare the fever to be no longer epidemic.—There was a frost in the suburbs this morning.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

RHEUMATISM.—The pains of chronic rheumatism often prove tenants for life of the system they have once invaded. Medicines for the most part seem to be of no avail, yet so many aggravated and obstinate cases have yielded to the alterative powers of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, that it is confidently recommended in such cases.

This distressing complaint demands prompt attention. It will readily yield to the R. R. R. treatment. Whenever you find Bile rising from the stomach, or a sour taste after belching, take three or four of R. R. R.(REGULATORS) and follow one-half a teaspoonful of READY RELIEF, every 20 minutes; rub the bowels,back and spine well with the Ready Relief; also lay a flannel wet with Relief across the Bowels, in FIFTEEN MINUTES you will be free from the distressing pains; the violent spasms will be arrested, and vomiting entirely stopped.

In THREE HOURS a pleasant operation of the bowels will take place, and your whole system will become regulated and healthy. Persons who indulge in too much green fruit, or cabbage,or unripe vegetables, and indigestible substances,should take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATORS after eating, and they will prevent violent attacks of colic.—Keep the stomach clean and free from acid, the bowels and Liver regular, and no sickness will trouble you—R.R. Relief to neutralize acid; R.R. Regulators to regulate the system.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws,is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry,and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of the harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, a most medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in all at twenty-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE ORIGINAL IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 71 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 7 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that is sure to Remove Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THIS Elegant Cosmetic is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the one plus ultra of cosmetics for removing pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies beneath the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fictions of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

MECHANIC ASSOCIATION. — The Annual Meeting of the Associated Mechanics and Manufacturers of the State of New Hampshire was held on Tuesday evening last, for the choice of officers and to make the annual reports.

The Secretary reported one hundred and thirty five members, sixteen of whom have been members over forty years and are exempt from the yearly assessments by a vote of the Association. Three of the sixteen were among the originators of the institution. The Association has lost three members the past year by death.

The Treasurer reported that he had paid out the past year for the relief of the necessitous, two hundred and fifty dollars and seventy five cents. The amount of property on hand, in bank Stock, and Stock of other corporations, is four thousand five hundred and thirty six dollars and one cent.

After the reports, and closing up the business for the past year, the Hon. Abner Greenleaf was called to the chair as Moderator during the election of officers for the ensuing year, which are as follows:

Wm. Tucker, President.
Sam'l Kingsbury, Vice President.
Alfred T. Joy, Treasurer.
James M. Locke, Oliver Hanscom, } Trustees.
Samuel W. Moses, Secretary.
John Knowlton, Deputy Secretary.
Wm. C. Hatch, Marshal.
Marcellus Bufford, Deputy Marshal.
Isaac Dow, Standard Bearer.
C. W. Brewster, E. M. Brown, H. S. Rand, } Auditors.

☞ The Democratic Convention for nominating a candidate for Representative to Congress from this District met at Dover on Tuesday, and nominated Hon. Daniel Marcy of this city on the first formal ballot, he having seventy-one out of seventy-three votes. Resolutions were passed endorsing the Administration, and asserting that the Cincinnati Platform represented their principles.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—We understand the tickets of admission to the House of Representatives, which is to open this evening, at the Court House, are nearly all disposed of. All, therefore, who intend to procure tickets, should call at Thacher's, early this morning. As the number of tickets is limited, the chance is there will be many disappointed. No person will be permitted to enter the House without a ticket, not even a member. So say the Committee.

☞ The Police Court of our city has done no business for three weeks.

☞ The Universalist Church in this city is nearly completed, and is, with the late improvements a beautiful and commodious edifice.

☞ Mr. J. H. Foster, Bookseller, of this city, has furnished us with that useful and indispensable Annual—the New Hampshire Annual Register, and U. S. Calendar, for 1859,—by G. Parker Lyon.—It is worth getting.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

EXTRAORDINARY TRIAL IN KENTUCKY.—Escape of a White Woman from Slavery.—We copy the following interesting case from the Maysville (Ky.,) Eagle of Thursday afternoon:

One of the most remarkable and intensely interesting cases ever brought before a court of justice, was tried and disposed of in our Circuit Court last week.. The plaintiff, Ann Goddard, was a handsome young white woman twenty-one years of age, having all the appearance of an accomplished and well-raised lady, and not the slightest indication of African blood in her veins.

She brought suits for freedom, alleging she had been forcibly arrested and lodged in the negro jail under the claim that she was a slave, "when in truth she was a free white woman."

The suit was brought nearly two years ago. The only testimony relied on by the plaintiff was the exhibition of her own person for their inspection, her counsel claiming that her appearance was prima facie evidence of her freedom. An attempt was made to prove her the daughter of a mulatto, by whom the plaintiff had been reared, but no witness was introduced who was present at the birth of the child.

When the Jury brought in their verdict that she was a "Free white woman," the Judge was compelled to address the audience upon the impropriety of any demonstrations of applause in a Court of Justice, in order to keep down a universal impulse to show the satisfaction of the result.

MARRIED.

In this city, Nov. 2d, by Rev. J. Hall, Mr. Alexander Leach to Miss Georgia Mary Marston, daughter of the late Benning Marston, all of Portsmouth.

The Friend of India relates that a native convert to Christianity was compelled to leave his books at Mallania when the outbreak occurred, in the house of a man who had sheltered him. This man read the books, was struck with them, and read them to his family, daily. A knot of listeners was formed, and, as soon as peace was restored, the audience sought the aid of a missionary. More than forty persons have been baptized in consequence, and the converts commenced building a church at their own expense.

FEARFUL CONFLICT WITH BURGLARS.—About one o'clock this morning, officers Kelley, Beasley and Leech, of the Ninth Precinct, discovered three suspcious looking men at the corner of Gates and Bedford avenues, Brooklyn. They at once concluded, and rightly, as it subsequently transpired, that they were burglars.—They arrested the parties, when a desperate resistance was made. Each of the burglars drew a revolver, and fired several shots at the officers. Officers Beasley and Kelly fired their revolves in return, and finally succeeded in arresting two or three. One of the burglars had his right arm broken, and received a pistol shot wound in the leg. The other burglar and the officers escaped from the fight with only a few scratches. Dr. Ball, Police Surgeon, was promptly on the ground, and sent the injured burglar to the hospital and his companion was locked up in the county jail. —N. Y. Times.

The young English girl, Miss Henrietta Polydore, who was lately rescued by her father from the Mormons, is soon expected at Washington, in charge of Judge Eckles. The Danish minister at Washington has made a request on the part of his government (similar to that made by Lord Napier in the Polydore case) for intervention in behalf of a young girl abducted from her parents, who is now on her way to Salt Lake City with a party of emigrants.

☞ The New York hackmen are now licensed and wear badges, and are obliged to carry cards, which they must present to each "fare," giving their number, address, and a reference to the Mayor's office, so that persons aggrieved may know where to apply for redress.

Don't Worry.—It is not work that kills men; it is worry. Work is healthy; you can hardly put more upon a man than he can bear. Worry is rust upon the blade. It is not the revolution that destroys the machinery, but the friction.—Fear secretes acids; but love and trust are sweet juices.

We have got on the track of a few low, mean, sneaking fellows, who make a practice of stealing papers from the doors of subscribers early in the mornings. When we get the train successfully laid they may look out for anything but compassion.—We could forgive a bread thief, but not a newspaper thief.—Bath Times.

A Most Excellent Thing in Woman.—In a recent address, Mr. Slaney, M. P., said:—"There is one part of a woman's education often forgotten or neglected—the culture and formation of a gentle voice. It is a great gift of nature, to be aided by culture—an instrument of powerful influence for good."

Iron for Buildings.—In Cincinnati there are at the present time in process of construction 12 cast-iron columns, said to be the largest in the United States. They are each fifty feet high, four feet two inches in diameter, weigh between two and three hundred tons, and will cost about thirty thousand dollars. They are designed for the State House in Madison, Wisconsin.

Champagne has been the ruin of the king of Prussia. When he first ascended the throne he was an elegant, accomplished gentleman. His amiability, his high moral character and his acquirements were known throughout Europe, and in Prussia he was as popular as a monarch could be. It has never been the impression, however, that he was "strong" in politics and state matters. The constitution which he submitted to his convoked states general was not a brilliant or a statesman-like effort, and the noisy spirits of 1848 suggested an idea or two for his reflection, which so troubled his noddle that he took to drinking 'Veuve Clicquot' champagne for solace; and he found so much comfort in that exhilarating liquor that he has drank himself into an idiotic state. The best intelligence from Prussia announces the appointment of the prince of Prussia as regent, so the king may henceforth 'keep it up' until as late as he pleases, with never a care for to-morrow, his occupation now being only to 'guzzle.' Springfield Republican.

The Mt. Vernon Fund.—Commodore Stringham, in command of the Charleston Navy Yard, has transmitted to Mrs. Louisa L. Greenough, vice regent for Massachusetts, of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association, a draft of $358, being the amount of the subscriptions in aid of the ladies' fund for the purchase of Mount Vernon, made by the military and civil officers and other persons attached to the navy yard, and from the officers and crew of the receiving ship Ohio.

A correspondent who has been reading "Spurgeon's Gems," is much struck with the originality of the ideas there expressed, "that we should all probably like to have free passes to the palace of heaven." He at the same time suggests that the holders of those "passes" would probably be "dead heads."

An effect of an over-issue of paper money in depreciating its value, is very strikingly illustrated in St. Domingo. The government has issued about fifty five and a quarter millions of dollars in paper. The value of it at the present time is just one cent on the dollar, or as near being entirely worthless as anything can be. The government, through its reckless abuse of its credit, has entirely destroyed it, and its ability ever to pay its debts.

At New Britain, Ct., on Wednesday, Frederick Westover, son of Amos Westover, was playing with an old gun barrel, and after touching it off the third time with a slow match, ran about twenty feet, when the barrel burst, and a small thin piece, about the weight of a cent, struck him on the side, over the heart, going through his clothes and just breaking the skin. The heart ceased its pulsations and the boy died in less than ten minutes.

A Centenarian.—Died, at the State Almshouse, Tewksbury, where she had been for some months past, Eleanor Robinson, a mulatto, aged 104 years. She was born a slave in Stillwater, New York, and lived, for many years a slave, in Connecticut. Her childhood was passed in the days of the old French and Indian war, and her early womanhood in Revolutionary times. Her memory continued apparently unimpaired, particularly of events running the last one hundred years. Her eyesight was as good as that of elderly person generally, and she was usually fond of reading her hymn book or other devotional work.

☞ Steam frigate San Jacinto, lying at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, sprung a leak on Monday, and had six feet of water in her before the fact was discovered.

☞ The Washington despatch gives currency to a rumor that an appropriation is to be asked of the next Congress for the purchase of Cuba.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

By using Hutchins' Black Hair Dye, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom over the brightly blushing glowing cheek, the gem be never so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be scarled and shriveled, hoary and dry, or even still, if it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg!

New York, April 19, 1858.

Dr. Wood:—Dear Sir.—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time I my arrived in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful production, quite precious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. Thalberg.

"Dreh a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off, 13 Newsu st., Apr. 12, '55.
Prof. Wood:—Dear Sir.—Some three or four six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the grey hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the grey hair to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair.
G. G. Kunz.

New York, July 28, 1857.

Prof. O. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I have used. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common an ong persons who perspire freely.
J. D. Bond.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

Prof. Wood—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grow out and turned back to its original color (black). At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to all.
Rev. J. A. Bond.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small—retails for $2; the large holds 50 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints and consult a competent physician, would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, accompanied with a full description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of which he had to deal, were entirely treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described in his Books as positively incurable.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing inspection.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments on your health, lest you suffer in the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE REMEDIAL PILLS. These pills are universally in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practised by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have money commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. Notice of the result will be immediately accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination for numbers, impartially the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $30,000, every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Picayune, Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Dry Goods. Write your orders plainly and direct to S. E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purpose, and obviate the difficulties Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements heretofore in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do not strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unreservedly assert, that from none of which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, of the NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—added not a little by a personal experience of Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and speedy cure of diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not claim the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful addjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are facts well known to the medical profession and intelligent men. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropy and kindness I have been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all—and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I am now to consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. Terms—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where, many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

THE
BAY STATE RANGE.
The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having
Two Large Ovens
AND
Six Boiling Places.
The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.
A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling with out any increase of fuel.
THE RANGE IS PERFECT IN ITSELF,
and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.
It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.
Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of
DOUBLE THICKNESS,
will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.
The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—
HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.
"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.
I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel.
The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.
In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."
Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

LETTER FROM ILLINOIS.

McDonough Co., Ill., Oct. '58.

Dear Chronicle:—I do not know whether I shall write anything new of this region, but I shall, at least, as an eye-witness, confirm what you may have otherwise learned. I write, as you see, from near the centre of the military tract, a portion of Illinois lying between the Mississippi and Illinois rivers. The term military tract reminds me of a question from an intelligent correspondent, learned in the law, who asks me if it is a fact that a recent decision has rendered doubtful a large portion of the land-titles in Illinois. I answer, no. The tract is, you know, divided into quarter sections, half a mile square, many of which were drawn by lot, as bounties to soldiers in the war of 1812. Many of these were sold for grog-money. Others were retained by the soldiers. In due time these lands were taxed. Speculators took care to pay their taxes, but many "patent quarters" were sold for taxes. When the auctioneer asked, "for how small a portion of this land will any man pay the taxes.—A man would modestly answer, "for the whole," and it was impossible to bid against him.

But the law under which this was done was unconstitutional. The law required that no land should be assessed at less than $3 per acre. The Constitution provided that everything should be assessed as nearly at its real value as possible or something like it. Various changes of laws were made, and still "tax-titles" were uncertain because some quarters were held by minor heirs or insane people. Speculators in tax-titles caused their lands to be resold under each law and bought them in again. Still a doubt hangs over tax-titles which a recent decision has tended (I think) to diminish.

But I had not intended even to allude to this topic, for I am not qualified to write on it. I was going to speak of the financial and agricultural condition of this "Mesopotamia." It is not strange that the crash of 1857 fell heavily here. It would have done so had the crops been good, but they were very poor, and especially in the important staple of corn. The people, many of whom are from the eastern parts of Kentucky and Tennessee, have been inclined to rely more on corn than on hay for wintering stock; they had none to sell, and could not well fatten their pork, and this spring had not corn enough to work their teams well.

Our soil, when wet, is reduced to mortar by plowing and hoeing. This Spring was the wettest ever known. By the last of May but half the corn was planted. Some grounds were planted three times. Rev. Milton Newhall of Augusta planted corn on land which I saw him breaking up while they were harvesting wheat in the next fields. He has raised a crop of Canada corn on it, but he "paid three prices" for the seed.

Spring wheat was drowned, and a tall crop of weeds succeeded, which horses in some cases were unable to draw a plough through. Not one acre in ten was harvested. Oats rusted: most were abandoned, some moved as hay. We must import our seed for next year. Winter wheat was damaged; some say there are specimens of fine wheat; I have seen none. Corn comes out better than our fears. The killing frost was on Oct. 8–9. We have much more hard corn than we expected. The time of maturing maize depeds on the temperature. We had not many very hot days but a large proportion of nights were comfortable without clothing. These helped save the crop.

In what condition then are the finances of this region? Better than you would think. Better for us, and worse for the merchants. Having made little, we spend less. Our traders do not fill up their stores and their scanty stock promises to last well. Neither they nor the farmers seem to be anxious to add to the store debts yet unpaid. Very little collecting of debts is done. We have no stay law, but our whole system of collecting debts seems to have been continued in the stay law spirit. But when things are sold "at the end of the execution," they go frightfully low; no case of sale has come within my immediate knowledge for a long time. The little money there is, moves fast till it gets into pockets, whence offers of ten per cent interest cannot tempt it. But the crops of 1859 must be sold before any improvement can take place. Land is of course low now but we hear of none coming in to purchase. They will never have a better time here.

Fruit is not plenty; but it is much scarcer north, particularly apples. No crop seems to have done uniformly well save sorghum, and of that there has been planted the merest patches. They are grinding it, but it is too soon to speak of the results. All are sanguine of them. They will be better from the terms on which sugar is sold.—Generally, the farmer has been unable to buy sugar with butter, eggs, poultry and like; and when he dares to invest a little money in the article, it is at the rate of eight to ten pounds for a dollar, and I fear too often it has been watered by the grocer. Hence, scarce a family in this county has used sugar as freely as usual this year, and most do with less than half as much as they have ordinarily used. Sorghum syrup then will meet with a welcome beyond that of last year. Some think the seed and forage in this latitude will pay for the crop; but farther north I am sorry to see the seed so poor. Hatred to slavery and hatred to negroes, both of which prevail here, also render the Sorghum experiment popular, and it is quite possible that by November, 1859, it will be no more an experiment.

Your readers would hardly excuse me were I to close without a word on our approaching election, I am sorry I know so little about it. It is triangular game in which the Republicans should naturally win, exceeding, as I think they do, both others. But either in rascality or tack they are decidedly inferior to either of the others. So many of the Senate hold over that it depends perhaps on a single District whether the Administration may not reap the barren triumph of no election of senator to Congress, or Lincoln may carry there credentials no better than those of Fitch and Bright, just to see what the contemptible body to which he is sent, will do with them. There is a lull just now about me, for I see no Illinois papers, but I can imagine that no small storm is raging without. But a Bunker Hill victory is the most that Democracy in any form ought to hope here at present.

I am rather shut out from the literary world just now. The only new book I have been able to lay hands on lately is "The Child's Book of Nature," by Prof. W. Hooker, M. D. of Yale College. I forget whether I wrote you about his Physiology, the best I know of for the book-case or the common school. This may have prejudiced me in favor of the Child's Book of Nature that is designed for schools and families. It is a square book of 470 pages, but comes into the pupil's hands in shape of three volumes, of 120 pages on "Plants," 170 pages on "Animals," and 180 on "Air, water, heat, light, etc."—Were I called on to use part one alone, I think I should decline. I have not yet seen Asa Gray's best (perhaps really greatest) work—for children—and can't say whether his profound knowledge has prevented him from descending to a level that children reach. I have little fear of that. But Botany is probably Dr. Hooker's weakest point, and his numerous but very slight errors are very excusable. In part two, on Animals, he has made amends for this. He is at home here, and he has aimed not only to make the pupil know but to think, not merely to teach, but to educate him. I have not yet put the book to the ordeal of proof, but have little doubt that his style will charm the little reader by its beautiful simplicity. Part 3 on Philosophy has of course more rivals than the others, but I know of none better calculated to please or profit the little pupil than this.

Yours, L. F. H.

☞ The New Orleans (La.) Catholic Standard states the Rev. Messrs. Aubert, Girard, More, Cavanaugh, Bazin, Duguerney, Vogier, have fallen at their posts in that city, from the prevailing epidemic.—The Standard says that within the last six months the diocese of Louisiana has lost no less than sixteen of its priests.

☞ The German Volkefest Association of New Orleans, La., finding they had a surplus fund of $1700, have given $500 to the Howard Association of that city, $700 to the German Emigrant Association, and $500 to the Young Men's Christian Association.

☞ A boy named Matthews, aged about 15 years, was killed in the old Belknap Brick Mills, at Laconia, last Saturday, by the bursting of a picker, a section of which hit him on the head and breast.

Suicide.—Mr. Eliot M. Pond, a resident of Franklin, Mass., thinking his wife false, committed suicide last Monday morning.

☞ The number of deaths from yellow fever in New Orleans up to the 24th of October, was 4457.

Steam Canal Boat.—New York, Nov. 2.—The double-decked steam canal boat S. R. Ruggles, arrived here to-day from Buffalo, being the first steamer that has passed through.

THE ELECTIONS.

Our crowded columns and pressing advertisements, admonish us to be brief.

There has been a general protest against the course of the administration, and in that protest New Jersey has been forced to join. In New York, the opposition have gained seven members of Congress, which leaves the democrats but five Representatives from that State.

In Illinois, though we have a heap of figures, they are all Greek to us,—and it is doubtful whether Douglas or the Republicans are ahead. The administration, there, got nothing to speak, beyond the hired men of the general government.

In Chicago,— Republicans elect their entire city ticket, including four Representatives, by a majority of 800,—a loss of 350. The total vote polled was about 15,500. The Admistration polled about 246 votes.

Up to the 3d, the returns so far as received in Chicago indicate nothing definite. The contest is close, and both sides claim a victory.

As far as heard from, the Legislature stands as follows: House—Republicans 35; Democrats, 33; doubtful, 7. Senate — Republicans, 11; Democrats, 11; doubtful, 3.

The Philadelphia Press has received a despatch from Chicago stating, in the most emphatic terms, that Douglas has triumphed in Illinois.

In Michigan, up to the 3d, Cooper, Dem., has 46 majority over Howard in the 1st Congressional district, with Livingston county to hear from, which gave 35 majority for the Republicans in 1856. The rest of the State is Republican.

In Delaware, the Democratic State ticket, and a Democratic Legislature are elected. Also administration democrat to Congress.

In New Jersey, the result foots up a total loss to Democrats. In 1st Congressional district, Nixon, Rep., is elected. In the 3d, Aran, anti-Lecompton dem., is elected. In 4th, Riggs, anti-Lecompton Dem., is elected. In the 5th, Pennington, Rep., is elected. All the above are elected by very heavy majorities.

In the Legislature, the parties will stand as follows: Senate—8 Opposition, 13 Democrats. House—Opposition 35, Democrats 25. This gives the Opposition a majority of five. The Opposition elected to the House are about equally divided between Americans and Republicans.

In New York, the Albany Journal of the 3d has full returns from 25 counties, showing a nett Republican gain of 25,000 in those counties. The Journal estimates Morgan's majority in the whole State at 20,000.

☞ On the 4th of October the city of Munich, Bavaria, celebrated the 700th anniversary of its foundation. The chief feature of the fete was an immense cortage in which 3000 men and 500 horses figured, and which represented the respective centuries from the twelfth to the nineteenth, with their emblems, costumes, and the great personages of the national history at each epoch.

Sudden Death by Drinking Camphor. Mr. W. W. Benson, of Strafford county, Va., died rather suddenly on Sunday last from the effects of drinking a glass of spirits of camphor. Mr. B. had been intemperate, and took the camphor knowingly, but not with the slightest idea it would destroy his life.

Shipwreck and Eleven Lives Lost.—New York, Nov. 3.—The British bark Claude, from Quebec for Sunderland, experienced a tremendous gale on the 24th, which lasted several days, and became a complete wreck. Capt. Chessell's wife and several of the crew were washed from the deck and lost. The balance, six in number, were saved by the ship Isaac Bell and brought here.

Another Poisoning Case.—Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Jenkins has been arrested in Bucks county, on suspicion of poisoning her husband, Wm. Jenkins, some days since. An analysis of the body is going on. She made a determined resistance to the officers.

While a party of boys were playing with a pair of thills, a few days since, Charles Chubbuck jumped sixteen feet with the aid of the thills. His leaping powers, however, far surpassed the strength of his limbs, for on striking the ground he broke his leg short off.—Abington Standard.

Ship Cornelia Lawrence Burned.—Mobile, Nov. 2.—Ship Cornelia Lawrence of New York, was burned in our Bay on Saturday, together with 800 bales of hay. She was nearly 1500 tons burthen, and valued at $80,000.

☞ Our latest foreign advices state that a few intelligible words had been received at Valentia from New Foundland, and the shares in the Atlantic Cable had rallied to £350 and £400.

LAW AND JUSTICE.

It would seem, by the Court Report of the Dover Enquirer, that in Strafford County this year, "justice has not fallen in the streets,"—but the "disobedient and profane" for whom the law was made, begin to taste its benefits.

The Grand Jury were discharged on Friday, having returned one hundred and four indictments, 88 of which were for violations of the liquor law, 1 arson, 6 for stealing, 2 for burglary, 1 for assault, 1 for keeping house of ill-fame, 1 for violation of the peddler law, 1 for forging, and 2 for fraudulent conveyance of property to avoid attachment, and one for receiving the same.

John Hale, for stealing horse and carriage of Ephraim Ham, plead guilty and was sentenced to State Prison for 4 years.

Ellen White and Mary Hamilton, for stealing bonnets from the store of J. G. Hills, plead guilty and were sent to the House of Reformation for 3 years.

John M'Guinness, for breaking into the store of D. Lothrop & Sons, and stealing clothing, plead guilty and was sent to State Prison for 6 years.

John H. Cook, for barking the fruit trees of John S. Webster, pleaded nolo contendere, and was fined $10 and costs.

Charles A. Dore, for contempt of Court, in neglecting to appear as a witness before the Grand Jury, was fined $5 and costs.

Lewis Chamberlain, plead guilty to 7 indictments for violations of the liquor law; Daniel Cody, 4; Ephraim Thayer, 3; Wm. F. Thayer, 2; John H. Twombly, 4; Jno. F. Brown, 1; Benj. F. Bickford, 3; John S. Bunker, 10; Wm. R. Bunker, 22; Terrance Daly, 1,—Total 57.

Philip Cassily plead not guilty on 2, and Levi G. Pendergast, on 6 old indictments.

☞ A serious reservoir explosion occurred in Milford, Mass., a few days ago.—Mr. Engineer Barber raised the iron scuttle, and was in the act of lowering his lantern in the cistern when a sheet of flame arose, an explosion followed, and Mr. Barber found himself on his back some six feet from the place where he stood. As he arose, he found himself pretty severely burned in the face and neck, and saw the covering of the reservoir submerged in the water.

☞ On the night of the 20th ult., the Store of George P. Wheeler, at Peterboro', N. H., was entered and robbed of goods to the value of $500. A steel bar used to pry open the window, and left behind by the thieves, led to their detection. Their names are Luke Russell and Peter Harrison, both residents of the town and workmen at the Phenix Factory.

Hundreds of our exchanges speak in the highest terms of the PERSIAN BALM. It seems designed to produce a revolution in many things, such as cosmetics, dentrifices, hair cleansers purifiers of the breath, and the appliances of the nursery and toilet. It seems so well adapted to a great variety of uses, that we are fain to pronounce it the most useful of modern inventions. It is a great toilette luxury.

RHEUMATISM.—The pains of chronic rheumatism often prove tenants for life of the system they have once invaded. Medicines for the most part seem to be of no avail, yet so many aggravated and obstinate cases have yielded to the alterative powers of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, that it is confidently recommended in such cases.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
The Original and Only London Gin Imported.

THIS GIN is distilled from the finest Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, & STRICTURE DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex find it invaluable in cases of Retention, Suppression of their menses, and all other irregularities, and in cases where the use of the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps is so objectionable.

Sold by druggists and grocers, and other dealers in Wines and Liquors, generally throughout the United States and Canada.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Foster, 18 Tremont st; J. Evans, 16 Tremont st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.
IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.
Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer,
The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Spots, Freckles, Sun Burns, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the no plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from perspiring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady of the Paris or Vienna Opera party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.
DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and they are used as well as by thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

JUSTICE SUBVERTED.

"Truth is fallen in the streets, and equity cannot enter."

Never since I became a reader of public journals have my feelings of humanity been so shocked, and my ideas of justice, propriety, truth and religion so outraged, as by certain articles that have of late disgraced the usually humane and benevolent columns of our "dear Chronicle," touching the trial and sentence of Mr. Downing. The causes of complaint against the issues of the trial seem to be two-fold:—first, certain ladies, not of the Queen Mary order, manifested too much sympathy for the prisoner: and secondly, the sentence was too light. On the latter point, is it not a little curious that newspaper scribblers, who perhaps attended the trial and perhaps did not, should know so much better the nature and deserts of crime than Judges and Counsellors, who are constantly employed in ferreting out crime, and bringing criminals to justice; jurymen who, without previous opinion, have formed their judgment from a candid and impartial examination of all the evidence on both sides of the case? Surely a more candid and impartial trial was never witnessed than was that of Mr. Downing.—It seemed to be the en nest and one purpose of counsel, judge and jury, to arrive at and mete out even-handed justice, both to the prisoner and the State. There was no wrangling among the lawyers, no controversies with the judges, no circumstances attending the trial from beginning to end, but such as are calculated in the highest degree to secure strict and impartial justice.

Moreover, all the parties concerned were satisfied with the verdict. I have been credibly informed that the prosecuting Attorney said, in private conversation, after his thorough and able plea, that he hoped the jury would find nothing higher than manslaughter. The judges were manifestly both satisfied that the verdict was high enough, from the fact that they passed so low a sentence even for that crime. Now where judges, jury, and counsel are so perfectly agreed as these all manifestly were, where there is not the slightest suspicion of corruption, either of Court or Jury; does it become citizens who were not present, or who were present, but are not accustomed to judge of such matters as these men are—does it become any body to raise such a hue and cry as has been raised in this case?

But the sympathy manifested by certain noble minded, generous hearted, humane and philanthropic ladies, at the close of Mr. Hale's able and soul-stirring plea, has been characterized as "one great means of influencing jurors;" and the idea conveyed that this affected the minds of the jury on this occasion. Now I pronounce this to be simply a wicked, if not malicious, representation. It is deceiving the community, and unjustly provoking public indignation against those to whom are entrusted our dearest rights as citizens; thereby perverting judgment by terrifying jurors even before they are empannelled.

Not a man of the jury was present at that time, (the court having taken a recess,) nor was it possible, shut out as they were from all communication except with each other, for them to receive the least intimation of it until after their verdict was rendered. Yet these writers, shamelessly deriding the nobler, finer feelings of humanity, calling those who weep over the fallen, and invoke a better condition for them than the cold selfishness of a merciless world would permit, "foolish females, who from a morbid excitement, made such a sickening exhibition of themselves, manifesting a mawkisk sensibility"—and various other ungentlemanly and abusive epithets; I say these amiable,(?) impartial(?) writers, exhibiting so many of the humane and merciful qualities, which have ever been extolled as "crowning virtues" of candid and impartial judgment; these hyper-wise critics of judicial proceedings, above their comprehension; these would-be moulders, and pretended exponents of public sentiment; these pitiless tantalizers of the holy affections that still linger in the torn and bleeding hearts of relatives and friends; holding before them the dishonored locks of a husband, a father, a brother, and exclaiming, behold "those touching relics"—"they can be preserved in charming little lockets of virgin gold, &c." Yes, these men clamor for justice! It is their patriotism, their reverence for the majesty of law, their love of the peace and order of the state, that prompts them thus unjustly to misrepresent facts, to corrupt public opinion, and to pain the hearts of a whole community by continually adding insult to injury; manifestly determined not so much to deprive the condemned man of what sympathy may yet remain for him, as to thrust the iron deep as possible into the lacerated hearts of his afflicted and unoffending family and relatives. It may well be doubted whether the journals of Paris in the days of Robespierre contained any thing more heartless, more derogatory and insulting to humanity, or subversive of justice.—Yet these things are written and published in the enlightened city of Portsmouth, New England, in the middle of the nineteenth century. Out upon such barbarism! HUMANITAS.

☞ Union Prayer Meetings in this city, which have continued through the year, are now to be changed as to their time.—There will be a Morning Prayer Meeting each Sunday morning; but the week day morning prayer meeting, is to be exchanged for an evening prayer meeting on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The first of these meetings will be held on Thursday evening at half past 7, in the brick vestry.

NEW FIRM.—It will be seen by notice in another column that our neighbor N. K. Walker has admitted his son as a partner in his business, and that the firm offer a fine assortment of hats, caps, furs, &c. Mr. Walker has ever kept a good assortment, although he has carefully kept the fact out of the papers; but "Al." believes in progress, and is bound to achieve it. We are always pleased when our young men enter as partners into old establishments among us, and in this instance wish the new firm deserved success.—[Ballot.

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH—OCTOBER.—Mr. Bell's record of mortality for the past month exhibits seventeen deaths, viz.:

Males, five—aged 2 years, 4, 21, 36, 74.
Females, twelve—aged 2 mos., 18 mos., 1 year, 7, 13, 24, 30, 35, 38, 48, 83, 86.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large a sortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

NEW YORK OFFICIALS INDICTED.—New York, Nov. 3.—The Grand Jury to-day brought in an indictment against ex-Mayor Wood, together with 12 Aldermen and 49 Councilmen of 1857, for their action in the matter of the Catholic Orphan Asylum Grant.

Jas. Turney, ex-Street Commissioner, was arrested to-day on an indictment for frauds. Warrants are out for other parties.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 4.—As far as heard from, the Republicans have carried 70 members of the Assembly, the Democrats 30, leaving 28 to be heard from, nearly all of which have probably elected Republicans.

The Senate will stand 19 Opposition to 12 Democrats.

The Tribune still claims the election of Haskin in the ninth Congressional district.

ILLINOIS ELECTION.—Washington, Nov. 3.—Dispatches to the States newspaper say the latest returns from Illinois indicate that Douglas will have a majority of both houses of the legislature, and a large majority of the popular vote over both the other parties. The administration vote will only be about 2000 out of 240,000 thrown. Most of the officeholders voted the Republican ticket.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Result for members of Legislature as follows: Senate—Dem. 14, Repub. 10; not heard from 1. House—Repub. 34, Dem. 38; in doubt 8. The chairman of the Republican State Committee acknowledges a Democratic majority of four in each house.

HIGH PRICE FOR FRUIT.—Two dozen large and fine Duchess of Angouleme pears, weighing nearly a pound each, were sold in the market under Faneuil Hall, Boston, Tuesday, for six dollars a dozen.

The coroner's inquest upon the body of Ellen Belcher, found drowned at Great Falls on the 26th ult., after continuing for several days last week, was postponed until next week, in order to procure an examination of the stomach of the deceased to ascertain whether or not she had poison administered to her previous to her drowning.—Dover Enq.

☞ Two or three barns and sheds in Concord have been burnt within a week—some of them evidently by incendiaries. The careless use of matches and cigars kindles many a fire for which incendiaries are blamed.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made in American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE, than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundantly proved his ability to secure patents, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full documents of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved to inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and of more capable of pulfing their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

Boston, February 8 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that case is now pending. I feel unmitakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him, to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their case, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber was in the course of his large practice, which on twelve selected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair,

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, they ever so sparkling, the teeth be of the choicest pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, hard and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure, all such an uncomfortable state of the scalp, ing, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

New York, April 19, 1858.

Dr. Wood:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite pleasant as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dr vch s'r Gwylledydet."

Wa'sh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '55.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir:—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair little thinking at the time that it would do any good, as her hair was quite color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, of the most beautiful and lasting kind. Preaching the hair, I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair.

J. G. RUNY.

New York, July 28, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your bottle my bald pate and whiskers have made were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely.

J. G. RUNY.

Cuneo, Ill., May 1, 1857.

Prof. Wood—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray: I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turn back to its original color (black). At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 25 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds at least 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

THE CAMELS.—The experiment tried by our government in the introduction of camels as beasts of burden as a substitute for horses and mules in the plains and mountainous districts of New Mexico and that region, has proved highly successful, and the Secretary of War is thoroughly satisfied of the great usefulness of these animals, and of their superiority for army service in the wilds of the interior over both the horse and mule. Two vessels chartered by government for the purpose arrived recently with 120 of these animals on board, which are intended to join those at Camp Verde, in Texas. Within the last three years, besides those just arrived, government has imported 75,—34 in May 1855, and 41 in January, 1857. At the last accounts 49 of these were at Camp Verde, Texas, and the remainder were employed by Lieut. Beale in his expedition in New Mexico. Those at Camp Verde are reported to be in a thriving condition, only one of the last lot imported having died since their arrival in this country, while twelve or fifteen have been foaled. These young ones, it is stated, bid fair to grow up as healthy, large and strong as those imported; tuus proving, beyond controversy, that they can be bred on this continent quite as well as in Asiatic countries.

THREATENED COLLISION BETWEEN TWO STATES.—Horace Bell, who released his father and brother from Bradensburg jail last July, committed on the charge of running off negroes, was taken on Saturday from the Fair ground at New Albany, Ind., without a warrant, and brought into Kentucky by Louisville officers. The New Albanians became tremendously excited. The fire bells were rung, and a large meeting was held on Saturday evening, the 23d ult. An expedition left New Albany Monday night for Bradensburg and Elizabethtown, for the rescue of Bell. They were heavily armed for that purpose; and it was reported that the Kentuckians were concentrating with the intention of meeting them. The expedition returned home, however, on Thursday, having been pacified by assurances from the Kentuckians that Bell should be released on bail. All the essential facts in the case are stated in the following paragraphs:

"About a year ago, the father of Captain Bell, a man 70 years old, together with one of his sons, was seized at his residence in Harrison county, Ind., and taken across the Ohio river to Brandenburg, in Kentucky, where he suffered an imprisonment of nine months. Bail was offered, but the amount required ($10,000) was so great that none could be given, and one of his friends who went to Brandenburg on that business was murdered in the street. The old man Bell was thus seized and carried away upon a frivolous charge of secreting runaway slaves. Not only was his arrest illegal, but attended with circumstances of insult and brutality—the life of his sick wife being threatened to keep her quiet.

Capt. Horace Bell, and his brother John, sons of the old man thus outraged, were in California when these events took place. They lost no time in returning to rescue their father and brother, which exploit they successfully accomplished. Enraged at losing their victims, the people of Brandenburg offered a reward for Capt. Bell. Accordingly, as above stated, half a dozen men seized him in the streets of Albany, carried him by force across the river and lodged him in jail, first at Louisville and next at Brandenburg."

THREE MEN SUFFOCATED.—At the rosin oil works in Roxbury is a large iron still capable of holding several hogsheads. At the bottom of this still the pitchy substances collect and harden, and it is necessary, after the still is cooled off, for the workmen to enter by means of a ladder and cut off the collections with a chisel. On Tuesday morning of last week a workman named Lyons entered the still for this purpose, but unfortunately, a sufficient time had not been allowed for the iron to cool and the noxious gasses to escape through a hole opened for that purpose. In a short time he was heard to fall, when Mr Nathaniel Butler, and finally Mr. Dennis Butler, the Superintendent of the establishment, went to his relief, but they were overcome and perished before relief could reach them.

On the night of the 24th ult., the store of George P. Wheeler at Peterborough, N. H., was entered and robbed of goods to the value of $500. A steel bar used to pry open the window, and left behind by the thieves, led to their detection. Their names are Luke Russell and Peter Harrison, both residents of the town and workmen at the Phenix Factory.

The Americans of Victoria asked permission to rear a liberty pole, to which they would put the star spangled flag. The request was instantly declined. "Well," said the crowd, "let's raise a pole and stick the flag of all nations upon it." And so they did what they said they would do, and a petticoat waved from the liberty pole!

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1858.

WHAT WAS THE ISSUE?—In the most earnestly contested congressional district in Massachusetts, the great issue was slavery or freedom. So it was, really, in Rice's district, where Thompson and Waldron ran against him. In this latter district, the Boston Courier of Tuesday said:—

We hold it to be the paramount duty of the National men of the district "to throw their votes in the way most likely to defeat the election of the candidate of the Republican party;" and as but one of the candidates up can be chosen, the Unionists should unite on one man.

On the night before the election, in a meeting of Mr. Heard's supporters, Mr. Stedman said,—

He never had voted for a Democrat, but now he should vote for Col. Heard, not on account of his party name, but because he was a national man, because he represented the commercial, industrial and mechanical interests, and would sustain them, without regard to terms free trade or tariff. Col. Heard, like Col. Butler, believed that Congress has no right to legislate for the territories. If this principle be firmly adhered to for ten years, he believed there would hardly be an Abolitionist in the country.

In the republican meeting on the same night, Mr. Burlingame said,—

The issue was a simple one. They were to vote either to sustain the present national administration or to condemn it. John T. Heard was bound to support all the odious measures measures of the administration, and a vote for him was a vote to sustain it. Mr. Heard was opposed to a protective tariff, for although his friends say that he favors such a tariff, no word of his conveys that information. We have it only from Mr. Gardner. But Mr. Heard is in the thrall of his party and must support his party's policy, which is opposed to protection.

Mr. Burlingame made a brief declaration of his principles. He would not interfere with slavery where it is, but would prevent its extension. He would oppose the repeal of the fishing bounties and navigation laws. He would vindicate the rights and interests of American labor.

ALL READY FOR IT.—The National Intelligencer, in copying the late address of the 220 Whigs of Boston, says:

We learn by a private letter from an eminent Whig of Boston that the party there have completed the organization of the Whig State Committee, and that as soon as the elections are over they would prepare an elaborate address to the Whigs of the Union, presenting a platform broad enough for the Whigs of all parts of the country to stand upon."

The platform need not be very large, to hold the whole of them.

☞ By the Illinois dispatches of Nov. 4, it appears that the Republicans have 4 Representatives to Congress, and Douglas party 5.

The Douglas Democrats have a majority in the House of Rep. and in the Senate of three.

The Administration vote in the State is not over 2500.

☞ Charles Hale, Esq., of the Boston Advertiser, is re-elected as a Representative in the Legislature from Boston. This is gratifying because of the strenuous efforts which were made to defeat him by those whose animosity he had aroused by his independent course as a public journalist. The mortifying result of all the efforts of his opponents was to secure his election by a larger vote than was received by any candidate upon his ticket. This shows that the people can appreciate the earnest and disinterested labors of a faithful public servant.

☞ By a Washington dispatch of Nov. 4, we see it stated, that Barrett, who was convicted of the murder of Reeve Lewis, and who was respited two weeks, had his sentence commuted by the President today, to imprisonment for life in the Penitentiary.

This, we suppose is in the District of Columbia. Perhaps the President may extend the like clemency to Capt. Holmes of Maine, a murderer on the high seas.—He did not extend it to the two common sailors, who murdered the captain of a Maine vessel,—though their murder was not quite so atrocious and gratuitous a crime as that of Holmes.

☞ In Philadelphia, last week, one Richard Dillon, 22 years old, was smothered to death in a chimney, a few days since, into which he had got for the purpose of entering a lady's chamber. He is no loss, and the lady would not be much loss, were she smothered also.

On Sunday last a bear entered the pasture of Chauncey Cochran, Esq., in Corinth, Me., and commenced depredations upon a flock of sheep. The people turned out and soon dispatched him. He weighed, when dressed, 200 pounds.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

RYE CENTRE, Nov. 3.

Reading an account of the destruction by fire of the Antwerp Exchange, I see it stated that the crash of the Dome was heard six miles off, and presume that is a long distance to hear a sound of that sort, but some lighter kinds of noises or sounds may be heard here from your city, which is about the same distance as above stated. On clear still evenings, the reveille on the small drum at the marine station, eastern end of the Navy Yard, (distant six and a half miles on a bee line,) is plainly heard there. Also on calm mornings, it is not unusual to hear the workmen driving the bolts into the timbers of a new ship that may be on the stocks at the north part of your city, and horses with carriages attached can be heard crossing Portsmouth bridge. The city bells are heard quite often.

The guns of the sportsmen are distinctly heard all the way from Rye Beach to Boar's Head, (distant seven miles) and when the water fowl are plenty on the the wing, the report of their guns,—so rapidly does one report succeed another,—stands very much like the breaking up of the annual militia musters in years gone by; but the gunners like this sport much better than standing on the muster field all day doing nothing. Other distant sounds heard here, could be named, but it may be nothing peculiar to hear sounds a long distance just before a change of wind and weather.

The Blue mountains from Deerfield to Farmington, (distant from here 30 miles,) presented a singular looking whiteness yesterday morning for an hour. The weather was cloudy and dull, with signs of a rain storm, but there was no rain for the day. The ground at the base of the mountains looked as it usually does,—and after the whiteness disappeared from the mountains, they resumed their natural blueness.

The high tide and heavy swell of the sea last week, was a rare sight to behold. The waves could be seen dashing high above the lighthouse on White Island, and all of the Shoals appeared to be nearly covered with foam. An immense quantity of seaweed was thrown on the beach, and the farmers are very busy, hauling it on their tillage land, it being a sufficient manure to insure a crop of corn, &c., another year. There are probably from 3 to 400 cords hauled from the beach every day,—and teams from Greenland and Portsmouth farms, from four to six miles from the shore, are engaged in the work.

The miners digging for gold in California are not more earnest in their work, than farmers are to get sea-dressing. w. x.

☞ A vessel which arrived at Baltimore a few days since, with a cargo of rum, has, with her cargo, been confiscated by the Collector, because the rum was in casks of only sixty gallons capacity. The revenue law provides that spiritous liquors, with the exception of brandy and arrack, shall not be imported in casks of less capacity than ninety gallons. The vessel and cargo are valued at $20,000. The consignees contend that the consignors and captain were ignorant of the law, which was passed in 1779.

☞ The Charlestown, (Mass.) Advertiser, the day after election, has these items.

Joseph thought he would never feel like holding up his head again, if his favorite candidate should be defeated by "such a man." Judging from the result of the election, Joseph's future existence will be spent in contemplating his toes. Being thus narrowly watched, his feet can never go astray.

There was a drunken man on Court street last evening, endeavoring to engage a cab to convey home the corpse of Anson Burlingame. Two philanthropic young men tried to convey him home. Poor fellow! what will his feelings be when he recovers this morning from his debauch, and learns the true result. Headache and defeat together! horrible.

INDIA.—Bombay letters of September 24th give details of late advices.

Operations were carried on against the scattered rebels.

The Bombay Times says the strength of the rebels in Oude and adjacent districts is estimated at 70,000 men and 56 guns.

It is said that nine columns will be organized at Lucknow to traverse the country in different directions, while the commander-in-chief will remain at Lucknow watching the progress of affairs.

The Times correspondent writes, if any credence is to be attached to the number of Sepoys reported slain, not less, than 38,000 or 40,000 had been killed or executed; and it we add casualities by sickness, wounds and want, there is probably not more than 20 per cent. of the whole Bengal army in existence, not including disarmed regiments. It is said there is to be an amnesty on proclamation of the queen's authority.

CURIOUS SCENE.—A somewhat curious sight was witnessed last week in the town of Gorham. A wagon, the back part of which was completely enveloped in flames, was seen passing down a hill, the horse going at a rapid rate, and the driver ignorant of the fire. On being hailed he discovered his danger and stopped; but the fire having extended, the horse became restive, and but for the intervention of neighbors who removed the burning objects from the wagon, serious damage might have ensued. It would seem that there was a bag of hay, together with other articles in the wagon, and that the fire was probably communicated to the bag by a cigar which the driver had thrown behind.—Portland Adv.

The Crayon magazine, an American monthly, is taken by a large number of artists in Rome. The September number of that periodical reached all its subscribers there in a mutilated state, one leaf having been torn out, the same one in every copy. The excision was the work of the Papal post-office authorities. The expunged portion contained some severe animadversions upon the assumptions of the Roman Pontiffs.

MICHIGAN.—Cleveland, Nov. 4.—The first and second Congressional Districts of Michigan are in doubt, but the returns look as if Wm. A. Howard, the Republican candidate, is defeated.

WISCONSIN.—The returns from the first Congressional Districts of Wisconsin are complete, and John P. Porter, Republican, has a majority of 3000.

☞ By a census just completed, Arkansas has 318,313 people, an increase of 109,000 since 1850.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

SPRINGFIELD, N. H.—In a recent letter, Rev. Wm. Clark, agent of the N. H. Missionary Society, gives the following item of Church History, and also his view of the Christian denomination.

Sometime during the ministry of Rev. Mr. Cushman here, from June 1825 to 1828, Elder Morrison, a preacher of the Christian order, came into town. Commencing preaching, he soon had numerous adherents, and that is now the prevailing religious order in the place. Theirs is now the only existing religious organization in the town. The Congregational, the Free-will Baptist, the Methodist, the Calvinistic Baptist Churches once existing here, are all extinct. Their graves may all be found here. How long the present existing church will live is doubtful, for they profess not to build on Jesus Christ, the chief corner stone. Should they claim to build on Him, it is not as God manifest in the flesh, for they deny his Divinity; they reject the doctrine of the Trinity; they discard that of the native depravity of our race; they differ from Unitarians proper only in the mode of baptism in which they agree with the other branches of the Baptist community of churches.

Is it so? Is it doubtful whether the Christian Society can live in Springfield, because they do not build in a certain way? Why then, oy how then, did their predecessor happen to die, who did build in that way.

MALDEN.—Robert Reardon and wife, the keepers of the place where a man named Bellows was reported to have been drugged on Tuesday, was brought before Justice Hill, on a charge of selling intoxicating spirits. They were sentenced to three months in the House of Correction and a fine of $20 each. They appealed and gave bonds.

ILLINOIS ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 5. The Tribune has a special dispatch from Chicago, which states that the Republicans have a majority of over 5000 in the popular vote of Illinois, though Douglas has undoubtedly secured a majority of the new Legislature. The Republican State ticket is elected.

THE CASE OF REV. MR. THAYER.—We are gratified to learn, by a messenger who left Lowell at noon, Friday, that the symptoms attending the injury to Rev. Mr. Thayer, are more favorable, and give some grounds of hope for his recovery. He passed the night very comfortably indeed, and it is hoped that mortification may be arrested.—Boston Jour.

☞ The democratic party in Dover, have run up their flag in honor of Douglas's victory in Illinois.

☞ A great Railroad Constitution case is now on trial before referees, in Concord. The plff. W. H. Smith, claims $200,000 of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Railroad.

☞ L. D. Thompson will preach at the Advent Chapel to-morrow.

Hundreds of our exchanges speak in the highest terms of the PERSIAN BALM. It seems destined to produce a revolution in many things, such as cosmetics, dentifrices, hair cleansers purifiers of the breath, and the appliances of the nursery and toilet. It seems so well adapted to a great variety of uses, that we are fain to pronounce it the most useful of modern inventions. It is a great toilette luxury.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

RHEUMATISM.—The pains of chronic rheumatism often prove tenants for life of the system they have once invaded. Medicines for the most part seem to be of no avail, yet so many aggravated and obstinate cases have yielded to the alterative powers of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, that it is confidently recommended in such cases.

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photographs in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

Quick Cures of Bilious Colic.

This distressing complaint demands prompt attention. It will readily yield to the R.R.R. treatment. Whenever you find Bile rising from the stomach, or a sour taste after belching, take three or four of R. R. REGULATORS, likewise one-half a teaspoonful of READY RELIEF, every 20 minutes; rub the bowels, back and spine well with the Ready Relief; also take a flannel wet with Relief across the Bowels. In FIFTEEN MINUTES you will be free from the distressing pains; the violent spasms will be arrested, and vomiting entirely stopped.

In THREE HOURS a pleasant operation of the bowels will take place, and your whole system will become regulated and healthy. Persons who indulge in too much green fruit, or cabbage, or unripe vegetables, and indigestible meats, should take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATORS after eating, and they will prevent violent attacks of colic.—Keep the stomach clean and pure from acid, the Bowels and Liver regular, and no sickness will trouble you—R.R. Relief to neutralize acid; R.R. Regulators to regulate the system.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and most stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVERS, and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, & KEEPS WELL IN ALL CLIMATES. The weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever tasted."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE ORIGINAL IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; E. Packer, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; R. LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.
IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the skin.

THE DESTROYER is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietor at a great expense. It is the one plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale everywhere.

LOCAL.

PORTSMOUTH CITY HALL.

The neat wood-cut which adorns our columns to-day, is a front view of our new City Hall which is to be erected where the Brick Market now stands. The time when it will be erected, depends upon the voice of the people, to be expressed through their agents the City Council. That it will be erected before many years is scarcely to be doubted. For, though there are objections, on the score of expense, they will probably be obviated or over-ruled, and the building, this or something like it, will go up and be used and admired.

This front, as in the cut, so on the plan, is beautiful; and will be a suitable companion, on the Square, for the Rockingham Bank, North Church, and Custom House, as well as for the four story blocks of stores on the Square and on Market street.

This front, in the lower story, will be of hewn granite, the other stories of brick covered with mastic; the ornaments, all of iron; the roof slated. The side walls to be brick.

The lower story, on the plan we have seen, is to contain 16 Market stalls, with good passages, and an Arcade on the sides. The entry and staircase to the halls are ample.

The second story will contain, on the South, commodious rooms for the Aldermen, Mayor, and Common Council. On the North, there large offices; and suitable ante-rooms, safes, closets, etc.

The third story will contain the grand Hall 75 feet 6in. by 52 feet three inches; with a gallery 12 feet by 52.

The full size of the building will be 89 ft. 8 inches by 55 ft. 3 inches.

These plans and designs were made by Mr. S. S. Woodcock, of Boston, the architect who drew the plans of the High School, North Church, and the Rockingham Bank; —and his estimates are, that the whole work can be erected and finished in the most substantial manner, for $20,000.

The subject is open for discussion, as to the time and manner, the ways and means, the advantages, objections and difficulties. Of the ultimate erection of the building, in something like the form proposed, we have no doubt.

☞ Sandy Marden's express wagon leaves the Franklin House in this city at 9 1-4 A. M., and carries passengers direct to New Market Junction, in season for Boston & Maine train from Portland.—Returning, leaves the Junction on arrival of the 5 o'clock trains from Boston and Portland.

☞ A rare chance is offered to-day, to buy a house centrally situated, on State street, in the best order, and on favorable terms of payment. The sale is to be positive and without reserve, at noon, by auction. See auction advertisement.

LUNG COMPLAINTS.— By an advertisement in to-day's paper, it will be seen that Dr. Hayden of Boston, will visit Portsmouth on Monday, for a professional stay of some days. His experience and advantages of study in Europe, will make it a matter of both interest and importance to sufferers to visit him. Consultations are to be free; and a Medical Lecture is also to be given.

☞ Union Prayer Meetings in this city, which have continued through the year, are now to be changed as to their time.—There will be a Morning Prayer Meeting each Sunday morning; but the week day morning prayer meeting, is to be exchanged for an evening prayer meeting on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The first of these meetings will be held on Thursday evening at half past 7, in the brick vestry.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

It has been customary for the Executive of the State to appoint and set apart one day from the ordinary industrial pursuits of life, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Praise to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe for His continued goodness, and in token of our remembrance of the innumerable blessings conferred upon us as individuals, and upon our State.

In conformity, therefore, with the time-honored custom of our ancestors, and in unision with the general sentiment and wishes of the people, I do with the advice and consent of the Council appoint THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-FIFTH DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT to be observed throughout the State as a Day of Thanksgiving and Praise. And on that day I would invite the people of the State to assemble in their respective places of public worship, and with united hearts render sincere praise to our Creator and Benefactor, that we have been preserved for another year to receive and enjoy the blessings which He has so freely and bountifully conferred upon us. And while we are thankful for past favors so signally displayed, and while we invoke a continuance of the same, let us endeavor to manifest by our lives that we are truly mindful of Him who is the Author and Giver of all needful blessings.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, this twenty-ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the Independence of the United States the eighty-third.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every season of its existence, each succeeding one has proved its virtues more and more. It is made and perfected in his laboratory, and compounded with the skill and nicety of a practical chemist. Its reputation is established on a firm basis, and it is now recognized by all who know its virtues, as the most reliable preparation for the cure of Pulmonary Complaints, that the world produces. Its extensive sale, and the unbounded confidence in its curative powers, which it receives from the people, and the public press, are the best evidence that it is the most effectual medicine for the cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Incipient Consumption, and Pulmonary Complaints, that the skill of the chemist has yet been able to produce. Its effects are so well known, and its virtues so generally acknowledged, that it is now regarded as the most reliable remedy for the diseases for which it is recommended, that we can produce. Its power to cure the most dangerous and fatal diseases of the throat and lungs, has been so repeatedly tested, and its success so uniformly decisive, that the Proprietor feels no hesitation in recommending it to the sick and suffering, as the most effectual remedy for those dangerous diseases, that he knows to exist. MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for us all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye never so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head be bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. 'Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Peanist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1853.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—Permit me to express to you the obligation I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

"Dreh a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '53.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir:—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, which it has as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed the wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence I can recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and uneasiness and itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KEEP.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color (black.) At this time my hair is restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and sells for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of diseases, which a timely application of Dr. Dix's remedies would cure, and that many suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that he will visit any place in Rockingham or Strafford County, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

Dr. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, Post Office, Boston, Mass., will be sent to the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Particular attention is paid to the diseases of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a shorter space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by irresponsible parties who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if present in person. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to order for tickets to Georgia. The lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every three days throughout the year. All orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $2 for a quarter, $2 50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $20,000, ranging in value from dollars, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Nashville Standard, Nashville Union, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

☞ Prize paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18 1y

E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this highly tabored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and heavy attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the difficulty and cost of Tar and Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of its extensive use, he would invite the attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practicability and economy and cheapness. Its superiority in these respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have received complimentary notices; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or repair.

☞ A Card from Dr. James McJarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY:—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution has given me a wide range and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with a well filled apothecary and the advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to attain a degree of skill, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and other medicinal properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation to the exclusion of other modes of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it especially necessary that such patients should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, during the last year, has been the institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the request of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have established the following arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine my skill and services to the inmates of the Infirmary or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. Terms—By terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one months use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payments as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or else entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms be fully can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address,

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our unrivaled apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

THE
BAY STATE RANGE.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having

Two Large Ovens
AND
Six Boiling Places.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without out any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS PERFECT IN ITSELF,
and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of
DOUBLE THICKNESS,
will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—
HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a debt they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1858.

☞ The success of Douglas in Illinois, while it shows him to be the strongest politician in the country, also completely revolutionizes the Democratic party; and we think will revolutionize all the political parties and materially change the programme of 1860.

Douglas went home from Congress a denounced Democrat—put under the ban of the slave power, which was represented by the Democrats in the Senate, and by Mr. Buchanan and all the Northern men in the House who could be induced to go for Lecompton and English. Mr. Buchanan pursued him to Illinois, by proscribing his friends who happened to be postmasters, and by putting on the executive screws against him everywhere.

In Illinois, some leading Republicans thought it would be best for the Republican party to go with him and for him—but the party generally seem to have thought otherwise.

Douglas, therefore, contended with them on the one hand, and with Mr. Buchanan and the slave power on the other—and, as the returns stand, has beaten both, not in the popular vote, but in the legislature—which, it is said, will send him back to the Senate.

When, therefore, he takes his seat in that body again, he will be the great man in the Senate—the President-maker—possibly the President himself.

The New York Times says of him:

The effect of this victory upon the Democratic party cannot fail to be decisive.—Mr. Douglas will be more powerful at Washington than the President with all his patronage. He will have all the Democratic party of the North, and the conservative portion of the party at the South at his back. As matters now stand, he can scarcely fail to secure the nomination for the Presidency. His position is certainly a very strong one with the country at large. He stands opposed to the Lecompton policy of Mr. Buchanan, in favor of admitting Kansas whenever her people apply with a State Constitution of their own adoption, and in favor of permitting the people of every Territory, as well as those of every State, to decide for themselves whether slavery shall exist among them or not. The great body of the people of the North, of all parties, will assent to this platform, and in our judgment, few of any party, except the Abolitionists, are prepared or disposed to go beyond it.

Great Hurrahs.—A Hartford, Conn., item of the 5th says:

There is great rejoicing here among the Douglas Democracy. Thirty-two guns were fired on the Park this afternoon in honor of the victories in Illinois.

In Concord, N. H., same day:

The anti-Buchanan Democrats here are in great glee over the defeat of the administration in Illinois, and fired 100 guns this evening. The Republicans are also enthusiastic over the recent victories, and are preparing to honor them with a grand jubilee and torchlight procession.

In Albany, N. Y., same day:

The Republicans are firing guns here this evening, in honor of their victory in the State and County.

In this city, Portsmouth, N. H., on that evening, the boys had a grand illumination of pumpkin lanterns, and a grand concert of tin trumpets. These last are much safer, cheaper, and every way better, than gunpowder and rum.

Attempt to Burn the Connecticut Reform School.—On Thursday evening last, an attempt was made to destroy the Connecticut State Reform School at Meriden. It is understood that one of the boys named Gray made an excuse to go to his dormitory about 7 o'clock in the evening, and it is supposed that he slipped down from there to the kitchen and procured fire, as no matches or lights are allowed them when alone. Shortly afterwards the bedding in seven of the dormitories was discovered to be on fire, and it required all the energy of the Superintendent and the other employees, assisted by the more trustworthy of the boys, to subdue the fire, which was done, however, without giving a general alarm. The object of the incendiary probably was to escape from the institute in the confusion.

☞ In the Supreme Court of Rhode Island, now sitting at Providence, Albert G. Sanford is on trial for slandering Wm. H. Hudson, City Marshal of Providence, by stating that he was leagued with the rumsellers, and that the keeper of one hotel had paid him four or five hundred dollars hush money, &c. Mr. Hudson lays his damages at $10,000.

☞ Amongst the foreign projects which are in course of elaboration, is one for the construction of an extensive system of railway in Holland.

Charles H. Rundlett, the villain who assaulted and attempted to murder Charles Welch and Uriah Welch, at New Sharon in May last, has been on trial at Farmington, Me., for several days.

He was found guilty upon both indictments, and sentenced to 16 years in the State Prison for the first, and the same term for the second.—Portland Adv.

That is 32 years in the whole. This is the same fellow who decoyed a man from Hampton Falls to Newburyport, and tried to murder him there, two or three years ago.

☞ Mr. Kenneth Raynor, one of the most liberal and enlightened of Southern politicians, has written a very lengthy letter in favor of protection, and against Mr. Buchanan's administration. Mr. Raynor advocates a fair protection to the industry of all sections, and disputes the propriety of sacrificing all other industry to cotton. He deprecates the denunciation of the North by the South, and says that the South is not responsible for the evils brought on the country by Pierce and Buchanan, but the Democratic party of the South. Let that party be overthrown and amity between the sections will be restored.

☞ The accounts from Ireland as to the crops, continue to be of the most favorable character The Cork Reporter says:

The sickle is already busy on all sides, and a truly golden harvest is falling beneath its stroke. The crops of all kinds are so abundant and so free from even the appearance of disease or failure that this may be called the first year of plenty since the famine. The yield of all produce is far beyond the measure of the best years we have had for a long time, and the country may safely congratulate itself in the assurance that its trials are at an end.—Even the potato seems all at once to have recovered all the firmness and sweetness of its best days. In point of prosperity Ireland need envy no country in Europe at this moment.

☞ In the Manchester Police Court, Nov. 3d, Thomas Kelty, for selling liquor; plead not guilty. Enough evidence was adduced to order Kelty to recognize in the sum of $200 for his appearance before a higher court.

Wm. Murphy, for keeping liquor for sale; also ordered to recognize in the sum of $200 for appearance to a higher court.

More Rowdyism in Baltimore—Another Policeman shot Dead.—Baltimore, Nov. 5.—Henry Gambril, one of the notorious gang of rowdies who infest the Southern part of the city, and who murdered police officer Benton about a month since, one of the best officers in the city, because he was the chief witness against his brother on a charge of incendiarism, was this afternoon convicted of murder in the first degree.

This evening police officer Rigdon, who was the principal witness in the trial against Gambril, was also shot dead in the Western part of the city, by one of the same gang. The murder was committed in the police officer's house, and in the presence of his wife and children. He was an exceedingly active and faithful officer, and his death is deeply regretted.—The murderer's name is Corre.

Great excitement prevails in regard to the affair, and threats are made of lynching the murderer.

☞ The Madrid journals report positively that a revision of the tariff in a liberal spirit is to take place. The new colonial tariff of the Dutch Government will shortly be published. The revisionis is of a nature to alarm the colonial protectionist party.

☞ Carlyle, in his "Life of Frederick the Great," just published, avows himself a believer in Calvin's doctrine that "a man is pre-appointed from all eternity either to salvation or the opposite."

☞ Isaac Holland, late doorkeeper of the United States Senate, who died at Washington on Monday, was the father of Stuart Holland, the gallant youth who perished on the ill-fated steamer Arctic.

Electioneering Epigram.—Thos. Moore has recorded in his diary, that Lord John Russell repeated to him the following epigram of Lord Holland's, on one of the two candidates for Bedfordshire saying in his address, that "the memory of this struggle would exist to the end of time":

When this earth to the work of destruction shall bend,
And the seasons be ceasing to roll,
How surprised will old Time be to see at his end,
The state of the Bedfordshire poll!

The Indians at the seat of war in New Mexico have 250,000 sheep, many of which weigh 200 pounds, and 60,000 horses. Their care in preserving their property restrains them from fighting. Were they to be robbed of these animals, they would enter upon a war which would be protracted for a long term.

Lutherans.—There are in the United States 175,000 communicants, 2000 congregations and 1200 ministers. In the older congregations the English is used; in others the German. In a few congregations in New Jersey the old people speak Dutch, but preaching is not done in it.

☞ The Bangor Union says that the last of the late mail robbers has been secured. There are three of them, and the trio are composed of Roswell F. Miller, John A. Miller, and Charles Foster, all of whom were arraigned before Commissioner Rowe. They asked for a continuance, which was granted, and each was ordered to recognise in the sum of $3000, and, failing to do so, were committed to jail.

☞ The London Illustrated News, received per steamer America, contains a letter from Mr. Staunton, addressed to Mr. Morphy, declining to engage in a chess contest with the latter. The reason assigned by Mr. Staunton for this course is that he could not think of entering upon a long and arduous contest without ample opportunity for the recovery of his old strength in play, or without being able to make such arangements as would prevent the sacrifice of his professional engagements.

The Next Congress.—The next House of Representatives will have 336 members—leaving Kansas and Oregon out of the question. It will thus require 119 for a majority. The Boston Journal figures up a majority against the administration of 22. The anti-Lecompton Democrats will hold the balance of power in the House.

☞ A match has been made between "Ethan Allen" and the celebrated trotting horse "Lantern," which will throw into the liveliest excitement all the turfmen in the country. Each horse is to trot in double harness with any other horse the owner may choose. Ethan Allen may be matched with a running horse or a trotting horse. Lantern has the same privilege.

Judge Douglas's Slaves.—The Chicago Press and Tribune says:

"We betray no confidence when we say that Mr. Sidell, when in Chicago, declared that the condition of these slaves was a disgrace to the owner; that they were badly fed, badly clothed, and excessively overworked."

The Grave of Franklin.—The fence around the opening recently made in the wall of Christ Church grave yard, at Fifth and Arch streets, for the purpose of exposing to view the grave of Franklin, is taken down, and thousands have availed themselves of the opportunity of gazing at the modest stone which covers the remains of "Benjamin and Deborah Franklin." The railing and the other fixtures in the aperture made in the old wall, present a very neat appearance, and the tombs in its immediate vicinity can be seen distinctly. The grave of the great Printer can now be seen just as distinctly as though the spectator was inside the enclosure.—Philadelphia Bulletin, 28th.

In the north of France, wine is selling this year at one cent per quart. At Harbourg a cask of 220 quarts has been sold for $6. The same cask empty would cost $3.

A Thought for Young Men.—No wreck is so shocking to behold, as that of a dissolute young man. On the person of the debauchee or inebriate, infamy is written.—How Nature hangs labels over him, to testify her disgust at his example! How she loosens all his joints, sends tremors along his muscles, and bends forward his frame. The wretch whose life-long pleasure it has been to debase himself and to debauch others, whose heart has been spotted with sin so that it is black all over, is an offense to the heart of the unblemished.

Little Blood.—A friend writing from Atchison, Kansas, enclosing money for the Weekly Mirror, says: "I am now in bleeding Kansas, but there is little blood. This is a fast town.

Michigan Election.—Detroit, Nov. 5. Cooper, Dem. is elected in the First Congressional District by about 100 majority over Howard, Rep. The Fourth district is in doubt. The present indications are that the Legislature will stand:—Senate—22 Republicans, 10 Democrats. House—46 Republicans, 33 Democrats. The whole Republican State ticket is elected by from 6,000 to 10,000 majority.

Wisconsin Election.—Milwaukie, Nov. 5—In the Third Congressional district as far as heard from, Chas. Larrabee, Dem., is 315 ahead, with five counties to hear from. These gave the Republicans 1200 majority in 1856.

In the Second Congressional district, as far as heard from, C. C. Washburne, Rep. is 2266 ahead.

The following is the message received at Valentia from Newfoundland by the Atlantic Telegraph Cable: "Daniell's now in Circuit." The operator at Valentia adds: "The signals are very distinct."—He has obtained authority to use Daniell's form of Battery.

Quick Cures of Bilious Colic.
This distressing complaint demands prompt attention. It will readily yield to the R.R.R. treatment. Whenever you find Bile rising from the stomach, or a sour taste after belching, take three or four of R. R. Regulators, likewise one-half a teaspoonful of Ready Relief, every 20 minutes; rub the bowels, back and spines well with the Ready Relief; also lay a flannel wet with Relief across the Bowels. In Fifteen Minutes you will be free from the distressing pains; the violent spasms will be arrested, and vomiting entirely stopped.

In Three Hours a pleasant operation of the bowels will take place, and your whole system will become regulated and healthy. Persons who indulge in too much green fruit, or cabbage, or unripe vegetables, and indigestible meats, should take a dose of Radway's Regulators after eating, and they will prevent violent attacks of colic.—Keep the stomach clean and free from acid, the Bowels and Liver regular, and no sickness will trouble you.—R.R. Relief is neutralizes acid; R.R. Regulators to regulate the system.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
The Original and Only London Gin Imported.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of the harsh, acrid properties which are the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the BRIGHTS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption, sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts, at every agent, and in pints (thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Genuine but Imported.

IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.
Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.
The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

The Destroyer is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Paris proprietors at great expense, is the neat plain and inexpensive. It penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 8,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each pimple is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful in the world. It is ranked as one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For sale everywhere.

THE DOWNING APOLOGISTS.

"'Tis with our judgments as our watches,—none Go just alike, yet each believes his own."

It is not our intention to go into any critical review of the Downing trial, but simply to refer to certain facts, and express our own judgment thereupon. We were present from the commencement of the trial to its termination. We observed the lenity and nonchalance of the felon at first and his more serious appearance as the trial progressed. We knew his friends and we knew his foes. From the morning after the commission of this great crime, "the most atrocious that the mind of man can conceive," until his sentence was pronounced, we are "posted up" in the felon's conduct, feelings and views. The argument of insanity falls to the ground. There was too much "method in such madness."—Nevertheless this plea was his only defence—his only hope to save him from the halter. The various commentators upon this case seem to have regarded the crime thro' lenses of different degrees and color. Besides this, we are of opinion, too much consideration has been awarded to the influence of certain females who so indiscreetly made themselves conspicuous at the close of the trial.

It was admitted by the felon himself, and proved on the part of the government that he seized his gun, declared in the most profane and terrible language, he would make Spinney "a corpse," though admonished so earnestly as to the consequences,—confessing even himself that he should be "hung" therefor—and finally, after the lapse of an hour and a quarter, shot the innocent wife of the man whose life he deliberately and persistently sought. If Downing, in his own house, while "in the heat of blood" had killed Spinney, the law under the circumstances, might have regarded the homicide as excusable, or, at most, as manslaughter. But when he afterwards left his house with his loaded gun in search of Spinney, not only the distance traveled, but the time that elapsed entirely ignored "the heat of blood,"—aside from his deliberate acts, and the horrible declarations of his malicious purpose;—and the law presumed him to act with deliberation, "with malice aforethought." When the jury, therefore, had settled the matter of the sanity of Downing, which had been denied by the defence, had they been governed by their oaths—strictly according to the law as expounded to them by the learned Court, they could not have rendered any other verdict than that of murder in the first or second degree. But when the jury were instructed that, under the indictment alleging "malice aforethought" they might bring in a verdict of manslaughter, if the evidence before them showed that the prisoner committed the crime in "the heat of blood," without deliberation, it appears they were disposed to put their own interpretation upon the law and be governed by their own sense of justice,—going so far even as to recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the Court.

In arriving at such a verdict, whether by compromise or not, be it just or otherwise, we will venture the assertion that the jury, having been so completely isolated from every expression, pro or con, outside of the evidence, knew or cared as little about the "sympathy manifested by certain noble-minded, generous-hearted, humane and philanthrophic ladies," who were present, as the ticking of the clock upon the wall! The women were of no consequence whatever!

If they manifested sympathy for the felon, it was because in the hour of excitement they lost sight of the good mother and blameless wife, whom this merciless murderer had so cruelly sent into eternity without a moment's warning! Because his shot missed the husband and killed the wife, by no means, morally or legally, palliates the crime, or changes the character of the murderer. Let such a felon, under similar circumstances shoot down a near relative of one of these sympathizing, "humane" ladies and she then indeed might be convinced that the difference between such sympathy and justice is as wide as between evil and good—wickedness and righteousness. As to the lightness of the sentence imposed, did we not well know the inexorable character of the impartial Judges who presided at this trial, we might have indeed believed that the tears of these "fallen angels" had really touched some tender spot, but when one of them coming forward immediately upon the adjournment of the Court presumed to thank the Chief Justice for such clemency, he scarcely inclined his head to her, and turning to his Associate asked, "Are you ready to go?"

Indeed the women were of no account. Nevertheless they have the right to witness trials, and their presence is by no means objectionable, unless some species of infamy are presented which ought never to reach their delicate ears. They may err, but there is repentance and hope for them still. They may cheer and lionize the felon, but they should remember the fable of "The countryman and the snake.' They should understand their proper sphere of action is not on the battlefield of life,

"Stern Justice sits supreme with even scales," nor in the forum where

"Amid the clash of arms, and cannon's roar," but at home, indeed, where their 'sympathy' may be more properly appreciated; their "noble hearts and generous minds" more fully developed; and their "humanity" and "philanthropy," so beautifully exemplified as indeed to redeem them into that original Eden which their first mother so unhappily forfeited in the hour of temptation.

STARE LEGIBUS.

NEW CITY HALL.—Some important errors were made in Saturday's article on this subject. Mr. Woodcock's estimate for the building was $30,000, not $20,000. Mr. Woodcock was the architect for the Rockingham Bank and for the improved Stone Church—but Messrs. Fowle & Foster of Boston drew the plans of the North Church and the High School.

☞ Among the elegant articles put up at Preston's Apothecary establishment, is the Extract of Ginger—which will be seen noticed among his new advertisements this morning. Ginger is a valuable medicine—and we have seen no nicer preparation of it than the sample before us. We hope we shall have no occasion to use it—but (like others who when well would "throw physic to the dogs) may have to take it yet.

☞ Union Prayer Meetings in this city, which have continued through the year, are now to be changed as to their time.—There will be a Morning Prayer Meeting each Sunday morning; but the week day morning prayer meeting, is to be exchanged for an evening prayer meeting on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The first of these meetings will be held on Thursday evening at half past 7, in the brick vestry.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ The Brick House, No. 65 State street, was sold on Saturday by George W. Towle, Auctioneer, for $3000—to John J. Pickering, Esq.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

TO INVALIDS.—Dr. Hayden is to arrive at the Rockingham House, this forenoon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The report received from several political gentlemen in this county are that Mr. Haskin has a majority of 45 over Mr. Kemble, in the 9th Congressional District. It is stated that Mr. Haskin has obtained the correct returns of each town in Putnam county, and that he has learned that Mr. Kemble's majority in the county is 513. The excitement to know the official result is at fever heat, which will be decided by the Board of Supervisors next week.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—The Slaveholders' Convention met at Cambridge, Wednesday. Addresses were made by ex-Gov. Thomas and others on the subject of protecting slave property and counteracting abolitionists.

Resolutions were also reported declaring slavery and free negroism incompatible with each other, and should not be permitted to exist longer, and calling a convention to meet in Baltimore in June to settle the question.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself presented to the race. Hence, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be matted and shrivelled, dead and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color, about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your "Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Drech a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who consented to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair.

CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 2d, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant feeling, so common among persons who perspire freely.

J. G. KEEN.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair. It began to fill up arrow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

J. D. HOPE.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the system, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the Sick Nausea, Rising and Souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, will prevent nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls taken at night, relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated, cures Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of Calomel, a bottle one after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating, gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form, even of long standing, and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the effusions, which it does so easily, and is a pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who will suffer torture to the grave rather than make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that during the last year he has had in practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care and are now perfectly cured, and such cases are incribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to any part of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be induced by the specious pretext, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RESTORATIVE PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions, as there are many pretenders advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 ly

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for Tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Imperious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by fire to the Tarred Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trials, he would invite the earnest attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects it can safely and strongly assert that IT IS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and may be put on over Shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and the twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of patho-histo-therapeutics—stand not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful treatment for the cure, the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment, and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that the health should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the charge, would seem too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose liberal philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefit of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in my Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,

No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

ALARIC;
OR
THE TYRANT'S VAULT.

A SICILIAN STORY OF EARLY TIMES.

At this juncture Bellerus returned in haste, and there was a look of trouble upon his brow. He closed the door behind him, and then turned towards our hero.

"Alaric," he said, evidently striving to assume a calmness which he did not feel, "have you any reason to suppose that your entrance into the city this afternoon was particularly noticed."

"Why do you ask?" demanded the youth.

"I'll tell you," answered Bellerus. "I have just come from the inn near the Temple of Diana, where I overheard a conversation between two soldiers who had just come from the Southern gate. They said that a Greek vessel was seen upon the coast this morning, and that some one landed from her. I also made out, from their conversation, that the king had been informed of the fact, and that he had given orders that every stranger who entered the city should be watched, and intelligence of his whereabouts conveyed to him."

"Then I may be assured that I have been followed," said our hero; "for I suspected it while on my way hither."

"And if such be the case," said Bellerus, "we shall hear more from it."

"But before we wait for that we'll take some steps of our own," cried Ianthe. "Some safe hiding-place must be found."

Alaric was upon the point of speaking when a loud knocking was heard without, and a voice demanded entrance, in the name of the king.

"Fly! fly!" cried Ianthe, seizing her lover by the arm.

"Hold," spoke Bellerus, who became calm in the presence of this necessity. "If he finds he will not escape now, for our house may be watched upon all hands; and if he is caught in the act of fleeing, a deeper and more deadly suspicion may fasten upon him."

Another thundering knock was heard, and Bellerus started towards the door.

"We must meet it now," he said, "though I wish I had known your coming had been noticed. Ianthe, you had better withdraw."

"Not while——"

"Hush! In this I must be the judge. For the good of him you love I bid you seek your own apartment."

"Aye," added the youth, leading her towards the inner court, "do as he bids you. I shall be safe enough. At all events, I will see you again."

He kissed her and blessed her; and she passed from the apartment just as the host unbarred and opened the outer door. She stopped and caught hold of her lover by the hand ere she left him, and with a heavy fear upon her heart, she asked him to be careful.

"The thought of thee shall be inducement enough to that end," he replied. "And now may the gods be with us both!"

In a few moments more Bellerus returned, and with him came four soldiers. They were stout, hard looking men, whose hearts performed no other office than that which furnish them with animal life that they might do the bidding of their master.—One, who wore the uniform of a lieutenant, advanced from his companions and gazed into our hero's face.

"You entered the city this evening?" he said.

Alaric hesitated for a moment, but during that short moment his mind was made up. He quickly judged that any falsehood might only injure him, and he resolved to tell the whole truth.

"I did," he answered.

"And you landed from a Greek vessel this morning?"

"Yes."

"Then you will go with us to the royal palace."

"But why is this?"

"Because the king has so commanded."

"Shall I see him to-night?"

"We came not to answer questions—only to command your attendance at the palace," said the lieutenant gruffly.

"Our gracious monarch will evidently see you to-night," interposed Bellerus, who saw the flash of indignation in Alaric's eye, and feared that he might make matters worse by giving way to his feelings.

The youth saw the old man's meaning, and he curbed his rising emotions.

"Are you ready to go?" asked the officer.

"At any moment."

"Then we have nothing further to detain us here."

Alaric put on his cap, and as they passed out through the narrow passage Bellerus found an opportunity to whisper in his ear:

"Be cautious—keep a guard upon your tongue—mention not Ianthe's name, nor suffer any allusion to her to drop from your tongue. Let us hope that the danger is not great."

And yet there was a tremulousness in his tone—a terror in his very breathing—that belied the words of hope he spoke. Until this moment the youth had not felt serious alarm, but, as he caught the look of horror upon the honest artisan's face, the bolt struck to his own heart.

"The gods be with thee!" spoke Bellerus, as they reached the porch.

But Alaric made no reply. At that moment a weight of thought was upon him and before he could call his senses back for an answer he was hurried out into the street. The officer walked by his side, while one of the soldiers led the way, and the other two fell in behind.

A variety of thoughts occupied Alaric's mind as he passed on through the narrow, dimly-lighted streets. He remembered how he had seen his father cut down, and how his brother had been butchered; and the same bloody tyrant who had done it had now sent for him. Is it a wonder that, with all his bravery, the youth felt a cold chill creeping about his heart as he approached the lair of the remorseless monarch.

CHAPTER III.

DARKNESS AND DOOM.

Pyrrho, king of Sicily, sat upon his throne of gold and precious stones, and about him were a few of the hardened, cruel, subservient men whom he dared to trust.

He was a middle aged man; short and clumsy in stature; with a face broad and full in its expression, and strongly marked by dissipation and debauchery. If he had ever possessed the assurance of a brave man, he had lost it now, and in the very hours of safety were in the willing swords about him, and in the terror which his cruelty inspired. The light from three huge chandeliers of massive gold cast a strange leaze over the large apartment—the beams being here reflected from polished mirrors; there from pillars of marble and porphyry; and taking deeper hues from the gaudy tapestry that hung upon the walls.

"I would like to know who this stranger can be," said the monarch turning to his chamberlain. "Ah—here comes the lieutenant. We shall see."

There was a movement among the guard at the lower end of the chamber, and presently an officer approached the throne, leading Alaric by the arm.

"He is unarmed!" the king cried, as his eye rested upon the youth's tall and sinewy frame.

"He is, sire. We found only a simple sword upon him, and that we took from him."

A contemptuous look overspread the youth's face as he thus found a monarch so fearful; but when he gazed full upon the features of the tyrant who had slain his loved kindred, an expression of deadly hate swept over his noble brow, and a keen fire burned in his dark eye.

"Ye gods!" gasped the king, as he caught a full view of the youth's face, with this deep expression from the soul upon it, 'what have we here!—Come no nearer! guard him well! Who art thou?"

Had the sword of death been at that moment suspended over our hero's head, and ready to fall at a breath, he could not have curbed the emotions that swelled in his soul. In all his nature there was not one principle or incentive that could lead him to bow and cringe before one whom he so utterly despised and detested.

Had he thought of the future, he might have spoken differently; but he thought only of the present and the past—he thought only of the bloody wrongs that had been done, and he allowed his soul to have full sway.

"I am Alaric," he answered, looking full into Pyrrho's face.

"ALARIC! ALARIC! What Alaric art thou?"

"Hold, sire," interposed the chamberlain, who had been regarding the youth narrowly "Methinks thou should know that face. He is the son of Ornous."

"He! Now, by the gods, I know him!" cried the king, starting up from his seat, but quickly sinking back again. "Art thou the son of the patriot Ornous?"

"When my noble father lived I was his son," the prisoner replied.

"And when your noble father died you fled from the country," said the monarch, with emphasis upon the words he had repeated from the youth's speech.

"I did flee," was the reply.

"And have you been absent ever since?"

"I have."

"Where?"

"In Greece."

"Why hast thou returned now?"

"To see the land of my birth."

"Was no one with thee?"

"I landed alone upon these shores, your majesty, and had no thought but to find a friend; and then, if need be, to leave the country again."

"And whom is the friend you sought?"

"A bosom friend of my early youth, whose influence extends not beyond the walls of her home."

"Ah—a female, eh?"

"Yes."

"And lives with the artisan Bellerus?"

"I went there to seek her."

"And there you found her?"

"I heard of her there."

"Answer me!" cried the king, in a voice of rage. "By the sacred crown of Jupiter, thou hadst better bite off thine own head than answer me again as thou hast done. Who is the maiden thou hast come to seek?"

Alaric hesitated ere he replied to this. He remembered the warning he had received from Bellerus, and he began to feel that he had been too rash in his speech. But he had no choice now. If he refused to answer, the king could easily enough, on the dwelling of the mason, and thus matters might be only made worse.

"She is the daughter of Bellerus," he finally said.

The monarch gazed into the youth's face for some moments without speaking. There was a look of deadly meaning upon his hard features, and his fingers moved nervously over his knees. At length he turned to his chamberlain, and said:

"This is a curious trick of circumstance. But the young man is like a stranger in our city, and we must provide for him—at least for awhile.—Then turning to Alaric, he added:

"Since I have had thee brought hither against thy will, thou shalt be provided for during the night."

"I can easily provide for myself, sire."

"Aye—but we do not choose that thou shouldst be put to that inconvenience. We have room enough, and we would have thee at hand that we may be truly gratificated to know that thou art cared for."

Alaric could not mistake the meaning of these words. The look which accompanied them was sufficient for any to their import. But he could do nothing now to help himself. He could only trust to circumstances as they should present themselves.

The king called one of his officers to his side and whispered something into his ear, and then turned once more to the youth.

"It is waning late now, and we all have need of rest," he said; "so thou shalt be conducted to a place of safety until the morrow."

"But sire," interposed our hero, "why should you keep me here to-night? I can be found when you want me."

"We are not so sure of that. But it is our will that you remain—Hippon, you will conduct him to a place of rest, and report to me when thou hast done it."

The man thus addressed approached our hero, and placed his hand upon his arm:

"Come," he said.

Alaric started as he heard the tones of that voice, for they sounded like a knell. The word was not spoken as speaks one who leads a guest to a quiet chamber.

"Go with him," spoke the king.

Alaric turned, and was led away. In an aute-room his conductor was joined by four dark, sinister-looking men, who had more the appearance of common ruffians than soldiers upon a king, and then he was seized by both his arms, and hurried on through a vaulted passage to a dimly lighted corridor. Presently the officer, who was Hippon, the jailer, stopped at a niche, where a grand was passed, and procured a torch, by the glaring light of which he led on once more.

On, through dark and narrow passages—and down down, down, long and steep stairways, the youth was led; and when his conductors finally stopped, Hippon opened a door of solid metal, which swung out from a jagged wall, and the prisoner was forced roughly in, and the massive door was closed. It was shut with a dull, heavy sound, the reverberations being drank up by the solid walls as soon as they fell upon the air—and the prisoner was left in utter darkness. He closed his eyes, and then opened them again, to see if some glimmer might not be found to break the horrid gloom; but it was all in vain. He groped his way to the wall and leaned against it for support, for there was no seat save the floor.

The youth was not long in making up his mind that he had been doomed to death. He knew the character of the monarch, and that no deed would be too foul for him. He knew, also, how far gone could the tyrant more cruel than before, and to what deeds of darkness the fear-stricken usurper can descend

It was a terrible thought, and for a while Alaric was unable to give himself for what he had done, but when he came to reflect upon the transactions of the day, he could not see how the present result could have been avoided. It had flown from causes over which he could have exercised no control without the power of fore-knowledge. He thought of Ianthe, and he wondered if he should ever see her again. The chances were against it, but he was not prepared to give up all hope. He had just started to grope his way around the slimy wall, when he heard the sound of footsteps approaching, and presently the moving of bolts fell upon his ear. In a few moments more the door of his dungeon was opened, and three men entered one of them bearing a flaming torch. They were huge fellows, clad in sombre garments, and each bore a naked sword in his hand.

Alaric recognized those garbs, for he had seen them years before, and he knew that only the executioners wore them! The moment his eye rested upon the grim visions, he knew that his doom had been spoken, and that the time for execution had come!—instinctively he placed his hand upon his hip, but there was no weapon there. He was all unarmed and seemingly powerless against the gigantic ruffians—The man who held the torch leaned it up against the wall where a projecting rock helped support it, and then the three approached the prisoner.

"Follow now," spoke Alaric. "What is your business here?"

"A foul business, yo'd say, if you knew it, my master," replied the leader of the infernal trio, in an unfeeling tone, "but when 'tis done, we'll do it so well you won't know we've done it all."

"I am to die?" the youth said, with his handclasped upon his bosom.

"We've all got to die some time, and those who die first will get the sooner out of a very wicked world. And since you know who's coming, I suppose you'll take it as easily as possible."

What a lifetime of thought and feeling was crowded into the next moment! The three gleaming swords were raised, and the doomed youth saw them pointing surely towards his heart. There was no escape by flight, for between him and the door advanced the workmen of death! There was no hope in his own strength of body and limb, for, unarmed as he was, the power opposed to him was unconquerable So he leaned back against the reeking wall, and shut the horrid monsters from his sight.

The above is the commencement of Mr. Conn's great story, which is now being published in the New York Ledger. We give this as a sample; but it is only the beginning of this most interesting, fascinating and absorbing tale—the balance or continuation of it can only be found in the New York Ledger, the latest literary paper, for which the most popular writers in the country contribute, and which can be found at all the stores throughout the city and country where papers are sold. Remember and ask for the New York Ledger of November 13, and in it you will get the continuation of the story where it leaves off here. If you can not get a copy at any news office, the publisher of the Ledger will mail you a copy on the receipt of five cents.

The Ledger is mailed to subscribers at $2a year, or two copies for $3. Address your letters to Robert Bonner, publisher, 44 Ann street, New York. It is the handsomest and best family paper in the country, elegantly illustrated, and characterized by a high moral tone.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1858.

From the Concord Statesman.

MORAL INSANITY.—This is a term used by practitioners at the bar, on which they hang sophistry, and weave fancies for the benefit and acquittal of arraigned criminals, for whom they chance to appear as counsel. It has had its weight before some juries, and now, in the case of many obdurate criminals, is urged with all possible force and logic.

In this State a trial for murder has recently been had, the circumstances attending which seem to show deliberation and malice; first, in the provocation of a quarrel, and second, in the arming with deadly weapons to prosecute the strife, at a subsequent period, to the death; yet the learned counsel urged moral insanity as an extenuation, and introduced evidence of more or less weight and respectability, to prove that the prisoner was at the time of commitment unsound in mind.

There are often extenuating circumstances attending the act of murder; such as gross wrong or provocation; but, according to this modern philosophy, all crime has an excuse, and statute books are but texts for ridicule. Insanity is unsoundness of mind. Pefectly sound minds are rare, and can hardly be said to exit at all. Men of perfect physical developement are now and then met. If such a physique could be united with perfect mental faculties, a perfect man would exist. Suppose everybody to be so constituted, and there would be neither murder nor robbery and punishment: so there would be neither sickness nor sarsaparilla, and M. D.'s, broken heads and dentists would be uncalled for. The golden rule would do away with legislation.

Some persons have unfortunately a mania for theft. It is not a very uncommon occurrence to find one whose mind is overpowered by temptation to steal at every possible opportunity, and, if valuables do not present themselves, the result is an accumulation of worthless trash. Such persons used to be, and are still called thieves. But when, on a higher scale, in a vaster theatre, minds give way to temptation, and forgeries and murders are committed, argument is presented that the guilty are insane.

When it is admitted by an advocate that a criminal is morally insane, the concession seems to amount to all that courts are called to punish. No sane person commits murder. The guilt is sufficient evidence of such unsoundness, and it does not matter much whether such insanity be of a long or short period. It may be mental habit, or sudden provocation, or injury.—To correct this moral insanity and lodge the unsound where their crimes or eccentricities will no longer peril the interests of the community, is the business of courts of justice.

Tuckerman, defaulter to the Eastern Railroad Co., was in process of being proven morally insane, when more graceless and less gentlemanly depredations on the mail made proof useless, and brought him under useful, moral and physical restraint. The counsel for Huntington, the Wall Street forger, urged his acquittal for mental reasons, but a sturdy jury considered it prudent to place him where an indulgence of his mania for writing other peoples' names at the end of promissory notes, would result in no harm.

Moral insanity is moral obtuseness; but if jurymen prefer another belief, it may be a convenient lever with which to move a man's neck away from the gallows.

SENATOR SUMNER.—Letters recently received from Mr. Sumner represent his health as being greatly improved. He writes that the physicians at Aix will probably attribute his improvement to the baths; Dr. Brown Sequard will think it is the result of his mess, and his friends at home may suppose that relaxation from labor is the cause; but of the fact that he is much improved in health there is no doubt. He was about leaving Aix for Paris when last heard from.

A COLORED BISHOP.—The last General Conference of the M. E. Church, held at Indiana, authorized the election and ordination of a Bishop for the Republic of Liberia. Rev. Francis Burns was so ordained on the 14th inst., at Perry, N. Y. Bishop Burns is a native of New York, but has resided in Liberia since 1834.

☞ We are informed that the Congregational Church and Society at South Berwick, have invited Rev. Ebenezer Douglass of Oldtown to become their pastor, upon a salary of $1000.

WORCESTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY.—Proposals have been issued by Hickling, Swan & Brewer, Boston, for publishing by subscription, a Dictionary of the English Language, by Joseph E. Worcester, LL. D.—In one volume, quarto, library edition. It will be printed on extra fine paper, is now approaching completion, and to be published in May, 1859,—in eighteen hundred pages, and will contain a full vocabulary of the words now used in Literature, Art, and Science, together with local and obsolete terms likely to be met with in writings now much read.

In Orthography the work will represent the best usage both in this country and in England.

The Pronunciation of all the words will be exhibited by a system easily understood.

In the department of Etymology this Dictionary will be more complete and satisfactory than any other work of the kind.

The treatment of Synonyms will form a very valuable feature of the work.

The grammatical forms and inflections of words will be given more fully than ever before in any English Dictionary.

The Illustrations by wood cuts, of which there will be about 1200, beautifully executed, will form another novel and useful feature of this Dictionary. There are many terms, the verbal explanation of which, however carefully made, will convey a much less correct idea of their meaning than a pictorial representation, and accordingly it is proposed to adopt this method of exemplifying the definitions in all such cases as seem to require it.

The price of the library edition, on extra fine paper, will be $7.50, which will be the retail price for the common edition. Persons subscribing will therefore secure the library edition at the same price that they would be obliged to pay for the common edition after its publication.

There can be no doubt, in the minds of those who have used Worcester's Dictionary in connexion with others, that he comes nearer the actual standard of English usage in Orthography, than any other.

And from the well tried ability of the author, there is no doubt the new dictionary now proposed, will be one of the most valuable English Dictionaries extant; standing at the head of the list, or certainly second to none in point of merit.

☞ A Chestnut street gambling establishment was broken into by the Philadelphia police, on Tuesday, and there was a great "hurrying to and fro" among the crowd of surprised players. One gentleman crawled into an ash-box, several others jumped out through a back window, and lacerated their legs by falling into a skylight, while a stout gentleman undertook to conceal his entire person by crawling into a three-peck coalscuttle, from which he was fished out by the coat-tails, half dead from fright. The officers arrested the proprietors and brought away a fine gambling apparatus.

☞ At Manchester, N. H. Police Court, Nov. 9, Samuel Daniels was held to bail for stealing a gold watch and chain from Nelson H. Fisher, in a place called Franklin Hall, where there were ladies, dancing, cards, and "bets of drinks" on the cards.

The thief that stole the watch, threatened to prosecute the loser for gambling, if he made any noise about it. The house is evidently a nuisance,—and should be abated.

ESSEX CO. MASS.—At the Court in Lawrence, Oct. 28 and 29, eleven liquor cases were disposed of, viz.:—

Two common sellers; verdict guilty.

The landlord of a fashionable and genteel Hotel, was found guilty on four counts, each single sales.

Another guilty of one sale; one defaulted; one, verdict not guilty.

Two common sellers, sentenced to pay $50 and costs and three months in the House of Correction each.

☞ The Nashua Telegraph well says, "There are too many office-seekers in all parties, everywhere. The office must seek the man, not the man the office. If all parties are to be at the mercy of scheming, selfish politicians, in our judgment it don't make much difference which party rules."

TOO TRUE.—Referring to the report that Piccolomini receives a salary of $4000 per month, the Salem Gazette says that "not a few of the persons who assist largely in making up Piccolomini's monstrous income, would revolt at an extra dollar to the schoolmaster's or the minister's salary or the laborer's bill."

☞ At Detroit, a young man named Henry Lewis has commenced a suit against a young lady named Mary Ann West, to recover some $70 worth of wedding "fixings," which he bought for her recently. She don't want to marry him, and he is bound to lose no money by the operation.

ORIGIN OF THE CABLE FAILURE.

Old Neptune rose one morning fine,
Mounted his watery car,
Summoned along his gallant train,
Prepared for peace or war;

"Look out!" cried one, as they galloped on,
Over plain and mountain steep;
"There lies a snake, long as the sea—
A monster of the deep!"

"'Tis an eel," old Neptune cried, in wrath—
"The electric species, rot 'em!"
Then up his mighty trident raised,
And pinned it to the bottom.

And then you see, by Neptune's ire,
Who did the deed so naughty,
That it's all under with the wire,
All over with De Sauty!

—(Philadelphia Bulletin.

Begin right is the doctrine. A suspicious tailor replied to his customer:—"Make you a coat, sir? Oh! yes sir, with the greatest pleasure. There, just stand in that position, please—and look right upon that while I take your measure." The sign happened to read "Terms cash."

COURT.—The Court of Common Pleas is in session at Manchester, with a tremendous docket before it. It will take a great deal of justice to go round, if all parties get it. They will be likely to get law enough, all of them, for our county of Hillsborough turns out a very large quantity of lawyers.—N. H. Telegraph.

☞ About six weeks ago, a little son of L. Clay, Esq., of Gardiner, broke his leg. He was getting around on crutches, when he fell and broke it again—and to conclude with he has been attacked with scarlet fever.

☞ Poterson's magazine for December is received. This popular Ladies' Magazine will be greatly improved for 1859. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, author of "Fashion and Famine," and Charles J. Peterson, author of "Kate Aylesford," are its editors, and write exclusively for it.

EDITORS ELECTED.—Boston has elected to the Legislature Charles Hale of the Advertiser, Stephen N. Stockwell, of the Journal, and R. Worthington of the Traveler, and Lowell has elected John A. Goodwin of the News.

Togus Spring is to be made famous, though its waters are infamous. Who will put an unfailing supply of gunpowder, rotten wood and dead cats into some bog hole in this vicinity so that we may have a mineral spring.—Bath Times.

O, they build breweries instead, now-a-days—and all hands guzzle down "Dutch swill." Any slops are better than cold water.

☞ A late Parisian invention consists in making a parasol so that it can be folded in the form of a fan, instead of folding it in the common manner.

Cowper says that "the tear that is wiped ed by address may be followed, perhaps, by a smile." If it is a woman's tear, the "perhaps" is unnecessary. You can always dry it with a dress.

THE REVIVAL AND THE MINISTERS.—The New York Observer mentions as one of the effects of the late religious revival, the unusual accessions to the Presbyterian divinity schools of the country.

☞ In Newburyport, there are six vessels on the stocks, varying from 400 to 1100 tons burthen. Three or four hundred carpenters are at work in the yards.

☞ The White Mountains Railroad was sold by auction at Bath, last Wednesday, and was bought by George Minot, Esq., acting for the bond-holders, for $24,000.

WEIGHT OF A MILLION OF DOLLARS.—A million of dollars in gold weighs 4479 pounds and 2 ounces, or nearly two tons and a quarter. If we had a couple of tons, we would'nt mind the odd quarter.—N. H. Telegraph.

That's what all money-seekers think;—but when they reach their first goal, they are farther off from satisfaction than ever.

NEW YORK, NOV. 8.—A young man named Wm. S. Tompkins was killed on Saturday evening in an affray in a Broadway concert saloon, kept by Fox & Wadsworth. Last evening, while the performances were going on in the saloon, the police made a descent upon it, arresting the proprietors and about one hundred persons, composing the audience.

Quick Cures of Bilious Colic.

This distressing complaint demands prompt attention. It will readily yield to the R.R.R. treatment. Whenever you find Bile rising from the stomach, or a sour taste after breaking, take three or four of R. R. REGULATORS, likewise one-half a teaspoonful of READY RELIEF, every 20 minutes; rub the bowels, back and spine well with the Ready Relief; also lay a flannel wet with Relief across the Bowels. In FIFTEEN MINUTES you will be free from the distressing pains; the violent spasms will be arrested, and vomiting entirely stopped.

In THREE HOURS a pleasant operation of the bowels will take place, and your whole system will become regulated and healthy. Persons who indulge in too much green fruit, or cabbage, or unripe vegetables, and indigestible meats, should take a dose of RADWAY'S REGULATORS after eating, and they will prevent violent attacks of colic.—Keep the stomach clean and pure from acid, the Bowels and Liver regular, and no sickness will trouble you—R.R. Relief to neutralize acid; R.R. Regulators to regulate the system.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of immitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE ORIGINAL IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Tucker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer,

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE DESTROYER is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from its former Proprietors at great expense. It is the purest plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up, and leaves the parts in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 2,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale everywhere.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

We are pleased to notice the gradual advancement of this young and enterprising Association. The energy and perseverance of its active members will soon establish it as one of the leading institutions among us. During the first years of its growth it could scarce count its members by scores; now its list foots up to hundreds; it has always been open to all classes of young men, and its benefits are therefore scattered among all classes of the community.

With a Library selected to suit a variety of tastes, and each year increased by the addition of such new works as are best suited to the wants of its members; with meetings weekly, where members selected have opportunity to discuss prominent questions of the day, or as Essayists, advance their opinions on any subjects within the scope of their intellects; with lectures on a variety of subjects by the best home and outside talent, and with Legislative and Congressional assemblies, bringing out native talent, and preparing Young America to take their places early, as men in all the prominent movements and questions of the age, it presents many attraction to rising manhood. And these are only a part of the benefits derived by a connection with an Association of this character.

Who shall say that it is not an institution that reflects credit upon those who are ever and always working for its growth, advancement, and prosperity? No one can tell the benefits to the young among us of an Association of this character; this should induce those in any community—able pecuniarly to help such organizations, to give them all the encouragement in their power.

The Rooms now occupied by the Association, have recently been too small; but now we are about to have good airy and commodious Rooms suited to the wants of the members. The premises at No. 16 Exchange Buildings are now being entirely renovated, and refitted for the use of the M. L. A. On the first floor will be two large rooms, intended for Library and Reading rooms; the second floor is being fitted for the Hall, lighted from the roof, well ventilated, and calculated to seat some three hundred; it will be when finished, one of the best arranged Halls in the City. The Society lease the premises for a term of years, and are much indebted to their landlord, John J. Pickering, Esq., for his kindness in affording them so suitable accommodations at a reasonable rent. The Furniture and Settees of the rooms are to be supplied by the Association, and as their funds will hardly allow so large an outlay as is necessary to fit them in a proper manner, the Association contemplate holding a Fair and Levee at Jefferson Hall, during Thanksgiving week, to raise funds for this purpose. Committees have been appointed to perform all the various duties attending an object of this kind; and without doubt, it will be carried through with all the energy and success that has ever attended the efforts of the members of the M. L. A. The object and intent of this should interest every one who wishes to see the young men of our community encouraged and sustained in so laudable an undertaking as the permanent establishment of this important literary and social institution. †

FREE MEDICAL LECTURE.—It will be seen by an advertisement in to-day's paper that Dr Hayden, now at the Rockingham House, will deliver a medical lecture on Wednesday evening, to which admission will be free. The subject chosen—the Causes of disease—has an interest that will probably draw a full house. A.D.V.

☞ Union Prayer Meetings in this city, which have continued through the year, are now to be changed as to their time.—There will be a Morning Prayer Meeting each Sunday morning; but the week day morning prayer meeting, is to be exchanged for an evening prayer meeting on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The first of these meetings will be held on Thursday evening at half past 7, in the brick vestry.

☞ A term of the Court of Common Pleas, for the trial of civil cases, commences this morning. Hon. J. E. Sargent, of Wentworth is to preside.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

☞ The cost of the new jail at Augusta, Me., is $55,000.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

MONDAY, Nov. 8.

Arr sch Florence, Jameson, New York.

Ship Arkwright, Davis, lading at Mobile 3d for Havre.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Nov. 6.—Steamer Circassian brings advices by telegraph to noon of 26th, from London and Liverpool. She reports stormy weather during the first part of her voyage.

The British war steamer Gorgon arrived at Plymouth on the 22d, from Halifax and Fayal. She took soundings for another line of Atlantic Telegraph from the Banks of Newoundland via Fayal to the entrance of the English Channel.

The Daily News says the Atlantic Steam Company, Galway line, received by the City of Washington applications for £50,000 stock, which, added to the subscriptions already made, exceeds the required capital.

The British Board of Trade returns for the year, September 30th, show a decrease in the exports during the past nine months of over £9,400,000.

The French Breadstuffs markets continue dull.

The Portuguese government delivers the "Charles Georges" to France, declaring it yields only to the threatened employment of force. The "Pays Patrie" says Portugal yielded not from fear but through wisdom. The captain is at liberty.

PRUSSIA.—The First Chamber have rejected by a vote of 80 to 75, a proposition to send an address to the King and Prince Regent.

TURKEY.—The U. S. frigate Wabash arrived at Constantinople on the 11th. A letter says, as America is not included in the treaty, the Wabash has been allowed to come up, although she far exceeds the size of vessels allowed to pass the Dardanelles; she took out 20 of her guns, however, so that only 30 showed at her portholes, which was nine more than the treaty allows.

The submarine telegraph between Dover and Calais has ceased working, and it is believed to be broken. Communication, however, is kept up between the two countries via Ostend.

The Cape of Good Hope Steamship Company's steamer Eastern City was destroyed by fire at sea, on the 24th of August. The crew were saved, except one engineer and one passenger, by the ship Merchantman, and have arrived at Cape Town.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 25.—Sales of cotton for two days were 11,000 bales, including 1600 on speculation and export. The market closes dull with a declining tendency, holders offering freely but without pressing on the market.

The breadstuffs market is very dull, and sales have been unimportant.

FROM UTAH—DEFENCE OF THE MORMONS. St. Louis, Nov. 6.—The Republican publishes a communication from a leading Mormon, stating that they have been traduced and slandered, and demanding a full and impartial investigation of all the charges against them, with a view of counteracting the existing prejudices against the sect.

Mr. Wallace, recently from California, via Salt Lake, reports having seen on the Plains 1565 vehicles, 8061 yoke of oxen, 704 mules, 46 horses and 1230 head of loose cattle.

THE ELECTIONS.—New York, Nov. 8.—The Albany Evening Journal says the Congressional vote in New York shows an anti-Lecompton majority of over 60,000.—Some of the districts give immense majorities that way. Francis E. Spinner, who represents the stronghold of Democracy, St. Lawrence county, has 6,500 majority. E. G. Spaulding, in the Buffalo district, has 5000 majority, though the district is now represented by a Lecomptonite! Mr. Fenton in the 33d district has 6000, and Mr. Butterfield in the 25th, 5000. The Republican papers confidently claim the election of Haskin.

ILLINOIS.—A despatch from Springfield, Ill., dated the 6th, says:—

"Eighty-three counties in this State have sent in their returns, and if the remaining counties vote as in 1856, the Democrats will have a small majority."

We are left in ignorance as to whether this refers to the State ticket or the Legislature, but we think it probable that it refers to the State ticket, for the triumph of Douglas in the Legislature is generally conceded.

PORTLAND, Nov. 8.—The cattle train on the Grand Trunk Railroad ran off the track this morning, this side of New Gloucester, in consequence of a land slide, killing Mr. Hazeltine, engineer, and killing and wounding many cattle.

A NEW INVENTION.

Great Economy and CONVENIENCE.

THE

BAY STATE RANGE.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having

Two Large Ovens

AND

Six Boiling Places.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS

PERFECT IN ITSELF,

and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of

will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BEAUTY is the ornament God himself prepared for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, dusty and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Woods Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, in proof, from a writer of the first in the celebrated Transit, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOODS:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the delightful sensations I am under for the restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time (I my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your "Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dtych s'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOODS:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative, and gave it to my wife, who conclusded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color. Her hair, as well as my whiskers, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thicken ing the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARSAW.

NEW YORK, July 24, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOODS: With satisfaction do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KENT.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About three years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray: I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up on your out and turned back to its original color (black.) At this time my hair is restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I observedly recommend its use to all. J. D. HOBS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These gums remove the disease effects of all morbid or other matter from the system, supplying their place with a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the worst cases and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night removes the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose removes the effects of repeated injury in a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the remaining medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for a Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhoea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the water from the system.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a bilious type, for it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the month with the Invigorator, and swallow together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain diseases called secret, and suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of these medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

Dr. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and in all instances the parties of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, will receive all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. ly2 diy

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send money for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one prize to every twenty tickets. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon a single piece of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $50 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the Wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin, and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both in durability and cheapness in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be cheaply applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last five years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.

My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—have enabled me to devise at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advertise to cure all incurable diseases of kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fatal and alarming diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid in Express or Post Office Order for Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,

No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s6 6m

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

The following are a few some of the DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1858.

POLITICAL PROSPECTS.

There is one singular feature in the election returns, over which there is now so much speculation. This feature is the fact that the election of five Douglas Representatives from Illinois, and the probable election of Douglas as Senator from that State, are hailed as Democratic victories—while the election of several men in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, who acted with Douglas in the last session, is noticed as a Democratic defeat. It is also worthy of remark that the results of these elections elicit all sorts of comments from the papers, and show a breaking up of old parties.

The New York Courier & Enquirer says that the election in that State, last week, was a verdict in favor of Seward for the Presidency. To this the Newburyport Herald replies:—"That is a hasty calculation, which they may be able to rectify before 1860." The same paper says:

Senator Douglas's election is probably owing to the efforts of ex-Gov. Jones of Tennessee, who influenced many Whig friends to go for him, and to Mr. Crittenden of Kentucky, who addressed a letter to the Americans in favor of Douglas. More than three hundred Americans in Sangamon county were thus induced to vote the Douglas ticket, and that county, unexpectedly to his opponents, elected two Douglas representatives.

The Washington Union of Friday says:

If the Democratic party has triumphed in Illinois, it has been at its own expense, in consideration of joining in the Black Republican clamor against the "Lecompton fraud and swindle." It is a triumph barren and ignominous; it is a triumph over which the Black Republicans have reason to exult, and do exult, more than the good and true Democracy. The platform of the party in Illinois on the great slavery question, in the canvass just ended, differs but little from the Buffalo platform of 1848. It was the leading tenet of the Buffalo platform that Congress might prohibit slavery in the Territories and debar from these common possessions of all the States, the citizens of half the Union. It is the leading tenet of the Illinois platform that the subordinate agent of Congress, the Territorial Legislature, may do this thing—in the manner most becoming an underling and tool, by indirection, bad faith and perjury.

The Union professes to believe (and gives a letter from Illinois to back up his opinion,) that Senator Douglas will not be returned, even though his friends be in an apparent majority in Legislature. But there is no probability that this opinion is well founded.

The Richmond Enquirer shouts:—

"Hurrah for Douglas.—The Little Giant has triumphed over all opposition; and the disorganizers are crushed to a fraction just equal to one-hundredth of the whole vote cast."

Three times three cheers for the Democratic champion."

The Union and Mr. Buchanan pronounced "disorganizers" by the Richmond Enquirer! What next!

☞ Four condemned murderers escaped from two prisons in New York, since Saturday.

THE MANUFACTURED VOTERS.—It appears that by actual count there were six hundred and thirty-nine persons naturalized in Boston, within the past month.

Many of them had their taxes paid by politicians who wanted their votes: and yet, we presume, had the men prevailed, for whose election most of those voters were manufactured, we should have heard a shout about public opinion's being changed, or about popular sovereignty,—as if these stupid whiskey drinkers were intelligent voters, who understood something of our institutions!

☞ The government of Holland has just proposed to the Chambers a plan for the purchase by government of the Isle of Stockland, in the Zuyder Zee, belonging to the province of Overyssel. The little island, scarcely more than a league in extent, has a population of 800 souls, who live in the most wretched destitution, as the soil, being often overflowed by the tides, produces no article of food, and they can rely only on the precarious results of their fishery. The government had been so frequently obliged to grant large sums of money for the relief of these poor people, that it has now decided to buy them off and remove them to the main land, as the more economical way of disposing of them. The island will in future be uninhabited.

☞ The New Orleans and Metropolitan Opera Troupe, so favorably known in this vicinity, are to gratify our citizens with two of their entertainments, on Saturday and Monday evenings next.

The reputation that needs law to mend it is hardly worth the tinkering.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.

This gentleman has carried a majority of the Illinois Legislature, who are favorable to his election to the United States Senate. At the same time the popular vote of the State shows that he is in a minority in the State. While the Legislature has gone for Douglas, the people have gone for Lincoln. Many people will ask, how is this? The Atlas says:

We propose to explain it. In districting the State for the election of members of the Legislature, the Democrats, having the house in their own hands, Gerrymandered the State so as to put a Democratic majority into the Legislature, even though the popular vote of the State should be on the other side.

It is well known that the emigration from the Eastern States and from Germany, for the last half dozen years at least, has been to the Northern part of Illinois. Very few have gone into the low counties comprising the lands which the Ohio and the Mississippi rivers, from Shanoetown on the Ohio to St. Louis on the Mississippi, border, and form into a sort of triangle—and which are known as "Egypt." The free emigration has poured into the Northern parts of the State, say North of the line of railroad which has for its termini Chicago and Rock Island. North of this line lie the great Republican majorities. Some fifteen or twenty counties in the central part of the State are fighting grounds. South of Springfield to the Ohio river is Egypt and the strong Democratic counties. Take for instance the Galena Congressional District, represented by Mr. Washburn; it gives some nine thousand Republican majority, and in his district there are probably not less than three hundred thousand people. Yet they have no more voice in Congress than a hundred thousand living in the Shanectown District, and in the Legislature they have not so much power as their Egyptian opponents. The Southern part of Illinois is peopled by Kentuckians, Tennesseians, and Virginians. The Northern part of the State, by New England men, New Yorkers, and Germans, nearly all of whom vote the Republican ticket. The result is, that although Mr. Douglas has carried the Legislature, the Republicans have a majority of the popular vote.

A GAMBLER'S DEFENCE OF HIS BUSINESS. Robert J. Willis, the keeper of the Broadway gambling house, where a servant girl swore that she had seen the dead body of a man in the cistern, supposed to have been murdered, has written a letter to the New York Herald, in which he says it is necessary to keep good temper.

No man of the world would ever think a gambler more ready to commit such a crime as that with which I am charged, than any other man. Like lawyers and doctors, gamblers are necessary evils—quite as necessary, but not quite as evil. Like nine-tenths of the tradesmen, rich idlers, and other non-producers, we are, certainly, in a philosophic point of view, drones upon society. I have not a doubt that the services of nineteen-twentieths of the lawyers, gamblers, merchants and shopkeepers, of the world, could be profitably dispensed with in their present capacities, and that they would advance the interests of humanity much more by tilling the soil.

SELF-PROPELLING STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—The New Yorkers, for a wonder, have something new under the sun. The Post of that city says of it:

Steam machines in Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and other cities, have to be dragged to conflagrations by man or horse power, but our "mastheen" goes itself. It steered its way through the streets yesterday with the skill of a Broadway omnibus driver. It is expected, when the thing goes into commission, that steam will be kept up all the time, day and night, which would be about equivalent to a fire company's sleeping at night with the long rope in their hands, ready to start at the first tap of the bell. When the machine reaches the fire a couple of rods are disconnected, and instantly the same power which brought it there, goes to work throwing water through big or little pipes at a tremendous rate—say 600 or 700 gallons a minute. The power is furnished by an annular steam boiler, with 114 vertical tubes. The whole concern weighs only about five tons, is about six feet high, and passing through the street looks like a drunken locomotive broke loose."

☞ Maine is thought by many to be covered with forests, with here and there a cleared spot where civilization has made some advances; and yet ship builders go out of the State to get nearly all the wood used in the construction of ships. The oak comes from Virginia and Maryland, the yellow pine from the Carolinas, the white pine from Pennsylvania, while the knees are brought from Canada and the Provinces, leaving very little as the product of Maine forests.

DOUGLAS ENTHUSIASM.—We are informed that the Douglas Democracy of Dover celebrated the recent triumph of the "Little Giant,"—by firing a salute of 100 guns from Garrison Hill last Monday evening. The Gazette office, and some other buildings were also illuminated on the occasion.

MILLEDGEVILLE, (Ga.,) Nov. 6.—A bill was introduced into the Legislature, yesterday, providing for repealing the clause of the State Constitution prohibiting the importation of Africans.

PARRICIDE.—The Bedford, Pa. Democrat learns from private advices that there was a most atrocious murder committed in the upper part of Franklin county a week or two since. It appears that a whole family—men, women and children—had got on a general "spree," and while in this state of intoxication, a general row arose concerning the marriage of a girl about 15 years old, belonging to the family, and her views upon the subject not corresponding with those of her father, became enraged, and in a moment of passion, seized a rock and hurled it at her father with such violence that he was immediately killed. The girl is arraigned before the proper authorities, and no doubt ere this, has undergone her trial before the examining Court.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—The correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from Washington as follows:

The Union, in an elaborate leading article, discussing the question of sovereignty in the Territories, denounces squatter sovereignty in all its forms, and accepts the Republican doctrine that Congress has full, exclusive jurisdiction over the Territories; that the supreme ultimate authority in respect of the Territories resides ouside of them, not within.

The rchism between the Douglas faction and the administration is widening, notwithstanding the fact that Senator Brown and other leading Senators are urging a reconciliation, as essential to the preservation of the party.

REV. MR. THAYER.—Yesterday the gratifying fact was announced both forenoon and afternoon, from the pulpit of the First Universalist Church, that Mr. Thayer was in a very comfortable condition, and that his physicians were entertaining strong hopes of his recovery. To-day the favorable symptoms continue and hope brightens rapidly. The question of amputation too is said not yet to be settled in the affirmative. Though the darkest hours Mr. Thayer has maintained the greatest cheerfulness and showed much forethought and regard for those about him. He has also expressed the strongest confidence in the doctrines which he has taught, and an increasing affection for them.—Lowell News of Monday evening.

The Lowell Courier says his symptoms seem much more favorable, and though he is still very low, there is some ground to hope that he may yet rally and be saved.

THE RED PETTICOAT.—The Balmoral skirt, or "red petticoat," is beginning to make its appearance on the promenade, in New York, and the fashion is expected to become popular this winter. The fashion, however, is fine drab, with variegated stripes, or rich black with crimson stripes, the upper part being black.

☞ Our friends of the Great Falls Advertiser have the biggest cabbage head yet. It measures over five feet in circumference, and weighs thirty pounds.

☞ A prayer meeting, conducted by women, and attended by them exclusively, is he d in the lecture-room of the John st Methodist Church, New York, daily, at noon.

☞ A Western editor, recently defeated as a candidate for Congress, says:

Editors have no business to run for office. Their business is to work and let others enjoy the fruits of their labor.—They make the fortunes and the greatness of other men, but are expected to find their reward in the proud contemplation of their works.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 8.—The large daguerrotype case factory of Newell C. Hall in Park street, took fire this evening, and was destroyed. Part of the stock was saved. Over 100 persons are thrown out of employment. Loss $16,000; insured in Hartford, New London and Springfield offices.

The Douglas men of this city are in high glee at the result of the Illinois election; 32 guns have been fired, and a meeting has been called to meet on Friday evening, to be addressed by McMasters, and H. F. Clarke of New York.

FROM UTAH—SNOW STORMS.—Leavenworth, Nov. 4, via Boonville 7th.—The Utah mail arrived on Sunday. Heavy snow storms are reported at Deer Creek, which had rendered the roads quite impassable for wagons. The mails were packed on mules from the Big Blue, that stream being too high to ford.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER, AND DISCHARGED. New York, Nov. 8.—Robert Willis, the Broadway gambler, was committed to prison to-day on the charge of murder, made against him recently by his servant girl.—There is no clue yet to the name of the person murdered. Mr. Busteed, counsel for Willis, got out a writ of habeas corpus, and brought the prisoner this afternoon, before Judge Russell, who immediately discharged him.

BALTIMORE, NOV. 8.—Cortis and Cropps were arraigned this morning for the murder of officer Rigdon, and the cases were removed to the County Court, where they will no doubt find speedy justice.

☞ In Maine, the official vote shows all the republican Senators elected except one in York and one in Aroostook.

MY EAST AND WEST.

A. S. T.

I'm jealous as a churl
Of a girl
Down East; and, so, here's to her!
And yet I can't forget
Another girl I met
Out in Iowa.

O! which, dears, shall I woo
Of you two?
One the brightest, one the best,
One tall, one short and sweet,
One dull, one hard to beat,
One East, one West.

Now I love you both, dear girls.
Precious pearls;
Then give me each a shake!
You East shall cheer my life:
You West shall be my wife,
And no mistake!

HEADACHE.—Chronic sick, or nervous Headache is generally dependent on, or accompanied impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain are deranged, and the nervous centres vitiated. The PERUVIAN SYRUP by reinvigorating the digestive powers, lays the axe at the root of the tree; the brain is duly nourished, the nervous symptoms cease, and the headache disappears.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, GRAVEL, GENERAL DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of weather and climate.

For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 13 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Court hill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. LADIES OF PORTSMOUTH.

IMPROVE YOUR BEAUTY.

Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer.

The only article in America that in 24 hours Removes Pimples, Ring Worms, Salt Rheum, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings from Insects, and all eruptions of the Skin.

THE DESTROYER is an old French Compound, having recently been purchased from the former Paris proprietors at great expense. It is the ne plus ultra of cosmetics—it penetrates the pimples also all eruptions, and dries them up and places the pores in a healthy condition, and renders the skin as soft as an infant's and as pure as marble.

There are about 3,000 perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin. Each tube is attached to a gland that lies below the skin, which becomes diseased, and prevents them from pouring out their contents, that causes the various pimples and eruptions.

The Parisian Ladies have used it for years: consequently they have the reputation of being the most beautiful ladies in the world. It is also one of the fixtures of the toilet tables. Who ever knew a lady in Paris attending an opera or party without using it? For Sale Everywhere.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

TUESDAY, Nov. 9.

The Court came in at eleven o'clock, and the following named gentlemen were empannelled for the first petit jury, viz;

Lyman D. Spalding, Foreman, Portsmouth.
Bailey D. Johnson, Atkinson.
Thomas Goldsmith, Auburn.
Isaac Rowell, Brentwood.
Edmund Hill, Candia.
Asa Wilson, Chester.
Daniel Clifford, Danville.
Sewell Goodhue, Deerfield.
Elbridge G. Parnam, Derry.
John A. Morrill, East Kingston.
Benjamin Bean, Fremont.
Zacheus J. V. Randell, Newcastle.

From the following named Jurors, the second jury are constituted, viz:

William O. Smith, Exeter.
William Lambert, Portsmouth.
Franklin Gilbert, Atkinson.
Jacob Lufkin, Auburn.
John W. Dudley, Brentwood.
Wm. Hoyt, Candia.
James Towle, Chester.
Jonathan French, Danville.
John M. Freeze, Deerfield.
James C. Taylor, Derry.
George S. Tappan, East Kingston.
Benning S. Scribner, Fremont.
William W. Martin, Newcastle.
Thomas Treadwell, Portsmouth.

Prayer was then offered by the Rev. Thomas Holmes, after which the Docket was called, and the various actions marked for the jury, court, or were otherwise disposed of. On the civil docket are 320 actions. There are also 5 State actions and 6 suits upon the Session's docket. The first case marked for trial, was No. 2, Thomas Bassett vs. Salisbury Manufacturing Co. This action has been pending since September, 1849, was tried in May, 1853, and a verdict rendered for the plff. This verdict was set aside by the Superior Court, July, 1854, upon a bill of exceptions, and the case was again tried at the September term following, but the jury disagreed. The action is trespass for flowage of the plff's. land and has occupied about three weeks at each trial.

The plff. at this term moved for a continuance on the ground of his ill health. After some controversy by the Counsel the Court ordered a continuance upon terms.

The case No. 8, Jeremiah D. Goodrich & als. vs. Eastern Railroad was commenced Tuesday afternoon. This is an action of assumpsit for the recovery of damages, occasioned by the filling-up of a certain portion of the North Mill pond, along the Eastern Railroad track, with "a quantity of stones, earth, gravel and other materials" by the Eastern Railroad Corporation in N. H., prior to September 8th, 1843. This case has been transferred to the Superior Court, and there determined that damages should be awarded. The only question to be settled by the jury is the amount thereof.

The action No. 80, City of Portsmouth plff. in review vs. Dr. N L. Folsom, has been settled by the parties:—the deft. receives the sum of $800—the amount of the original judgment, without costs to either party.

Messrs. Editors:—On the night of the 5th inst., a lawless band, with horns and loud cries, passed through several streets of this town, breaking glass, and ornamental fences, and causing more or less alarm to many families, besides expense and vexation. On the night of July 3d, a similar proceeding took place; only on that occasion fire-arms took the place of horns, and last year on the same anniversary, the railing of the Baptist church, and several slat fences, in different parts of the city, were injured.

Now, as a tax-paying, peaceable citizen, I ask, would it not be easy for our Mayor to issue a proclamation on the day when such excesses are well known to be customary, forbidding all disturbance and riot? Would not the arrest of a few offenders (who are mostly boys) put an end to the whole trouble? Many citizens are earning a livelihood at a distance from home, and leave families consisting of females, who are greatly terrified when these band pass, not to speak of the sick, who look forward with dread to these nights. We have no desire to interfere with proper amusements, or even noise by daylight; but believe that all over the world, these riots are forbidden after the sun goes down.

No advantage whatever accrues from these so called "customs," but, on the contrary, these scenes of disorder not only disturb the citizens, but are of positive injury to the boys engaged in them.

We are soon to elect a Mayor—let us fix on one (with no view to politics) who will maintain order in our streets, and confine the orgies of the inebriate to the den where the maddening poison is so freely administered.

A. B.

☞ The Downing Trial, complete, may be had at the Chronicle Counting Room. Price 5 cents—in wrappers for mailing, if desired.

☞ We understand that Mr. Smith, the young man who delivered the Temperance Lecture at the Temple last Sunday night, was requested by his audience to repeat it next Sunday evening at the same place;—that he will do so;—and that he will also address the Mutual Improvement Temperance Society at Academy Hall, this evening.

☞ A grocer's wagon, drawn by a spirited and powerful horse, went through Congress street on Tuesday morning, somewhat faster than the law allows, and somewhat different in direction from the driver's wishes; the race resulting in an upset and crash of the wagon, the detriment of two or three posts, wood and iron, and a disarranged harness, &c.

☞ On Tuesday morning while the frost was on the roof, a workman employed in refitting No. 16 Exchange Buildings for the Mercantile Library Association, slipped on the slate near the ridgepole, and slid to the eaves, caught by the spout, and was providentially saved.

☞ The new ship Como was taken in tow by steamtug R. B. Forbes, on Tuesday afternoon, and with a large party on board conveyed to Boston. The well-known tug exhibited a specimen of her power by breaking a walking-line as easily as a man would a thread.

☞ Those who have money to invest in ships will do well to look at the rare chance to buy small parts of three good vessels, with approved masters, and on favorable terms. See the Auction of the Badger estate, by H. F. Wendell, Auctioneer.

☞ Dr. Hayden's free Medical Lecture to-night, at the Hanover st. Chapel should not be forgotten. The subject is one of important interest.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

Great Economy and CONVENIENCE.

THE

BAY STATE RANGE.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having

Two Large Ovens

AND

Six Boiling Plakes.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS

PERFECT IN ITSELF,

and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of

will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

Housekeepers Buy One,

ITS ADVANTAGES ARE NUMEROUS.
IT COSTS LESS,

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE

RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the roses may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will more than half be chagrined. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Painter, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the surprising restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your "Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dryck a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who accoutered to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but it has done so very satisfactorily. A few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair.

CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With conscience can I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually regained their color and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely.

J. G. KNEE.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray: I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all.

J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large (medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion than the small for $3.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies which they suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to any place, by order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three hundred of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. DIX, must state the complaint, and give all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. DIX. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE PRODUCING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. They are a specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions, there are unprincipled persons offering a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by unusable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 6ly

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Augusta Intelligencer, and New York Daily Dog Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do not strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and may be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

Kittery, July 6th, 1858

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett,

OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of Consumption of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are well known to every intelligent reader or observer from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the work prospers, I will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment per letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Failure in availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered, for further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 620 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—s8 6m

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 70 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

CRUSHING THE REPTILES.—The Bath Times, speaking of Illinois, says:

"Douglas and Democracy" are destined to be watch words with the party of the Union and the Constitution. For one we rejoice. The infamous reptiles who have been warmed into life by executive favors in Illinois, and have used their official position to disgrace the administration by making it back up their personal quarrels and their base attempts to kill the democracy of that state, have been crushed out, and the President owes it to himself, to the people, and to the Democratic cause forthwith to dismiss them from the public service, as the most effectual atonement that can be made to an insulted people for their catalogue of misdeeds.

If we understand this, it means that the Buchanan office-holders in Illinois are reptiles, and Douglas and his friends have crushed them! therefore Mr. Buchanan should dismiss them, though they became reptiles at his bidding.

But let us read on. The Times adds:—

We say more: Such a rebuke from the people in England would cause the whole ministry to resign forthwith. If the cabinet or any portion of it has been the cause of placing the Executive in hostility to the people of the county, now that the people have spoken and so signally rebuked that hostility, the cabinet ministers who have been guilty of the offense owe it to Mr. Buchanan to resign, and thus allow the President to surround himself with a board of advisers, who more truly reflect the democratic sentiment of the nation.—Would Mr. Buchanan do so? We believe he would. We believe no man regrets the unpleasant position in which he has been placed more than he does; that no man would more readily conform to the popular will than he when acquainted with the demands of that will. We hope he will have an opportunity to do so; and that the time is close at hand when James Buchanan, the People's President, and Stephen A. Douglas, the People's Champion and popular leader, will as of old, be warm personal and partisan friends. Then would the democratic cause be strong—then would democracy be indeed the hope of the people.

If we get hold of this aright, it means that Mr. Buchanan don't know what the people want; if he did, he would crush the "reptiles" in his cabinet. These reptiles, however, are requested to crawl out of their places,—and then, Mr. Buchanan can fill them with Douglas and other anti-Lecompton men, say Forney, Haskin, Adrain,—and then Buchanan and Douglas will be good friends, and the Cabinet be a Democratic unit!

☞ The Bath Times of Monday, Nov. 8, learns by a a gentleman from Augusta that on Monday, Nov. 1, a boy about 11 years of age, named Avery, fell from a board pile in that city a distance of some sixteen feet, striking upon the side of the head.—He was stunned, but since he revived, though perfectly conscious and in full possession of all his other faculties, he has been unable to articulate a word. He attempts to talk, and evidently thinks he is speaking, and that all about him are deaf.

☞ The Bath, Me., Times says:

A very officious, loud-mouthed and long-eared fellow was talking about democracy and the democratic party a few days since, and declaring that Douglas was no democrat, when a quiet sort of a man simply asked him, "what is democracy?" "To defend the administration and vote the regular ticket!" was the prompt and proud reply.

Well, then, Douglas cannot be a Democrat; for he has not himself against the administration, and beat it, too. In this he is a sinner above all men—but it may turn out in the end to be a successful case of political insanity. Madmen rule sometimes. Vide France.

DOES LAGER BEER INTOXICATE?—In the case of Philip Anthes of Roxbury, convicted at the Norfolk Common Pleas, last term, for violation of the liquor law, his counsel carried the case up to the Supreme Court on exceptions, taking the ground that lager beer was not intoxicating, and that its sale, of course, was no violation of the law. The full bench of the Supreme Court, sitting at Dedham, overruled the exceptions, and Anthes was remanded for sentence. The opinion of the Court is not published, but we may infer from the nature of the exceptions filed that the highest tribunal of Massachusetts has decided lager beer to be an intoxicating drink.

☞ A woman of New York was recently insulted in the streets of that city by a hackman, who she took from her attire a piece of her steel hoops, with which she lacerated his face in bloody lines down his cheeks. The girl was arrested for assault, but the Justice thought that the punishment was well deserved and discharged her.

He who relates the faults of others to you, designs to relate yours to others.

☞ The Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church has adopted the following resolution:

That we recommend to all our churches in this conference, and urgently insist upon the entire abandonment of alcoholic wines and intoxicating liquors for holy sacramental purposes.

The Christian Freeman re-publishes the above item, with the head, "No Wine at Communion." It is not so, however; only alcoholic wines are excluded. It is worthy of remark that the word wine is not once used in the New Testament in connexion with the Lord's Supper. It is "cup," "fruit of the vine," &c.

PETRIFIED.—A few days since a gentleman residing in Rising Sun, Ind., wished to remove the body of his wife, who had been some time deceased, to a new cemetery. Preparations were made to that effect, and laborers opened the grave in the usual manner; but when they reached the coffin they could not lift it, so great was the weight. After obtaining considerable assistance, however, the men succeeded in raising the coffin from the tomb. They then had such curiosity that they could not resist the temptation of peering into the coffin and learning the reason for its unusual weight. They did so and found, much to their surprise, instead of the remains of a corpse, a stone figure, the exact counterpart of the woman who had died. The husband took the body of his departed spouse home, and has it there now, where it is visited by hundreds of the curious and scientific. The body seems to to have been petrified and to have become a perfect stone woman. The probability is that the body has become adipocere, and will before long melt and crumble.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—We learn by the Worcester Spy that as the upward morning train from Boston on Monday was about half way between Natick and Framingham, it ran over a man named Wincliff Wright, and killed him instantly, severing his head entirely from his body, and crushing it in a most shocking manner. The deceased was about sixty years of age. He had no fixed residence, but has children in Sudbury, Natick and Ashland, with one of whom he has recently been staying, till within a few days. A bottle in his pocket was shivered to atoms. A coroner's inquest was held over the body by Dr. Whitney of Framingham, and the jury acquitted the railroad employees of all blame.

MISSISSIPPI.—Governor McWillie of Mississippi, in his message to the legislature, reports a prosperous condition of State affairs. The main point dwelt upon is the railroad system, the importance of which he urges with great earnestness. A geological and agricultural survey of the State is in satisfactory progress. The charitable institutions are flourishing. Gov. McWillie appears to have been troubled by certain missives from the North, of which he says:—

"I have also received legislative resolutions from the States of Massachusetts, Maine and New Hampshire, which are such as you would expect from the fanatical, abolition sources from which they come. I have not acknowledged the receipt of these resolutions, nor will I communicate them to you, unless specially called upon to do so. Those fanatics have no right to expect these offensive, incendiary and treasonable proceedings to be treated with the ordinary comity.

☞ In a recent address at the North Carolina State Fair, Hon. T. L. Clingman stated a remarkable fact concerning a locality of the western part of that State. In a district of a few miles in extent on the Tryon mountain, neither dew nor frost is ever known. The district is remarkable for the variety and excellence of its native grapes, and they are often found in fine condition in the open air as late as December.

☞ The Mobile (Ala.) Tribune says:—An editor of a Southern paper was recently married, after an engagement which had lasted twenty-seven years. During all this time the wide Atlantic rolled between the lovers, who, nevertheless, remained faithful to their vows, and are now, after this long separation, enjoying the reward of their mutual fidelity.

☞ The schooner Mystic Valley recently carried as passenger from New York to Key West a slave belonging at the latter place, who had been allowed to travel by his master, and because the slave was not entered in the manifest, according to law, the vessel was seized and confiscated. The owners have applied to the President to have the forfeiture remitted.

☞ The New Orleans Courier, the old and reputable organ of Louisiana Democracy, speaks of a class of papers "which sneeze every time the Washington Union takes snuff."

To
FROM A GENTLEMAN'S DIARY.

Some fifty years ago, when a lady's dress contained less than one-half the quantity now required, a daughter of a wealthy merchant of Boston, while promenading State street in that town, was overtaken by a sailor, who, when passing by her, gave her a pat, whereupon with accelerated and as extended step as the hoited dimension of her dress would allow, she hastened home to relate to her indulgent father, the gross insult she had received.—Said he to her, can you so describe the person who insulted you, that he can be identified? She replying affirmatively; he shall, said the father, atone for it. A constable was soon furnished with a precept, with instructions, that if he should be successful in arresting the offender, to bring him first before him and his daughter, so that his identity might be fully certified, previous to his arraignment.

The next day the officer presented to the father a young man apparently of the age of the age of twenty-three years. The daughter came into the room wherein the preliminary examination was to be made, to prove the identity of the accused. He had doffed the clothing he appeared in, when he perpetrated the insult, and was clad in a new rich suit of sailors' costume, consisting of a round jacket and trowsers of superfine blue broadcloth, with supurb gilt buttons, white Marseilles quilt vest; white silk hose, black kid pumps, black Barcelona silk cravat, white pongee silk handkerchief, a portion of which hung gracefully from his jacket pocket, and a black silk plush cap, with tassel. His features were symmetrically proportioned, as also was his whole person, which was of medium stature. His mild blue eyes, which indicated the gentleness of his temperament, were ornamented with natural curls of his auburn locks, which hung gracefully from his temples. In fine, he like Downing, was "pretty." Said the apparently enraged father to him, "are you the person who insulted my daughter in State Street, yesterday?" The young man, with the whole-souled magnanimity of the sailor, standing erect before his accuser and her indignant father, with a slight crimson tint showing itself through the bronzed cuticle of his cheeks, for he felt that he was an aggressor, yet undaunted by the stern appearance of the father, or by the almost subduing eyes of the insulted daughter, who was intently gazing upon him, and upon whom he occasionally glanced an inquisitive look, and with a consciousness that what he should say in extenuation of the offence, would be properly appreciated by the father; and with a half restrained smile, which was afterwards well understood by the daughter, replied as follows:—

"Sir," said he, "I am just off of a long, tedious and disastrous voyage. Yesterday, I had just been paid off and was on my way up State Street to a merchant tailor's store to purchase the suit in which I now appear before you and your daughter, whom I acknowledge I have to my shame grossly insulted. I was then clad in my old, patched, dirty, worn-out, worthless duds, when (to speak in nautical terms,) I overhauled your daughter. Ship ahoy, said I. So without answering my hail (ship fashion,) she up helm, and as the bore away, she looked so inviting, that before I had time to take a second thought, (extending his right arm,) with this open hand, callous with hard labor, I gave her, as I then supposed, a gentle pat upon that part of her person which was most exposed to view. The act was done, it could not be recalled. I suffered greatly in mind. I felt that I had been guilty of an unpardonable indiscretion; nay, of crime. It is against my entire nature to abuse my fellow beings, more especially the female sex, whom I most tenderly and ardently esteem and respect. But what could I then do to atone for the insult I had offered your daughter. To attempt an apology would only make a bad matter worse. I was greatly distressed, but now am somewhat relieved, and am glad I am now before you and your daughter, favored with this opportunity of tendering to you and her an apology, and of expressing to both of you my most sincere regret for what has occurred, and my readiness to suffer the infliction of any punishment which you may prescribe."

The apology was accepted—the offence pardoned—the daughter almost captivated by the manly deportment of the offender, and reproaching herself as having been the exciting cause of the insult, with her cheeks suffused with tears and with a resolution never again to be the inciting cause of the wrong doings of others, retired to her chamber, where she might, in a flood of tears of regret, find relief to her tortured feelings.

MORAL.—When the female sex, either in public gatherings, in private circles, or on public promenades, in any manner interfere with, or in any wise assume or trench upon the prerogatives of the other sex, or any indiscretion expose themselves to scrutinising eyes, or by presenting themselves at times and places incompatible with their condition in society; or do not in all respects, keep within their appropriate sphere: they lose the controlling influence over the other sex, with which they are endowed by their peculiar organism, and which the rules and customs of civilization have sanctioned; and subject themselves to the disesteem, if not to the contumely of those who otherwise might be their admirers.

☞ In many places in Fulton county, N. Y., snow was four inches deep on Saturday.

"Business before pleasure," as the man remarked when he kissed his wife before going out to kiss his neighbor's.

Cincinnati papers say that the principal epidemic in that city is the thirst for strong drink.

☞ The Economist says Hemp Carpets are a humbug. We think so too.

If a man makes me keep my distance, the comfort is he keeps his at the same time.

"THE BELLES OF PARIS have the most beautiful complexions in the world, and our American ladies are only inferior to them because they allow freckles, pimples, rough-skin, moth &c., to disfigure their faces; neither have they any excuse; for Gardner's Parisian Pimple Destroyer—that has so long been used by the Beauties of Paris—will remove all cutaneous eruptions in a short time, and make the skin beautiful and soft as satin. Try it ladies; it cost but little and it will make you irresistible. You will find it at the Druggists and Fancy Goods Stores."—N. Y. Sunday Mercury.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.
The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

To the Citizens of New Hampshire.
Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveiance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., where the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently arise from their peculiar delicacy.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces 'Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall; J. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 21 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. HON. J. E. SARGENT, Presiding Justice. The case J. D. Goodrich et als. vs. Eastern Railroad, which was commenced Tuesday afternoon, occupied the Court nearly all day. The defence set up is that a settlement for damages has been effected, and a release on the part of the plffs. given to the deft; that the mill-pond for the purpose of running their mill, which is derived originally from a grant of Portsmouth to one Peter Livius made June 11, 1764; and that the plffs. have suffered no actual damage by the construction of an embankment in the line of the deft's railroad.

Go and hear her, by all means; give the half dime to get in,—and then give a whole dime to help her,—or buy one of her books, which are very pungent satires on drinking. She comes well recommended. See advertisement.

☞ The New Orleans and Metropolitan Opera Troupe, so favorably known in this vicinity, are to gratify our citizens with two of their entertainments, on Saturday and Monday evenings next.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large a sortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

☞ Steamer Kangaroo, at New York, has Liverpool dates to Oct. 27, one day latest.

A despatch from Constantinople, alluding to the affair of the Wabash, says:—The U. S. Legation obtained a firman to admit to the Dardanelles only a corvette. On the appearance of the Wabash, the Porte drew up a protest, sending a copy to all the Ambassadors. The Wabash had prepared to withdraw.

There were 3000 rebels engaged in the conflict on the Island in the Gagia. They were driven out of their intrenched position, 1000 were killed, including two leaders. The British loss was trifling.

AFRAID OF UNION PRAYER MEETINGS.—Rev. William Cathcart, of the Second Baptist Church, at Philadelphia, has published a sermon against union prayer meetings. He sees in them "a dangerous tendency to further union among Christians," and deprecates the idea that his flock should ever sit down to the table of the table of the Lord with "unbaptized Christians," as he calls all who do not belong to his denomination.

☞ The Salem Gazette relates that a Sunday evening meeting was recently broken up at Danversport by the loud snoring of an individual who had ensconced himself in a peculiar place. The pastor besought his hearers to search out the disturber, and awaken him, but no one could put a finger on him, and minister and people, annoyed, puzzled and mystified, incontinently adjourned. The next day the guilty brother exposed himself by remarking, "what a grand place it is to sleep in the singers' seats; it is so dark and warm, with soft cushions to lie upon, and nobody to disturb a fellow."

☞ A remarkable exhibition recently took place at Hopkinsville (Tenn.) Fair. Ten brothers, named Brown, all mounted on fine gray horses, rode into the amphitheatre and displayed their horsemanship, all being good riders. The eldest was aged forty, the youngest twenty. They had not all been together for fifteen years. Their mother was present, and they reined up in front of the glorious matron and saluted her, while she shed tears of joy and pride.

CHAPLAINS IN THE NAVY.—At the annual Convention of the Baptist churches in this State, held in Exeter, Aug. 19 and 20, the following Preamble and Resolution were passed on the subject of compelling Chaplains in the Navy to use the service of the Episcopal church.

Whereas, It is a fact well known that Chaplains of the Army and Navy of the United States, not of the Episcopal church, are pressed to use the form of service presented by that church against the convictions of duty: therefore,

Resolved, That such a demand is an unwarrantable violation of the principle of religious liberty inherited from our Fathers, and which is the distinguishing feature of our republican institutions.

☞ Adolph Reichenheim, a wealthy Jew of Berlin, to signify his high estimation of Alexander Von Humboldt, has given 5000 thalers to the society for aiding poor students of the Jewish persuasion, on the condition that the money shall be administered as the "Humboldt fund."

☞ According to the late State census, it appears that out of a population of three and a half millions there are about ninety-seven thousand in New York who can neither read nor write—one-thirty-sixth part of the whole.

☞ In the Supreme Court at Providence, in the case of Ellen Amscough vs. Daniel Smith, for breach of promise, the jury returned a verdict of $3500 for the plaintiff.

SIGNS OF WINTER.—Large flocks of wild geese on their way South, passed over Nahant on Monday. The snow at the East last Sunday, doubtless reminded them that winter was at hand.

☞ Mrs. Cora L. V. Hatch has separated from her husband, he paying her $700. It is said that the net receipts of the lady's lecturing tour have amounted to $6000.

☞ A Tennessee paper has hoisted the names of Hon. John Bell of Tennessee, for President, and Washington Hunt, of New York, for Vice President.

and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

NO. 15 MARKET STREET.

A SINGULAR CASE.—Alfred Jolls, a colored man, died on Tuesday last, aged 62 years, at the house of his employer, Mr. Mr. Samuel Butterworth, with whom he had lived forty-one years. Such was his industry and economical habits that within this long period he had accumulated between seven and eight thousand dollars, a great part of which of course resulted from the investment of his earnings from time to time. He was accustomed to loan his savings to his employer, at something less than the legal rate, but in one sense the rate per cent. was of little consequence, since he has devised every cent of it to the daughter and grand-children of his employer. Truly this this worthy African's simple history may put many of his white superiors (?) to the blush.—Warren (R.I.) Telegraph.

STOP THAT BOY!—A cigar in his mouth, a swagger in his walk, impudence in his face, a careless nothingness in his manner. Judging from his demeanor he is older than his father, wiser than his teacher, more honored than the Mayor of the town. Stop him; he is too fast! He don't know his speed; stop him, ere tobacco shatters his nerves, ere whiskey makes a beast of him, ere his pride ruins his character, ere the "lounger masters the man," ere good ambition and manly strength give way to low pursuits and brutish aims. Stop all such boys! They are legion; the shame of their families, the disgrace of their towns, the sad and solemn reproach of themselves.—North Alabamian.

THE CARS.—The trains are now arranged exactly right. Improvement is out of the question—that is, it is the object is to create the greatest amount of inconvenience, and to make them non-accommodation trains. A passenger can go from Bath to Boston and back, just as quick as he can go to Falmouth or Portland and return. This is right. It equalizes the country Brunswick and Bath, in business like Siamese twins, for all practical purposes are almost as widely separated as Bath and Boston. Hurrah for railroads! Who could dispense with their conveniences? Who would fall back on old logy four-horse coaches?—Times.

RACE BETWEEN A MAN AND A HORSE.—Last Thursday there was a race between a Mr. Adams and the horse "Hector," owned in North Adams, on the Agricultural grounds in this town; the horse to trot one mile and 400 yards, and the man to walk half a mile—best two in three. The first heat was won by the man, who came in about ten rods ahead; time 3.16. The second heat was won by the horse, by about the same distance: time 3:20. The third heat was won by the man, in 3.10, nearly distancing the horse.—Northampton Gazette and Courier.

A judicious system of advertising is sure to bring a profitable return. Every number of a paper goes not only into a great many families but the different members of the same family have an opportunity to see it. Because the customer does not say he was directed to a particular shop by an advertisement, the merchant may think his money has been spent in vain, when perhaps numbers go to his shop daily by reason of some hint they have derived from the very advertisement from which he sees no return.

The Governor of Missouri is a beautiful representative of the Border-Ruffian Chivalry. Twice since he filled the Gubernatorial chair he has been whipped when drunk. A few days ago he was found drunk at a negro wedding. Upon this the Jefferson City Inquirer says:—"If frolicking with negroes, drinking with negroes, eating with negroes, isn't establishing 'negro equality,' we would like to know what is?"—N. Y. Tribune.

SEA WATER.—Wherever there is shallow water, green will be produced by the underlying yellow sand, which, even in the absence of verdure on the shore or seaweeds beneath, always imparts a greenish tinge to the sea. The blue of the sky and the yellow of the sands meeting and intermingling in the water, form the green of the sea; the water acting as the medium in which the mixing or fusing of the colors takes place.

"I have always considered advertising—liberal and long—to be the sure medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule, too, to advertise in the dullest times, a long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out; as by keeping my business continually before the public, have secured me many sales that I otherwise would have lost."—Stephen Girard.

We have hard the remark, that the only reason why Capt. Holmes was not hung to a lamp-post, was because the people did not know he was to pass through the city. He who would shed the blood of even a convicted murderer, except by legal process, is no less a murderer than the man upon whose head he would bring his vengeance to bear.—Bath Times.

A DEFINITION.—An "old line whig" is a man who "takes his liquor regularly, and votes the democratic ticket occasionally." It is good, and it is true to a very great extent. Look round, among the men who profess to cling to the wreck of a glorious party, and call themselves "old line whigs," breakfasts, and see if it isn't—in a great many instances. The fact is suggestive of the affinity between rum and democracy.—N. H. Telegraph.

The heaviest blow the militia system of Virginia has yet received is recorded by a country paper, which states that a traveler, going through the town mistook the militia, drawn up in line, for the chain gang!

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.
What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.
BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, burst and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will now more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Preacher, Thalberg:
NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.
DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir—Feel it my duty to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.
"Drych a'r Gwyllieydet."
Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '53.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who consulted to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown all the beautiful and beautiful shade being the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARSON.
NEW YORK, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as be it the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KLEIN.
CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up row out and turned back to its original color (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large or medium, and small; the medium holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, and the large holds a quart, nearly 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

DR. DIX
KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, country and cities, who are unknowingly victims of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter addressed as above.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.
DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of them number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Medicines ordered by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friendship.
Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying that is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivaled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless. Having been got up by unscrupulous pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston

LOTTERIES.
THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have been commissioned and appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same come to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.
☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.
THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of frost and heat, generally attendant upon tar and shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical utility and durability, in all climates in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!
This Roofing can be easily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.
We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we now offer to the public is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

☞ A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the last 8 years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—sided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decided, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalers as a means of the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those particular and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment.—The success of my treatment in the New Institution, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. As the undersigned is at many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as heretofore, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for one patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use: also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent upon receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance, $6, at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients by giving a full history of their cases, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment, will receive my upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address
JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.
P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at Dr. Jarrett's infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected.—☞

ADVICE FREE.
Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

THE HINDOOS.

An article in the Bibliotheca Sacra, has some curious information obtained by the writer, Rev. E. Burgess, recently missionary of the American Board. The particular object of the article is, "a presentation of facts, ideas, and customs, from the religious literature of the Hindus, which indicate for those habits and that religion, a connection more or less direct with the true religion as taught in the Christan Scriptures." The following extract is taken the close of this paper:—

When the literature of the Sanskrit language began to be made known in Europe, some three-fourths of a century ago, the infidelity of that day raised a shout of triumph over the weapons it supposed it had derived from the East against Christianity. There were books written thousands, even millions of years before the creation of man, according to the Mosaic account.—There were astronomical tables which proved astronomical observations in India three thousand years before the Christian era. Infidelity was jubilant. The Bible was proved to be false, and Christianity must fall. But the shout of triumph was raised too soon. When a few years of patient investigation had brought out the actual facts, the case has a different aspect. The oldest Hindu writings, or the earliest astronomical observation on record, cannot be proved to have had an earlier date than the fourteenth or fifteenth century before Christ. And the oldest astronomical treatise, which had been made so important a witness against the Bible, was proved, incontrovertibly, to have been composed some four or five centuries after Christ.—And as the work of bringing to light the ancient literature of the Brahmans proceeds, the tendency among European schoolars is to assign more and more modern limits to its ancient works. This tendency modernize, is sometimes, doubtless, suffered to proceed too far.—But however this may be, this fact may be regarded as established, viz: that the ancient literature of India affords no materials for disapproving the truthfulness of the Bible; on the contrary, it contains much that corroborates the claims of the Sacred volume to a divine authenticity.

☞ New Orleans, Mobile, and other parts of the South, have at last been visited with frost, which is especially welcome to all localities infected with yellow fever. The New Orleans papers have removed the interdict to strangers visiting their city.

STOP MY PAPER.—Forney, in one of his recent speeches, created quite a sensation, and ingeniously availed himself of a small act on the part of Mr. Buchanan to make a point against him which would tell with more effect on a mixed audience than a matter of more serious importance. He is reported to have concluded his speech as follows:

Now, gentlemen, I have a most melancholy announcement to make in this connection. It is that the newspaper, the Press, is stopped! [Sensation.] I did not expect, in coming here, to be compelled to make this sorrowful announcement; but it is nevertheless the fact. The Press is stopped—not the establishment, but the single copy which the President of the United States takes—it is stopped. [Long continued shouts of laughter.] I suspect I shall survive it. [Renewed laughter.] I have nodoubt I shall survive it. But it was a terrible blow. I do not think ever two cents created so much havoc before. But we shall recover; we shall get over it.—And now for the bright side of the story; I shall receive, in a few days, almost the only dollar that I have ever received from the Federal Administration—which will about $7 50 in payment of the Press.—[Laughter.]

A TREE GROWING WITHOUT ROOTS.—Mr. Samuel Mann of Alstead, N. H., in 1820, while cutting poles for mending fence, happened to cut one which hung in the branches of another tree, and was obliged to leave it. The branches united and the trunk has grown an inch in diameter, the new wood and bark growing down as if to cover the severed trunk. The branches of this cut tree have flourished, while the others many of them have died. Thus swinging in the air, it has foliage every year, and bids fair to attain a "green old age."

A village in the vicinity of Chicago was recently thrown into a state of great alarm by the explosion of a metallic burial case, in which a dead body was being transported into the country for burial. The body had been placed in it while warm, and the gasses generated by decay burst the heavy plate glass with a great noise.

The Americans of Victoria asked permission to rear a liberty pole, to which they would put the star spangled flag.—The request was instantly declined.—'Well,' said the crowd, 'let's raise a pole and stick the flag of all nations upon it.' And so they did what they said they would do, and a petticoat waved from the liberty pole!

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1858.

LIQUOR SEIZURE.—On Saturday last the marshal of Bangor seized nine barrels and five jugs of various kinds of alcoholic liquors—the "first of the season."

The new seizure clause, in the present law of Maine, is working very smoothly. The officer seizes the liquor and vessels, issues a notice in due form, of the fact, and of the day of trial, calling on the owner to claim and prove property.

If he appears, proves property, and makes it appear that the liquor was not kept for sale, he holds it, and gets reasonable cost and damage.

If he does not appear, or fails to make out his case, he loses the whole.

So far, in about one case in eight or ten, the owner has appeared. Generally, he has kept back, rather than run the risk of fine or imprisonment.

REJOICING—WITH TREMBLING.—The Newark Evening Journal of the 8th, after rejoicing a little that Douglas prevails over Lincoln in Illinois, puts in the following qualification:

Yet Douglas's course in the Senate last winter, which has almost solely contributed to the late political disasters in New Jersey and in the entire North, will not soon be forgotten by the Democracy. His future, however, is with himself. He has shown his strength in Illinois, in a straight-out fight with the "Republicans;" but if he should continue to affiliate with that party in the U. S. Senate, the victory in Illinois would prove a barren one to the Democracy. At present, Douglas's chances for the next Presidency are undeveloped, though all must admit that they were better a year ago than at the present time. Then the "little giant" stood on the next step to the top of the ladder;—while John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, stands in the boots of the Douglas of '57. This is the present tendency of things—to-morrow may change the whole aspect of affairs.

THE BOGUS BANK BILL SWINDLE.—The examination into the great bogus bill swindle case in New York—the N. E. Bank of Fairmount, Me., is progressing in New York.—The Times says: It is believed that a number of brokers, whose reputations hitherto have been unstained, are implicated in the swindle. The developments already made are reported to have frightened one broker into the purchase of a railroad ticket and change of climate, and a brother dealer in stocks into submitting to a tonsorial operation productive of such a marked change that his most intimate associates have failed to recognize him. The Police are still actively searching for the parties at the bottom of the fraud, and several arrests, it is expected, will be speedily made.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—Up in the 4th district, New Orleans, says the Delta, lives a man, his infant child, and a matronly, well-behaved nanny-goat. This nanny is the hairy foster-mother of the infant, which the fever, some time since, robbed of its parent proper, and she entirely appreciates the peculiar duties which have devolved upon her. When she hears the hungry cry of her poor little human charge she is by its side in an instant, placing her teats at the service of its thirsty lips. Frequently the quick ears of the quadrupedal wet-nurse hear the child's cry when she is browsing in the street some distance from the house, and leaving her own repast, she darts hastily off to supply the wants of the "mitherless bairn," dependant upon her, as Romulus and Remus were of old, upon the dugs of their wolfish protectress. We believe we have told a tolerably strange story above, but truth is stranger than fiction.

☞ We always like to get the dimensions of a man, or of a sect, from the man himself, or from the representatives of the sect. Many of our readers know that J. I. T. Coolidge, of Boston, from being a Unitarian minister has become an Episcopalian. The Pilot (Roman church paper) was not prepared to see him go so far—but now looks to see him fall into the arms of the Mother Church.

Now, the Christian Era (Baptist paper) says:

When we first heard of the convictions of Mr. Coolidge, we felt that he would either go to one extreme or the other—become a Roman Catholic or a Baptist—the two opposites. We argued just as the Pilot argued. * * * * Mr. Coolidge is an excellent man, a seeker for truth, but he has stopped short of it. Can he rest on his inclined plane, or will he slide into the arms of the mother church,—better far than that religion taught by King and Parker, which denies its Savior and degrades its God,—or will he come out into the truth, and rest in the gospel of Christ, in one Lord, one faith and one baptism?

☞ "White men mighty onsartain," said an old negro who had earned his freedom first, and then was gambled away by his master. So are politicians, as witness the summersaults on every side. Perley, of the Boston Journal, says, writing from Washington:

The friends of Mr. Buchanan assert that (like the mauled Hocnan) he is beaten but not conquered, and the Union continues to denounce the "radical, red republican, squatter sovereign idea," as if the forcible establishment of slavery in the territories was the test question of the orthodox Democracy. But the partisans of the Little Giant, flushed with victory, declare that "popular sovereignty," as defined by Gen. Cass in his Nicholson letter, is the true faith, and the Southern chivalry appear disposed to adopt it. Senator Hammond withdrews the attempt made to force slavery upon the people of Kansas, Senator Brown thinks the administration has gone too far, and next week we are to see Pryor leave the Richmond South, to join John Savage (under the lead of Major Heiss) in the Washington States, which is to be the organ of Douglas, having fought in his cause ab initio. Those who were urged into a support of the Lecompton Constitution now find themselves deserted by the very men whose "peculiar institutions" were to be extended, in violation of right and of justice and of popular will. Such is ever the fate of "Northern men with Southern principles."

While the Douglas men are confident that he will obtain the nomination at Charleston, and be elected as Buchanan's successor, the friends of Governor Seward are equally sanguine as to his success in the convention and at the polls. The canvass has thus commenced one year earlier than usual, and some knowing ones can but think that between now and the day of election, which is two long years distant, other questions may arise, other combinations may be formed, other candidates may be brought forward. Nous Verrons.

☞ An ecclesiastical council has dismissed Rev. Mr. Smith from the Shawmut [orthodox congregational] church in Boston, after a very long session. There were no charges of immoral conduct against Mr. S.—but his ministry did not suit all his people. On the question of dismission the vote stood 12 to 10. Of the 12 yeas, 2 only were ministers, to 10 laymen. Of the nays, 2 were laymen, and 8 ministers.

☞ The Rev. C. H. Spurgeon's admirers, says the Bury (England) Times will be sorry to learn that the reverend gentleman has been attacked with a very painful disease—inflammation of the kidneys—and that a few days since his life was all but despaired of. His medical advisers have given it as their opinion that no danger now exists, but he is prohibited from preaching just yet.

FIRE AT ROCHESTER.—The barn upon the farm of the late Thomas Watson, below the Genic, was burnt on Tuesday night—the work of an incendiary. The cattle were all turned out of the barn before the fire was set. The cider house was also set on fire. The property was insured in the Gilmanton office.

☞ The Raleigh, N. C., Standard, reports that throughout that State, and particularly in the eastern part of it, there flourishes a tree possessing in an eminent degree all the qualities of the best imported Tea, besides valuable medicinal properties not to be found in the Oriental article.

DOING IT GRACEFULLY.—The Rome, N. Y., Sentinel "gives it up" in the following good-humored manner:

By such election returns as we have received, we are inclined to the belief that the county and State have gone slightly Republican! The late hour at which our returns close, leaves us no time for comment; besides we are otherwise too busily engaged, as we have our bundle of clothes under our arm, with a cotton pocket handkerchief full of doughnuts swung over our shoulder, and are just leaving on foot for Salt River. Good by!

☞ The Bangor Whig states than an unusual amount of lumber now lies at that port awaiting shipment before the season closes, and that on account of the scarcity of vessels freights have gone up.

☞ A groom in the service of the Duke of Portland, at Walbeck Ferry, having learned the art of horse-taming from Mr. Barey, has practiced it successfully upon a very vicious Alderney bull, which had become almost unmanageable.

☞ In the case of Mrs. Catharine Shaw, found dead at her residence in East Boston, a few days since, the jury of inquest summoned by Coroner Patcher returned a verdict that her death was caused by habitual intemperance and neglect.

☞ Another rich beggar was detected in Philadelphia, the other day. He had forty-eight $5 gold pieces sewed up in his greasy garbardine. He was an Irishman.

☞ The Congregational Society at Rochester have purchased a new organ for their Church.

NEW YORK.—It being ascertained that Haskins, Anti-Lecompton, is re-elected to Congress over Kemble, who is a man of great wealth and a heavy government contractor; for whom every thing was done that the administration could do, it appears that there is not one democratic district out of the city of New York, in that whole State. That party is left without a name or local habitation from the Hudson river to Niagara Falls, nor is the endorsement of Lecompton by a few city districts, more complimentary generally, to the administration, than its repudiation by the free and honest yeoman of the interior. Something may be learned of the character of the endorsers by those acquainted with the localities in the city.

In twenty election districts in that city, comprising Tammany Hall, the Pewter Mug, the Five Points, Corlear's Hook, the lower part of Greenwich, Worth, Mott, Cherry and other streets, embracing the areas where the most degraded population congregate, voted last week as follows:—For Parker, democrat, 8,948; for Morgan, republican, 737, or more than 12 to 1. The vote in the three worst election districts was, 1201 to 58, or more than 20 to 1. It will be remembered that at 32 Greenwich street, a neighborhood where the vilest of the city resort, and where a few months since, in the basement of this number, a disreputable place, a Swiss woman was so violently outraged by four young roughs, that she immediately died. In this place the polls were opened, and the result showed a larger proportion of Lecompton votes than any other district in the city, being 397 to 17.

Of course all voters are not to be held responsible for the character of others voting the same ticket with themselves; and undoubtedly both in New York city and State many men are found supporting the Lecompton ticket, as good and worthy as any men in the country, but it is worthy of note that that party carried a majority in no one of the rural districts, and its vote was the largest where the population was lowest in intelligence, and morality.—Newburyport Herald.

A LITTLE DIFFICULTY IN THE WAY.—An enterprising traveling agent for a well known Cleveland Tomb Stone Manufactory lately made a business visit to a small town in an adjoining county. Hearing in the village that a man in a remote part of the township had lost his wife, he thought he would go and see him, and offer him consolation, and a grave stone on reasonable terms. He started. The road was a horribly frightful one, but the agent persevered and finally arrived at the bereaved man's house. Bereaved man's hired girl told the agent that the bereaved man was splitting fence rails "over in the pastur, about two miles." The indefatigable agent hitched his horse and started for the "pastur." And falling into all manner of mud holes, scratching himself with briars and tumbling over decayed logs, the agent at length found the bereaved man. In a subdued voice he asked the man if he had lost his wife. The man said he had. The agent was very sorry to hear of it and sympathised with the man very deeply in his great affliction; but death, he said, was an inscrutable archer, and shot down all of both high and low degree. Informed the man that "what was her loss was his gain," and would be glad to sell him a grave stone to mark the spot where the beloved one slept—marble or common stone, as he chose, at prices defying competition. The bereaved man said there was "a little difficulty in the way." "Haven't you lost your wife?" inquired the agent. "Why yes, I have," said the man, "but no grave stun ain't necessary, for you see the cussed critter ain't dead. She's scooted with another man!" The agent retired.

A "SUBMISSIVE AND PATIENT WOMAN" Mr. Peabody came in the house one day from a walk. His wife said to him, "I have been thinking of our situation, and have determined to be submissive and patient." "Ah," said he, "that is a good resolution; let us see what we have got to submit to. I will make a list of our trials. First we have a home—we will submit to that. Second, we have the comforts of life—we will submit to that. Thirdly, we have each other. Fourthly, we have a multitude of friends. Fifthly, we have God to take care of us." "Ah," said she, "pray stop—I will say no more about submission."—Ex.

NEW YORK, NOV. 10.—A despatch from White Plains to the Evening Post, says the canvassers have voted to receive the East Chester returns, which secures the election of Haskins in the 9th Congressional District.

The official canvass of the votes of Westchester county, has only been completed in fifteen towns of the twenty-four. Several returns have been sent back for correction, and the entire canvass will not be finished before to-morrow evening. The result thus far shows a slight gain for Mr. Haskins, whose majority will probably be ten or twelve.

"Advertise! advertise!! advertise!!! This is the life of trade, and standing advertisements you will find, will prove the most remunerative, at least I have found it so during my business career thus far; for should you withdraw but a single week from the paper in which you are so untiringly advertise, ten to one that would be the time when some would-be-new customer will look into the paper for your business address, and not finding it, you will lose several profitable sales."—William Gray.

☞ The Portland papers state on undoubted authority that the circulation of the Atlantic Bank is quite small, and the bill-holders are safe against loss in any event.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. This disease is easily removed, by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, and quickly used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

HEADACHE.—Chronic sick, or nervous Headache is generally dependent on, or accompanied impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain are deranged, and the nervous centres vitiated. The PERUVIAN SYRUP by reinvigorating the digestive powers, lays the axe at the root of the tree; the brain is duly nourished, the nervous symptoms cease, and the headache disappears.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

PORTSMOUTH, WEDNESDAY, Nov. 10.

HON. J. E. SARGENT, Presiding Justice. The case J. D. Goodrich et als. vs. Eastern Railroad, which was commenced Tuesday afternoon, occupied the Court nearly all day. The defence set up is that a settlement for damages has been effected, and a release on the part of the piffs. given to the deft; that the Goodriches possess only an easement in the mill-pond for the purpose of running their mill, which is derived originally from a grant of Portsmouth to one Peter Livius made June 11, 1764; and that the piff's. have suffered no actual damage by the construction of an embankment in the line of the deft's railroad.

THURSDAY, Nov. 11.

The case No. 8, Goodrich et als. vs. Eastern Railroad was given to the jury in the forenoon. Verdict for piff; damages assessed at $353,08. A motion is made to set aside the verdict. Hatch & Webster for piffs. Hackett for deft.

The case No. 35, Charles G. Burnham, adm'r of N. White vs. Samuel S. Chase, was next in order for trial. The action is assumpsit for the recovery of the amount of a promissory note given by said Chase as surety, with one Richardson and Parker, as principals, to said White, April 27th, 1847. The principal of said note is $200. The plea is the general issue and the Statute of limitations.

Stickney and Wells for piff. Marston and Stanyon for deft.

No. 36—Cyrus Fellows, piff. in review, vs. Sarah Fellows is next in order for trial. This case will probably occupy the jury three or four days. Court adjourned to 9 o'clock Friday morning.

LECTURES ON BEAUTY.—The lovers of the beautiful in art, and of the chaste in literature, would do themselves a favor by attending Mr. Long's Lectures on Beauty, a notice of which is to be seen in our advertising columns to day. These lectures have been prepared with much care, the illustrations are expensive, and the whole course is considered by the best judges, to be extremely valuable in the formation and development of a correct taste.

The first lecture is advertised at a very moderate admission fee,—and will be,—as well as the rest of the course, interesting to the hearers who desire to be amused, as well as to those who seek for knowledge of the fine arts.

☞ Rev. J. C. Fletcher, recently American Chaplain and Secretary of the U. S. Legation at Rio de Janeiro, and principal author of 'Brazil and the Brazilians,' has a number of lectures on the countries in which he has resided, and is prepared to deliver them in courses, or separately, before Lyceums, Christian Associations, and other bodies. He has already lectured before the Smithsonian Institute, New York Historical Society, Boston Mercantile Library Association, and many other Lecture Associations in New England and the Middle States.

The subjects to which Mr. Fletcher calls attention are; Brazil and Brazilians; the Palm Tree and its relations to Society; "the Land of Tell;" the Lake of Geneva, (Switzerland,) and its historical associations; Mt. Vesuvius, Pompeii and Herculaneum; the Bible in Brazil; a Sabbath among the Waldenses—the heroic primitive Christians of the Alps of Northern Italy.

These Lectures are the result of personal observation and experience. Several literary and professional gentleman in this city, have expressed their desire to have Mr. Fletcher lecture here. His lectures have been well received in the most intelligent and refined circles.

☞ The New Orleans and Metropolitan Opera Troupe, so favorably known in this vicinity, are to gratify our citizens with two of their entertainments, on Saturday and Monday evenings next.

☞ Quite a neat "brush" took place near Congress Block, Thursday evening, between 6 and 7 o'clock, in which a man (said to be a party in the talked-off prize-fight, and who seemed to be the aggressor) got rather a severe dose.

☞ Invalids are referred to Dr. Hayden's announcement in this morning's paper.

SUGGESTIVE TEXTS.—A modern English writer says: "It seems as though it were inevitable consequence of the usurpation of power by one State over another, that the wider the governing class and the more numerous the hands engaged in the work of misrule, the greater is its tendency to become corrupting and corrupt. We read occasionally of a wise or kindly autocrat, sometimes of a considerate and enlightened oligarchy, holding other lands than their own in absolute subjection; but never do we hear of a free people assuming unjust or arbitrary power with honor, safety, or eventual advantage, either to their subjects or themselves."

The same writer says: "No earnestness of desire for freedom can fit a people to win or to enjoy it—no experience of wrong can teach the principles of justice—no weariness of suffering and idleness can implant those morals of industry, order, perseverance, self-denial, and thrift, without which labor is vain."

There is not a spider hanging on the king's wall but hath his errand; there is not a nettle that groweth in the corner of the church yard but hath its purpose:—there is not a single insect fluttering in the breeze but accomplisheth some divine decree; and I will never have it that God created any man, especially any Christian man, to be a blank, and to be a nothing.—Spurgeon.

GRATUITOUS SERVICES.—"Never let people work for you gratis," said a friend, the other day. 'Two years ago a man carried a bundle for us to Boston, and we have been lending him 2s a week ever since.'

When "Father Ballou" was once told by his daughter not to be in a hurry in going to the cars, he replied, "I do not intend to, child, for I will start so early that I shall have no need "to hurry."

Advertisements are very much like seed sown at this season, which will bear abundantly after many days. Advertisers generally admit that it ultimately benefits them. The man who is seeking custom in any branch of trade, must invite and attract it by notoriety. Business will go to no house or shop unsolicited, and could not, if it would, find it in obscurity. It is a fact attested by universal experience, that the merchant or manufacturer who is best known, (who is, in other words, best advertised through the newspapers,) has the best run of custom.—Philadelphia Commonwealth.

THE ACCESSORIES.—In copying an article in relation to the guilt of the mates of the ship Theresa, the Rockland Gazette subjoins the following sensible remarks:

It would certainly seem that those who assisted in the brutal murder of Chadwick, under the direction of Capt. Holmes, should not be permitted to escape without being called to account for their participation in the cruel work. The cruelties which were executed upon the unfortunate victim by the hands of Corney and the men may have had as much to do in accomplishing his death as the blows from the belaying pin. At any rate, it does not seem possible that any idea of obligation to execute brutal orders, entertained by the mates, can be held as a justification for their participation in the murder.—With regard to the seamen, there are more circumstances to be considered, and we will not pronounce upon the degree of guilt which belongs to their participation in the affair. Expecting no countenance in rebellion from their officers, and fearing the consequences of refusal, they may find more excuse for obeying cruel orders, but it is a matter of humiliation that, from any reason, there are American sailors who can execute a murderous will upon an unoffending ship-mate.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We learn that Mr. Jacob Riggs, truckman, of this city, died very suddenly on Sunday last by strangulation. He had been for a long time afflicted with a disease in the throat and of the lungs. On Sunday, we understand, he started from his chair and ran around the room for many minutes gasping for breath, and then fell dead to the floor.—Portland Ade.

A New York beggar got drunk the other day and was taken to the station house, where, on searching him, $240 in gold was found sewed up in his vest.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its great curative properties, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it in their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with the Salve. In cases of Coughs, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may be more delightful to the sight, the blooming cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, dusky and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

New York, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time I arrived in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwylledydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 12 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect to curiosity! It the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I am feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KEEP.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I became almost bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair full as good as it ever was and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing tailored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands firm, stable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies, who visit Boston for the purpose of make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and the greater portion of this number are described upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, and have got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

A new lot is just received for the accommodation of the public. by

DOUGLAS AND THE DEMOCRACY.—The success of Douglas in Illinois, while it completely crushes the Buchanan administration which all our democratic conventions have approved and all the democratic papers have eulogized, encourages the party to hope for success under his lead in the national conflict of 1860. But it may well be doubted whether he can obtain the nomination in the convention, which is to be holden in Charleston, the very hotbed of South Carolina nullifiers. It can hardly be believed that the ultra slavery men of the South, who have for years been avowing their determination to secede from the Union rather than relinquish any of their demands, will take the back track and humble themselves at the feet of one who has opposed one of their darling projects and trampled under foot the Dred Scott decision, which democrats North and South have sworn by as true democratic doctrine. That the slaveholders will not yield without a struggle is certain; that they have always of late years controlled the democratic party we know; and whether they will now consent to surrender the power they have so long wielded certainly admits of doubt.

FIRE IN DEERFIELD.—The Parsonage House of the First Baptist Society in Deerfield was entirely destroyed by fire at an early hour on Sunday morning. The fire was kindled in two places in the barn adjoining the house, with which it had communicated before discovered, at 2 o'clock in the morning. The house was occupied by Rev. James Barnabee and family, who were aroused from their slumbers by the neighbors, when Mrs. B. was so overcome as to be unable to make her escape, and was taken out of the chamber window. Mr. B. moved to Deerfield but ten days previously from Newburyport. The selectmen of Deerfield offer a reward of $200 for the arrest of the incendiary, or a liberal sum for such information as shall lead thereto.

☞ The Concord Statesman says there is a case on trial in the court now in session there, in which the sum in dispute is fifteen cents, and the costs are already up amongst the hundreds of dollars.

The details quoted from the English Parliamentary evidence of the condition of the dress-makers' apprentices, are frightful. In ordinary times eighteen hours a day is the alloted time of work, and during the hight of the season young girls are sometimes allowed only four hours' repose, when they are roused to assume their toil. Strong coffee is administered to enable them to ply their needle for twenty hours, without relaxation. In Paris, the suffering among this class is less.

A man whom Dr. Johnson reproved for following a useless and demoralizing business, said in excuse, "You know, Doctor, that I must live." The brave old hater of everything mean and hateful, coolly replied that he "did not see the least necessity for that."

PROFITS OF STREET MUSIC.—In a recent trial before the courts at Cincinnati, it was given in evidence that a woman who died not long since had accumulated $8000 in her business of playing on a hand organ and singing in the streets.

The hardest rap the spirits have received for some time, is the very inconsiderate arrival home in New Bedford last week of a young man who was believed to have been lost in the wrecked barque Wade ten years ago. For a long while his afflicted "governor" has been conversing with him in the spirit land, the last message, through a medium, being to the effect that "he was among the saints, and a crown of glory was awaiting his father!"

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and strength, that the proprietors feel that they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN OR SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and apply it to a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and Legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it Inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The best testimonials be now given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of like kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1858.

☞ Rev. Dr. Huntington of Cambridge, Mass., expresses the following views on Christian Union. They cover the whole ground:

We must not think to heal our quarrels by crucifying our Lord. Obtain uniformity, by the least abandonment of doctrines you really believe, and it is a uniformity not worth having; it is a league of death; you have destroyed the greater for the less. The truth as it is in Jesus, first; then the seeing eye to eye. The Unitarian cannot say to the Trinitarian, Give up your faith in Christ's absolute Deity, and I will give up my faith in man's natural purity; and then come and let us agree. The Protestant cannot say to the Romanist, Try to stretch your belief so as to embrace a half of the doctrine of justification by faith, and I will try to stretch mine so as to take in half of your absolution by sacraments; and so we will be brethren. All this, in every degree of it, is artificial, false, infidel. It is paltering with the most sacred verities, and a denial of the everlasting fact. * * * If unity could come only in that compromising way, every believing man would cry out, Then, in Christ's name, let the church stand split to the end of days, and the Savior's prayer, that they may all be one, be unfulfilled forever.

Religion in France.—A correspondent of the News of the Churches gives a gloomy picture of the condition of France. He says:

"It is often believed that we have here 35,000,000 of Catholics; it would be nearer the truth to say we have 35,000,000 infidels. If I wished to give a more exact statement, I would say that one section of the population is infidel, the other deistical. In one section of the deistical there is one large party which expects nothing after this life, and another who hope for a future existence; but all those who believe in this future existence are persuaded that they themselves will be happy. The idea of eternal condemnation is completely absent; in every case no person thinks he has deserved it. The type of the French Catholic in our day is somewhat of the following:

'I believe neither in the Pope nor the mass; I believe in one God, the Creator; perhaps there is also a future life; but in any case I am neither a murderer nor a thief—I am therefore certain not to be condemned to eternal punishment.'

The literary men and the government, having no faith in the Romish system, look upon it as the most convenient bridle to hold the people, and therefore support it against all attacks from without. He fears that few among the clergy themselves have any profounder convictions."

Queer Proceedings at a Church Meeting.—The members of the Second Baptist Church of New Bedford held another meeting on Monday evening, which was attended with many improprieties. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Jackson, sent in his resignation, which was accepted, and then, on the question of paying him $62 98 for his services, a long and excited debate ensued, the nature of which may be learned from this brief extract from the Mercury's report:—

Brother Jackson—(laboring to be heard.) It is no use to make this a pandemonium, and all persons in favor of taking money out of the bank will stand on their feet till counted.

Brother Dunlop counted and declared that there were 73 in favor and 52 opposed.

The announcement stirred up the minority, and the way the dust was kicked up was a caution to watering carts.

Mrs. Ann Nelson cried out to the pastor, "Shame, shame;" whereupon the reverend gentleman retorted.

"You wan't ashamed when you cussed the other evening."

Mrs. Nelson indignantly denied the base charge. No person ever heard her swear; and Mrs. Nelson, with a flush of excitement upon her cheeks, took her seat again.

One woman, who was particularly down upon the pastor, was heard to say: "He is nothing but a black-leg; wouldn't trust him with a sixpence." "Stand still," said a worthy sister, "and see the salvation of the Lord."

The meeting ended by the majority withdrawing from the church, and the minority organizing, and voting that they "still remain as the Second Baptist Church."

Life Insurance in England.—The success of several of the old established life offices in England has led to the formation of one hundred and one additional companies in London since the year 1857. The evident unfitness of many of the projectors of these companies, and of others preceding them, is fully established by the fact, that six of the companies have been declared swindles, seventeen have died out from want of business, fifteen are insolvent or winding up in Chancery, and seventy-nine have been merged in older companies.

☞ In the 27th congressional district of New York, the Republican candidate is said to have received a number of Democratic votes, enough to turn the scale in his favor, because he was a spiritualist.

DAVID NUDD OF HAMPTON.

So important a place was occupied, for many years, by Mr. Nudd of Hampton, in respect to the business and prosperity of that town and vicinity, that a few passing remarks concerning him may not be inappropriate, now that his career on earth has closed.

He was born at Hampton, April, 1780, and died Nov. 2, 1858. His ancestors were among the original settlers of the Town in 1638, and his pedigree can be traced on the Town and Church records of the place, without interruption, from that early period.

He had limited means of early education, but improved them well, and was amply qualified for transacting every branch of extensive business in which he became engaged. His natural endowments were of an extraordinary character, and no man who knew much of him, could fail of being impressed with his remarkable powers of mind. Soon after arriving at manhood, and long before general attention had been directed to the very lucrative business of our coast fisheries, Mr. Nudd turned his attention to that business, and invested in it all the means he had, and all the energies he possessed. For a long time, few men, north of Boston, had as much property invested in that business as he had, and between Newburyport and Portsmouth, there was no man except Mr. Nudd who comprehended the field of enterprise, in which he labored with signal success.—He built a large number of vessels at Hampton, for his own use, and for sale, and thus opened a new business, and contributed essentially to the prosperity of the people. When the coast fisheries became a regular business, all along the seaboard, Mr. Nudd had made an ample fortune, and was yet a comparatively young man.

When in conducting the fishing business he found large outlays in foreign Salt necessary, with characteristic decision and enterprise, he resolved to manufacture his own Salt, and at once built extensive Salt Works, at the Landing, so called, in Hampton, which works he kept in successful operation, from their construction, about 1825, till about 1835, when, having pretty much given up the fisheries, he abandoned the manufacture of Salt.

The Hampton River was too crooked to enable him to bring his vessels to the high lands above the marshes, where they could be reached by his teams, and as early as 1829, he excavated a ship canal of a half a mile in length, at a large expense, of ample width and depth, by which the River was much shortened, and new and important facilities gained; and at the end of the canal, built a valuable wharf and warehouse, since of great use to himself and the people of the town.

He inaugurated the business of transporting potatoes, by water, from Hampton and the adjoining towns to Boston, using his vessels in the fall of the year for this purpose, more or less, from 1820 to the period of his death.

In his early manhood there was no public highway, not incumbered by gates, from the thickly settled portion of Hampton to Hampton Beach. He formed a company, who built the Boar's Head Hotel about 30 years ago, and he himself built another house, and some years later still another, the Granite House, so called. He early became sole proprietor of the property, which he retained to the period of his death; the gates were long ago removed from the road, and the path to the "beach" became as well known as the road to the mill.

By this imperfect allusion to the items of business in which Mr. Nudd was engaged, it will be seen that for a quiet town like Hampton, he must have done his full share to make a "smart" town. The truth is, he was, in his day, so far before other men in enterprise between Portsmouth and Newburyport that he had no rivals, and it is doubted whether, in the history of those intermediate towns, any other man has ever exhibited equal enterprise and talent, or made so important an impression upon the interest of the locality in which he spent his days.—Dover Enquirer.

Accident on the Northern Railroad. A cattle train on the Northern Railroad broke down near No. Andover, N. H., on Monday evening, and several cars were demolished. Two men were in one of the cars that went down the embankment.—This car was loaded with horses. One of the men was asleep, and was thrown violently against the side of the car, and it is supposed was injured seriously internally. Mr. Woods, a dealer in horses, of Rouse's Point, N. Y., the other man in the car, was injured internally, and his right arm broken. One person in the rear car was slightly injured. Six cattle and twelve sheep were killed, and many injured.

Supreme Judicial Court, Dover.—Jas. Dearborn, James Dearborn, Jr., and Horace Dearborn, father and two sons, indicted for breaking into the store of C. K. Chase in Rochester. The jury found them guilty. They have not yet received their sentence.

John Willey and Joseph Leathers, indicted for burning Spinney's Mills, in Barrington, were found guilty, and the Judge gave Willey 1 day solitary and 2 years in the State Prison, and Leathers 5 days solitary and five years in the same institution.

Levi G. Pendergast plead guilty to 6 indictments for violation of the liquor law, John Brown to 4, E. G. Robinson to 4, Louisa Robinson 2, Henry Twombly 1, Nath'l Daniels 2. Judith Bennett ditto to keeping a house of ill fame.—Enquirer.

The Philadelphia City Councilmen are considering the expediency of reducing the number of fire companies of that city.

A Heroic Act.—A Finger for a Life. The Cookak Journal of the 23d relates this incident:

At the Lincoln meeting in Carthage, Ill., yesterday, Capt. Appler of this place was there with his field-piece firing a salute, which he had been employed by the Republicans to do. The power being bad, in the course of the firing, the gun went off prematurely. James Lynch was at the muzzle, ramming the cartridge, when it ignited. Captain Appler, who was at the vent, finding a premature discharge was inevitable, called out, "Get away, Jim!" holding on to the vent until the fire burnt his finger off up to the first joint, and until Lynch had escaped the range of the ram-rod. It is seldom, in chronicling an incident of this kind, that we find men possessing the nerve and heroic fortitude that Capt. A. displayed on this occasion to save his friend from an untimely death. Both were considerably burnt by powder, but neither dangerously hurt.

☞ It has been ascertained that the failure of Messrs. Thompson & Wetmore, well known dry goods merchants in Chicago, was caused by the peculations of Frederick Gross, a German porter employed in the store, who, it is estimated, has stolen $10,000 worth of goods from the firm during the last three years. The fellow's sudden accumulation of wealth excited suspicion, and on searching his house $600 worth of goods were found. He confesses the theft.

Curious Case.—Two years ago the wife of Charles O. Newcomb of Quincy, Mass., obtained a divorce from him; a few weeks ago Charles obtained a lottery ticket in the shape of a marriage certificate and was married again at South Boston. A day or two since, at the instance of his former wife he was arrested for polygamy, on the ground that the decree of divorce did not authorize him to marry again. It is queer and rather a hard case, if a man with no wife cannot marry one without becoming liable for polygamy.

☞ "A victim of uncontrollable impulse" is mentioned in the New York papers. A lady was caught shoplifting at Stuart's; she was very dignified in her appearance, elegantly dressed, and evidently not a "professional," but a monomaniac; so there was no complaint made against her by the proprietors, although she had bagged $140 worth of articles.

Train stopped by a Monkey.—The Hartford Evening Press says a day or two ago, a passenger on one of the trains to New York had a pet monkey, with which he amused the passengers. Near Port Chester the train suddenly stopped. The conductor, brakeman and everybody wanted to know the cause, but nobody could tell, until it was discovered that Master Jocko had mounted to the top of the car and pulled the cord which communicates with the locomotive, and thus given the engineer the signal to stop.

The Kansas Gold Mines.—The Kansas papers declare that there is no deception about the Kansas gold mines, and that gold is abundant. The Kansas Herald "stakes its veracity" in saying that from $5 to $25 per day has been taken from the mines.

From Washington.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes "that notwithstanding the great augmentation of the Douglas' faction in the Capital since election, the President is as over. The Administration threatens implacable war to the knife against Douglas."

Another Slaver.—The Wilmington, N. C., Journal reports a pilot boat having spoken the "Ketch Brothers" of Charleston, a slaver from the coast of Africa, in charge of Lieut. Stone of the sloop-of-war Marion. She is daily expected at Charleston.

☞ Four hundred thousand dollars of the decimal coinage stamped in England for use in Canada, has arrived, and will be put in circulation immediately. They consist of ten and twenty cent pieces in silver, and of one cent pieces in bronze, very beautifully executed.

☞ Brown, Taggard & Chase, Boston, now publish Leavitt's Old Farmer's Almanac.—No Almanac is published in New Hampshire this year, except the Register.

☞ Rev. W. T. Herrick, recently of Candia, has engaged to supply the pulpit of the Congregational church in Pelham, for one year, commencing the first of September.

☞ Mr. W. H. Kingsbury, son of Rev. Samuel Kingsbury, residing in Tamworth, has received a call from the Congregational church in Corinth, Vt., to become their pastor.

"You seem to walk more erect than usual, my friend." "Yes, I have been straightened by circumstances."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of LAMBERT'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and is all cases previous to attending operas and parties.
The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

LOSS OF TIME.
Persons afflicted with disease unnecessarily lose much time. No remedy, in these days, is fit to be taken in the human system, unless it will, in a few days, exhibit some favorable symptoms of restoring the patient to health. If Rheumatism, or Stiffness of the Joints, or Weakness in the Back, or Lumbago, or Pain in the Side, or Dysentery, or Diarrhœa troubles you, Radway's Ready Relief will in a few minutes free you from your painful condition.—Bear in mind, no pain will exist where the Ready Relief is applied.
For Scrofula, or Syphilis, Sores, Rickets, Night-Sweats, Bad Coughs, Consumption, Salt Rheum, in three days Radway's Renovating Resolvent will make a favorable change.

The PERUVIAN SYRUP by reinvigorating the digestive powers, lays the axe at the root of the tree; the brain is duly nourished, the nervous symptoms cease, and the head ache disappears.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
The Original and Only London Gin Imported. This Spirit, distilled from Malt and Rye grown in Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic fluid in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and should not be hurriedly confounded with those of the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, SPRINGTIME DEBILITY, Diseases of URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing complaints which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly suited to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all respectable grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Genuine is Imported.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Merchants Row; J. Moran, 1 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been in used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, and have proved a success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

The evidence in the case No. 35, Charles G. Burnham, adm'r of N. White vs. Samuel S. Chase, was submitted to the jury in the forenoon. In the afternoon, the case was argued on the part of the deft. by Marston, and by Wells for the plff. His Honor, Judge Sargent will probably charge the Jury in the morning.

No. 30, Fellows vs. Fellows, is next in order for trial. It is understood this case will occupy the Jury at least five days, to commence on Monday morning.

No 40. Margaret A. Shouter vs. John Swindell is the next case marked for trial. It is quite possible it may be tried Saturday forenoon.

For the Chronicle.

LECTURES AND LECTURERS.—Messrs. Editors:—The announcement of a lecture, prefacing a course, by Mr. Long, and the suggestion of Mr. Fletcher's lectures upon Brazil, are enough to whet the appetite for some capital dishes.

It is many years since Mr. Long has appeared as a lecturer, before his towns-people, and who that remembers the ripeness and richness of his lectures, every now and then irradiated by sudden flashes of humor, must warmly welcome him back; while his subjects, growing out of his life-long and favorite studies, have gained upon the public taste, and are likely to ensure a deeper and even increasing public appreciation. Mr. Long cannot but meet with every encouragement to give us his full course.

And what can be more agreeable during our dull, cold winter, than to take a peep at the tropics, "clad with luxurious foliage." Report speaks highly of Mr. Fletcher's lectures. Let us, by all means, have them. If they are as interesting as his book, flavored by the vivacities of speech and manner, the tickets will pay a grand per cent. And can we not have a poem from Mr. Leighton? The chaste beauty and and delicate finish of his beauty and delicate finish of his smaller poems, captivate an audience which gladly welcome the promise of longer ones. INCHES.

☞There will be a Sabbath School Concert in the North Church to-morrow (Sunday) evening at 7 o'clock.

☞ Meetings for public prayer and instruction in Fleet Street, Sunday morning at first bells; Monday and Thursday evenings, at half past 7.

☞ The operations round the new Custom House, look like a suspension soon.—The two stories now up, present a handsome appearance,—more graceful we think, than the whole will be when at its greater height. A temporary roof is to be put on, and everything made snug.

☞ The New Orleans and Metropolitan Opera Troupe, so favorably known in this vicinity, are to gratify our citizens with two of their entertainments, on Saturday and Monday evenings next.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A gang of counterfeiters were arrested yesterday, at a house in Brooklyn. On the premises were found complete sets of dies, stamps and presses, together with chemicals and ores for counterciting and altering bank bills, and manufacturing legal coin. Large quantities of counterfeit bank bills and coin were also found. The parties arrested are Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Saml. James, and Edward Cook.

The Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting yesterday, at which the Committee on Canadian Reciprocity presented a report complaining of the forced interpretation recently placed on the Reciprocity Treaty by Mr. Guthrie, by which interpretation wheat grown in the States and ground into flour in Canada is subject to duty on reimportation into this country. Mr. Royal Phelps presented a minority counter report. Another committee presented a report in favor of canal steam navigation.

Judge Metcalf yesterday renewed his decision in the case of Ray Tompkins, and John C. Thompson, charged with arson in burning the quarantine buildings at Staten Island. The Judge held that, inasmuch as the Castleton Board of Health, acting in a judicial capacity, had declared the quarantine buildings a nuisance, the citizens were justified in destroying them, and thus abating the nuisance.

"We have heard a rumor—from what ought certainly to be good authority—that the Washington Union has been sold to the friends of Douglas, and that they will enter upon its active management soon after the opening of the session of Congress.

John B. Haskin,	5906
Gouverneur Kemble,	4884

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The Treasury estimates are not yet completed, and until they are it will be impossible for the Secretary to know what probable amount of revenue will be required for the next fiscal year. In the absence of this necessary information it cannot be determined what recommendation should be made to Congress; hence speculations upon the subject are without authority. The Secretary has not written a line of his report.

More than usual caution is observed with a view to prevent a premature discovery of the contents of the forthcoming executive reports, and especially the President's message.

The Secretary of the Navy has received despatches from the commanding officers of the steamers Fulton, Water Witch, and Harriet Lane, which respectively arrived at Barbadoes on the 15th, 16th, and 20th ult. They stopped only a few hours to take in coal, and then left for the rendezvous of the Paraguay expedition.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Mail Robbery.—Henry Reed, night clerk in the City Post Office, who was arrested last night in the act of purloining letters, subsequently confessed to a large robbery committed three weeks ago, embracing over 100 letters, on the way to Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The ship Fanny Fosdick, laying in the port of Savannah, was burned to the water's edge, night of 10th inst. She had just completed repairs, and was ready to receive a cargo of cotton. She was built in Orland, Me., in 1854, was 729 tons, rated A 2, and was owned principally by Fosdick & Robson of Rockland.

HOMICIDE BY AN OFFICER.—A longshoreman undertook, at New York on Wednesday, to escape from a police officer, when he was shot at three times; the last shot took fatal effect, and he died while being conveyed to the City Hospital. The man who was killed was named Hollis, alias "Sailor Jack," a well known desperate character. Officer Cairnes, who fired the revolver, has been a policeman two years, and bears a good name. He surrendered himself into custody, and awaits the result of the inquest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—There has been a terrible storm at Turks Island, and the following vessels are reported wrecked:—Brigs Mungo Park, of Bangor. River Belle, of Parsboro', N. S.; Aleppo, of Windsor, N. S.; Herbert, Huntington, of Yarmouth, N. S.; schooners Transit, of Liverpool, N. S., and Theresa, of Turks Island. Brig Cordova, of Providence, R.I., was driven from her anchorage, and has not since been heard of; great fears are entertained for her safety.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The steamship Black Warrior arrived at New Orleans, on Saturday, bringing information from Havana that the barque Venus, formerly under the Mexican flag, was captured with nearly 600 negroes on board off the Moro, by a Spanish war steamer.

CITY HALL.—The Chronicle gives a very pretty picture of a design for a building in which, over a Market Room, to locate the offices for our city business, and furnish in the third story a City Hall for general purposes. The estimated expense is $30,000. Now a handsome City Hall is a matter which before many years elapse will be brought up. But we hope that when it is built it will be not only out of the vicinity of any slaughter house, but also of any place where those who enter will be compelled to pass through or near the butchers' shambles. Spend but a thousand dollars on the old market in giving it a respectable front—and leave Jefferson Hall for city meetings and its base for a market,—the purpose for which the premises can be legally held—and select some such location as that between the North church and the Custom House—or such as the Cutter mansion at the corner of Middle and Congress streets,—or that spot which is now covered with a greater eyesore than the Old Market, the land on State street east from the Stone Church to Pleasant street.

When the enterprise is commenced, whatever the estimates may be, the expense will probably not be short of $50,000. Many who are opposed to doubling our city debt, will be in favor of doubling every man's tax for one year, which would probably pay off the whole expense. If this is made a city debt, the $3000 interest will annually be paid for the use of rooms to accommodate our City Officers, and a Hall which might be an income to the city of perhaps $200 a year.

What a capital idea it would be, if some of our rich men, in making their wills, would remember this object—or what would be better, give while living a $30,000 donation and see themselves how grateful the people would be—and what a splendid City Hall we should have going up among us.

RAILROAD ACCOMMODATIONS. — The Salem Gazette says that "the people along the line of the Sangus Branch Railroad are still holding 'indignation meetings' against the managers of the Eastern Railroad Company, for the discontinuance of certain trains. But none of them propose that very easy and certain way of procuring a renewal of the same—namely, by guaranteeing remuneration to the company. Why should they expect the poor stockholders of that company to incur further losses for their accommodation?"

The same reply can be made to those who complain that but one train a day is to pass in the winter months between Portsmouth and Concord. The managers of the Road have ascertained what the income of the Road will allow, and are not of that generous disposition to send three trains when one can do the business. Unless they have a guarantee from those who wish to be better accommodated, that their own as well as the public interest will be promoted by additional trains, they do no injustice by following the course they have taken. The experience of New England Railroads has been that while the public have been most studiously accommodated, the stockholders have been too poorly remunerated for their investments.

LECTURES.

The void of "No Lyceums this winter" is beginning to be filled in prospect by the proposition of Mr. Long to give his valuable course of Lectures on Personal Beauty, and kindred subjects connected with the Fine Arts, at the Temple, should be be sufficiently patronized to warrant proceeding after the first lecture. These lectures, with splendid illustrations, were given in Boston and Philadelphia several years ago, and were well received by large and appreciative audiences.

Mr. Long has given much attention to the subject of his lectures, with a view to their future publication, and we are gratified to find that he is willing to present them at this time, not only offering an important subject for consideration, but also advancing, what is very desirable, a taste for the fine arts.

The first snow equall of the season here was on Wednesday evening last. The next morning was clear and cold—the thermometer 9 below the freezing point. Six inches of snow fell at White River unction, Vt on Sunday last.

SYRUP OF SORGHO.—A cultivator in Freeport, Iowa, gives the result of the cultivation of half an acre of the Chinese Sugar Cane the present season, showing it an article of great value to northern Iowa, as well as to that extensive region.

On the 18th of May he planted the seed the same as Indian corn. It was cut on the 4th of October and worked up the next day, before any biting frost was felt.

He had on half an acre 50 rows of 50 hills in a row—4 stalks in a hill would be 10,000 stalks, which yielded 121 gallons of good syrup.

This at the common price of molasses, is equal to obtaining one hundred dollars product from an acre,—far better in result than the product of any grain. The business will doubtless be largely entered upon by the farmers of the west next season.

JAMAICA GINGER.—This excellent remedy for cramp, dyspepsia, &c. Mr. PRESTON prepares in good form. Is a family medicine which every body should keep on hand. In preparing for Thanksgiving, Mr. Preston has every variety of extracts for giving good flavor to the pastry preparations for the great occasion.

THANKSGIVING BALL.—There is to be a Firemen's and Citizen's Ball at Congress Hall on Thanksgiving Eve, under direction of Atlantic Engine Co. No. 6. This is announced as the last ball that can take place in Congress Hall before its permanent occupancy as a Masonic Hall.

In Board of Aldermen, Thursday Evening, the Mercantile Library Association applied for the use of Jefferson Hall for the purpose of holding a Fair, two weeks succeeding Thanksgiving. Granted.

THE

BAY STATE RANGE.

The subscriber invites the attention of the public to THE BAY STATE RANGE, a new cooking apparatus of great capacity, having

Two Large Ovens

AND

Six Boiling Places.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS

PERFECT IN ITSELF,

and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the cold, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of

DOUBLE THICKNESS,

will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; It will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Readers, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shrivelled, hard and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Poniatz, Thalberg:

New York, April 19, 1858.

Dr. Wood:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your "Hair Restorative," it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.

Prof. O. J. Wood:—Dear Sir.—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her and as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thicken ing the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 24, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KEMP.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

Prof. Wood—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in April. A few applications soon restored my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOSS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the secured trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and economy, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, in the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed to

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled for all female irregularities. Virtue in regulating all female irregularities Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

☞ A fifteen mile foot race took place, at the Saugus Trotting Park, for which there were four entries, viz: Griffin of Boston, the Reading Champion, and two Indians named Smith and Bennett. On the second mile Griffin gave up, and the Reading Champion retired on the fifth mile.—Bennett gave up on the fourteenth mile, and Smith won the race in 1 hour, 29 min. 40 sec.

☞ A wide-awake correspondent of the Chronicle, who has been canvassing in New Hampshire, writes us that Goodwin will receive the unanimous nomination for Governor,—that Marston will be nominated on the first ballot for Representative,—and Douglas will be President. Don't know "how he heard."

KIDNAPPING IN KANSAS.—The enclosed, says the Albany Journal of the 10th inst., is cut from a letter just received from Lawrence, K. T. The writer may be relied on:

We have a great excitement in this excitable town just now. A number of Missourians and others have been combining together to kidnap free colored persons doing business in Lawrence, some as barbers and others as wood-cutters; also three women. But after the escape of one of them from his bonds with which they had bound him, also another jumping out of a hack at night and being shot at on making his escape, the parties have been arrested. Some of them belong to the Post Office.—They will most likely be bound over for trial before Judge Elmore, an appointee of our President Buchanan. He is the largest slave-owner in Kansas.

Our progress towards heathenism is steady; one of the latest indications of it is a new development of the doctrine of negro disability set forth in the Dred Scott decision, by Chancellor Keyes of Alabama, who has decreed that men and women living in Europe are deprived of property that has been conveyed to them in Alabama, because they are within three degrees of being negroes. How little this decision sounds like Jefferson's glorious prelude—"All men are created free and equal, and endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness!"

DULY COMMITTED.—One of the latest arrivals at the Massachusetts State Prison is a lady named Miss Emma J. Hopkins of Charlestown who was last week committed to the custody of Warden Haynes on a mittimus from a worthy clergyman to serve a life sentence, and was duly admitted to the institution under the name of Mrs. Haynes! The many friends of the worthy Warden will congratulate him on so happy an addition to his establishment, trusting that the "term" of the new inmate, and also of her guardian, may continue to a good old age and be productive of much happiness and prosperity.

A GOOD NATURED MONARCH.—A few days ago, says a Munich letter, a female fainted in one of the streets of this city. An elderly gentleman, who approached where she was lying, requested some of the persons present to go and fetch a medical man. They all replied that they knew not where to find one. "Well then," said he, I will go myself," and in a few minutes he returned with a doctor, who applied the proper remedies to the poor woman. The kind hearted old gentleman was King Louis, of Bavaria.

An item from Lucknow, India, states that as a funeral party of her Majesty's 38th Regiment were out burying a comrade, a flash of lightning knocked down the whole party, killing two men and wounding another. The killed looked exactly as if they had been shot through the head, with some portions of skin off the chest, and the bodies discolored.

A HYDROCEPHALUS SUICIDE.—The Chicago Press says that a young German named Simon, of that city, committed suicide in the following strange manner: He went into a shed, took a gun, and loading it with powder and then with water, placed the muzzle in his mouth and fired, completely shattering his head. When found he was standing in the corner leaning on his gun. The cause of the suicide is traced to the refusal of Simon's father to permit him to marry the girl of his choice.

POLITICAL JOCOSITY.—The N. Y. Times is thus facetiously severe on its neighbor, the Courier and Enquirer:—"The friends of Senator Seward will regret to learn that early on Saturday morning he was suddenly, and without an hour's warning, nominated for the Presidency, by Gen. Webb, of the Courier and Enquirer. His recovery is doubtful, though when last heard from he was quite as well as could be expected."

There are rumors of a conspiracy among the noblest and wealthiest of Parisian society to introduce a more moderate style, and less costly toilette for the approaching winter, and of a large re-union in the faubourg St. Germain, at which crinolines, hoops and resorts were abandoned.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1858.

PLUNDERING OF UNCLE SAM.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer walks into the corruptions which stalk around the federal capital, and says "the most monstrous abuse of the mileage system is in the office of the Sergeant-at-Arms. That officer was charged with the duty of summoning the clouds of witnesses that attended the last session; and, although he never went out of his office to make service, it is said that he cleared $25,000 by the little job! The way it was managed was this: The Sergeant-at-Arms is allowed twenty cents a mile, coming to and fro, for summoning witnesses. He would readily obtain a person to go the round, and summon a large number of witnesses in one trip, and yet he would charge mileage for a number of trips equal to the number of witnesses.—About fifteen witnesses were summoned from the neighborhood of Fort Snelling; and so the Sergeant-at-Arms charged mileage for fifteen trips, and he was allowed it.

In the Watrous case, about twenty witnesses were summoned, at one time, from the distant State of Texas, and the Sergeant-at-Arms greatly felicitated himself on the prospect of a monstrous fee by charging for about twenty constructive trips to Texas. Mr. Houston of Alabama, however, opposed this, compelled the Sergeant-at-Arms to succumb, and saved the government nearly $10,000 by his unflinching economy in this instance.

I might pursue the general subject of corrupt and pilfering practices in and about Congress, by giving an account of the crowds of sinecures kept on the premises—messengers who get $1200 and $1500 per annum, and porters who are paid $1200 a year for doing nothing, all of whom are of course too proud to do menial offices, but are politicians; or by informing your readers of the fabulous cost of gorgeous furniture, mirrors, Brussels carpets, and book-cases costing $800 each, (you can see one in the Claims committee room,) which adorn the committee and private drinking rooms; or by detailing the thousand and one petty plunders by which Uncle Sam is made to bleed at every pore by a swarm of subalterns, hangers-on, supernumeraries, and what not.

☞ On Friday noon, in New York city, James Rodgers, the boy-murderer, was hung in the prison-yard, according to previous arrangements. The execution was delayed till the last moment, as his friends had hopes that a reprieve would be granted. But few persons were present in the yard, but outside the Tombs there was a large crowd, including many of the gentler sex. Rodgers remained tolerably firm to the last moment. His father was present, and when the body was cut down, threw himself upon it in a paroxysm of grief.

Thus closes the miserable career of one of those fast young men so common in all our cities, who drink, smoke, swear, play and fight. He shall flee to the pit—no one shall stay him.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY AT MANCHESTER.—A man at Manchester, named Glines, while partially intoxicated on Thursday night, was knocked down with a slung shot, badly wounded and robbed of his watch, by a boy named Marshall, about 18 years old. Marshall has been arrested. The Mirror says he is small, handsome, accomplished and smart, and the most desperate and artful thief of his age out of jail. For six years he has kept his father paying for stolen goods, and but a short time since he was convicted of stealing, and is bailed out.

AGITATING PLANTS.—It is a remarkable fact, according to "the chemistry of the world," that trees which are shaken every day in the green house grow more rapidly and are stronger than others which are kept unagitated.—Hogan.

No doubt of it—and it is just so with people and parties and politics. For instance, the "agitation" of the question of freedom, makes the cause "grow more rapidly and stronger" than any other course would.

☞ Hon. Thomas H. Seymour announces that he expects to meet ex-President Pierce in December, at Rome, and that he will not reach this country before the first of January—and possibly not till Spring.

☞ Salem county, Illinois, is the Democratic banner county in the Union. At the late election in that State she cast 1059 votes, every one of which was for the ticket. This is a remarkable unanimity.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

Steamer Star of the West, from Aspinwall, arrived at New York, bringing San Francisco dates to the 20th ult., and, $1,670,000 in specie.

The Star of the West left Aspinwall on the 3d inst. The frigate Roanoke, and sloop-of-war Saratoga, were in port: all well.

A woman named Sarah Neal was murdered on the 19th of October near Sacramento, by a Chinaman, who was hung by a mob in two hours after committing the crime.

Ship John E. Thayer of Boston, was burnt on the night of Sept. 13, off Palos Island, Gulf of California. Crew saved.

The ship Gen. Cushing, bound to Sydney while beating down the Bay on the 15th, got ashore at Fort Point, and will prove a total loss. She was loaded with grain, a portion of which will be saved.—She missed stays and drifted broadside on the rocks. She was insured in Newburyport and Boston for $30,000; $20,000 was insured on her cargo in Australia, and $10,000 in San Francisco.

We hope those Douglas guns at Bangor did not jar the mortar out of the "Union" so as to render the edifice at all shaky.—Our esteemed friend down there had better jump upon the "popular sovereignty" plank again, for it is the only thing that will reach a safe anchorage. Returning wanderers received into the fold and no unpleasant questions asked.

Bolters, "will you scorn the message, Sent in mercy from" the West?
—Bath Times.

Col. J. H. George, of Concord, whom the President removed from the office of District Attorney of New Hampshire, but whom the people have unanimously nominated for Congress, writes to the Boston Post, that it was no section or fragment of the party which fired the guns at Concord in honor of the Illinois victory, but that the whole party united in that movement, as all rejoice at the success of Judge Douglas.—Bath Times.

The Lyceum of the Universalist Society, was a perfect success in all but one particular—the music was poor, and we were not sorry for that, since it may cure the mania our people have for running to Boston for music, when better can be had at their doors. The Amesbury Band is very much better than the music they had, and if that Band hailed from Boston instead of Amesbury, it would be so considered.—Newburyport Herald.

BEHEADING A DEAD CHRISTIAN.—At Erzeroum, in Armenia, no rain having fallen this summer, the Turkish clergy could devise no better expedient to propitiate the heavens than the infliction of capital punishment on a Giaour or Christian, and being merciful in their management, had the dead body of an unbeliever disinterred and decapitated.

"Whatever success I may have had in business I owe mainly to continuous Advertising, and I deem it good policy to advertise long in the same papers. From a close observation, I am fully convinced that it is impossible to make much headway in any branch of commerce, without the facilities which the Press alone can give."—Jacob Ridgeway.

☞ Four young ladies in Augusta were chased by a skunk—as they thought, and ran for dear life to escape the awful perfume which filled their delicate nostrils. The skunk proved to be a black and white kitten!

☞ A Limerick paper says: "A gentleman holding a high official situation in the West of Ireland left for London to marry his governess; but so smitten was he with the beauty of her sister, that he transferred his affections and person, and became her wedded husband."

☞ We learn from the Argus, that the baptismal font belonging to the Second Parish Church of Portland, was stolen from the house of the sexton last week.

"CAN'T BE BEAT."—"You appear to have a fine assortment of musical instruments for sale," said Quix, addressing a music dealer.

"Yes, first rate—all —can't be beat," was the response.

"If that's so," said Quix, "I mus look elsewhere.

"Why?" asks the amazed dealer.

"Because," replies Quix, "I want a drum!

BITTER INDEED.—The Bath Times states that there is Republican in that city who is so very bitter, that the doctors use him, in preference to quinine, in cases of fever and ague.

Thus quotes the Argus. Those doctors are no quacks. They know that thorough Republicanism is a bitter dose for Democratic maladies; it is a sure cure.—Portland Ado.

The first snow of the season in Bath came on Sunday morning, Nov. 7th, and it fell with a perfect looseness. It was a novel sight to look at the Custom House lot where the oats, green as a leek, contrasted their dark rich color with the white bed from which they appeared to spring.—Times.

☞ The Methodists of Alabama have raised $300,000 as a beginning for an endowment fund for a University at Greensborough.

☞ The longest railroad on the globe is to be found in the United States, viz., the Illinois Central, being 784 miles long.

RUBBING WITH BRANDY.

We heard the other day of a singular, and, we believe, a new effect of the application of brandy as a medicine. A gentleman, convalescing from an attack of sickness, was recommended by his physician to rub himself all over every morning and evening with the very best brandy.

The invalid, according sent to his family grocer, with whom he had dealt for years, and ordered a sample of the best old cognac. Home it came, and that very evening it was tried—outwardly, of course.—The convalescent felt better, much better, and he continued to feel better for a day or so, until he awoke one morning, and to his horror, discovered that his entire cuticle—at least where it had been rubbed with the old cognac—had become of a deep crimson color.

He sprang out of bed in alarm. The family was aroused; a servant despatched in hot haste for the doctor. The invalid's wits were terribly shaken by this never-before-heard-of catastrophe. What could be the cause of it? He looked a picture for a painter, as he sat before the large looking-glass in an arm-chair, and ruefully surveyed his crimson covering. It was almost ludicrous; it was quite as bad as Mr. Tittlebat Titmouse's predicament about his purple-green hair. But this could be no laughing matter; it must be some extraordinary phenomenon, as he explained it to his wondering and alarmed family.

"And just imagine, my dear, how I shall look all my life, if this confounded thing isn't cured. Like a boiled lobster!—like a boiled lobster! I shall go by no other name! Oh, dear! Oh, dear!"

The door bell rang; the front door opened; in rushed the doctor. For an instant he could not contain himself—he had to drop into a chair and laugh it out.

"Oh, it's very funny to you, no doubt, Doctor; but how would you like to go about all the balance of your days looking like an overdone lobster?"

The doctor burst out again at this; but he saw that his sick man and family were really alarmed, and he soon sobered down into his usual pulse feeling gravity.

"Maybe it's the iodine, Doctor?" suggested the anxious wife.

"Oh. it's ironed in, no doubt," said the patient, indulging the ruling passion, strong in death.

The doctor shook his head.

"Had the rubbing been done as he prescribed?"

"Yes, faithfully."

"Good brandy?"

"Yes, the very best—we use no other."

"Let me have it."

The brandy was brought. The doctor tasted it, and shook his head again.

"I'll take it home to examine it chemically. There are many tricks among the liquor dealers."

"Oh, no fear of that with our grocer. He sells none but the best liquors, imported direct by himself."

'No doubt, I'll look into it nevertheless.' And, calming the family alarm, the good doctor departed, the pure old cognac in his pocket.

That evening came a note from him:—"Dear L——, make yourself perfectly easy. The cognac is first-proof whiskey, and won't hurt you. It was the logwood in it that did your business."

ONE OF THE LETTERS.—We receive all sorts of letters from subscribers. Among those received last week, we print below rather a queer specimen, though pleasant. Our neglect to stop his paper was an oversight—though it seems to us he would miss some of the others less.

Editors of the Chronicle:—I told you last year, when I sent you the $1.00, you must stop at the end of the term; but you keep sending the paper and I keep taking it from the office,—so I must send the "dollar" again. Can't afford to send the paper back to have it stopped, because the little folks about would miss it. Again, a paper like yours, that has the courage to stand up for right, morality, religion and temperance, with a good spice of general news, and other items, should be well supported; but do stop when the money is out. I support a good many papers, I am aged, my sight fails, I don't read all, I only select yours among a few of the best. With true respect,

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents their freely discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used for by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, and in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

HEADACHE.—Chronic sick, or nervous Headache is generally dependent on, or accompanied impaired digestion, by which the circulation and nutrition of the brain are deranged, and the nervous centres vitiated. The PERUVIAN SYRUP by reinvigorating the digestive powers, lays the axe at the root of the tree; the brain is duly nourished, the nervous symptoms cease, and the headache disappears.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable remedies of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the medical profession, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, DEBILITATED BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate constitution.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'; NEXT ORDER is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Morse, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 50 Blackstone st; R. A CARD TO THE LADIES
DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health, otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tuffs, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A Frandegast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

SATURDAY, Nov. 13.

HON. J. E. SARGENT, Presiding Justice.

The Court came in at half past eight, and instructed the Jury in the case, Burnham, Adm'r of N. White vs. Chase, as to evidence and questions of law which arose. They retired to their room, and soon after brought in a verdict for the defendant. Both juries were then discharged from further attendance at this term, now juries having been summoned to come in on Monday. On the continued docket a large number of actions, marked for the Court, were disposed of.

It is understood the case No. 37 Fellows vs. Fellows, will commence Monday and will occupy most of the week.

Next in order for trial is No. 40, Margaret A. Shouter vs. John Swindells.

☞ That was a capital Concert, the New Orleans Serenaders gave at the Temple, Saturday evening—rarely excelled, of its kind. Good singing and playing, joking and dancing—without anything being uttered that was objectionable.—It was the best entertainment this troupe ever gave here—and we don't see why they should reduce their price of admission, when their performances have improved so much. Don't fail to hear them to-night.

☞ On Sunday morning a crack was discovered in the Methodist church bell about a foot in length, which will, in a short time, render it unfit for use. It has been failing for a month or more.

☞ We have just furnished our job office with a large assortment of new type, &c., and are better prepared than ever before to furnish our patrons with Bill Heads, Cards, Circulars, &c., of any style desired.

CHRONICLE CORRESPONDENCE.

NEWMARKET, Nov. 13.

Messrs. Editors,—Isolated as you are from the rest of the State, it may afford you some satisfaction to hear from this far distant town; but yet I would not advise you to raise your anticipation of news too high, as the result would be only a more serious fall.

Newmarket is nearly stagnant, the main intimation of life being the numerous droves of cattle which pass through here from the east—to-day there were eight or nine.

Everything seems to betoken rapidly approaching winter; the geese have commenced their flight to the southward, and some few were in the Bay on Friday.

The roads have closed up in grand condition, and if the dark cloud which fills our horizon in the direction of your city do but favor us with an inch or two of snow I think it will furnish sleighing on such smooth bottom.

Mill No. 1 of our Manufacturing Company, which was destroyed by fire, is now rebuilt, and in a state very near completion, presenting a much handsomer appearance, exteriorly, than before.

Among other changes which strike the eye favorably, is the splendid new residence of Mr. Bennett, a short distance from the village, on the road to South Newmarket. The New Market Hotel, formerly kept by I. P. Furber, has been so repaired and remodelled that its old patrons would hardly know it, but is at present vacant, the late landlord having transferred himself to the Rockingham House, which, under his administration, begins to look quite 'spruce.'

The story which obtained, about the 1st of the month, (in consequence of a letter written to a Boston paper from a city near by,) that a young girl was forced into the woods by a parcel of scoundrels who abused her so that she died, is, I am happy to say, not true. As far as I can learn, the girl was not forced into the woods at all, but belonged to that accommodating class who go by request; and furthermore, so far from being dead, "still lives." Viewed in the best light the case is bad enough, don't let us make things worse than they really are.

"Brother Buggins" seems inclined to make Rye faces at F.'s valentines, but the specimen of his own versification which he furnishes the Ballot shows that the insect cannot even hum.

Already politicians are making preparations for the warfare of March, and shrewd Democratic leaders hope to make some gains on their terrible defeat of last spring. They may make some gain on it, but I am afraid it will be gain the wrong way to please them. B. E.

The Portsmouth Va Transcript heads an article in relation to the proscription in Illinois by the administration, "The Guillotine." This is a southern democratic paper, and of course no fault will be found with it.—Bath Times.

The theatre at Santiago had been burned. Loss $180,000.

The crops are very promising, and the mines were yielding more lavorably than ever.

Bolivia succeeded in quelling another revolution on the Peruvian fronter: 18 leaders in the revolt, including a Franciscan friar, had been sentenced to death. It is expected that this step will secure peace to the Levarc's Government for some time.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—The Indian war is ended. Col. Wright has granted the Indians' prayer for peace, taking hostages from each of the four hostile tribes. Gen. Clark had returned to San Francisco.

FRAZER RIVER.—The down steamers continues to bring home crowds of disappointed miners from the British Possessions.—Two steamers brought over a thousand.—They all tell the same story. The settlements on the river are deserted. No business was doing at Victoria.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier says that Secretary Cobb's report is partly written. He recommends a tax upon tea and coffee, but is silent upon iron.

Judge Parker, the defeated candidate for the New York Governorship, has been tendered the Collectorship of New York city, and declines it. The office, it is now stated, will be offered to Mr. Taylor, candidate for Lieut. Governor on the same ticket, the President beng determined to remove Mr. Schell.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—It is supposed that the ship John E. Thayer was intentionally fired by one of her crew. Measures have been taken to secure the suspected or guilty parties.

LYNCH LAW IN KENTUCKY.—Louisville, Nov. 12.—A mob of desperate men from Campbellville broke into the jail at Greensburg, Ky., on the 10th instant, and seized and hung two prisoners named Thompson and Despau. These men belonged to the party who murdered Henry Simpson some 18 months ago. Another one of the murderers, Elias Stagg, committed suicide in prison to escape the action of of the lynchers. A fourth prisoner, Hunter, confessed the murder of Simpson, and implicated six others in the affair. The mob are after the latter.

AND

Six Boiling Places.

The Ovens will bake SIXTEEN LARGE LOAVES OF BREAD AT ONE TIME—and are superior to any Stove Oven for Roasting Meats.

A Water Back can be added to the Range, with which a barrel of water can be kept boiling without any increase of fuel.

THE RANGE IS

PERFECT IN ITSELF,

and can be set in a chimney or out in the room as is most convenient.

It will warm the coldest kitchen in the city, and an extra room if desired.

Wood or Coal may be used for fuel, the castings being of

will resist the action of a coal fire and the abuse of servants.

The Range has been in use since March, and operates finely:—

HEAR WHAT A PURCHASER SAYS OF IT.

"I am delighted with the Range, it will perform so much at once.

I can do more cooking with it in an hour than I can with my Stove (a large one) in half a day, and with much less fuel too.

The ovens are splendid. I have baked flour cakes in them in twelve minutes, with a coal fire.

In fact, IT IS PERFECT—and I would not part with it if unable to replace it."

Please call and examine the Range; it will be found to verify all that is said in its praise.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE

RICHEST DIADEM

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the ornament God himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom more brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, heavy and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about twenty years ago, when in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,

S. THALBERG.

"Dyrch a'r Gwylledydd."

We'ch Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr. 12, '58.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir.—Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her bald, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect to perfection. The gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 25, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. RUST.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 1, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; it was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications restored my hair fully. It began to fill up from over and turned back to its original color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to all. J. H. RAY.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be laid on over shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would invite special attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same come to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the incidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as follows:

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the risk or certain sacrifice of what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. "Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

VERMONT GOLD.—A gentleman in Plymouth, Vt., in relation to the newly discovered gold diggings in that State, says that claims which were bought for ten or fifteen dollars have recently sold for $400; that he, with a few men with him, have averaged seven dollars per man, and some have done better; that in a hole 15 by 20 feet square and five feet deep, they have taken out over four hundred dollars. It is now getting too cold to work, but a great rush is expected in the spring. Indeed, a large tide is now setting toward the "gold region." The gentleman who made the discovery is an old California gold digger.

RUNAWAY NEGROES.—The Morgantown, Virginia, Star, says ten negroes—three women, two children and five men—ran away from Pruntytown, Va., on Sunday night, about 11 o'clock, taking with them seven horses. Their horses were discovered about six miles south of Morgantown, on Monday morning. The negroes have been traced to the Pennsylvania line.

HURRYING UP THE DINNER.—A few weeks ago a young mechanic in Charlestown, suspected his neighbor, in the same house, of robbing his wood pile; so he bored and charged a stick with powder one fine morning, and laid it back on the wood pile and went to his work, without letting his own wife into the secret. Hurrying home at noon to dinner, and just as nearing his house, he heard a loud explosion, and rushed in overjoyed at the success of hi morning's work, but what was his amazement on opening his own door, to find the top of the stove blown off and the pots and kettles and his dinner spread promiscuously about the floor and plastered upon the walls!

The Hartford papers give a list of births as well as deaths; but one fact does not speak well for the morals of the nutmeg State; the births all come before the marriages.—Bath Times.

FIRE.—A barn belonging to Jeremiah Furber, Esq., of Sandwich, was recently burnt with all its contents. Thirty-five tons of hay, and nine head of cattle were all consumed.

A week filled up with selfishness, and the Sabbath stuffed full of religious exercises, will make a good Pharisee, but not a Christian.

He is the best educated man, who is the most of a man, and is best able to accomplish the great ends of life.

MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent employed in removing so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ENVENELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN OR SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents.
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give some idea that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGEOUS AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe for a long period, and question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT.

One of the disadvantages of a republican form of government is that by reason of diverse interests and local jealousies tending in opposite directions, slowness, indecision and irresolution invariably characterize the first movements preliminary to entering upon any great national work or policy, whether it be a foreign offensive or defensive war, the settlement of domestic difficulties, or the construction of works of internal improvement. This was true of ancient Rome, of the turbulent democracies of Greece, and not the less is it true of the United States.

The despotism of one man, when that man has energy, ability and benevolence, with no ambition but to advance the happiness and prosperity of his people, the glory and honor of his nation, whether or not it be preferable to the rule of an oligarchy of corrupt political demagogues elected by the people, strangers to honor, justice and honesty, governed by self interest and eager only for their own advancement, is nevertheless that form of government marked more than any other by decision, by energy, by perseverance, by great works attempted and performed, and which leaves behind the most enduring monuments of its success, shown, as in Russia since the reforms of Peter the Great, by the elevated standing of the nation; or, as in France, by those many gigantic wonders of engineering crowned by the fast great work at Cherbourg, whose record of impossibilities, as it were, overcome, ought to convince the faint-hearted that in matters of this kind, as in the common affairs of life, there is no difficulty or obstacle that cannot be overcome by an iron will with its accompanying qualities of energy and perseverance.

☞Now in this country, which with the lesson history teaches should not rely too confidently on the stability of its prosperity, there is needed no Peter to elevate our social condition, no Napoleon to lead our columns to the conquest of our weak neighbors, no additional energy or decision in carrying out great works of engineering when once undertaken; but to make this energy available there is needed, there is greatly needed between the different sections of the Union, among these thirty-two sisters united in interest and it is to be hoped in affection, a spirit of forbearance, kindness, self sacrifice, and patience, a disposition to yield provided no principle of right or justice would be betrayed; by doing so; there should be less pride, anger, irritability and suspicion; less jealousy of fancied encroachments on rights, qualities that are always productive of unhappiness and of fatal consequences to nations as well as individuals. The path is before us; we have but to choose, the good or the evil.

By force of will bad passions can be overcome, faults can be overcome; if this will is exerted for good, then shall we attain to moral greatness that we now have not; but should the future be as the past, should strife and dissension still prevail in this family of States, should angry reproaches and threats of violence still be heard, the end must come. We know the penalty—"A house divided against itself must fall."

These few remarks have been written because at the coming session of Congress the Pacific Railroad, a project in which the whole world is interested, will be brought up for discussion. Of the five routes, three are out of the question; the choice is between the routes of the 42d and 32d parallels of latitude, between a Northern and a Southern route. If this question is met in the spirit of the past, if sectional considerations alone prevail, the road is doomed, and for every year of its delay the clock of the republic is put farther back than that of the world by Waterloo.

If we all look at this affair calmly and dispassionately, admitting that as time and money are of value the line that can be constructed quickest and cheapest should be chosen, all difficulties will vanish—every obstacle will be removed—American energy having fair play, in five years the locomotive could reach San Francisco Bay, and we should hear no more of California steamers going down freighted with human souls, nor see far out on the overland trail the bones of the emigrants whitening the vast Western plains. T.

There was a rumor very prevalent about town last evening, that Col. Samuel Colt was dead at Washington. There was no foundation whatever for the story, so far as we could learn.—Hartford Courant.

ILLINOIS A REPUBLICAN STATE.—Returns have been received from ninety-seven counties in Illinois—all but three—and they give the Republican State ticket a majority of 4839. The three counties to hear from gave in 1856 a majority for Buchanan of 1316. So there is no doubt whatever that the Republicans of Illinois have carried the State by at least thirty-five hundred majority. The Chicago Press and Tribune of the 10th says:—

"We have the satisfaction of announcing this morning that returns have been received from all the counties in the State but three, footing up as follows: Republican, 118,905; Democratic, 110,771; Republican majority, 8,134. The counties yet to hear from are Calhoun, Jackson and Williamson, which gave Richardson 2,790 over Bissell in 1856. This would leave the Republican majority 5,134 in the whole State. The official result will not probably vary 500 votes from those figures. Our majority is as likely to go above 5,000 as to fall below it."

This is better than the returns which are published in the Illinois State Journal, and which we refer to above.

These facts demonstrate (says the Atlas) "that although the legislature is for Douglas, the people are for Lincoln. The moral power of the State is against, and not for, Douglas. This he will doubtless bear in mind when he gets to Washington. He will recollect that he represents a Republican constituency, and that were the voice of that constituency correctly interpreted by the Legislature, Mr. Lincoln would be elected the United States Senator, and not Stephen A. Douglas. The vote also demonstrates that the State of Illinois will cast her electoral vote for the Republican candidates for President and Vice President in 1860. Illinois completes the pyrimid of Republican States. We have all the Free States now save California, and before the Presidential election Kansas will be admitted into the Union and thus be enabled to cast her three electoral votes for a Republican President. Excelsior!"

NAVAL.—There are now lying at the Brooklyn Navy Yard the line-of-battle ship North Carolina, frigates Brandywine and Potomac, steam frigate Susquehanna, screw steamer San Jacinto, sloop-of-war St. Louis, surveying steamers Vixen and Corwin, chartered steamers Atlanta, Caledonia and Westernport, (of the Paraguay expedition,) and there is a new steam propeller on the stocks.

The Journal of Commerce states that of the eighty-five vessels comprising our Navy, ten were built in New York, fifteen in Philadelphia, eight in Washington, fifteen in Norfolk, seventeen in Boston, seven in Portsmouth, N. H., one in Erie, Penn., one in Pittsburg, Penn.; one transferred from the War Department, and eight were purchased. These statistics include the new steam sloops-of-war in process of construction, except the two at Pensacola.

MR. GIDDINGS IN A SLAVE STATE.—Hon. Joshua R. Giddings lectured on slavery in St. Louis on the evening of the 8th. He was radical in his remarks, says the St. Louis Democrat, but only once was there any expression of dissatisfaction. This was when the lecturer denounced the Dred Scott decision. Then such cheering and stamping and clapping of hands drowned the noise of the few persons who hissed, that they relapsed into silence.

☞The funeral of police officer Rigdon, of Baltimore, who was murdered by rowdies, was attended on Sunday by an immense concourse of people. The Mayor and a large body of police joined the cortege. Fifteen hundred dollars have been subscribed by the citizens for the families of the two murdered officers, Benton and Rigdon.

☞We learn that the Eastern Queen on her passage from Boston to Hallowell on Tuesday night, came in collision with a schooner off Boon Island. The schooner hailed from the Penobscot river, laden with flour and corn. She was left on her beam ends, and would probably sink. One man was lost and the others saved in the steamer.

☞Gilbert Houstis of Crown Point, N. Y., stabbed Milo Houstis thirteen times with a bayonet, on Saturday evening, and then attempted to commit suicide by cutting himself with a jack-knife. Gilbert had been considered partially insane for several months.

☞Mr. Francis Purinton, of Falmouth, Me., has twelve sheep that in January and February last had eighteen lambs, and in August and September had twelve more, making thirty lambs in short of eight months.

☞The number of deaths from yellow fever in New Orleans, up to the 24th of October, was 4457.

☞Joseph Byron and his wife, of Jamaica Plain, Mass., the miscreants who assaulted and beat Miss Rebecca Drake, in her school, have at last had their examination, and have been very properly bound over for trial. On the same evidence in a higher court, they will probably go to the House of Correction for a season, and their booby of a boy will probably follow them when he grows up under their training.

The Court, in summing up, said the attack was a ferocious one; if the parties felt that their boy had been punished too severely, they might have had redress with the law. He then bound the parties over to appear at the Court of Common Pleas, to be holden on the third Monday in December next. Byron and wife were each placed under bonds of $1000.

Miss Drake, the injured teacher, seemed quite ill, and kept her seat during her examination, and at its close immediately left the room. Before she had finished her testimony she appeared quite overcome, and afterwards was very much excited. Mr. Byron and wife manifested great interest in the proceedings. Mrs. Byron would occasionally lift up her hands, apparently in horror at the testimony as it came from the witnesses, and Mr. Byron interrupted the witnesses a number of times.

They are probably of the class—wealthy vulgar.

I'LL VOTE FOR THE OTHER MAN.—The following anecdote is told of a Revolutionary soldier, who was running for Congress:

It appears that he was opposed by a much younger man, who had never "been to the wars," and it was the wont of "Revolutionary" to tell the people of the hardships he endured.

Says he:

"Fellow citizens, I have fought and bled for my country—I helped whip the British and Indians. I have slept on the field of battle with no other covering than the canopy of heaven. I have walked over frozen ground till every footsteps was marked with blood."

Just about this time, one of the "sovereigns," who had become very much affected by this tale of woe, walks up in front of the speaker, wiping the tears from his eyes with the extremity of his coat-tail, and interrupting him, says:

"Did you say that you had fought the British and Injines?"

"Yes," responded Revolutionary.

"Did you say that you had slept on the ground while serving your country without any kiver."

"Yes, sir, I did."

"Did you say you had followed the enemy of your country over frozen ground till every footstep was covered with blood?"

"Yes," exultingly replied the speaker.

"Well, then," says the tearful "sovereign," as he gave a sigh of painful emotion, "I'll be blamed if I don't think you've done enough for your country, and I'll vote for the other man!"

"Would you touch a nettle without being stung by it? take hold of it stoutly. Do the same to other annoyances, and few things will ever annoy you."

'Tender-handed touch the nettle,
And it stings you for your pains;
Grasp it like a man of mettle,
And it soft as silk remains.
Thus it is with vulgar natures,
Treat them kindly they rebel;
But be rough as nutmeg-graters,
And the rogues will treat you well.'

CONDITION OF REV. MR. THAYER.—A letter from Lowell on Saturday evening, states that Mr. Thayer's health is improving quite rapidly. His friends have strong reasons for believing that both life and limb will yet be spared. His case is an extraordinary one.

☞Ship Planter, arrived at New York, from Callao, picked up at sea, Oct. 18, the crew and passengers of French ship Empress of Brazil, Capt. Charadann, 28 in number. She was from Rio Janeiro Oct. 5 for Havre; on the 19th she struck on Roocas Shoal at 3.30 A. M. She came off and sank, taking down with her seven of the crew.

VERDICT AGAINST EX-MAYOR WOOD.—In the Superior Court on Saturday, at New York, a verdict of $12,780 was awarded against Fernando Wood for preventing when he was mayor, Messrs. Dodge & Barnes from executing their contract for raising the sunken ship Joseph Walker.

☞Prince Metternich, who is now in Dresden, in company with his son, the Austrian minister in that city, visited the Marcolini Palace, in which, 45 years ago, he negotiated a peace with the Emperor Napoleon I, and which is now a hospital.

☞The majority in New York against calling a Convention to revise the Constitution, so far as received, is 32,579. The proposition is probably rejected.

☞Mr. Leach, the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth District of Michigan, who was supposed to be in danger, is re-elected by about one thousand majority.

A batter in a neighboring town advertises that his bats sit so easily upon the head that the wearers scarcely feel them. Unquestionably the best bats are not felt.

A young clergyman, from Machias, intending to leave his parish the next day, for the purpose of getting married, announced as his text on a late Sabbath the following appropriate passage:—"It is necessary for you that I go away, for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come!"

A little girl brought up to believe that heaven was an eternal Sabbath, in the Puritanical sense, being promised by her mother the joys of that starched and rigid Paradise, asked if she might go to hell on Saturday afternoons to play.—World's Crisis.

EVENING FASHIONS.—Emily—"Shall you dress much to-night, dear?" Lillian—"No, as little as possible—I am going to a ball!"

We never know a more striking exemplification of the old maxim that "one extreme begets another" than in the case of Henry Clay and his son Jim.—Louisville Jour.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CHRONIC DIARRHŒA.—In nothing is the tonic power of the PERUVIAN SYRUP more strikingly shown, than in the prevention and cure of Chronic Diarrhœa. The tone of the diseased mucous membrane seems to be restored, its irritability disappears, the digestion and absorption of nutriment are duly performed, the discharges become natural, and health is soon re-established.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he ever saw."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale by grocers at seventy five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

No. 36 Cyrus Fellows Plff. in review vs. Sorah Fellows, is now on trial. The action is real for the recovery of "five undivided seventh parts of a certain tract of land with appurtenances, situated in Kensington." The damages alleged are $1000. The plea is the general issue. This case was tried April Term, 1857, and a verdict rendered for the defendant. At the following term of the Supreme Court, the verdict was set aside upon a bill of exceptions and a new trial granted. As before stated, this case will probably occupy the jury most of the week.

Probate Court, Nov. Term, 1858. Before Hon. Wm. W. Stickney.—In the case Edward T. Huntress and ux. Nathaniel B. March, administrator of the Drisco estate, an appeal has been taken, and the matter now goes before the Supreme Court.

☞ Considerable indignation was created in the Girls' High School, last week, by the discovery of a number of anonymous letters of a scandalous character, addressed to different pupils. On Saturday last, circumstances seemed to implicated one of of the scholars, and the matter has been under investigation of the committee, but has not yet been decided.

☞ Steamer Fulton City, from St. Louis for Pittsburg, was lost on the Ohio river last Thursday. Twelve deck passengers were lost.

☞ On Monday Peter McGeon and Mrs. Elizabeth Sloan, both Irish, were committed to prison, charged with the murder of Mrs. Mary McGeon, wife of Peter. The culprits were of the lowest order of Irish, as to sobriety and chastity.

The Bangor Whig labors through a mortal column to show that the Douglas democrats wish to carry out the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska act, and will stand by the repeal of the Missouri restrictive line. He might have told all that—and no one surely would dispute him—in three lines. Douglasish and republicanism do not run in the same channel. In Illinois the republicans and Lecomptonites seem to have had a good understanding, for they united to opposed Douglas.

The Bangor Whig is laboring to show how well Douglas agrees with the "slave democracy." Ten months ago it was laboring with equal zeal, to show how much he differed from southern radicalism. Douglas has not changed a peg—has the Whig?—Bath Times.

In the next Congress the House will probably be Republican by two or three majority over all, though some counted as Republicans—originally democrats and elected by Democratic votes—will not be very reliable for purposes of a strictly party nature. As there is quite a number of Americans, the Democrats will be powerless. This will give to the Republicans the election of officers, and probably Tom Corwin for Speaker,—and a large amount of patronage; while the Americans and anti-Lecompton Democrats, holding a balance of power between the two great parties, will secure conservative action.

The Senate will stand, 35 Democrats, 24 Republicans, 2 Americans, and 2—Douglas and Broderick—anti-Lecompton Democrats. As soon as Oregon is formally admitted, the Democrats will have two more.

Should the election of President go to the next Congress the democrats would carry, if the Douglas men of Illinois should support their candidate, but it is possible that new members may be added to the confederacy before 1860.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ We believe that a lifetime in prison would have been very proper in the case of young Rodgers, who was hung in New York on Friday, for killing Mr. Swanson. But the governor and judge thought otherwise. The Newburyport Herald says:

We believe the time will come when New York will be ashamed of this boy hanging. We had such a hanging of a lad about the age of Rodgers, in Essex county, some years ago—a lad, that like Rodgers, had been led astray by early dissipation; but from that day there has been a universal regret that justice could not have been more softened with mercy. The rowdyism of New York, or in any other place should be stopped; but it cannot be necessary to that end, that boys should be hanged. Rodgers owed good behaviour to society, and society owes something to such boys. It owes them life, if God sees fit to give it, till they reach mature years at least; it owes them a moral and intellectual training, which many of them never receive; it owes them proper protection against the haunts of vice and dissipation that are now left open; against brothels that stand at the corners of all the streets of New York, and the thousands of grog shops that swing open their doors and invite the young to ruin. When society so signally fails to do its duty, as it does in New York, it certainly should find something better to do with its erring children than hanging them by the neck to strangle them to death.

ELECTION DAY IN NEW YORK.—Alderman Reel of the Twentieth Ward, New York, while attempting to quell a disturbance on election day, was knocked down, and when the offending person was brought before the Justice to answer, the Alderman stated as a fact that it has been the universal practice in the 20th ward for a gang of lawless rowdies to upset every election booth. "The lives of the citizens," he said, "are endangered, and the time has come when, if the courts do not take cognizance of the outrages, we shall require a police force of a hundred men to protect an voting. I was not only assaulted in this district, but in the evening I saw a gang of rowdies cutting up and burning a wagon, and when I interfered and arrested the leader, and started for the station-house, I was pummelled in the back and head, and came near getting my brains knocked out. It was only by cutting my way with a broadaxe that I succeeded in getting my prisoner away."

LORENZO DOW on one occasion while preaching denounced a rich man recently deceased. The result was an arrest, trial for slander, and imprisonment in jail.—After Lorenzo got out, he announced that he should preach a sermon about "another rich man." A crowded house greeted his appearance. With great solemnity he opened the Bible and read—"And there was another rich man who died and went to ——;" then stopped short, and seemed to be suddenly impressed. He continued, "Brethren, I shall not mention the place which this man went to, for fear he has relatives in the congregation, who will sue me for defamation of character." The effect was irresistible.

Retributive justice is about to overtake the directors of the Western Bank of Scotland, and the whole force of the law will be invoked against them. Eminent Scotch and English practitioners have been employed for this purpose by the liquidators, and we see it stated that, "besides the magnitude of the interests involved, there will be many new and important questions raised in the course of the litigation, and all minor actions connected in any way with the management of the bank, will it is thought, be comprehended in the general action." The ruin which the directors have entailed upon so many innocent people, by their reckless and unprincipled proceedings, leaves them no sympathy in the minds of the public.

☞ In Essex Co. Mass., the law term of the Supreme Court adjourned on Saturday last.

Exceptions were overruled in every liquor case that came before the Court.—The defendants will take sentence at the next January term of the Court of Common Pleas.

☞ On Saturday, Sunday and Monday snow fell, in larger or smaller quantities, over the whole country, from Montreal to Baltimore. At Oswego, N. Y., there was good sleighing, on half a foot of snow.

Speech of Hon. Daniel Marcy,

Accepting the nomination for Congress,

In the Congressional Convention, at Dover, Nov. 2d, 1858.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention:

Your Committee inform me that I have been unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress in this Congressional District, and that it is your wish that I express my acceptance of the high honor you have conferred upon me. Were I conscious that this nomination had been secured by any species of unfair means on my own part, or on that of my friends, I should repudiate your action, and decline the position which you tender me. But such is not the fact. I am not placed here by my own exertion; no man can say that I ever asked him either for his vote or his influence in procuring for myself this high expression of your confidence and good will. I do, therefore, accept the nomination, and whatever may be the result of the coming election, I shall at least have the satisfaction of knowing that your own free and unsolicited choice has designated your candidate.

I am not a public speaker by tradeor profession, and shall not dany embarrassments which it would be impossible for me to conceal upon this occasion; yet, with your indulgence, I will state to you my views upon some of the important political questions of the day, and declare to you what would be my course with reference to these matters should I be placed in a position to act upon them. But in the first place, allow me to say that I consider my nomination an act of unmerited generosity on your part. I am aware that there are many, very many other men in this District, of more political experience, of more extended influence, and possessed in a far greater degree of those qualities which entitle individuals to political distinction, men who walked the quarter deck while I was but a common sailor aboard the political ship; but these more gallant and abler men have given way for me, and I trust for their sake and for that of the party to which we belong, that I may not wholly fail to meet your reasonable expectations. If we fail in the political contest before us, I shall rest assured that we fail because of the union and strength of our opponents, and not because of dissensions and disagreements in our own party; if we succeed, I pledge myself to devote my best energies to procuring such legislation as shall be for the interests of my constituents.

The first Congressional District of New Hampshire contains a population largely interested in the three great branches of industry: Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures. The Agricultural interest predominates, whether we estimate the capital employed, the number of persons engaged, or the natural importance of that noble pursuit to the prosperity and well-being of society. But the farmer rarely asks to be made the object of special legislation, he never besieges the Halls of Legislation with complaints and cries for help. Neither panics nor the spirit of speculation, often materially effect his prosperity. He pursues the even tenor of his way amid financial storms that send to the bottom the shattered hulks of many a tradesman, and manufacturer. But yet, in a certain degree the prosperity of the farmer depends upon the prosperity of his neighbors,—the mechanic, the merchant, and the sailor. If these are crushed or depressed, though the earth will still yield her increase, and poverty and starvation cannot reach the tiller of the soil, yet the profits of his labor are diminished, his market for surplus products is lost, and those luxuries with which he surrounds himself in seasons of general prosperity are necessarily abandoned.—Thus it is that the interests of all classes of workingmen are interwoven, and are mutually dependent upon each other.

In this connection, allow me to say a few words upon the subject of a tariff. In times past it was one of the stereotyped charges against the Democratic party, that it was opposed to the encouragement of Home Manufactures, and in favor of reducing the value of American down to the then low rates of foreign labor. This stale charge has been recently revived, and in some quarters, our opponents, (a considerable portion of them all the time pretending to be Democrats in everything except on the subject of slavery,) are raising this cry of "protection for American industry," and seeking to fight over again the old battles upon the issues which have been fought years ago and uniformly decided in favor of the Democratic party. But I believe our opponents can make but little out of that matter. If I understand rightly the creed of the Democratic party, we stand where we always stood with reference to this question—in favor of a Revenue Tariff, discriminating, so far as it can be done without injury to the commercial and agricultural interests of the country, in favor of those articles of American growth or manufacture likely to be effected by foreign competition. I am in favor of such a modification and adjustment of the present tariff as shall afford an increased revenue, and consequently an increased protection upon those articles of home growth and domestic manufacture as may need such encouragement and protection. The expansion of our territory, the increase of our population, increases and will continue to increase the expenses of this government; and in all probability to balance the National expenses a speedy modification of the present tariff will become necessary or the revenue will continue to be insufficient.

A project has been introduced and is now pending before Congress, to repeal the fishing bounties. In this matter the people of this District are to some extent interested. The fisheries of New England are one of the elements of her prosperity. I am opposed to lessening the already meagre compensation which our hardy fishermen now derive from this perilous pursuit. Notwithstanding the ridicule which some island politicians have sought to cast upon the purposes for which the bounties were originally granted, my experience assures me gaat the fisheries are valuable "nurseries of seathen." It was from that source that we drew the mllant tars who manned the old ship Constitution, when she won such glorious conquests in the last war, and short as is the coast New Hampshire presents to the ocean, there are fishermen enough on her seaboard, from New Castle to Seabrook, to man "Old Ironsides" again. In view of these facts, I believe the fishing bounties should be continued, and if elected, my vote would be against their repeal; and I should also oppose the project of so modifying the navigation laws as to admit foreign vessels into our ports with the same privileges as our own. I regard both of these schemes, as conceived in a spirit of sectionalism, as retaliatory on the part of one section for the continued insults and threatened aggressions of the other, and I believe the best means of averting the effects of that retaliation is to remove the causes by which it is actuated, and, to a certain extent, excused.

The subject of Kansas, though greatly depreciated of late as a matter of political importance, deserves, perhaps, a passing notice. Questions with regard to the propriety or impropriety of admitting her with the Topeka, Lecompton, or any other Constitution, which she may have legally or illegally adopted, are dead, and no longer afford a pretence for political discussion or difference. They are good for nothing now and should be used for no other purpose. But with reference to her future application for admission, my position is, that whenever she desires it, and presents a Constitution "republican in form," embodying the will of the people, she should be admitted, regardless of the amount of her population. But hereafter, no State should be admitted unless it possesses a population equal to the ratio required for a Representative. Justice to other States requires that some limitation be affixed to the introduction of new members of the Union, with equal political power in the higher branch of Congress. But for reasons that are too obvious to require specification, that rule should not be applied to Kansas nor to Oregon.

The most terrific assaults have been, and are now made upon the Democratic party because of its position on the slavery question. We are charged with being a pro-slavery party, a charge as false as it is familiar. The Democratic party is not a pro-slavery party, never has been, and never will be! It is a Constitution-abiding and a Union-preserving party. It desires only that the constitutional rights of all sections of the country shall be preserved inviolate. It has never gone one step beyond this. When it becomes a pro-slavery party, when its National platform claims for one section of the country, or one set of citizens, rights not guaranteed by the Constitution of the country, then it would become a sectional party, and deserve the opposition of all National, Union-loving men. I am not a pro-slavery man, nor would I be a pro-slavery candidate. As to the question of free white labor, or negro slave labor in my own State, or where I have the legal right to influence or determine the question, there is no pro-slavery blood in my veins; all my sympathies, all my associations, all my prejudices, are on the side of free labor.—And I doubt not these are the sentiments of every Democrat in this Convention. Then why should our opponents slander us with the charge of being pro-slavery? Their leaders, all the intelligent portion of their party know it is false; but for the miserable party advantage which it affords, they will still cry pro-slavery! pro-slavery! till the people refuse to be longer deceived by their croakings.

And now, Gentlemen of the Convention, having detained you longer than I contemplated, I will conclude. I have thought it fit and proper to express my sentiments unreservedly upon such topics as occur to me. You have made me your candidate knowing that I am but a laboring man, whose life has been thus far spent in hard, manual toil upon the sea, and upon the land. That which has been given me to do, I have endeavored to do well. If the citizens of this District desire me to represent them in the next Congress, I trust in that capacity still to be actuated by a desire to do my whole duty.

Gentlemen, I ain thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me, and trust that you will each of you labor earnestly and unitedly for the triumph of the principles dear to the heart of every Democrat.

From the N. H. Gazette.

☞ The Independent Democrat reviewing the proceedings of the Congressional Convention in this District, says:

"The platform adopted by the convention it will be seen, is anti-Douglas up to the hub. In this, it exactly represents the position of Marcy. No man in the State hates 'the little giant' of Illinois more cordially or is more violent in denouncing him as a 'traitor.'"

Now there are only four lies in that paragraph, only four lies in six lines. Fogg is losing his reputation as the smartest black republican editor in the State; he has heretofore generally succeeded in getting in as many lies as lines, but here are two lines wasted. Fogg, you must economize your space and crowd in the falsehoods.

The platform is not "anti-Douglas." General approval of the Administration is no condemnation of Douglas. Marcy's position is not, nor ever has been "anti-Douglas." He does not "hate the little giant." No man ever heard him denounce Douglas as a "traitor." Go try again, Fogg.

A FACT.—This fact, says the Cincinnati Enquirer, should be borne in mind. Slavery has no foothold in any of the organized territories of the United States:

Kansas is free.
Nebraska is free.
Utah is free.
Oregon is free.
Washington is free.
Dakotah is free.
New Mexico is free.

The above comprise all our organized territories. There is no intelligent man North or South who believes that a slave State will be made out of any of those territories, or out of any unorganized territory not embraced within the limits of the State of Texas. The Democracy have had possession of the government nearly all the time since 1800, and if their policy leads to the extension of slavery into free territory, why is it that to-day all the latter are free, and that nobody expects to see slavery established as an institution in any of them? The story about slavery extension is all bosh and gammon! The government at Washington has no power to extend or contract it. The whole subject is left to the people of the States and territories themselves, and they will do as they please, without caring for the sentiments of the outsiders.

☞ Dr. Preston, Apothecary, No. 2 Congress Block, sends us a bottle of a new preparation of his entitled "Concentrated Essence of Jamaica Ginger, for Cramp, Pain, and Wind in the Stomach," accompanied by a message to the effect that as we may be suffering somewhat in consequence of the recent election returns, this article of his may be found a useful remedy. Thank you, Doctor, we don't need it, the result in the Sucker State is a panacea that at once removed all the cramp, pain, &c., in our political stomach. We feel quite comfortable.

MORE GAINS.—A day or two since we had the pleasure of recording the gain of two members of Congress in Michigan; now we have the gratification to announce that the Democracy of Wisconsin have elected Chas. H. Larabee, in place of Billinghurt, the present "Republican" member. Make room for both Michigan and Wisconsin in 1860.—We will likely gain half a dozen more members when the remaining elections are held.—New York News.

DEMOCRATIC REJOICING OVER THE ILLINOIS ELECTION.—We learn by Telegraphic reports that the Democrats in nearly all the principle cities in New England have testified their joy at the triumph of Senator Douglas, by firing salutes, illuminations, &c. The Democrats of Portsmouth have not given that sort of expression to their feelings, not because they have less enthusiasm at the triumph of Popular Sovereignty and Democratic principles, but because they do not wish to jar the the sensibilities of our Black Republican neighbors, who feel already sufficiently cross to bite off ten penny nails, if their teeth were as strong as their souls are bitter.

☞ The Buffalo Republic accounts for the defeat of the Democratic ticket in Erie county, on the ground that its advice to all voters was only followed by the opposition. The advice was to "vote often, early and frequently."

Ever worn by Kings or Emperors.

What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

BECAUSE it is the earnest desire of every dead for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearl, the breath be sweet as the zephyr, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, hard and dry, or worse still, it sprinkled with gray, nature will be deprived of half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following, and judge, the writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.

DR WOOD:—Dear Sir,—Permit me to express to you how obliged I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but on the application of your 'Hair Restorative,' it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Dryck a'r Gwyliedydd."

Welsh Newspaper Off., 13 Nassau st., Apr 12, '53.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir—Some month or six months ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but so it has, as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KNIP.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 1, 1857.
PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray: I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up grow out and turned back to its original color (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health, and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to all. J. D. HORS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: the small one, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large bottle a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protector against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and decay attending Tins and Sheet iron, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and as about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything that has heretofore been made, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

THE DOWNING CASE, ONCE MORE.

From the day of the verdict and sentence in this case, almost to the present time, we have been flooded with communications on the subject—and no two of them from the same hand. As our readers are well aware, we have given both sides a full and fair hearing—and the public, as well as the court, have settled the matter ere this—we hope forever. We had hoped the discussion was finished, and the matter at rest—but have deemed it best to grant the request to copy into our columns the following article from the Exeter Newsletter of Nov. 1st, partly to show that the Chronicle has not been the only paper which has had a word to say in regard to this singular case, and its no less singular termination, or progress thus far.

From the Exeter News Letter.

Dear Editor:—An honorable and very sapient Judge decided lately in our Superior Court that a whole human life was not worth nearly so much as an old coat. * * * Was there ever such a sentence pronounced by any man in his senses, as that which lately disgraced our court in New Hampshire? For the crime of manslaughter, a man sentenced to one year's confinement in the State Prison! For killing an innocent woman, a good wife, and a faithful, devoted mother—twelve months board and lodging at Concord—hardly long enough for the novelty to make it otherwise than agreeable! Why, the life of a good horse or sheep is worth more than this in the majestic eye of the law, and if Nelson N. Downing had shot either of these domestic animals in Spinney's establishment, he would have been more guilty in the eye of the learned Judge and the New Hampshire court, than he was for shooting his wife.

There was no alleviating circumstance attending this murder—one of the coldest-blooded, and most atrocious crimes on record. The assassin pursued his victim with the relentlessness of death itself—and in his foul determination to revenge himself on one victim, he seems to have had no scruples in risking the life of two human beings—one, so far as any testimony shows, guiltless of any crime but being the protector and friend of her husband! What is the object of punishment? Is the fear of it to operate as a preventive of crime, or is it to be a mere farce, like that played by over-indulgent mothers who put naughty boys into solitary confinement for the space of five minutes, just long enough to give them leisure to concoct some other little plan of mischief. What security for human life have we, if that large class of men and women who are deterred from crime by no moral restraints, are as soon as they commit some foul deed to become objects of the tenderest sympathy to fashionable women and honorable men—if the most learned and eloquent counsellors will condescend to plead for them as they would for the innocent and good, and if the Bench will so far forget its high office, as to show such a degree of mercy to the prisoner, as is cruelty to the public on which he is again soon to be turned loose.

What a thrilling scene that must have been in the Court room at Portsmouth!—Those weeping, tender-hearted ladies, crowding round that miserably guilty prisoner, his hands so lately red with the blood of an innocent woman, condoling with him, and sustaining him—that group of learned lawyers chuckling over their success in making guilt more attractive than purity—and that lofty bench so far forgetting its high vocation, as to fix the penalty for the crime of murder lower than the theft of a few dollars. Their advertisement should run thus:—three years confinement for stealing an overcoat—one year for killing a woman—for such is the glorious absurdity of New Hampshire law, as shown by the decisions at its last court.

Have these sentimental men and maidens ever visited and seen the home made desolate by the interesting object of their attentions and sympathy? Have they heard the shrieks of those children whom he made motherless? Do they know that one child could not, at the last accounts we hear of her, be induced to pass over the threshold of her home because she there saw her mother shot down and full a bleeding corpse? Have they considered what the crime of murder involves in all cases, and what aggravating circumstances attended this one in particular? What security have this family against further manifestations of the same spirit of revenge, in this prisoner of one year? and what security from the law have any of us to expect, when crime makes a hero instead of a villain of a man—and when a weak sympathy takes the place of a wholesome, rational justice? True mercy is not manifested by any such rose-water puerilities—but it grasps principles and asks how far mercy to the guilty is consistent with justice to the community. ☞

BETROTHALE.—There was in last Friday's Gazette an advertisement, the like of which has rarely, if ever, appeared in an English paper. We refer to the advertisement of a "Betrothal," which would take place at the house of the lady's father, where the "high contracting parties" would be happy to see their friends. The custom is almost unknown in America, where engagements are generally short and marriages occur before "Pa and Ma," know that the tender passion exists and is reciprocated. But in Europe, and in Germany particularly, the Betrothal is as much an institution as the Bridal is here. When the various difficulties that beset lovers there, of birth, of station, of means and prospects, are duly surmounted, and the parties are ready to plight their faith, the day for the Betrothal is set, and friends are notified of the fact through the columns of a newspaper, generally. When the company is assembled, an appropriate ceremony of plighting their troth is performed, and then an entertainment is given, in which the comestables and potables are usually more abundant and more substantial than at our weddings. Thenceforth, till their nuptials, the lady and gentleman are emancipated somewhat from the restraint imposed on social life.

A traveller, describing the custom, speaks with much fervor of the deference which is everywhere paid to the betrothed. Here an engagement is considered as a matter which it is not untruthful to deny, and the engaged persons are subjected to raillery—as if to marry were foolish, and to promise to do so a theme for mirth. The traveller referred to found that there was shown to the betrothed a general forbearance and delicacy of consideration, which rendered it possible for the lady and gentleman to exchange and indulge in those little attentions to each other which are the life of what we call courtship, which would be possible and natural in the society of Shakspeare's heroes and heroines, but in our own American society, would be regarded as indicating a foolish head and a very soft heart.

For many reasons, we should like to see the German Betrothal become an institution among us. Who knows but that it may be transplanted to the Western world, and ladies seize the morning papers to find who is betrothed, with as much eagerness as they now do to read the list of marriages and deaths.—Cincinnati Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1858.

SEWARDISM.

No man in the country has been better abused than Senator Seward. He said, not many years ago, that he believed the Fugitive Slave Bill to be unconstitutional,—but, he added, "there is a higher law" than our Constitution, meaning the law of God. For this true and devout saying, he has been yelped at by curs, as numerous as they are scurvy,—and thousands of moulin babblers have cursed the higher law without the slightest idea of what was meant by it.

Mr. Seward has lately delivered two speeches, in which he declares that he believes that what has been done in a wrong direction may be done in a right direction. That if the action and policy of the General Government, under pro-slavery influences, can extend and strengthen that power, the General Government when under anti-slavery influences can extend and strengthen the dominion and power of free institutions, and this is precisely what he means when he speaks of the "irrepressible conflict" between the opposing forces of free labor and slave labor; and he believes that in the end freedom will triumph, but he advises no unconstitutional measures by which to effect this great result; for he says expressly:

"I do not expect that it will be made so, otherwise than through the action of the several States; co-operating with the Federal Government, and all acting in strict conformity with their Constitutions. Is there any treason in this? If so, as Patrick Henry said in the Virginia House of Burgesses, 'make the most of it.'"

There are some men who never look below the surface of things, who cry peace, when there is no peace, who affect to believe, and do believe, that all this anti-slavery and pro-slavery feeling is caused by a few politicians and fanatics—that it is an ephemeral matter, and will soon die out. Mr. Seward believes that the conflict is a legitimate one—that it is caused by the inherent antagonism of distinct and opposite systems, and so it is; and that it will go on, until the right prevails and the wrong is annihilated. He does not believe discussion or constitutional action will endanger the peace and safety of the Union, any more than the discussion of other moral and political questions will produce such a result. The fact is, that the Southern policy now so long supreme in the councils of the nation, is as much at variance with Mr. Seward's ideas of protection to American labor, as it is with his ideas in regard to slavery.

THE VOTE IN NEW YORK. — The total vote for Governor—official—is distributed thus:

Morgan, Rep.	247,828
Parker, Dem.	230,341
Burrows, Am.	50,973
Gerrit Smith, Ab.	5,033
Morgan over Parker,	17,487.

All the candidates except Mr. Morgan on the Republican State ticket have fully 20,000 majority—Gerrit Smith having taken votes from Morgan which were cast for all the other Republican candidates.

The aggregate vote is unexpectedly large—544,780. Last year it was but 439,789. Increase, 104,091, or nearly 20 per cent. Very naturally, the Republican minority of 18,957 last year is converted into a Republican plurality of nearly equal amount this year.

GREAT LOSS OF PROPERTY.—It appears that on the 30th ult., ten slaves made their escape from the vicinity of Prunytown, Va. They were, however, overtaken in Fayette County, Pa., where a desperate fight took place, and the owners and others pursuing were beaten back—Col. Armstrong, of the pursuing party, was attacked by one of the negroes with a corn-cleaver, and would have been killed but for the interference of one of his own servants, who stepped in to protect his master. Another of the party pursuing was fiercely attacked and badly injured while the negroes made their escape. A party of about twenty-five persons subsequently started in pursuit, but whether the runaways have been taken or not we are not informed. Thirty thousand dollars gone at the least calculation!

☞ Letter boxes have been placed in some of the Philadelphia passenger railway cars, and on the latter reaching their terminus, near the Exchange, the contents of the boxes are deposited by the conductor in the Post Office. It is found to be so great a convenience to suburbans that all the numerous cars will probably be supplied in the same way.

☞ Senator Hammond, of South Carolina, has recently made a speech, setting forth the policy of his eminently Democratic State, in which an oligarchy of the worst form reigns supreme.

Senator H. shows that the South, even when divided, has made and unmade tariff, bank and internal improvement systems, according as the majority wished—what then can she not now do, when she is a unit?

All that is requisite, in Senator Hammond's view, to the continued ascendancy of the South—for he says, "we now have a President and his Cabinet; a majority in both Houses of Congress; a Supreme Court of the United States; and still hosts of allies in the free States"—is to cultivate the old [of those faithful allies in the free States. This done, all opposition will die out, by the giving up of all such topics as the opening of the slave trade, and the annexation of more slave territory.

The whole sum and substance of his speech is this:

We of the South now control the country; let us wield the power judiciously; but wield it we must, or break up the Union! His whole argument is an outgrowth from that sentiment, and shows its origin in every part. He confesses that for many years he openly advocated the dissolution of the Union. Why does he not do so still? Because, he says, he believes that we (the South) can fully sustain ourselves in the Union and control its action in all great affairs." If this latter contingency fails, his remedy is apparent; for he says: "The dissolution of the Union is an alternative that we always have at command, and for which we should be ever ready." He may well inculcate such practical precepts, when he avows that "the Union of these States is but a policy and not a principle;" but "the union of the slaveholders of the South is a principle involving all our rights and all our interests."

Hence, Mr. Hammond regards our Federal Union as only a "policy" subservient to the continued supremacy of the South. He says that they now have complete control of all departments of the government, and of course it would be folly to engender any agitations likely to weaken their power. That was their mistake—a mere mistake—in regard to Kansas. He trusts they will be wiser henceforth. They must make more of their "faithful allies in the free States." But even on this point he makes the astounding declaration: "But if she (the South) determines, and whenever she determines, to throw off her Northern friends and dissolve this Union, I need scarcely say that I shall, without hesitation, go with her fully and faithfully."

The Northern friends of the Southern Democracy will take note of the character and tenure of the service to which they are invited.

YORK AND CUMBERLAND RAILROAD.—This road, which was designed to make a second line of railroad between Boston and Portland, has been in statu quo for some time, but it is now to be completed, as we learn from the Portland Advertiser. Eighteen miles are now operated between Portland and the Saco river, and the assurances are that the remainder, extending to Great Falls will be finished without delay. John Hosie, Esq., of Pennsylvania and associates have taken the contract to build the Road from its present terminus to Great Falls—a distance of 34 or 35 miles—and put the same in running order, for the sum of thirty thousand dollars per mile—the payments to be, one-half in the Stock of the Company, and the remainder in Bonds secured by a mortgage of the Stock.

THE DEATH OF A KANSAS PRO-SLAVERY MAN. — The Lawrence correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette speaks of the death of a pro-slavery man in the following terms:

"The notorious border-ruffian, Rev. Martin White, the murderer of Frederick Brown, in the summer of 1856, was found dead near his residence, in Western Missouri, a few weeks since. He was killed by some person or persons, unknown.—The avenger of poor Brown, has been on his track for some time, waiting for a favorable opportunity to punish him in a summary manner, and at last succeeded. White was a member of the Territorial Legislature in 1857, and during the session he made a speech, in which he publicly boasted, and "blanked God, as a minister, that he killed the Abolitionist Brown." He was from Illinois, formerly; emigrated to Kansas and joined the pro-slavery party. In 1856, Douglas sent for him to go and stump Illinois for Mr. Buchanan, which he did."

The above item puts Uncle Toby in mind of that fearful declaration, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed, for in the image of God made he man."

☞ The news from England, per steamer Vanderbilt, is to Nov. 4. Breadstuffs dull and nominal with a down look; cotton declined 1-8 d.

Steamship Hudson, of the Bremen and New York line, was burnt at Bremerhaven night of 2d inst. She was to have sailed on the Saturday following, and doubtless had a large part of her cargo on board.—There was insurance of £70,000 at Lloyd's on the vessel.

A new submarine Cable has been laid between England (at Aldborough) and Holland.

The Bank of Vienna has resumed specie payment.

A new Ministry has been appointed in Prussia. Prince Hohenzollen, Minister of War; M. Schleinitz, Foreign Affairs.

The crew of the French brig Anna, which was shipping free laborers on the coast of Africa, were massacred by the negroes taken on board.

Great excitment exists at Bradford, Yorkshire County, Eng., in consequence of the wholesale poisoning of inhabitants from lozenges in which arsenic had been mixed by mistake, instead of Plaster Paris. 15 deaths have occurred already, and 60 or 70 are seriously ill.

AUSTRALIA.—Advices to Sept. 15.—Two ships left Sydney for England with 138,000 ounces of gold.

Very rich gold fields had been discovered north of Sydney.

The New South Wales Assembly have granted £50,000 per annum for ten years, toward mail service via Panama. Trade was dull.

☞ A jury of inquest in Boston, in the case of Anna Stewart, burned to death in Cornhill Court last week, have returned the following verdict!

"That the deceased came to her death at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Nov. 11, 1858, at 12 1-2 o'clock, P. M., from extensive burns received at the room of Henry Randolph, No. 4 Cornhill Court, Boston, about 3 A. M. same day—at which time her clothes were maliciously set on fire by Thomas H. Mitchell.

Mitchell is to be arraigned in the Police Court,—for the murder. He is a mulatto barber; he threw camphene or fluid on the girl, and then set fire to her clothes.—His neck is in some danger.

☞ The Irish papers contain an account of the gigantic harvest home on the estate of Mr. Pollock in the county of Galway. About 1400 persons, (only one-half of his servants,) were liberally entertained in the Home Farm Steading, at Lismay. The roof covers nearly two acres of land, and the building was lighted with gas. The extent of this gentleman's operations may be judged by the fact that he has 1800 acres in green crops, and 4000 in grain, with about 4000 head of cattle.

ROBBERY BY PRETENDED POLICEMEN.—Two men, named John P. McClinchy and James Pate, have been arrested for robbing Geo. F. Brown, of Paris, Me., at Portland. They pretended to be policemen, and rapped Mr. Brown on the shoulder, saying that he was their prisoner for passing counterfeit money. Mr. Brown produced his wallet containing fifty dollars in gold, with which the bogus officers decamped.
